NEW WORKS AND NEW EDITIONS.

(Agents to the University.)

2 Vols. 8vo., price 21s.

TITI LUCRETII CARI DE RERUM NATURA LIBRI SEX. With a Translation and Notes. By H. A. J. MUNRO, M.A., Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge.

"We do not know where to look for an English edition of any classical author which can be at all compared with it for its admirable combination of varied learning, philosophical power, fine scholarship, taste, and good sense. And with all this, there is so hearty an appreciation of the merits of others, such honest hate of slovenliness and unfairness, so simple and modest an assertion of opinions, that it may well be taken as a model by editors, whether English or foreign."—The Reader, Dec. 31.

"A new edition of 'Lucretius', with a literal translation and a whole volume of notes, will supersede all its English predecessors, and proves that scholarship is not so dead among us as it is sometimes asserted......His book is that of a learned and industrious scholar, and his short introduction bears ample testimony to the zeal and patience with which he has collated manuscripts, compared and examined the works of past and present critics and commentators, and spared no pains to make his work as trustworthy and complete as possible."—Westminster Review.

"Every part of his work affords ample proof that he has shunned no exertion to render himself thoroughly qualified for the successful performance of this useful task; and he has accomplished it in such a manner as to reflect honour upon English scholarship. He has produced a work which may take rank with the best German editions of ancient authors, and will long serve as a standard authority."—The Athenæum, Jan. 7.

PLATO'S GORGIAS, Literally Translated, with an Introductory Essay, containing a Summary of the Argument. By E. M. COPE, Fellow of Trinity College.

"The peculiarities and niceties of Plato have received from him special attention, while his simplicity and breadth, if we might so speak, have been caught up so faithfully that the translation often reads like an original bit of good sound English, such as John Bunyan might have written."—Reader.

ÆSCHYLUS. Translated into English Prose. By F. A. PALEY, M.A. Editor of the Greek Text.

"His translation is all that could be desired for accurate rendering of the original and genuine purity of English."—Athenæum.

New Edition, small 8vo., price 6s.

THE ORATION of DEMOSTHENES against the LAW of LEPTINES. With English Notes and a Translation of Wolf's Prolegomena. Edited by the Rev. B. W. BEATSON, M A., Fellow of Pembroke College, Cambridge.

FOLIORUM CENTURIÆ. Being Select Passages for Translation into Latin and Greek Prose. Edited by H. A. HOLDEN, LL.D.

8vo., price 13s.

WIESELER'S CHRONOLOGICAL SYNOPSIS of the FOUR GOSPELS. Translated by the Rev. E. VENABLES, M.A., Examining Chaplain to the Bishop of Lincoln.

"Minute investigation, careful deduction, and a scientific use of the means at command, everywhere distinguish the whole treatise; and it will, no doubt, produce a marked effect on English Theology."—Clerical Journal.

"This opportunity may probably be taken of especially recommending to every thoughtful student this able treatise on the succession of events in the Gospel History . . . . a translation of it would be a very welcome aid to the general reader."—Bishop Ellicott (Lectures on the Life of our Lord).

8vo., price 9s.

THE APOSTLE PAUL AND THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH OF PHILIPPI. An Exposition Critical and Practical of the Sixteenth Chapter of the Acts of the Apostles and of the Epistles to the Philippians. By the late Rev. J. F. TODD, M.A., Trinity College, Cambridge.

"This volume presents an excellent study for a clergyman, not only from the actual thoughts presented, but also as a specimen of what may be done by us in the extensive field of Biblical exposition."—Clerical Journal.

1 Vol., small 4to., price 26s.

BEZAE CODEX CANTABRIGIENSIS: Being an exact Copy, in ordinary type, of the Celebrated Uncial Graeco-Latin Manuscript of the Four Gospels and Acts of the Apostles, written early in the sixth century, and presented to the University of Cambridge by Theodore Beza, A.D. 1581. Edited with a Critical Introduction, Annotations, and Facsimiles by FRED. H. SCRIVENER, M.A., Rector of St. Gerran's, Cornwall.

THIRD AND CHEAPER EDITION, Revised and Enlarged, small 8vo., price 4s. 6d.

8vo., price 6s.

KAYE UNIVERSITY PRIZE.

AN ESSAY on the AUTHENTICITY of the BOOK of DANIEL. By the Rev. J. M. FULLER, M.A., Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge.

"Mr. Fuller deserves the prize which has been awarded to him, and the thanks of all who are interested in a subject which ought to interest us all."—Journal of Sacred Literature.

"The essay of Mr. Fuller is a remarkably clear and concise summary of results deducible from the vast learning and labour expended on the subject."—Guardian.

Small, 8vo., price 6s. 6d.

NATURE AND GRACE. Sermons preached in the Chapel Royal, Whitehall, in the year 1862-3-4. By WILLIAM MAGAN CAMPION, B.D., Fellow and Tutor of Queens' College, Cambridge. Rector of St. Botolph's Cambridge; and one of her Majesty's Preachers at Whitehall.

"It is not often that we are called upon to notice a volume of sermons at once so sound and comprehensive, so orthodox and so judicious, as the present work. We hope that we may soon meet Mr. Campion in the same field of thought."—Clerical Journal.

Fourth Edition, 1 vol., 8vo., price 15s.

THE ELEMENTS of MORALITY including POLITY. By W. WHEWELL, D.D., Master of Trinity College.

New Edition, uniform with the Aldine, price 5s.

BUTLER'S THREE SERMONS ON HUMAN NATURE AND DISSERTATION ON VIRTUE. Edited by W. WHEWELL, D.D.

[Deighton, Bell, and Co ,

Fcp. 8vo., price 6s.

SEATONIAN POEMS. By the Rev. J. M. NEALE, M.A., late Scholar of Trinity College.

"We might go on to quote, with equal success, from the rest of this volume, but our space forbids. It is a string of beautiful pearls which chance has strung, and a spirit of true poesy provided. Once begin to read and it is almost impossible to stop before one gets to the end of the poem, nay, of the whole book of poems."—Literary Churchman.

8vo., price 9s.

The CUSTOMS and TRADITIONS of PALESTINE COMPARED with the BIBLE; from Observations made during a Residence of Eight Years. By Dr. ERMETE PIEROTTI, Author of "Jerusalem Explored."

Small 8vo., price 6s.

FURIOSO; or Passages from the Life of Ludwig von BEETHOVEN. From the German.

"This is a most valuable contribution to our knowledge of the great musician, furnishing details of his boyhood which was very superficially treated by Spindler. The book is rich too in pictures of the olden time, gives us pleasant glimpses of bygone manners, and furnishes an interesting account of Beethoven's introduction to the Emperor Joseph II. and Haydn. It is a book which must interest all who admire the genius of Ludwig von Beethoven."—Notes and Queries.

Price 2s. 6d.

THE ILIAD OF HOMER. Book V., the Prowess of Diomed. Book VI., the Parting of Hector and Andromache. Translated by WILLIAM SELWYN, Canon of Ely.

THE CHURCH PSALTER AND HYMN-BOOK. By the Rev. WILLIAM MERCER, M.A., Incumbent of St. George's, Sheffield. All the Harmonies have been revised by JOHN GOSS, Esq., Composer to Her Majesty's Chapels Royal, and Organist of St. Paul's Cathedral, London. Dedicated, by express permission, to His Royal Highness, the Prince Consort, to the Most Reverend the Lord Archbishops of Canterbury and York, and to the Right Reverend the Lord Bishops of London, Durham, Winchester, Peterborough, St. David's, Chichester, Lichfield, Ely, St. Asaph, Manchester, Hereford, Norwich, Llandaff, Bath and Wells, Ripon, Bangor, Rochester, Carlisle, Worcester, and Gloucester and Bristol.

The Church Psalter and Hymn-book comprises—

1. The Canticles, pointed for chanting, with a large number of Single and Double Chants, the Athanasian Creed, Fourteen Responses, Six Sanctuses, and Six Doxologies.
2. The Prose Psalter, or Psalms of David, pointed for chanting, and Chants, with the choice of single and double chants for every Morning and Evening of the Month.
3. Five Hundred and Eleven Hymns, including several of the finest hymns of the continent, from the pen of earlier and modern translators, and sterling tunes, drawn from the most unexceptionable sources, English andforeign. The best of the Metrical Psalms are incorporated with the Hymns.
4. The Daily Service, prepared for the Use of Cathedrals, several of which have adopted the work. It comprises the Morning and Evening Prayer, Litany, and Holy Communion set to the Plain Chant, with the Harmonies commonly in use at St. Paul's and Westminster Abbey. It also contains two musical settings to the Nicene Creed, by Marbeck and by Goss; and two to the "Gloria in Excelsis." The whole of the portion called "The Canticles" is incorporated.
5. The Collects, Epistles, and Gospels, and most of the Offices.

The Music, which has undergone the careful and anxious revision of Mr. Goss, is placed invariably in connection with the words, and is arranged equally for the Voice, Pianoforte, and Organ.

The Hymns are also printed separately, in good type, both large and small.

The form with music is in four sizes, 4to., 8vo., and 16mo., Tonic Sol Fa, and the various combinations, are exhibited in the subjoined price list.

The form without music is in four sizes, post 8vo., 18mo., 24mo., and 32mo.

The paper used is of the best quality, and the books are strongly and handsomely bound in cloth. The work can also be had in a variety of superior bindings.

The Church Psalter and Hymn-book is now in full and regular use in Her Majesty's private chapels, the Chapel Royal, in several of our principal cathedrals, in most of the training colleges and many of our leading schools, in several of our colonial dioceses, in most of the English chapels on the continent, and a vast number of Churches in England, Ireland, and Wales.

The Guardian.

THE GUARDIAN, a Weekly Journal of Politics, Literature, Music and the Fine Arts, Ecclesiastical, Home, Foreign, and Colonial News, is issued, with a Supplement, every WEDNESDAY, price Sevenpence stamped, Sixpence unstamped. Its politics are Conservative, but without involving an unqualified adherence to any existing political party. Its promoters are Churchmen; and they endeavour to maintain that character in the treatment of Ecclesiastical subjects; special reports are given of the Meetings of Convocation, and all important matters connected with the Church and Education. Great care is taken to make the Parliamentary Intelligence complete—all the leading speeches being given at length. Great attention is paid to the Foreign and Colonial News, a full digest of which is given every week, illustrated by original correspondence. Every effort is made, in the selection of News, of Works chosen for review, and by the exclusion of all objectionable matter, to render THE GUARDIAN a good Family and Literary Newspaper.

THE GUARDIAN is supplied direct from the Office to Subscribers paying in advance only, at the rate of £1. 10s. per annum.

Advertisements intended for insertion in the current week's GUARDIAN should be sent to the Office, not later than One o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, and payment made at the time in cash, or they will be charged double; postage-stamps may be sent if more convenient to the Advertiser, but at the rate of thirteen to the Shilling.

The OBJECTS of this Society are :—

Temporary Assistance to Governesses in distress, afforded privately and delicately through the Ladies' Committee.

Annuity Fund. Elective Annuities to aged Governesses, secured on invested capital, and thus independent of the prosperity of the Institution.

⁂ The Hon. Mrs. Ashley has most kindly opened a Fund to raise all the Society's Annuities to £25. Any Donations which may be kindly given, may be addressed "The Hon. Mrs. Ashley, to the care of the Secretary."

Provident Fund. Provident Annuities purchased by Ladies in any way connected with Education, upon Government security, agreeably to the Act of Parliament. This branch includes a Savings' Bank.

A Home for Governesses during the intervals between their engagements.

A System of Registration, entirely free of expense.

An Asylum for the Aged.

……

Membership consists in the payment of an Annual Guinea, or of Ten Guineas in one Sum. Subscribers are entitled to vote for Annuities in the proportion of one vote for each Annual Half-Guinea, not in arrear, and one life vote for each Donation of Five Guineas. Subscriptions are due on the first of January, and can always be remitted by Post-Office Order, or by a Cheque crossed "Sir. S. Scott and Co."

REPORT read at the 40th Annual General Meeting, held on the 25th November, 1864.

In reporting the progress of the Society during the year ending June 30th last, the Directors have the satisfaction of submitting the following statement:—

The New Policies effected were in number 466, and in amount £271,440. The Annual Premiums payable thereon are £8755. These items are all in excess of those of the previous year.

The Income, after allowing the abatement on such of the Premiums as have been reduced by Bonus, was £201,850, of which £140,599 was derived from Premiums, and £61,251 from Interest on Investments.

Claims by death were paid to the amount of £115,873. The substantial benefits that have necessarily accompanied the distribution of this large sum must have been materially enhanced by the seasonable promptitude of payment, it being the practice of the Society to settle claims at the end of thirty days after proof of death.

The surplus Income, after the liquidation of the foregoing and all other demands, was £60,136, or about 30 per cent. of the total Receipts; and the Assurance Fund, after the addition of this sum, amounted to £1,446,600, being more than Ten Years' Income from Premiums.

These amounts are both in excess of those of several previous years, and will doubtless be regarded by the Assured with considerable satisfaction; the former as showing that, at the close of its 40th year, the operations of the Society are conducted with undiminished energy, the latter in the testimony it bears to the steady increase of wealth, as the period approaches for another quinquennial division.

The NEXT DIVISION of PROFITS will take place in January, 1867, and Persons who effect NEW POLICIES BEFORE the END of JUNE NEXT will be entitled at that Division to one year's additional Share of Profits over later Entrants.

Forms of Proposal, and further information, can be obtained of any of the Society's Agents, or of LIFE DEPARTMENT.

THIS CORPORATION has granted Assurances on Lives for a period exceeding One Hundred and Forty Years, having issued its first Policy on the 7th June, 1721.

Two-thirds of the entire Profits, without any deduction for expenses of management, are allotted to the Assured. This arrangement will be found to be more advantageous to the Policy holders, than an apparently larger proportion of the Profits, subject to the expenses of management.

Assurances may be effected without Participation in Profits, at low rates of Premium, or with Participation in Profits, upon either of the following plans, viz. :

By an Annual Abatement of Premium on Policies of Five Years standing and upwards. Upon this plan the abatement from the original Premium for the Year 1865, was at the rate of 40 per cent.

By appropriating the Profits at the end of every Five Years, either in increase of the Sum Assured, or as an immediate Cash payment.

Examples of the Bonus additions to the Sum Assured on Policies of Fifteen Years' standing, are subjoined.

University Life Assurance Society.

Amount of Capital originally subscribed, £600,000, on which has been paid up	£30,000
Amount Accumulated from Premiums . .	800,000
Annual Income	77,000
Amount of Policies in Existence . . .	1,500,000

The Advantages of this Society are as follows:—

It is Incorporated by ROYAL CHARTER.

Assurances may be effected by all Persons who are, or have been, on the Books of a University, or educated at any College, Hall, Foundation School, or other similar institution in the United Kingdom.

NINE-TENTHS of the PROFITS are appropriated to the Assured.

The Society is based on a better principle than that of a Mutual Assurance Society, as the Assured are under no liability; AND PARTICIPATE IN NEARLY ALL THE PROFITS.

A Division of PROFITS is made every five years.

In June, 1865, the EIGHTH QUINQUENNIAL DIVISION of PROFITS will be made. All Policies effected before the 1st May, 1865, will be entitled to participate fully in the Division which will be made in 1870.

Policies of five years' standing receive Additions in the event of death before the following Division of Profits at the rate of 1¼ per cent. per annum.

Since the Establishment of the Society in 1825, the amount of Additions up to 1860 allotted to the Assured has exceeded £659,000.

From the Institution of this Society to the present time no claim has been disputed.

The Fee to the Medical Referee is in each case paid by the Society.

No charge for Policy Stamps.

Personal appearance at the Office is not required, except in particular cases.

Proposals for Assurances to be addressed to the SECRETARY, or to JOHN WRAY, Esq., Chairman of the Committee, 24, Suffolk Street, Pall Mall East, London, S.W.; from whom Forms of Proposal and Prospectuses may be obtained, or from the CORRESPONDENTS of the Society at OXFORD or CAMBRIDGE.

⁂ On payment of these Premiums, the receipt of £100. is secured on the dropping of the Life within the time for which the Premium is paid, but not afterwards.

The University Life Assurance Society has adopted the Tables of the Equitable, deducting 5 per cent. on the Premiums payable on all ages up to 47;—this deduction is gradually lessened by equal decrements in each successive year, up to the age of 56. After this period of life, the rates are the same as those of the Equitable.

NOW IN COURSE OF PUBLICATION.

Uniformly printed in Foolscap 8vo.

Cambridge School and College Text Books,

A Series of Elementary Treatises adapted for the Use of Students in the Universities, Schools, and Candidates for the Public Examinations.

In order to secure a general harmony in the treatment, these works will be edited by Members of the University of Cambridge, and the methods and processes employed in University teaching will be followed.

Principles will be carefully explained, clearness and simplicity will be aimed at, and an endeavour will be made to avoid the extreme brevity which has so frequently made the Cambridge treatises too difficult to be used by those who have not the advantage of a private Tutor. Copious examples will be added.

Cambridge Greek and Latin Texts,

CAREFULLY REPRINTED FROM THE BEST EDITIONS.

THIS series is intended to supply for the use of Schools and Students cheap and accurate editions of the Classics, which shall be superior in mechanical execution to the small German editions now current in this country, and more convenient in form.

The texts of the "Bibliotheca Classica" and "Grammar-School Classics," so far as they have been published, will be adopted. These editions have taken their place amongst scholars as valuable contributions to the Classical Literature of this country, and are admitted to be good examples of the judicious and practical nature of English scholarship; and as the editors have formed their texts from a careful examination of the best editions extant, it is believed that no texts better for general use can be found.

The volumes are well printed at the Cambridge University Press, in a 16mo. size, and are issued at short intervals.

The following are now ready.

Arithmetic for the use of Schools and Colleges. By A. WRIGLEY, M.A., Professor of Mathematics in the late Royal Military College, Addiscombe. 3*s*. 6*d*.

Principles and Practice of Arithmetic. By the Rev. J. HIND. Ninth Edition, with Questions, 4*s*. 6*d*.

⁂ KEY, with Questions for Examination. Second Edition. 5*s*.

A Progressive Course of Examples in Arithmetic. With Answers. By the Rev. JAMES WATSON, M.A., of Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, and formerly Senior Mathematical Master of the Ordnance School, Carshalton. Second Edition, revised and corrected. Fcp. 8vo. 2*s*. 6*d*.

Principles and Practice of Arithmetical Algebra, with Examples. By the Rev. J. HIND. Third Edition. 12mo. 5*s*.

Elements of Algebra. By the Rev. J. HIND. Sixth Edition, revised. 540 pp. 8vo. 10*s*. 6*d*.

Treatise on the Theory of Algebraical Equations. By the Rev. J. HYMERS, D.D. Third Edition. 8vo. 10*s*. 6*d*.

TRIGONOMETRY.

Elementary Trigonometry. By T. P. HUDSON, M.A., Fellow of Trinity College. 3*s*. 6*d*.

Elements of Plane and Spherical Trigonometry. By the Rev. J. HIND. Fifth Edition. 12mo. 6*s*.

Syllabus of a Course of Lectures upon Trigonometry and the Application of Algebra to Geometry. 8vo 7*s* 6*d*.

MECHANICS AND HYDROSTATICS.

Elementary Hydrostatics. By W. H. BESANT, M.A., Late Fellow of St John's College. Fcp. 8vo. 4*s.*

Elementary Hydrostatics for Junior Students. By R. POTTER, M.A. late Fellow of Queens' College, Cambridge, Professor of Natural Philosophy and Astronomy in University College, London. 7*s.* 6*d.*

The Propositions in Mechanics and Hydrostatics which are required for those who are not Candidates for Honours. By A. C. BARRETT, M.A. Third Edition. Crown 8vo. 6*s.*

Mechanical Euclid. Containing the Elements of Mechanics and Hydrostatics. By W. WHEWELL, D.D. Fifth Edition. 5*s.*

Elementary Statics. By the Very Rev. H. GOODWIN, D.D. Dean of Ely. Fcp. 8vo, cloth, 3*s.*

Elementary Dynamics. By the Very Rev. H. GOODWIN, D.D. Dean of Ely. Fcp. 8vo, cloth, 3*s.*

A Treatise on Statics. By the Rev. S. EARNSHAW, M.A. Fourth Edition. 8vo. 10*s.*

Dynamics, or, a Treatise on Motion. By the Rev. S. EARNSHAW. Third Edition. 8vo. 14*s.*

A Treatise on the Dynamics of a Rigid Body. By the Rev. W. N. GRIFFIN. 8vo. 6*s.* 6*d.*

⁂ SOLUTIONS OF THE EXAMPLES. 8vo. 6*s.*

Problems in illustration of the Principles of Theoretical Mechanics. By W. WALTON, M.A. Second Edition. 8vo. 18*s.*

Treatise on the Motion of a Single Particle and of two Particles acting on one another. By A. SANDEMAN. 8vo. 8*s.* 6*d.*

Of Motion. An Elementary Treatise. By the Rev. J. R. LUNN, M.A. Fellow and Lady Sadleir's Lecturer of St John's College. 8vo. 7*s.* 6*d.*

Chapter I. General principles of velocity and acceleration. Chapter II. Of the motion of a point in general. Analytical expressions for velocities and accelerations in certain directions. Chapter III. Of the motion of a point affected by a constant acceleration, the direction of which is always the same. Chapter IV. Of the motion of a point affected by an acceleration, the direction of which always passes through a fixed point. Chapter V. Of matter and force. Chapter VI. Of the dynamical laws of force, commonly called the laws of motion. Chapter VII. Of certain cases of free motion in nature. Chapter VIII. Of constrained motion of particles. Chapter IX. Of impulses and collision of particles. Appendix. Of the Cycloid.

Treatise on Hydrostatics and Hydrodynamics. By W. H. BESANT, M.A. 8vo. 9*s.*

The Principles of Hydrostatics. By T. WEBSTER, M.A. 8vo. 7*s.* 6*d.*

Problems in illustration of the Principles of Theoretical Hydrostatics and Hydrodynamics. By W. WALTON, M.A. 8vo. 10*s.* 6*d.*

Collection of Elementary Problems in Statics and Dynamics. Designed for Candidates for Honours, first three days. By W. WALTON, M.A. 8vo. 10*s.* 6*d.*

CONIC SECTIONS AND ANALYTICAL GEOMETRY.

Elementary Geometrical Conic Sections. By W. H. BESANT, M.A., Late Fellow of St John's College. [Preparing.

Conic Sections. Their principal Properties proved Geometrically. By W. WHEWELL, D.D. Master of Trinity. Third Edition. 8vo. 2*s.* 6*d.*

Treatise on Conic Sections. By the Rev. J. HYMERS, D.D. Third Edition. 8vo. 9*s.*

A Treatise on the Application of Analysis to Solid Geometry. By D. F. GREGORY, M.A. and W. WALTON, M.A. Second Edition. 8vo. 12*s.*

The Elements of Conic Sections. By J. D. HUSTLER, B.D. Fourth Edition. 8vo. 4*s.* 6*d.*

A Treatise on Plane Co-ordinate Geometry. By the Rev. M. O'BRIEN. 8vo. 9*s.*

A Treatise on Analytical Geometry of Three Dimensions. By J. HYMERS, D.D. Third Edition. 8vo. 10*s.* 6*d.*

Problems in illustration of the Principles of Plane Co-ordinate Geometry. By W. WALTON, M.A. 8vo. 16*s.*

DIFFERENTIAL AND INTEGRAL CALCULUS.

An Elementary Treatise on the Differential Calculus. By W. H. MILLER, M.A. Third Edition. 8vo. 6*s.*

Treatise on the Differential Calculus. By W. WALTON, M.A. 8vo. 10*s.* 6*d.*

Examples of the Principles of the Differential and Integral Calculus. Collected by D. F. GREGORY. Second Edition. Edited by W. WALTON, M.A. 8vo. 18*s.*

ASTRONOMY.

Practical and Spherical Astronomy for the use chiefly of Students in the Universities. By the Rev. R. MAIN, M.A., Radcliffe Observer, Oxford. 8vo. 14*s.*

Brünnow's Spherical Astronomy. Translated by the Rev. R. MAIN, M.A. F.R.S. Radcliffe Observer. Part. I. Including the Chapters on Parallax, Refraction, Aberration, Precession, and Nutation. 8vo. 8*s.* 6*d.*

Elementary Chapters on Astronomy from the "Astronomie Physique" of Biot. By the Very Rev. HARVEY GOODWIN, D.D. Dean of Ely. 8vo. 3*s.* 6*d.*

> "They were translated with a different intention, but the admirable precision and clearness of description which characterise them led me to think that the publication of them would make a useful addition to our present list of elementary books."—Translator's Preface.

Elements of the Theory of Astronomy. By the Rev. J. HYMERS, D.D. 8vo. 14*s.*

Lectures on Practical Astronomy. By the Rev. J. CHALLIS, M.A., F.R.S., F.R.A.S., Plumian Professor of the University. [Preparing.

Exercises on Euclid and in Modern Geometry, containing Applications of the Principles and Processes of Modern Pure Geometry. By J. McDOWELL, B.A., F.R.A.S., Pembroke College. pp. xxxi, 300. Crown 8vo. 8*s.* 6*d.*

Elementary Course of Mathematics. By HARVEY GOODWIN, D.D. Dean of Ely. Fifth Edition. 8vo. 15*s.*

Problems and Examples, adapted to the "Elementary Course of Mathematics." By HARVEY GOODWIN, D.D. Dean of Ely. Third Edition, revised, with Additional Examples in Conic Sections and Newton. By THOMAS G. VYVYAN, M.A. Fellow of Gonville and Caius College. 8vo. 5*s.*

Solutions of Goodwin's Collection of Problems and Examples. By W. W. HUTT, M.A. late Fellow of Gonville and Caius College. Third Edition, revised and enlarged. By the Rev. T. G. VYVYAN, M.A. 8vo. 9*s.*

Collection of Examples and Problems in Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, Logarithms, Trigonometry, Conic Sections, Mechanics, &c. with Answers and Occasional Hints. By the Rev. A. WRIGLEY. Sixth Edition. 8vo. 8*s.* 6*d.*

A Companion to Wrigley's Collection of Examples and Problems, being Illustrations of Mathematical Processes and Methods of Solution. By J. PLATTS, Esq., and the Rev. A. WRIGLEY, M.A. 8vo. 15*s.*

Newton's Principia. First Three Sections, with Appendix, and the Ninth and Eleventh Sections. By the Rev. J. H. EVANS, M.A. Fourth Edition. 8vo. 6*s.*

Series of Figures Illustrative of Geometrical Optics. From SCHELLBACH. By the Rev. W. B. HOPKINS. Plates Folio. 10*s.* 6*d.*

A Treatise on Crystallography. By W. H. MILLER, M.A. 8vo. 7*s.* 6*d.*

A Tract on Crystallography, designed for Students in the University. By W. H. MILLER, M.A. Professor of Mineralogy in the University of Cambridge. 8vo. 5s.

Physical Optics, Part II. The Corpuscular Theory of Light discussed Mathematically. By RICHARD POTTER, M.A. Late Fellow of Queens' College, Cambridge, Professor of Natural Philosophy and Astronomy in University College, London. 7s. 6d.

The Greek Testament: with a critically revised Text; a Digest of Various Readings; Marginal References to Verbal and Idiomatic Usage; Prolegomena; and a Critical and Exegetical Commentary. For the use of Theological Students and Ministers. By HENRY ALFORD, D.D. Dean of Canterbury.

DETAILED ACCOUNT OF THE SEVERAL COLLEGES.

"Partly with the view of assisting parents, guardians, schoolmasters, and students intending to enter their names at the University—partly also for the benefit of undergraduates themselves—a very complete, though concise, volume has just been issued, which leaves little or nothing to be desired. For lucid arrangement, and a rigid adherence to what is positively useful, we know of few manuals that could compete with this Student's Guide. It reflects no little credit on the University to which it supplies an unpretending, but complete, introduction."—SATURDAY REVIEW.

Elementary part of Mechanics.

SUBJECTS FOR CANDIDATES FOR HONORS IN THE EXAMINATION FOR THE DEGREE OF B.L.

1865.

1. Roman Law.—

For Translation.

(a) Gaii Commentarii, and Justiniani Institutiones. } The whole.
Digest, Bk. 43, Title 24. (De vi aut clam.)
Ciceronis Oratio pro Cæcina.

(b) A paper of questions on Roman Law and General Jurisprudence. For the former, information will be found in Sandars's Commentary on the Institutes of Justinian, and Mackeldey's Systema Juris Romani; for the latter, in Bentham's Principles of Civil Legislation, and Austin's Jurisprudence, Vol. I.

2. English Law.

(a) The influence of the Feudal System on the Law of England: for which reference may be made to Hallam's Middle Ages, Vol. I. Ch. 2, and Vol. II. Ch. 8; Blackstone's Comm. Vol. II. Ch. 4 and 5; and Butler's note to Coke upon Littleton, Vol. II. page 191 (a) note.

(b) Joshua Williams on the Law of Real Property, and (c) Blackstone's Comment. (Kerr's edition), Vol. IV.

1. Roman Law.—

For Translation.

Gaii Commentarii and Justiniani Institutiones.
Cicero. Oratio pro Quintio.
Digest, Lib. 10, Tit. 3, De Communi Dividundo; and Lib. 17, Tit. 2, Pro Socio.

2. English Law.—Joshua Williams' Law of Real Property. Blackstone's Commentaries, Vol. III.

There will be a paper on each of these books.

3. English History.—The Constitutional History of England from the termination of the Commonwealth to the end of the reign of George II.—Special reference must be made to the leading Statutes cited by Hallam and to the two following trials: that of Bushel, reported in Vaughan's Reports, 135 (see also Howell's State Trials, VI. 999); and that of Ashby v. White, reported in Lord Raymond's Ref. 938, and in 1 Smith's leading cases, p. 216. (See also Howell's State Trials, Vol. XIV.)

4. International Law.—Kent's Commentary (Vol. I. Part 1).

3. English History.

From the reign of James I. to the Revolution, 1688. For the Constitutional and Legal history of the period reference may be made to Hallam's Constitutional History, to Crabb's History of the English Law, and to the Statute Book.

4. International Law.

(a) Kent's Commentary on International Law.

(b) The Peace of Westphalia and Treaties of Munster and Osnaburg; for which information will be found in Jenkinson's Collection of Treaties, Vol. I.; L'Histoire abregée des Traités de Paix (par Koch et Schœll), Tome I.; and Histoire Générale des Traités de Paix (par le Compte de Garden), Tome I.

N.B. There will be three papers of questions.

(1) On Roman Law: which will have special reference to the legal points involved in the oration of Cicero, and the two titles of the Digest above mentioned, viz. Partnership, Insolvency, and the forms of procedure in Jus Vocatio (particularly the vadimonium and the actionis editio), and Missio in Possessionem. Explanations of these forms will be found in the 4th book of Gaius and Justinian, respectively, in Mackeldey's Systema Juris, and in Sandars's Commentary on the Institutes.

OBSERVATIONS.

The Divinity, Law, and Physic Schools are open during the whole of every Term, and the keeping of all Acts is entirely at the discretion of the respective Professors.

All Festivals, Saints' days, and Sundays, are surplice-days, and the evenings preceding are surplice-evenings.

On Litany days the Doctors and Noblemen wear their robes, and the Proctors their congregation-ruffs.

Commemoration of Benefactors is at St Peter's, Pembroke, Caius, Queens', Jesus, Christ's, the day after the end of each Term, on which occasion there is a feast in the several College-halls.

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE.

HINC LUCEM ET POCULA SACRA.

DEUM TIMETO: REGEM HONORATO: VIRTUTEM COLITO:
DISCIPLINIS BONIS OPERAM DATO.
Stat. Acad. Cantab.

THE UNIVERSITY of CAMBRIDGE is a society of students in all and every of the liberal arts and sciences, incorporated (13th Eliz. c. 29) by the name of "The Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge." This commonwealth is a union of seventeen colleges, or societies, devoted to the study of learning and knowledge, and for the better service of the Church and State. All these colleges have been founded since the beginning of the reign of King Edward I.[1] and are maintained by the endowments of their several founders and benefactors. Each college is a body corporate, bound by its own statutes; but is likewise controlled by the paramount laws of the University. The present University Statutes were confirmed by Queen Victoria, by Order in Council, July 31, 1858. They are the foundation upon which all new laws are framed.

Each of the seventeen colleges, or departments, in this literary republic, furnishes members both for the executive and legislative branch of its government. The place of Assembly is the Senate-House.

All persons who are Masters[2] of Arts or Laws, or Doctors in one or other of the three faculties, viz. Divinity, Law, and Physic, having their names upon the University Register, have votes in this assembly. Those whose names are removed from the Register lose the right of voting, but may recover it again by replacing their names on the Register and paying all University dues from the time of removal of their names, 180 days being first allowed to elapse after the replacing of the names.

The Council of the Senate was established by the Act 19 and 20

[1] Colleges and Halls are synonymous here, though not so at Oxford. Thus Clare College is called "Collegium sive Domus, sive Aula de Clare."
The first authentic charter is said to be dated 45 Henry III. and to be found among the records in the Tower.

[2] Those Bachelors in Divinity who are Members of the Senate, deduce their privilege from having previously taken the degree of M.A.

Vict. cap. 88. Every University Grace must be approved by the Council before it can be offered to the Senate.

The Council consists of the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor, four heads of Colleges, four Professors of the University, and eight other Members of the Senate, chosen from the Electoral Roll, published by the Vice-Chancellor. Two of the heads of Colleges, two of the Professors, and four other Members of the Senate are elected by the Persons whose names are on the Electoral Roll, on the seventh of November in every other year, and they all hold office for four years.

The Electoral Roll consists of Members of the Senate who have resided within one mile and a half of Great St Mary's Church for fourteen weeks at the least between the first day of the preceding Michaelmas term, and the first day of October in each year, together with all Officers of the University being Members of the Senate, the Heads of Houses, the Professors, and the public Examiners.

A few days before the beginning of each Term, the Vice-Chancellor publishes a list of the several days on which a Congregation or assembly of the Senate will be held for transacting University business; these fixed days occur about once a fortnight; but in case of emergency, the Vice-Chancellor summons a Congregation for the dispatch of extraordinary affairs; three days' notice of such Congregations is required to be given. A Congregation may also be held without three days' previous notice, provided at least forty Members of the Senate be present at its assembling.

No degree is ever conferred without a Grace for that purpose. After the Grace has passed, the Vice-Chancellor is at liberty to confer the degree. The Grace in this instance is termed a Supplicat. Every degree must have been allowed, or passed, by the College to which the Candidate belongs. It is signed by the Prælector of the college to which the Candidate belongs, and the subscriber is made responsible for the assertion it contains. The penalty for subscribing a false Supplicat, is, "ipso facto," two years' deprivation of the privilege of voting in the Senate. Stat. cap. 3, sect. 1.

For every degree there is a proper form of supplicat.

The executive branch of the University is committed to the following officers:—

A Chancellor, who is the head of the whole University, and presides over all cases relating to that body. In him is placed the sole executive authority within the precincts, except in matters of mayhem and felony.

A High Steward, who has special power to take the trial of scholars impeached of felony within the limits[1] of the University, and to hold and keep a leet according to the established charter and custom. He appoints a Deputy.

A Vice-Chancellor, who is elected annually on the 4th of November, by the Senate. His office, in the absence of the Chancellor, embraces the execution of the Chancellor's powers, and the government of the University according to her Statutes. He must, by Statute 19 and 20 Vict. c. 88, be the Head of some college; and during his continuance in office he acts as a magistrate for the University, Town and County.

[1] The jurisdiction of the University is a mile every way round, reckoning from any part of the suburbs.

A Commissary, who is an officer under the Chancellor, and appointed by him. He holds a court of record for all privileged persons and scholars under the degree of M.A.

The Sex Viri, elected by Grace of the Senate, to hold office for two years; whose business it is to hear and adjudicate, together with the Vice-Chancellor, all accusations against members of the University who are not in statu pupillari, for offences against the Statutes or Ordinances of the University. They have the power of punishing offenders by deprivation or suspension of degrees; but there is liberty of appeal to the Senate from their decision.

A Public Orator, who is the voice of the Senate upon all public occasions. He writes, reads, and records the letters to and from the body of the Senate, and presents to all honorary degrees with an appropriate speech.

The Assessor is an officer specially appointed, by Grace of the Senate, to assist the Vice-Chancellor in his court, in causis forensibus et domesticis.

Two Proctors, who are peace-officers, elected annually. It is their especial duty to attend to the discipline and behaviour of all persons in statu pupillari, and to search houses of ill fame. Another part of their duty is to be present at all Congregations of the Senate, to read the Graces, to take the assent or dissent, and to pronounce the same. They must be Masters of Arts or Law of three years' standing at the least, or Bachelors of Divinity. They must also have resided during the major part of each of three terms during the two preceding years.

A Librarian, to whom the regulation and management of the University Library is confided.

A Registrary, who is obliged, either by himself, or by deputy properly authorized, to attend all Congregations, to give directions (if it be required) for the due form of such Graces as are to be propounded, to receive them when passed in both Houses, and to register them in the University records.

Two Moderators, nominated by the Colleges which present the Proctors, and appointed by Graces of the Senate. They superintend the examinations of the Candidates for Honors in the Mathematical Tripos.

Two Pro-Proctors, who are appointed, in consequence of the increasing magnitude of the University, to assist the Proctors in that part of their duty which relates to the discipline and behaviour of those persons who are in statu pupillari, and the preservation of public morals; but in the other parts of the Proctor's office they have not any concern, or control.

Two Esquire Bedells, whose office is to attend the Vice-

Chancellor, whom they precede with their silver maces upon all public occasions and solemnities; to receive from the Vice-Chancellor the Graces delivered unto them, and to deliver them to the Proctors, and to summon to the Chancellor's Court all members of the Senate.

The UNIVERSITY MARSHALS are appointed by the Vice-Chancellor.

The TWO MEMBERS, whom the University sends to the Imperial Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, are chosen by the collective body of the Senate.

The UNIVERSITY COUNSEL are appointed by Grace of the Senate, and are consulted upon various occasions.

The SOLICITOR is appointed by the Vice-Chancellor.

SYNDICS are the members of special committees of members of the Senate, appointed by Grace from time to time for specific duties.

The PROFESSORS are paid from various sources: many of them have ancient stipends which were considerable at the period at which they were fixed, but which have become inadequate from the diminished value of money; to some professorships foundation estates are attached, and to the Regius and Lady Margaret's professorships of Divinity the impropriate rectories of Somersham and Terrington: others are paid by stipends from the University chest.

The ANNUAL INCOME of the University arises from various sources, of which the following are the principal:

The Rectory of Burwell and a farm at Barton, producing about £1000 per annum.

The produce of fees at matriculation, and for degrees, and other irregular sources of income not easily enumerated, the gross amount of which is very variable.

The trading profits of the PITT [University] PRESS, which have as yet seldom been very considerable.

The officers and servants of the University are paid entirely by fixed salaries from the University chest. There is a Tax of six shillings a year, paid by all members of the University except Sizars, which is appropriated entirely to the support of the University Library.

There is also a Tax of six shillings a year paid by every member of the University, who has taken the degree of D.D., LL.D., M.D., B.D., M.A., or LL.M.

The whole of the funds of the University are managed by the Vice-Chancellor, or by specific Trustees, and the accounts are examined annually by three Auditors, who are appointed by the Senate.

GRACES of the Senate possess generally the force of Statutes; but no Grace of the Senate is valid which is inconsistent with the Statutes.

The Terms of this University are three, and are fixed by invariable rules. Michaelmas, or October, Term begins on the first of October, and ends on the 16th of December. Lent, or January, Term begins on the 13th of January, and ends on the Friday before Palm Sunday. Easter, or Midsummer, Term begins on the Friday after Easter-day, and ends on the Friday after Commencement-day. Commencement-day is always the last Tuesday but one in June.

The respective Orders in the several Colleges are as follow:

1. A Head of a College or House, who is generally a Doctor in his Faculty. The Head of King's is styled Provost; of Queens', President; of all the rest, Master.

2. Fellows, who generally are Doctors in Divinity, Law, or Physic; Bachelors in Divinity; Masters or Bachelors of Arts; some few Bachelors in Law or Physic, as at Trinity-Hall and Caius College. The number of Fellowships in the University is 385.

3. Noblemen Graduates, Doctors in the several faculties, Bachelors in Divinity, Masters of Arts, and Masters of Law, who are not on the foundation. The expense of keeping the name upon the boards varies in different Colleges from about £2 to about £4 per annum.

4. Bachelors of Arts, Law and Physic.

5. Fellow-Commoners, who are generally the younger sons of the nobility, or young men of fortune, and have the privilege of dining at the Fellows' table, from whence the appellation originated.

6. Scholars, who are generally foundation members of their respective Colleges, and who enjoy various advantages; in some cases they have their commons paid for, their chambers rent-free, and various weekly or other allowances: in other cases they have specific stipends only, in conformity with the conditions of their foundation. They are for the most part elected, by direct examination or otherwise, at different periods subsequent to the commencement of their residence at the University, from the most promising and distinguished of the Students.

7. Pensioners, who form the great body of the Students, who pay for their commons, chambers, &c., and enjoy generally no pecuniary advantages from their respective colleges.

8. Sizars are generally Students of limited means. They usually have their commons free, and receive various emoluments.

THE METHOD OF PROCEEDING IN ARTS.

There are three days of general admission to the degree of Bachelor of Arts in every year, viz. on the last Saturday in January for those who have obtained honors in the Mathematical or Moral Sciences or Natural Sciences Tripos, on the first day of the Easter Term for those who have obtained honors in the Classical or Mathematical or Moral Sciences or Natural Sciences Tripos, and on the Saturday before the last Tuesday but one in June for those who pass the ordinary examination then just completed. Students, who take the degree of Bachelor of Arts at any other time, are required to pay additional fees.

Every Student must have completed nine terms' residence during two thirds of each term, before he can take his degree. It is not necessary that his name should be admitted on the boards of his college before he begins to reside. The mode of admission is, either by a personal examination before the Tutor and some of the College officers, or, which is more usual, by sending to the Tutor a recommendatory certificate, signed by some Master of Arts of this University, stating the name, age, qualifications, &c. &c. of the candidate, and transmitting with it the caution-money[1]. If this certificate be considered satisfactory, the admission takes place, and the person's name is immediately placed on the boards which are suspended in the butteries of the several Colleges.

The Matriculation in the University, or enrolment of the Students' names in the University Books, is done on the day after the division of the Term. At this time also the fees to the University are paid to the Registrary[2].

Besides a constant attendance on lectures, the Undergraduates are examined in their respective Colleges yearly, or half-yearly, in those subjects which have engaged their studies; and, according to the manner in which they acquit themselves in these examinations, their names are arranged in classes, and those who obtain the honour of the first places receive prizes of different value.

By this course the Students are prepared for those public Examinations which the University requires candidates for the degree to pass. The first, viz. the Previous Examination, takes place in the Lent and October Terms, according to the following plan, confirmed by Grace of the Senate.

GENERAL PREVIOUS EXAMINATION.

1. That the subjects of the Examination shall be one of the four Gospels in the original Greek, Paley's Evidences of Christianity, one of the Greek and one of the Latin Classics, the Elements of Euclid, Books I. II. and III., and Arithmetic.

2. That the appointment of the particular Gospel, and, in regard to the classical subjects, the appointment both of the authors and of the portions of their works which it may be expedient to select, shall rest with the Board of Classical Studies, upon the understanding that the Board shall so limit the Examination that every one who is to be examined may be reasonably expected to shew a competent knowledge of all the subjects.

3. That public notice of the subjects of Examination in each year shall be issued in the first week of the Lent Term of the year preceding.

4. That the Examination in the Evidences of Christianity, Euclid, and Arithmetic, shall be conducted entirely by printed papers.

5. That, in regard to the Greek Testament and the Classical Subjects, every person, when examined, shall be required (1) to translate some portion of each subject, (2) to construe and explain passages of the same, and (3) to answer both in writing and vivâ voce, such plain questions in Grammar, Geography, and History, particularly the Old Testament History, as may arise immediately out of the Subjects.

[2] For Matriculation Fees, see p. 47.

6. That previously to the commencement of the Examination, the Examiners shall prepare an alphabetical list of all the persons to be examined, and divide them into ten portions as nearly equal as possible: and that they shall send a copy of such list to the Prælector of each College, notifying the days and hours when each of the persons to be examined belonging to that College shall be required to attend the Examination.

7. That the Examination shall begin on the Monday in the week before the end of the Lent Term in each year.

8. That the days of Examination shall be Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Saturday, in the first week; and Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, in the following week; and the hours of Examination each day from 9 till 12 in the morning, and from 1 till 4 in the afternoon.

9. That on the first day the subject of Examination shall be the Evidences of Christianity, on the second day Arithmetic, and on the third day Euclid; the students whose names are in the first five divisions being examined in the morning, and those whose names are in the last five divisions in the afternoon of each day.

10. That during the last five days two of the ten divisions shall be examined for one day in the remaining subjects, viz. in the Greek and Latin subjects, and in the Greek Testament; the students under Examination being employed in translating the passages proposed, and in answering questions, and each student being called upon in turn during the time of Examination to construe and explain passages of the appointed subjects.

11. That the Examination of each person in the Greek and Latin subjects and in the Greek Testament shall be concluded in one day, and that the result of the whole Examination with regard to him shall be notified to the Prælector of his College as soon as conveniently may be after the end of the Examination of all the Ten Divisions, the Examiners meeting to determine the said result on the day after the end of the Examination.

12. That every Undergraduate, unless he shall have been already approved under the provisions of Regulation 28, shall be required to attend the Examination in the Lent Term of the year next after or next but one after that in which he has kept his first Term, according as the said first Term be or be not a Lent Term.

13. That in case any person who has been a resident member of either of the Universities of Oxford or Dublin shall become a resident member of this University before the time at which he would have been required, had he been originally of this University, to attend the Previous Examination, such person be required to attend that Previous Examination which he would have been called upon to attend if he had come to reside in this University at the time he actually did commence his residence at Oxford or Dublin.

14. That in case any person who has been a resident member of either of the Universities of Oxford or Dublin shall become a resident member of this University after the time at which he would have been required, had he been originally of this University, to attend the Previous Examination, such person be required to attend that Previous Examination which shall take place next after his becoming a resident member of this University.

15. That two Classes (each of them arranged alphabetically) shall be formed out of those examined—the first consisting of those who have passed their examination with credit—and the second, of those to whom the Examiners have only not refused their certificate of approval.

16. That in case any one shall be prevented by illness, or any other sufficient cause, from attending the proper Examination of his year, a certificate of such illness or other cause shall be submitted by the Tutor of his College to the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors for the time being, for their approbation in writing.

17. That if any undergraduate shall absent himself from the proper Examination of his year without having been already approved under the provisions of Regulation 28, or without having obtained the written permission of the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors, he shall not be allowed the Lent Term of that year.

18. That there shall be a second Examination commencing on the second Monday in the Michaelmas Term of each year, for those who have been absent with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors from the preceding Lent Examination, and for those who have not been approved by the Examiners at that Examination; and that such Second Examination shall be in the same subjects as those of the preceding Lent Examination, shall be conducted by the same Examiners, and in a manner similar to that described in the preceding Regulations.

19. That on the first of October the Registrary shall send to the Examiners a list of those Students who were absent from the Lent Examination with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors.

20. That those who shall not have been approved at either the Lent or October Examination of their year, or who shall have been absent from both those Examinations, shall be required to attend the Lent Examination of the following year, subject to the same conditions as before; and that no degree of B.A., M.B., or LL.B., shall be granted, unless a certificate be presented to the Council shewing that the candidate for such degree has passed, to the satisfaction of the Examiners, some one of these Examinations.

ADDITIONAL EXAMINATION of Candidates for Honors.

21. THAT there shall be Additional Subjects of Examination in Mathematics for those Students who intend to be Candidates for Honors in Mathematics, or Classics, or Law; and that no Student shall be admitted to Examination as a Candidate for such Honors, who has not passed an Examination in the said Additional Subjects to the satisfaction of the Examiners.

22. That the said Additional Subjects shall be the Elements of Euclid, Books IV. and VI; the following elementary parts of Algebra, viz. addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division of simple algebraical quantities, and simple algebraical fractions, the elementary rules of ratio and proportion, easy equations of a degree not higher than the second, involving one or two unknown quantities, and questions producing such equations; and Elementary Mechanics treated so as not necessarily to require a knowledge of Trigonometry, viz. the composition and resolution of forces acting in one plane on a point, the mechanical powers, and the properties of the centre of gravity.

23. That the Examination in the Additional Subjects shall be conducted by printed papers, containing questions in Algebra, propositions in Euclid and in Mechanics, and such questions and applications as arise directly out of the said propositions.

24. That the Examination in the Additional Subjects shall be held as follows: viz. in Mechanics on the Thursday after the commencement of the general Previous Examination from 9 till 12; in Algebra on the same day from 1 till 4, and in Euclid on the following day from 9 till 11½.

25. That the names of those Students who have passed the general Previous Examination, and have also passed the Examination in the Additional Subjects, to the satisfaction of the Examiners, shall be placed alphabetically in one class.

26. That there shall be a Second Examination in the Additional Subjects every year at the time of the Second General Previous Examination in the Michaelmas Term.

27. That those students who, at the time of passing the Previous Examination, did not present themselves for Examination in the additional subjects, or were examined in the said additional subjects and not approved, shall be allowed to present themselves at any subsequent Examination in those subjects.

28. That the Previous Examination held in the Michaelmas Term shall be open not only to the Students specified in Regulation (19), but also to any Student who shall have kept two terms at the least, but who was not of sufficient standing to present himself at the preceding Lent Examination; provided that every Student not specified in Regulation (19) be required at such Examination to satisfy the Examiners in the Additional Subjects required of Candidates for Honors, as well as in those of the General Previous Examination.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

29. That on or before Monday in the week preceding that in which the Examinations commence, the names of all Students, who intend to present themselves for the general Previous Examination or for the Examination in the Additional Subjects, shall be sent to the Examiners in two separate lists by the Prælectors of the several Colleges; and that no Student shall be allowed to attend either Examination whose name has not been so sent to the Examiners.

30. That to conduct the Examinations there shall be eight Examiners, four to be nominated in every year, viz. two by the Colleges which present the Proctors in that year and two by the Colleges which presented the Proctors in the year next but one preceding; and the Examiners so nominated shall, if elected by the Senate, and also re-elected by the Senate in the following year, hold their office for two years; Provided that no one of such Examiners shall also hold the office of Proctor or Pro-Proctor at the time of the Lent Examination.

31. That the Examiner nominated by the College which presents the Senior Proctor shall be nominated to examine in the Additional Subjects and in Arithmetic during both his years of office; and that the names of all the Examiners shall be proposed to the Senate for election at the first Congregation after the 10th of October.

32. That each of the Examiners shall receive £20 from the University Chest.

33. That six at least of the Examiners shall be present during every part of the Lent Examinations.

34. That two at least of the Proctors and Pro-Proctors shall be present during every part of the Lent Examination in the last five days.

35. That four of the Proctors' and Pro-Proctors' men shall be in attendance upon the Examiners during every part of the Lent Examination.

36. That four at least of the Examiners shall be present during every part of the Michaelmas Term Examination; and that one at least of the Proctors shall be present during the Classical Portion of the Examination.

37. That two of the Proctors' men shall be in attendance upon the Examiners during every part of the Examination in the Michaelmas Term.

BOARDS OF STUDIES.

Pursuant to the provisions of the Statute for the appointment of Boards of Studies, sanctioned by order of Her Majesty in Council, Aug. 27, 1860, the Council of the Senate framed the following regulations, which received the sanction of the Senate, March 7, 1861.

1. That there be a Board of Theological Studies to perform the duties prescribed by the Statute for the appointment of Boards of Studies; and that such Board consist of the Regius, the Margaret, the Norrisian and the Hulsean Professors of Divinity, the Regius Professors of Hebrew and Greek, the four Examiners (not being Professors) for the Theological Examinations of the current and preceding years, and three Members of the Senate elected by Grace; one of the said three Members retiring by rotation, on the twelfth day of November in every year, and his place being supplied by election at the next ensuing Congregation.

2. That the Grace of Dec. 6, 1854, for appointing a Board of Theological Studies, be hereby repealed; and that it be the duty of the Board of Theological Studies, now appointed, in addition to the duties prescribed by the Statute, to consult together from time to time on all matters relating to the actual state of Theological Studies and Examinations in the University, meeting for that purpose at least once in every year, and to prepare, whenever it appears to them desirable, and lay before the Vice-Chancellor a report to be by him published to the University.

3. That the Grace of May 2, 1854, constituting a Board of Legal Studies, be hereby repealed; and that in lieu thereof there be a Board of Legal Studies to consider the schemes for Lectures submitted to them in every year by the Regius Professor of Civil Law, and to approve of the same, or to remit them from time to time for further consideration or revision, with amendments or alterations therein; also to consult together from time to time on all matters relating to the actual state of Law Studies and Examinations in the University, meeting for that purpose at least once in every year; and to prepare, whenever it appears to them desirable, and lay before the Vice-Chancellor a report to be by him published to the University: And that such Board consist of the Regius Professor of Civil Law, the Professor of Moral Philosophy, the Professor of Modern History, the Downing Professor of the Laws of England, the Examiners for the Degree of Bachelor of Laws in the current and preceding years, and three Members of the Senate, elected by Grace; one of the said three Members retiring by rotation on the twelfth day of November in every year, and his place being supplied by election at the next ensuing Congregation.

4. That the Grace of May 2, 1854, constituting a Board of Medical Studies, be hereby repealed; and that in lieu thereof there be a Board of Medical Studies, to consider the schemes for Lectures submitted to them in every year by the Regius Professor of Physic and the Professor of Anatomy, and to approve of the same, or to remit them from time to time for further consideration or revision, with amendments or alterations therein; also to consult together from time to time on all matters relating to the actual state of Medical Studies and Examinations in the University, meeting for that purpose at least once in every year, and to prepare, whenever it appears to them desirable, and lay before the Vice-Chancellor a report to be by him published to the University: And that such Board consist of the Regius Professor of Physic, the Professor of Chemistry, the Professor of Anatomy, the Professor of Botany, the Downing Professor of Medicine, the two Doctors of Medicine appointed to examine for the Degree of Bachelor of Medicine in the current and preceding years, and three Members of the Senate, elected by Grace; one of the said three Members retiring by rotation on the twelfth day of November in every year, and his place being supplied by election at the next ensuing Congregation.

5. That the Grace of October 31, 1848, constituting a BOARD OF MATHEMATICAL STUDIES, be hereby repealed; and that in lieu thereof there be a Board of Mathematical Studies, to consider the schemes for lectures submitted to them in every year by the Lucasian, the Plumian, the Lowndean, the Jacksonian and the Sadlerian Professors, and to approve of the same, or to remit them from time to time for further consideration or revision, with amendments or alterations therein; also to consult together from time to time on all matters relating to the actual state of Mathematical Studies and Examinations in the University, meeting for that purpose at least once in every year, and to prepare, whenever it appears to them desirable, and lay before the Vice-Chancellor a report to be by him published to the University: And that such Board consist of the Lucasian, the Plumian, the Lowndean, the Jacksonian, and the Sadlerian Professors, the Moderators and Examiners for mathematical honors in the current and two preceding years, and three Members of the Senate elected by Grace; one of the said three Members retiring by rotation on the twelfth day of November in every year, and his place being supplied by election at the next ensuing Congregation.

6. That the Grace of May 3, 1854, constituting a Board of Classical Studies, be hereby repealed; and that in lieu thereof there be a Board of Classical Studies to consider the schemes for lectures submitted to them in every year by the Regius Professor of Greek, and to approve of the same, or to remit them from time to time for further consideration or revision, with amendments or alterations therein; also to consult together from time to time on all matters relating to the actual state of Classical Studies and Examinations in the University, meeting for that purpose at least once in every year, and to prepare, whenever it appears to them desirable, and lay before the Vice-Chancellor a report to he by him published to the University: And that such Board consist of the Regius Professor of Greek, the Public Orator, the four Examiners for the Classical Tripos in the current and preceding years, and four Members of the Senate elected by Grace; one of the said four Members retiring by rotation on the twelfth day of November in every year, and his place being supplied by election at the next ensuing Congregation.

7. That there be a Board of Moral Science Studies, to consider the schemes for lectures submitted to them in every year by the Professor of Moral Philosophy and the Professor of Modern History, and to approve of the same, or to remit them from time to time for further consideration or revision, with amendments or alterations therein; also to consult together from time to time on all matters relating to the actual state of Moral Science Studies and Examinations in the University, meeting for that purpose at least once in every year, and to prepare, whenever it appears to them desirable, and lay before the Vice-Chancellor a report to be by him published to the University: And that such Board consist of the Regius Professor of Civil Law, the Professor of Moral Philosophy, the Professor of Modern History, the Professor of Political Economy, the four Examiners for the Moral Science Tripos in the current and preceding years, and three Members of the Senate elected by Grace; one of the said three Members retiring by rotation on the twelfth day of November in every year, and his place being supplied by election at the next ensuing Congregation.

8. That there be a Board of Natural Science Studies to consider the schemes for lectures submitted to them in every year by the Professor of Chemistry, the Professor of Botany, the Professor of Geology, and the Professor of Mineralogy, and to approve of the same, or to remit them from time to time for further consideration or revision, with amendments or alterations therein; also to consult together from time to time on all matters relating to the actual state of Natural Science Studies and Examinations in the University, meeting for that purpose at least once in every year, and to prepare, whenever it appears to them desirable, and lay before the Vice-Chancellor a report to be by him published to the University: And that such Board consist of the Professor of Chemistry, the Professor of Anatomy, the Professor of Botany, the Professor of Geology, the Professor of Mineralogy, the four Examiners for the Natural Science Tripos in the current and preceding years, and three Members of the Senate elected by Grace; one of the said three Members retiring by rotation on the twelfth day of November in every year, and his place being supplied by election at the next ensuing Congregation.

9. That there be a Board of Oriental Studies, to consider the schemes for lectures submitted to them in every year by the Regius Professor of Hebrew and the Adams Professor of Arabic, and to approve of the same, or to remit them from time to time for further consideration or revision, with amendments or alterations therein; also to consult together from time to time on all matters relating to the actual state of Oriental Studies and Examinations in the University, meeting for that purpose at least once in every year, and to prepare, whenever it appears to them desirable, and lay before the Vice-Chancellor a report to be by him published to the University: And that such Board consist of the Regius Professor of Hebrew, the Adams Professor of Arabic, the Lord Almoner's Reader in Arabic, the two Members of the Senate nominated to examine for Tyrwhitt's Hebrew Scholarships in the preceding year, and three Members of the Senate elected by Grace; one of the said three Members retiring by rotation on the twelfth day of November in every year, and his place being supplied by election at the next ensuing Congregation.

EXAMINATION FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ARTS.

No Student can be examined for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, who has not entered upon his ninth Term at least, having previously kept eight Terms; and if examined in his ninth Term, he must shew, when he applies for admission to his degree, that he has kept the said ninth Term.

The Examination of those Students, who contend for Honors in the Mathematical Tripos, commences in every year on the Tuesday after the 30th of December, according to the following Regulations, confirmed by Grace of the Senate.

Plan of Examination for Questionists who are Candidates for Honors in Mathematics.

1. That Questions and Problems being proposed to the Questionists on eight days, the first three days be assigned to the more elementary, and the last five to the higher parts of Mathematics: that after the first three days, there shall be an interval of eight days; and that on the seventh of these days the Moderators and Examiners shall declare, what persons have so acquitted themselves as to deserve Mathematical Honors [1].

2. That those who are declared to have so acquitted themselves, and no others, be admitted to the Examination in the higher parts of Mathematics; and that after that Examination, the Moderators and Examiners, taking into account the Examination of all the eight days, shall arrange all the Candidates who have been declared to deserve Mathematical Honors into the three classes of Wranglers, Senior Optimes and Junior Optimes, and that these classes be published in the Senate-House at nine o'clock on the Friday morning preceding the general B.A. Admission.

3. That the subjects of the Examination on the first three days shall be those contained in the following Schedule:

Euclid. Books I to VI. Book XI, Props. I to XXI. Book XII, Props. I, II.

Arithmetic and the elementary parts of Algebra; namely, the Rules for the Fundamental Operations upon Algebraical Symbols, with their proofs; the solution of simple and quadratic Equations; Arithmetical and Geometrical Progression, Permutations and Combinations, the Binomial Theorem, and the principles of Logarithms.

The elementary parts of Plane Trigonometry, so far as to include the solution of triangles.

The elementary parts of Conic Sections, treated geometrically, together with the values of the Radius of Curvature, and of the Chords of Curvature passing through the Focus and Center.

The elementary parts of Statics, treated without the Differential Calculus; namely, the Composition and Resolution of Forces acting in one plane on a point, the Mechanical Powers, and the properties of the Centre of Gravity.

The elementary parts of Dynamics, treated without the Differential Calculus; namely, the Doctrine of Uniform and Uniformly Accelerated Motion, of Falling Bodies, Projectiles, Collision, and Cycloidal Oscillations.

The 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Sections of Newton's Principia; the Propositions to be proved in Newton's manner.

The elementary parts of Hydrostatics, treated without the Differential Calculus; namely, the pressure of non-elastic Fluids, specific Gravities, floating Bodies, the pressure of the Air, and the construction and use of the more simple Instruments and Machines.

The elementary parts of Optics: namely, the laws of Reflection and Refraction of Rays at plane and spherical surfaces, not including Aberrations; the Eye; Telescopes.

The elementary parts of Astronomy; so far as they are necessary for the explanation of the more simple phenomena, without calculation.

4. In all these subjects, Examples, and Questions arising directly out of the Propositions, shall be introduced into the Examination, in addition to the Propositions themselves.

[1] By Grace of Nov. 2, 1850, the Examination for Honors begins on the Tuesday after the 30th of Dec.; but the Moderators and Examiners make their declaration of the persons who have been approved for Honors on the Saturday sennight.

5. The Examination for Mathematical Honors shall be conducted according to the following Schedule.

SCHEDULE OF THE ORDER OF DAYS, HOURS, SUBJECTS, AND EXAMINERS AT THE EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR HONORS.

The first Tuesday here mentioned is the first Tuesday after December 30.
The Monday is the second Monday after the commencement of the Examination.

Days.	Hours.	Subjects.	Examiners.
Tues.	9 to 12	Euclid and Conics.	Jun. Mod. and Sen. Exam.
	1½ to 4	Arith. Alg. and Plane Trig.	Sen. Mod. and Jun. Exam.
Wednes.	9 to 12	Statics and Dynamics.	Sen. Mod. and Jun. Exam.
	1½ to 4	Hydrostatics and Optics.	Jun. Mod. and Sen. Exam.
Thurs.	9 to 12	Probs in all the 3 Days Subs.	Sen. and Jun. Moderators.
	1 to 4	Newton and Astronomy.	Sen. and Jun. Examiners.
Mon.	9 to 12	Natural Philosophy.	Sen. Mod. and Sen. Exam.
	1½ to 4	Pure Mathematics.	Jun. Mod. and Jun. Exam.
Tues.	9 to 12	Easy Problems.	Sen. and Jun. Moderators.
	1½ to 4	Natural Philosophy.	Sen. and Jun. Examiners.
Wednes.	9 to 12	Problems.	Senior Moderator.
	1½ to 4	Pure Mathematics.	Sen. and Jun. Examiners.
Thurs.	9 to 12	Problems.	Junior Moderator.
	1½ to 4	Pure Math. and Nat. Phil.	Sen. and Jun. Moderators.
Friday.	9 to 12	Pure Math. and Nat. Phil.	Sen. Mod. and Sen. Exam.
	1½ to 4	Pure Math. and Nat. Phil.	Jun. Mod. and Jun. Exam.

Plan of Examination for Questionists who are Candidates for Honors in Classics.

The Examination of those Students, who contend for Honors in the Classical Tripos, commences in every year on the fourth Monday after the last Saturday in January. Those, who obtain such Honors, are entitled to admission to the Degree of Bachelor of Arts.

The Examination is conducted according to the following regulations, confirmed by Grace of the Senate:

REGULATIONS FOR THE CLASSICAL TRIPOS EXAMINATION.

1.—THAT the Classical Tripos Examination shall commence in each year on the fourth Monday after the general admission in January, and shall continue during five days and the morning of the sixth day; the hours of attendance being from Nine till Twelve in the morning, and from One till Four in the afternoon.

2.—That on the Mornings of the first four days Composition shall be required, consisting of Translations from English into Greek and Latin, Prose and Verse; on the Afternoons of the same four days and on the fifth day passages shall be proposed for Translation selected from the best Greek and Latin authors, and written answers required to such questions as arise immediately out of such passages; on the Morning of the sixth day a paper of questions shall be given in Ancient History.

3.—That to conduct the Examination two Examiners shall be nominated every year by the Colleges whose turn it is to present the Proctors for that year; and the Examiners so nominated shall, if elected by the Senate, and also re-elected by the Senate in the following year, hold their office for two years. The Election shall be made by the Senate at the first Congregation after the 10th of October.

4.—That there shall be a general meeting of the Examiners previous to the Examination, when the Papers set by each Examiner shall be submitted to his colleagues for their approval; and that in the paper on History the questions shall be fixed upon by the four Examiners in common.

5.—That the Exercises in Composition shall be examined by three at least of the Examiners; and the translations and the answers to the questions on History by two at least.

6.—That there shall not be contained in any paper longer passages for Translation, nor more questions than Students well prepared have generally been found able to translate and answer in the time allowed for that paper.

7.—That the names of those persons who shall pass the Examination with credit shall be placed in three classes, arranged in order of merit.

8.—That the classes shall be published by the Examiners in the Senate-House on the fourth Thursday after the end of the Examination.

9.—That no person who has degraded shall be allowed to attend the Examination, unless he shall previously have obtained special permission for so doing from the Syndicate appointed to examine into the cases of applicants for permission to become Candidates for Honors after they have degraded.

10.—That each of the Examiners shall receive Forty pounds for one year, or Sixty pounds, if he examine two successive years, from the University Chest.

The Examination of the other Questionists, viz. those who are not Candidates for Honors, takes place according to the following Plan, confirmed by Grace of the Senate.

1. That the Subjects of Examination shall be the Acts of the Apostles in the original Greek, one of the Greek and one of the Latin Classics, the History of the English Reformation, Euclid, Books I. II. III. IV. and Props. 1—6 of Book VI. together with such parts of Algebra, Mechanics, and Hydrostatics, as are prescribed by the Schedule.

2. That the appointment of the Greek and Latin Classics which are to be the Subjects of Examination in any year shall be with the persons who appoint the Classical Subjects for the Previous Examination.

3. That public notice of the Classics so appointed for the Easter Term of any year shall be issued in the first week of the Lent Term of the year preceding.

4. That the Examination shall commence on the Thursday before the end of the first two thirds of the Easter Term, unless that day be Ascension-Day; in which case the Examination, which would otherwise have been held on that Thursday, shall be held on the preceding day.

5. That on the Saturday previous to the commencement of the Examination the Examiners shall publish the names of the Students to be examined, arranged in alphabetical order, and separated into two divisions.

6. That the distribution of the Subjects and times of Examination shall be made by the Examiners at their discretion, but shall be made known by public notice before the commencement of the Examination.

7. That the Examination shall be conducted entirely by printed papers.

8. That the papers in the Classical Subjects and in the Acts of the Apostles shall consist of passages to be translated and explained, accompanied with such plain questions in Grammar, History and Geography, as arise immediately out of the Subjects; and that in the Acts of the Apostles the Students shall be required also to illustrate the Subject by reference to the Epistles of the New Testament in the way shewn by Paley in the Horæ Paulinæ.

9. That the papers in the Mathematical Subjects shall consist of Propositions in Euclid, and of questions in Algebra and Propositions in Mechanics and Hydrostatics according to the Schedule; and also of such questions, applications, and deductions as arise directly out of the said Propositions.

10. That there shall be a general meeting of the Examiners previous to the Examination, when the papers set by each Examiner shall be submitted to all the Examiners for their approval.

11. That the names of the Students who pass the Examination shall be placed by the Examiners in four classes, according to merit, the names in each class being arranged alphabetically; and that these classes shall be published in the Senate-House at 2 P.M. on the Friday preceding the magna comitia.

12. That no person shall be approved by the Examiners, unless he shew a competent knowledge of all the Subjects of Examination.

13. That there shall be two additional Examinations in every year; the first commencing on the Thursday before the end of the first two thirds of the Michaelmas Term, and the second on the Thursday before the end of the first two thirds of the Lent Term.

14. That in these additional Examinations the distribution of the Subjects and times of Examination shall be at the discretion of the Examiners, the Subjects being the same as at the Examination in the preceding Easter Term.

15. That no person shall be allowed to attend any Examination whose name is not sent by the Prælector of his College to the Examiners before the commencement of the Examination.

16. That in every year at the first Congregation in February the Senate shall elect six Examiners to assist in conducting the Examinations of the following Easter, Michaelmas and Lent terms; such Examiners to be members of the Senate, and to be nominated, two by the Colleges which presented the Proctors for that year, two by the Colleges which presented the Proctors for the year preceding, and two by the Colleges which presented the Proctors for the year last but one preceding.

17. That of these Examiners the two nominated by the Colleges which presented the Proctors shall confine themselves to the Classical Subjects, and the two nominated by the Colleges which presented the Proctors for the year preceding shall confine themselves to the Acts of the Apostles and the History of the English Reformation, and the two nominated by the Colleges which presented the Proctors for the year last but one preceding, shall examine in the Mathematical Subjects only.

18. That each of the six Examiners shall receive Twenty Pounds from the University Chest.

19. That the Pro-Proctors and two at least of the Examiners shall attend each portion of the Examination in the Easter Term.

SCHEDULE of MATHEMATICAL SUBJECTS of Examination, for the Degree of B.A. of Persons not Candidates for Honors.

ALGEBRA.

1. Definitions and explanations of algebraical signs and terms.
2. Addition, subtraction, multiplication and division of simple algebraical quantities and simple algebraical fractions.
3. Algebraical definitions of ratio and proportion.
4. If $a : b :: c : d$, then $ad = bc$, and the converse:
   also $b : a :: d : c$,
   and $a : c :: b : d$,
   and $a + b : b :: c + d : d$.
5. If $a : b :: c : d$,
   and $c : d :: e : f$,
   then $a : b :: e : f$.
6. If $a : b :: c : d$,
   and $b : e :: d : f$,
   then $a : e :: c : f$.
7. Geometrical definition of Proportion. (Euc. Book v. Def. 5.)
8. If quantities be proportional according to the algebraical definition, they are proportional according to the geometrical definition.
9. Definition of a quantity varying as another, directly, or inversely, or as two others jointly.
10. Easy equations of a degree not higher than the second, involving one or two unknown quantities, and Questions producing such Equations.

EUCLID.

Books I. II. III. IV.
Book VI. Props 1. 2. 3. 4. 5. 6.

MECHANICS.

Definition of Force, Weight, Quantity of Matter, Density, Measure of Force.

The Lever.

Definition of Lever.

Axioms.

Prop. 1. A horizontal prism or cylinder of uniform density will produce the same effect by its weight as if it were collected at its middle point.

Prop. 2. If two weights acting perpendicularly on a straight lever on opposite sides of the fulcrum balance each other, they are inversely as their distances from the fulcrum; and the pressure on the fulcrum is equal to their sum.

Prop. 3. If two forces acting perpendicularly on a straight lever in opposite directions and on the same side of the fulcrum balance each other, they are inversely as their distances from the fulcrum; and the pressure on the fulcrum is equal to the difference of the forces.

Prop. 4. To explain the kinds of levers.

Prop. 5. If two forces acting perpendicularly at the extremities of the arms of any lever balance each other, they are inversely as the arms.

Prop. 6. If two forces acting at any angles on the arms of any lever balance each other, they are inversely as the perpendiculars drawn from the fulcrum to the directions in which the forces act.

Prop. 7. If two weights balance each other on a straight lever when it is horizontal, they will balance each other in every position of the lever.

Composition and Resolution of Forces.

Definition of Component and Resultant Forces.

Prop. 8. If the adjacent sides of a parallelogram represent the component forces in direction and magnitude, the diagonal will represent the resultant force in direction and magnitude.

Prop. 9. If three forces, represented in magnitude and direction by the sides of a triangle, act on a point, they will keep it at rest.

And also of such Questions and Applications as arise directly out of the aforenamed Propositions.

Mechanical Powers.

Definition of Wheel and Axle.

Prop. 10. There is an equilibrium upon the wheel and axle when the power is to the weight as the radius of the axle to the radius of the wheel.

Definition of Pulley.

Prop. 11. In the single moveable pulley where the strings are parallel, there is an equilibrium when the power is to the weight as 1 to 2.

Prop. 12. In a system in which the same string passes round any number of pulleys, and the parts of it between the pulleys are parallel, there is an equilibrium when power (P) : weight (W) :: 1 : the number of strings at the lower block.

Prop. 13. In a system in which each pulley hangs by a separate string, and the strings are parallel, there is an equilibrium when $P : W :: 1 :$ that power of 2 whose index is the number of moveable pulleys.

Prop. 14. The weight (W) being on an inclined plane, and the force (P) acting parallel to the plane, there is an equilibrium when $P : W ::$ the height of the plane : its length.

Definition of Velocity.

Prop. 15. Assuming that the arcs which subtend equal angles at the centres of two circles are as the radii of the circles, to shew that if P and W balance each other on the wheel and axle, and the whole be put in motion, $P : W :: W$'s velocity : P's velocity.

Prop. 16. To shew that if P and W balance each other in the machines described in propositions 11, 12, 13, and 14, and the whole be put in motion, $P : W :: W$'s velocity in the direction of gravity : P's velocity.

The Centre of Gravity.

Definition of Centre of Gravity.

Prop. 17. If a body balance itself on a line in all positions, the centre of gravity is in that line.

Prop. 18. To find the centre of gravity of two heavy points; and to shew that the pressure at the centre of gravity is equal to the sum of the weights in all positions.

Prop. 19. To find the centre of gravity of any number of heavy points; and to shew that the pressure at the centre of gravity is equal to the sum of the weights in all positions.

Prop. 20. To find the centre of gravity of a straight line.

Prop. 21. To find the centre of gravity of a triangle.

Prop. 22. When a body is placed on a horizontal plane, it will stand or fall, according as the vertical line, drawn from its centre of gravity, falls within or without its base.

Prop. 23. When a body is suspended from a point, it will rest with its centre of gravity in the vertical line passing through the point of suspension.

HYDROSTATICS.

Definitions of Fluid; of elastic and non-elastic Fluids.

Pressure of non-elastic Fluids.

Prop. 1. Fluids press equally in all directions.

Prop. 2. The pressure upon any particle of a fluid of uniform density is proportional to its depth below the surface of the fluid.

Prop. 3. The surface of every fluid at rest is horizontal.

Prop. 4. If a vessel, the bottom of which is horizontal and the sides vertical, be filled with fluid, the pressure upon the bottom will be equal to the weight of the fluid.

Prop. 5. To explain the hydrostatic paradox.

Prop. 6. If a body floats on a fluid, it displaces as much of the fluid as is equal in weight to the weight of the body; and it presses downwards and is pressed upwards with a force equal to the weight of the fluid displaced.

Specific Gravities.

Definition of Specific Gravity.

Prop. 7. If M be the magnitude of a body, S its specific gravity, and W its weight, $W = MS$.

Prop. 8. When a body of uniform density floats on a fluid, the part immersed : the whole body :: the specific gravity of the body : the specific gravity of the fluid.

Prop. 9. When a body is immersed in fluid, the weight lost : whole weight of the body :: the specific gravity of the fluid : the specific gravity of the body.

Prop. 10. To describe the hydrostatic balance, and to shew how to find the specific gravity of a body by means of it, 1st, when its specific gravity is greater than that of the fluid in which it is weighed; 2ndly, when it is less.

Prop. 11. To describe the common hydrometer, and to shew how to compare the specific gravities of two fluids by means of it.

Elastic Fluids.

Prop. 12. Air has weight.

Prop. 13. The elastic force of air at a given temperature varies as the density.

Prop. 14. The elastic force of air is increased by an increase of temperature.

Prop. 15. To describe the construction of the common air-pump and its operation.

Prop. 16. To describe the construction of the condenser and its operation.

Prop. 17. To explain the construction of the common barometer, and to shew that the mercury is sustained in it by the pressure of the air on the surface of the mercury in the basin.

Prop. 18. The pressure of the atmosphere is accurately measured by the weight of the column of mercury in the barometer.

Prop. 19. To describe the construction of the common pump and its operation.

Prop. 20. To describe the construction of the forcing pump and its operation.

Prop. 21. To explain the action of the siphon.

Prop. 22. To shew how to graduate a common thermometer.

Prop. 23. Having given the number of degrees on Fahrenheit's thermometer, to find the corresponding number on the centigrade thermometer.

Regulations concerning the Professors' Examinations, an additional Condition for the ordinary B.A. Degree appointed by Grace, Oct. 31, 1848.

1. That, at the beginning of each academical year, the Vice-Chancellor shall issue a Programme of the subjects, places, and times, of the several Professors' Lectures for the year then to ensue.

2. That all Students, who, being Candidates for the Degree of B.A.[1], are not Candidates for Honors, shall, in addition to what is now required of them, have attended, before they be admitted to Examination for their respective Degrees, the Lectures delivered during one Term at least, by one or more of the following Professors:

Regius Professor of Laws,
Regius Professor of Physic,
Professor of Moral Philosophy,
Professor of Chemistry,
Professor of Anatomy,
Professor of Modern History,
Professor of Botany,
Woodwardian Professor of Geology,
Jacksonian Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy,
Downing Professor of the Laws of England,
Downing Professor of Medicine,
Professor of Mineralogy,
Professor of Political Economy;

[1] With reference to the corresponding Examination appointed as a condition for the LL.B. degree, see Proceedings in Law, page 37.

and shall have obtained a Certificate of having passed an Examination satisfactory to one of the Professors whose Lectures they have chosen to attend.

3. That Students, who have been Candidates for Mathematical Honors, and have failed to obtain the approval of the Moderators and Examiners in the Examination for Honors, shall not, on offering themselves for the Bachelor of Arts degree, be excused the condition of producing a Professor's certificate; but it shall not be necessary for such Students to have attended the Professor's Lectures before their examination for the B.A. degree.

ADDITIONAL REGULATIONS FOR THE EXAMINATION FOR PROFESSORIAL CERTIFICATES ADOPTED BY GRACE OF THE SENATE, Feb. 21, 1855.

1. THAT there shall be joined with each Professor, in the Examination for his Certificate, an Assistant Examiner, who shall be M.B., L.B., M.A., or of a superior Degree, nominated by the Vice-Chancellor, and appointed by Grace of the Senate for one year at the first Congregation after the division of Michaelmas Term; and that the Assistant Examiner for each subject shall be of equal authority with the Professor of the same subject in the Examination.

2. That an Examination for Professors' Certificates shall be held publicly on certain days near the beginning of each Term; namely, commencing on the third Monday in the Michaelmas and Lent Terms, and on the first Monday in the Easter Term; at some one or more of which times, selected by themselves, the Professors shall hold their Examinations; and that no Certificate shall be granted to any person but those who have been approved at some one of such Examinations; and that on the days of Examination either the Professor of each subject in which an Examination is held, or the Assistant Examiner for that subject, shall attend the Examination.

3. That in the Programme of Professors' Lectures and Examinations issued by the Vice-Chancellor at the beginning of the Michaelmas Term, notice shall be given of the days of each Professor's Examination, for the Lent, Easter, and Michaelmas Terms next following.

4. That the Prælectors of the several Colleges shall send in to the Registrary, at least one week before the Examination begins, the names of the Candidates for Professors' Certificates, with notice of the subject in which each Candidate wishes to be examined.

5. That no Candidate shall be admitted to Examination by any Professor until he has attended a Course of the said Professor's Lectures; and that the attendance so required be not less than fifteen and not more than twenty lectures, it being understood that the Professor may make allowance for cases of unavoidable absence.

6. That the names of the Candidates who pass in Examination shall be published in the Senate-House on the Saturday following the Monday on which the Examination begins; those being especially noted who have passed with especial credit; and that this publication shall be accepted as the certificate required by the University.

7. That the Examinations on the scheme here proposed shall be notified in the Vice-Chancellor's Programme in Michaelmas Term, 1855, and shall take place beginning with Lent Term, 1856.

8. That, in order to entitle any Student to attend Professors' Lectures for the purpose of obtaining a Professor's Certificate, he shall be required to pay a fee of three guineas to the Registrary, and that this shall entitle him to attend any number of courses of Professors' Lectures: the sum so raised to be called the Professorial Fund.

9. That in virtue of each appointment of Assistant Examiner according to Regulation 1, the Examiner shall receive five pounds out of the Professorial Fund.

10. That the residue of the Professorial Fund be divided between the Professors in a manner to be agreed upon among themselves.

The following Grace was passed by the Senate, Oct. 29, 1856:

That, in addition to the Examinations for Professors' Certificates appointed by the Grace of March 21, 1855, any of the Professors may, with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor (in conjunction with his Assistant Examiner), hold an Examination for his Certificate on a day in the latter half of the Michaelmas Term, of which public notice shall be given at least a fortnight previous.

In order to check the practice of Degrading, the following Regulations were adopted by Grace of the Senate, Feb. 27, 1829.

1.—That no person who has degraded, be permitted to become a Candidate for University Scholarships or any other Academical Honors during his Undergraduateship, or for Honors in the Mathematical Tripos, unless he shall previously have obtained special permission for so doing, from a Syndicate hereafter to be appointed for that purpose.

2.—That the Syndicate do consist of the Vice-Chancellor, the Public Orator, the Greek Professor, and the two Moderators for the time being, who shall be invested with full power to examine into the cases of Applicants for permission to become Candidates for Honors after they have degraded, and to grant or withhold such permission, as they may think proper.

3.—That this Syndicate do meet on a certain day in October in each year, of which notice is to be given by the Vice-Chancellor, for the purpose of taking into consideration the cases of applicants; and that all applications be made in writing by the Tutor of the person or persons making such application, accompanied with certificates of ill health, or such other certificates as he may consider necessary.

By a Grace of the Senate, passed Oct. 28, 1858, it was ordained

That an Undergraduate, or Bachelor Designate in Arts, may be a Candidate for Honors in the Mathematical Tripos, or in the Classical Tripos, of any year, if at the end of the Examination for such Tripos, he shall have entered upon his ninth term at least, having previously kept eight terms; provided that not more than ten terms shall have passed after the first of the said eight terms; and that, excepting Candidates for degrees jure natalium, no Student of a different standing be allowed to be a Candidate for such Honors, unless he shall have obtained permission from the Syndicate appointed to consider the cases of persons, who have degraded.

It was provided, however, that a Student, who kept his first term, exclusive of the term in which he was admitted, in the Lent Term of the year 1855, 1856, 1857 or 1858, may be a Candidate for Honors in the Mathematical or Classical Tripos of the year 1859, 1860, 1861 or 1862 respectively.

By a Grace of the Senate, Dec. 8, 1859, power was given to the Syndicate appointed Feb. 27, 1829,

To examine into the cases of such persons, as may be desirous of becoming Candidates for Honors in the Mathematical, Classical, Moral Sciences, or Natural Sciences Tripos of any year, notwithstanding that they have been admitted to the title of Bachelors Designate in Arts or Law; and to grant permission to them, if they have been prevented by illness or other reasonable cause from entering the Honor Examination at the usual time, to defer it for one year.

It was provided by Grace of the Senate, March 26, 1852,

That, in the case of every Candidate for Honors in any Tripos, the Prælector of his College should be required to send to the Registrary before the commencement of the Examination a Certificate of the date of admission of such Candidate and of the Terms which he has kept, signed and sealed, as usual, by the Master of the College or his Locum-tenens.

Also, that a Syndicate should be appointed consisting of the Vice-Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor of the preceding year, the two Proctors, and the Registrary, who should meet together in every year on the first day of Examination for each of the Honor Triposes, or as soon after as may be, to examine the certificates sent as above required; to ascertain in what cases persons who have degraded have received permission to be Candidates for Honors, and in the case of any Candidate claiming to be entitled to an Honorary degree whether such claim be valid; to ascertain further, whether the Candidates have passed the Previous Examination according to the rules prescribed for it, and also in the case of Candidates for Honors in the Classical Tripos, the Moral Sciences Tripos, and the Natural Sciences Tripos, whether they have passed the other requisite Examinations and performed the requisite Exercises; and finally to make known to the Examiners in each case, as soon as may be after the commencement of the Examination, the names of those persons who are duly qualified in point of standing and other circumstances to be Candidates for Honors.

ADMISSION OF THE QUESTIONISTS.

On the last Saturday in January there is a Congregation in the forenoon for the admission to the title of Bachelor designate in Arts of those who have obtained Honors in the Mathematical Tripos; at ten o'clock, the whole number of Candidates appear in the Senate-House.

One of the Bedells calls up the Senate, and the Senior Moderator makes a Latin speech; the Vice-Chancellor sitting in the chair, and the Moderator standing on his left hand.

The Council has previously passed the Supplicats of the Candidates, the Prælector, or Father of his College, having presented to it two papers on behalf of each Candidate:

1. The Supplicat having the name of the Candidate in full, and of his College on it, and signed by the Prælector himself.
2. A certificate, signed and sealed by the Master of the College (or his locum-tenens), shewing that each Questionist has kept the required number of terms; if otherwise, the deficiency is mentioned in the Supplicat, and a certificate explaining the cause is delivered to the Council by the Father.

If any Questionist have been prevented by illness from keeping all his terms, the Certificate to be delivered to the Council is to be in the following form:

I hereby certify to the Senate and University of Cambridge, that Mr —, of —— College, has been under my care from the —— day of —— till the —— day of ——; and that during that time he could not with safety, on account of his health, return to Cambridge.

Witness my hand this —— day of ——, 18—.

C. D.

(Residence.) (M.D. or Surgeon.)

Feb. 29, 1864.

The Council of the Senate, having reason to believe that some uncertainty prevails as to the conditions under which Ægrotat terms are allowed, have agreed to the following minute:—

That only one term be allowed under Stat. cap. 2, sect. 11, and that no term be so allowed if the applicant has omitted to reside during any term subsequent to that for which he applies without satisfactory reason for such omission.

One of the Bedells carries the Supplicats to the Proctors; the senior reads them, and if all are approved, he says, Omnes placent. But if any are disapproved of, he says, A.B. &c. non placent, reliquæ placent.

The Supplicats are then delivered to the Registrary, who writes on them, Lect. et conces. die — Jan. ——

The Vice-Chancellor takes the chair before the table, and a Bedell having desired the respective Fathers to be in readiness with their Sons, he precedes the Father of the Senior Wrangler (the rest of the Fathers following with their Sons) to the Vice-Chancellor.

The Father, taking the Senior Wrangler by the right hand, presents him in these words:

Dignissime Domine, Domine Pro-Cancellarie, et tota Academia; præsento vobis hunc juvenem, quem scio, tam moribus quam doctrinâ, esse idoneum ad titulum assequendum baccalaurei in artibus designati, idque tibi fide meâ præsto, totique Academiæ.

The Senior Wrangler then kneels down before the Vice-Chancellor, who, taking his hands between his own, admits him in these words:

Auctoritate mihi commissâ, admitto te ad titulum baccalaurei in artibus designati, in nomine Patris, et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti.

The Father of King's next presents his Sons: then the Questionists of Trinity and St John's are commonly presented, and after them those of the other Colleges according to the seniority of the Fathers. Four or five are presented at once, the Father saying, Præsento vobis hos juvenes quos, &c.

As soon as they have been presented, they are directed by one of the Bedells to the south side of the Senate-House.

When all have been presented, they are admitted by the Vice-Chancellor in the order in which their names stand in the list of Honors.

When the admissions are concluded, the Vice-Chancellor dissolves the Congregation.

The form of admission to the title of Bachelor designate in Arts at other times is similar.

The Inauguration of all Bachelors designate, and perfecting of their degree, takes place in every year on the second day of the Easter Term. The names are read in the following order: 1. Wranglers. 2. The first class of the Classical Tripos. 3. Senior Optimes. 4. The second class of the Classical Tripos. 5. Junior Optimes. 6. The third class of the Classical Tripos. 7. The first class for ordinary degrees in June. 8. The second class for the same. 9. The third class for the same. 10. The fourth class for the same. 11. Students admitted at other times, the names being arranged alphabetically.

The Senior Proctor then pronounces them all to be actually Bachelors in Arts.

REGULATIONS FOR THE MORAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, ADOPTED BY THE SENATE.

1. That all Students, who shall pass with credit the Examination for the Moral Sciences Tripos, be entitled to admission to the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

2. That, excepting Candidates for degrees jure natalium, no Student be admitted to the Examination who has not passed the Examination in the additional mathematical subjects of the Previous Examination.

3. That any Undergraduate or Bachelor designate in Arts or Law may be admitted to the examination in any year, if at the time of such examination he shall have entered upon his eighth term at least, having previously kept seven terms; provided that not more than nine terms shall have passed after the first of the said seven terms; and, excepting Candidates for degrees jure natalium, no Student of a different standing be admitted to the examination unless he shall have obtained permission from the Syndicate appointed to consider the cases of persons who have degraded.

4. That any Student, who has been admitted to the degree of B.A. jure natalium, or is a Candidate for such degree, may, without passing the Previous Examination, be admitted to the Examination in any year, if at the time of such examination he shall have entered upon his sixth Term at least, having previously kept five Terms; provided that not more than seven Terms shall have passed after the first of the said five Terms.

5. That a student, who has obtained honors in the Mathematical or Classical Tripos of any year, may be admitted to the Examination in the following Michaelmas Term.

6. That a student, who has obtained Honors in the Examination for the degree of Bachelor of Law in any year, may be admitted to the Examination in the following Michaelmas Term; provided that not more than ten terms passed after his first term of residence before he was admitted to the examination for the degree of Bachelor of Law.

7. That the names of the Students, who pass the Examination with credit, be placed according to merit in three classes; the places being determined by estimating the aggregate merits of each student in all the subjects of examination, and marks of distinction being affixed to the names of those, who have shewn eminent proficiency in particular subjects: provided that no credit be assigned to a Student in any subject unless it appear to the Examiners that he has shewn a competent knowledge of that subject.

8. That the examination in every year commence on the last Monday in November.

9. That the Subjects of Examination be Moral Philosophy, Mental Philosophy and Logic, Modern History, Political Economy, and General Jurisprudence; and that the examination be conducted according to a scheme formed by the Board of Moral Science Studies, hereafter mentioned, and approved by the Senate.

10. That to conduct the examination two Examiners be nominated in every year by the Board of Moral Science Studies; such Examiners, if elected by the Senate, and also re-elected by the Senate in the following year, to hold their office for two years; the elections to be by Grace in the preceding Easter Term; and each of the four Examiners in every year to receive Ten Pounds from the University Chest.

THE FOLLOWING RULES WERE CONFIRMED BY GRACE OF THE SENATE, May 24, 1860.

1. THAT the Moral Sciences Tripos Examination shall continue during six days, the hours of attendance being from nine to twelve in the morning, and from one to four in the afternoon.

2. That the subjects for examination shall be considered to form two groups, the one embracing (1) Moral Philosophy; (2) Mental Philosophy; (3) Logic; the other group, (4) History and Political Philosophy; (5) Political Economy; (6) Jurisprudence. And that eleven out of the twelve papers shall contain an equal number of questions from either group, and that the twelfth paper shall contain questions in the History of Philosophy.

The questions shall be in part of a special kind, having reference to books on the subjects; and in part, of a general kind, having reference to the subjects themselves. These latter questions may take the form of theses for essays.

3. That it shall be the duty of the Board to mark out lines of study in the several subjects before mentioned: and to publish a List of Books in relation to which questions shall be set; modifying the same from time to time as occasion may require.

4. That each paper shall be set by two of the Examiners and approved by their colleagues; and that the answers to the papers shall be examined by two at least of the Examiners.

5. That if a candidate wish to confine his attention to two subjects, he be not thereby precluded from obtaining a place in the First Class.

6. That the Candidates who may be thought worthy of honours be arranged in each class in order of merit.

List of Books agreed to by the Board of Moral Sciences Studies, 25 May, 1860, in pursuance of the Grace of May 24, 1860.

THE following Lists of Authors and Books are intended to mark the general course which the examination is to take in the several subjects of the Moral Sciences Tripos. The Board recommend that, in the examinations, questions be proposed having reference to the books in these lists; and that opportunity also be given to the Candidates to show a knowledge of other works both ancient and recent, in which the same subjects have been treated with the same or different views.

1. Moral Philosophy.

Plato, The Moral Dialogues.
Aristotle's Ethics.
Cicero de Finibus, de Officiis.
Clarke on the Attributes and on Unchangeable Morality.
Butler's Sermons.
Dugald Stewart on the Active Powers.
Paley's Moral Philosophy.
Whewell's Elements of Morality, and Lectures on History of Moral Philosophy.
Kant's Ethical System.
Fichte's Ethical System, (translated works, vol. 1).

2. Mental Philosophy.

Plato's Theætetus.
Aristotle de Anima.
Descartes on Method.
Locke's Essay.
Reid's Philosophy (Hamilton's Notes and Dissertations).
Kant's Kritik der Reinen Vernunft. (In Bohn's Series.)
Victor Cousin's Philosophie du XVIII Siecle.
Sir W. Hamilton's Lectures on Metaphysics.

3. Logic.

Aristotle's Categories and Analytics.
Trendelenburg's Elementa Logices Aristotelicæ.
Aldrich, with Mansel's Notes.
Whately's Logic.
Sir W. Hamilton's Lectures on Logic.
J. S. Mill's Logic.
W. Thomson's Laws of Thought.
Bacon's Novum Organon.
Whewell's Novum Organon Renovatum.

4. History and Political Philosophy.

Plato's Republic.
Aristotle's Politics.
Montesquieu's Esprit des Lois.
Guizot's History of Civilization, and History of Representative Government.
Hallam's Middle Ages and Constitutional History.
Brougham's Political Philosophy.

A knowledge of the facts of history as referred to in the speculative works will be required.

5. Political Economy.

Adam Smith's Wealth of Nations (M^cCulloch's Edition).
Malthus on Population and on Political Economy.
Ricardo's Political Economy.
J. S. Mill's ————————
M^cCulloch's Political Economy.

7. The History of Philosophy.

Ancient and Modern.

Regulations for the Natural Sciences Tripos, adopted by the Senate.

1. That all Students, who shall pass with credit the Examination for the Natural Sciences Tripos, be entitled to admission to the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

2. That, excepting Candidates for degrees jure natalium, no Student be admitted to the Examination who has not passed the Examination in the additional mathematical subjects of the Previous Examination.

3. That any Undergraduate or Bachelor designate in Arts or Law may be admitted to the Examination in any year, if at the time of such Examination he shall have entered upon his eighth term at least, having previously kept seven terms; provided that not more than nine terms shall have passed after the first of the said seven terms; and, excepting Candidates for degrees jure natalium, no Student of a different standing be admitted to the Examination unless he shall have obtained permission from the Syndicate appointed to consider the cases of persons who have degraded.

4. That any Student, who has been admitted to the degree of B.A. jure natalium, or is a Candidate for such degree, may, without passing the Previous Examination, be admitted to the Examination in any year, if at the time of such examination he shall have entered upon his sixth Term at least, having previously kept five terms; provided that not more than seven Terms shall have passed after the first of the said five Terms.

5. That a Student, who has obtained honors in the Mathematical or Classical Tripos of any year, may be admitted to the Examination in the following Michaelmas Term.

6. That a Student, who has obtained Honors in the Examination for the degree of Bachelor of Law in any year, may be admitted to the Examination in the following Michaelmas Term; provided that not more than ten terms passed after his first term of residence before he was admitted to the Examination for the degree of Bachelor of Law.

7. That the names of the Students, who pass the Examination with credit, be placed according to merit in three classes; the places being determined by estimating the aggregate merits of each student in all the subjects of Examination, and marks of distinction being affixed to the names of those who have shewn eminent proficiency in particular subjects: provided that no credit be assigned to a Student in any subject unless it appear to the Examiners that he has shewn a competent knowledge of that subject.

8. That the Examination in every year commence on the first Monday in December.

9. That the Subjects of Examination be Chemistry, Botany, Geology, Mineralogy and Zoology, with Comparative Anatomy and Comparative Physiology; and that the examination be conducted according to a scheme formed by the Board of Natural Science Studies hereafter mentioned, and approved by the Senate.

10. That to conduct the Examination two Examiners be nominated in every year by the Board of Natural Science Studies; such Examiners, if elected by the Senate, and also re-elected by the Senate in the following year, to hold their office for two years; the elections to be by Grace in the preceding Easter Term; and each of the four Examiners in every year to receive Ten Pounds from the University Chest.

The following Rules were confirmed by Grace of the Senate, May 24, 1860.

1. The Natural Sciences Tripos Examination shall continue during six days, the hours of attendance being from nine to twelve in the morning and from one to four in the afternoon:

2. The questions shall be comprised in twelve papers and be so distributed that eleven of the papers shall each contain one or more questions in each of the several subjects, viz. (1) Chemistry, (2) Mineralogy, (3) Geology, (4) Botany, (5) Zoology with Comparative Anatomy and Comparative Physiology, and one paper shall consist of questions relating to the History and Philosophy of these Sciences:

Some of the questions shall refer to objects exhibited at the examination:

3. It shall be the duty of the Board to mark out lines of study in the several subjects before mentioned:

4. The questions proposed by each Examiner as well as the distribution of the questions in the several papers shall be submitted to and approved by the Examiners collectively:

5. The answers to each question shall be examined by two at least of the Examiners:

6. The candidates who may be thought worthy of honors shall be arranged in each class in order of merit:

7. No candidate shall be placed in the first class who has not shewn considerable proficiency in some one at least of the four subjects numbered (1), (2), (3), (4), or in two at least of the three divisions of No. (5).

The Board of Natural Science Studies recommends, in pursuance of the Grace of the Senate of May 24, 1860, that in the Examination for Honors in Natural Science, the questions be proposed in accordance with the subjoined Plan, which will also serve to mark out the lines of study in the several subjects to be followed by the Candidates.

I. CHEMISTRY.

1°. So much of general physics as is necessary to a right understanding of chemical processes. 2°. The general principles of chemistry, and the explanation of chemical processes. 3°. So much of the facts of chemistry as is of interest, either as illustrating the principles of chemistry, or on account of the importance of the subject-matter economically or scientifically. 4°. The actual qualitative analysis of mixtures containing substances not of rare occurrence. 5°. The most important methods of quantitative analysis and the calculations required in them. 6°. The History and Philosophy of Chemistry.

In order to make more plain what is understood to be "important" or "of interest," the student's attention is directed to the following list of principal points, not that it is intended that the questions should be set on these points only, but also upon such matters as are directly connected with them and naturally arise out of them.

General Physics.

The physical states of matter. The different kinds of attraction existing between matter. Specific gravity. Elasticity, Boyle's Law, and the correction for pressure in the measurement of gases.

Solution, saturation, diffusion of liquids, endosmose and exosmose, diffusion and effusion of gases, adhesion of gases to solids.

Crystallization, regularity of crystalline form, cleavage, symmetry of crystalline form, systems of crystallization, isomorphism, dimorphism.

Separation of substances by crystallization.

Allotropy.

Light. The spectrum, dark lines in the spectrum, phosphorescence, fluorescence.

Heat. Sources of heat. Expansion by heat, measurement of temperature, correction of measurement of gases for temperature. Conduction, convection, radiation, reflexion and refraction of heat. Absorption of heat, connexion between absorption and radiation. Relative absorbability of heat of different kinds. Diathermancy.

Specific heat. Disappearance and evolution of heat with a change of the physical state of matter. Ebullition, causes affecting the boiling point. Kopp's law of boiling points of homologues. Difference in the quantity of heat latent in different vapours. Distillation. Evaporation. Dalton's law of the tension of vapours. The limit of evaporation. Rate of evaporation. Dew-point. Hygrometers. Liquefaction and solidification of gases. Spheroidal state.

Relation of specific heat and chemical equivalents. Quantities of heat developed by chemical action. Calorific equivalents. Mechanical equivalent of heat.

Electricity. Simple facts of Static Electricity. Insulators and conductors. Electroscopes. Induction. Electrical machines. Leyden jar. Measure of Electricity. Specific induction. Conduction, development of heat in conductors. Disruptive discharge. Convection.

Galvanic electricity. Simple voltaic circuits. Relation of galvanic circuits to magnetism. Galvanometers. Part played by chemical action in producing voltaic action. Galvanic batteries. Resistances to voltaic currents. Chemical decomposition by voltaic electricity. Voltaic discharge by conduction, disruption and convection.

Electro-magnets. Mutual action of wires conducting currents. Magneto-electric induction. Induction coils.

INORGANIC CHEMISTRY.

The following elements and their compounds to be omitted: Cerium, Didymium, Erbium, Glucinium, Iridium, Lanthanium, Niobium, Osmium, Rhodium, Ruthenium, Tantalum, Terbium, Thorium, Vanadium, Yttrium, Zirconium.

ORGANIC CHEMISTRY.

The production of chemical metamorphoses by oxidation, reduction and substitution. Fermentation and putrefaction.

Proximate analysis. Ultimate analysis, determination of chemical formulæ. Gerhardt's unitary system of notation. Isomerism.

Determination of densities of vapours.

Classification. Chemical types. Radicles, rational formulæ. Homologous radicles, conjugated radicles, equivalents of radicles, polybasic acids. Classification in series.

Carbonic oxide as a radicle. Carbonic ethers. Carbamide.

Formyl. Formic acid and ethers.

Oxalic acid, its ethers and amides. Oxamic acid.

Cyanogen and its isomers. Hydrocyanic acid and other cyanides. Hydrocyanic ethers. Cyanic acid and its isomers. Cyanic ethers. Hydrosulphocyanic acid and sulphocyanides. Urea, compound ureas. Uric acid.

Kreatine and cafeine.

Methyl. Marsh-gas. Zinc-methyl. Wood spirit. Methylic ether, Methyl-sulphuric acid. Sulphides and chloride of methyl, chlorinated derivatives of methyl. Methylic amides. Kakodyl and its principal compounds.

Acetyl. Aldehyd and its isomers. Chloral. Lactic acid. Acetic acid. Acetic ethers. Chloracetic acid. Acetamide.

Glycerine.

Malic acid. Tartaric acid and its isomers, citric acid.

Olefiant gas and its chlorinated derivatives. Ethyl and its compounds with Hydrogen and Zinc. Alcohol, metallic derivatives of alcohol, derivatives of alcohol by oxidation, chlorinated derivatives. Ether, double ethers, compound ethers. Vinic acids. Compounds of ethyl with sulphur, chlorine, &c. Ethyl-ammonias. Metallic derivatives of ethyl.

Succinic acid.

Cellulose and its isomers. Products of action of nitric acid upon cellulose. Sugars, metallic derivatives of sugars.

Butyric acid. Butyric ethers.

Valerianic acid.

Amyl. Amylic alcohol. Amylic ether, compounds of oxide of amyl with acids, chloride of amyl. Amyl-ammonias.

Other fatty acids. Soap. Ethers of these acids.

Benzine. Derivatives from benzine by nitric acid. Phenic acid, carbazotic acid, aniline, phenyl-ammonias.

Benzoyl. Oil of bitter almonds. Benzoic acid.

Oil of Spiræa. Salicin. Salicylic acid. Oils of anise and cinnamon.

Naphthaline.

Indigo. White and blue. Sulphindigotic acid.

Essence of turpentine and its isomers. Products of action of hydrochloric acid, of chlorine, and oxygen, on essence of turpentine. Resins. Camphor.

Tannic acids. Gallic acid.

Vegetable alkalies. Morphia. Quinia, cinchonia. Strychnia.

Albumen. Gelatine.

II. MINERALOGY.

Art. 325—331.

N.B.—Specimens of minerals will be given to be identified; models and figures of crystals for the determination of the systems to which they belong and the simple forms of which they are combinations; and fragments of minerals to be tested.

III. GEOLOGY.

General view of the structure and composition of the earth's crust. Density of the earth, and temperature of the same internal and external.

Physical Geography. Mountains, springs, rivers, currents, &c. Action of the atmosphere, water and ice: igneous action, volcanos, earthquakes. Changes resulting from movements, changes of climate. Lapse of time.

Systematic Geology of Great Britain, including the classification and nomenclature of its formations, beginning with the oldest Palæozoic rocks and ending with the gravel and glacial drifts.

The co-ordination of the formations with those of the continents of Europe and America.

Palæontology. Preservation and distribution of organic remains. Classification of fossils, with a determination from actual specimens of the organic forms most characteristic of each group of formations. A more detailed scientific classification of the Vertebrata and its application to the vertebrate forms found during the chief geological periods, with a determination of certain characteristic genera from an exhibition and examination of specimens. Effects of movements in the earth on organic life; and modifications in the earth's surface produced by organic beings.

Volcanic phenomena, and an examination of the most common volcanic products.

Metamorphic phenomena, their extent and origin. The conditions under which they have been effected.

Crystalline rocks. The conditions of temperature, &c. under which they have been formed.

Mineral veins.

Modern changes in progress, formation of deltas, alluvial soils and fenlands. Theory of coral-reefs and other marine formations now in progress and modifying the crust of the earth.

Progress of Geology during the past century.

IV. BOTANY.

1. Systematic. To describe phanerogamous plants, preference being given to a Latin terminology. To refer any species in the more important orders to their position in the system of De Candolle; but without requiring generic and specific names.

N.B.—Recent or dried specimens will be submitted for examination, the latter will in general be previously moistened to allow of their being dissected. Every Candidate should be prepared with lens, penknife and forceps.

To describe the nutritive and reproductive organs of the Cryptogamic Orders; to refer well characterized specimens, at sight, to the principal divisions to which they belong.

2. Economic. The principal products (Drugs, Dyes, Woods, &c.) in any of the Orders before referred to.

3. Anatomical and Physiological.

4. Geographical and Geological.

5. Historical. The progress of Botany, instancing the Systems of Ray, Tournefort, Linnæus, Jussieu and De Candolle.

V. ZOOLOGY WITH COMPARATIVE ANATOMY AND COMPARATIVE PHYSIOLOGY.

ZOOLOGY. The examination will inquire into the various combinations of the systems of organs which characterise the classes of animals under Cuvier's four great types or plans: into the different degrees of complication of structure within the limits of these classes, i.e. in the orders: into the modifications of certain systems of organs within the orders, i.e. in the families: into the structural peculiarities of certain parts within the families, i.e. in the genera: into the character of the relations of individuals to the outer world or to each other (habits, voice, ornamentation, &c.) within the genera, i.e. in the species[1].

Stuffed or prepared specimens, or characteristic plates, of animals with details of structure, will be produced in order that they may be referred by candidates to their place in the systematic arrangement.

Note. It is not expected that candidates should exhibit minute knowledge of species or of trivial names.

COMPARATIVE ANATOMY. In the Anatomy of the Systems, the questions may relate to:

1. The Dermal System, and Dermal Skeleton.
2. The Muscular System, and Neural Skeleton.
3. The Nervous System and Organs of Sense.
4. The Digestive apparatus and Glandular Appendages.
5. The Circulatory and Respiratory Systems with the Splanchnic Skeleton.
6. The Organs of peculiar secretions.
7. The Organs of propagation.

COMPARATIVE PHYSIOLOGY. Questions will be proposed respecting the nature of the functions and their mutual relations: respecting the general, or microscopic anatomy of the tissues which compose the different systems, and in the chemistry of the solids and fluids, so that the minute mechanism of the several processes and the nature of the affinities by which the changes are affected may be indicated in the answers when required.

In COMPARATIVE ANATOMY PROPERLY SO CALLED, the various organs are compared throughout the whole animal kingdom without regard to zoological arrangement or to functions; to the end that an abstract idea or conception of each may be gained. It inquires into the typical changes of organs, the laws of forms (morphology). And the inquiry is much assisted by embryology; of which the essence is to shew how one form is unfolded from another[2]. Questions will be proposed in embryology and in the results hitherto obtained from this comparative anatomy, amongst the most signal of which are Savigny's determinations respecting the dermal skeleton of arthropod annulates and Owen's homologies of the vertebrate skeleton.

History and Philosophy. Questions will be proposed respecting the history of important discoveries in Anatomy and Physiology: also in the Philosophy of the subject, as Cuvier's law of Correlation of Organs, &c.

INCEPTORS IN ARTS.

A Bachelor of Arts may be admitted ad incipiendum in artibus at any time after three years from the completion of his Bachelor's degree. The Inceptors in every year become complete Masters of Arts by creation on the Commencement day, i.e. on the last Tuesday but one in June. The Candidates, who have incepted during the year, are not obliged to attend personally for creation, as heretofore, but the names being read over in a list arranged according to their Seniority as Bachelors, the Senior Proctor pronounces them to be actually Masters of Arts.

Degrees jure dignitatis aut natalium.

By the University Statutes, cap. 3, sect. 5, degrees may be conferred, without residence or examinations or exercises, on the following persons: viz.

1. Privy Counsellors.
2. Bishops, or Bishops designate.
3. Noblemen:—Dukes, Marquises, Earls, Viscounts, Barons.
4. Sons of Noblemen, or their heirs apparent.
5. Deans of Cathedrals.
6. Heads of Colleges.

If, however, Noblemen, or the sons or heirs apparent of Noblemen, come to the University as juvenes, they can only take the degree of B.A. and must pass the same examination for that degree as other Students. Such persons are required to reside seven Terms and may be Candidates for Honors in any of the Honor Triposes in their seventh Term of residence: they do not wait for Inauguration as Bachelors of Arts, but are at once admitted ad perfectum gradum.

No person taking a degree jure dignitatis, is entitled to a vote in the Senate unless he shall have resided three Terms.

PROCEEDINGS IN DIVINITY.

Plan of Theological Examination for Students who have passed certain Examinations.

1. That there shall be two Examinations in every year, one commencing on the first Tuesday in the Easter Term, and the other commencing on the first Tuesday after the first day of October.

2. That each of the said Examinations shall be open only to those Students who have passed the Examinations entitling to admission to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, or have passed the Examinations and performed the Exercises necessary for the degree of Bachelor of Law or Medicine.

3. That all Students presenting themselves for Examination shall be required to produce certificates of having attended the Lectures delivered during one Term at least by one of the Professors of Divinity.

4. That at the Easter Examination in every year the names of those Students, who, having been of the proper standing to be Candidates for Honors in the Moral Sciences Tripos of that year among the Commencing Bachelors, pass the Examination so as to deserve Honors, shall be placed according to merit in three classes, the names in each class being arranged alphabetically; the names of those Students, who, having been of the proper standing to be Candidates for Honors in the Moral Sciences Tripos of that year among the Middle Bachelors, pass the Examination so as to deserve Honors, shall be placed according to merit in three other classes, the names in each class being arranged alphabetically; and the names of all other Students, who pass the Examination to the satisfaction of the Examiners, shall be placed alphabetically in one class.

5. That at the October Examination in every year the names of all Students, who pass the Examination to the satisfaction of the Examiners, shall be placed alphabetically in one class.

6. That all Students, presenting themselves for Examination, shall be examined in the following subjects, viz. the Historical Books of the Old Testament, the four Gospels, and the Acts of the Apostles, and a selected portion of the Epistles in the original Greek, the Articles of Religion and the Liturgy of the Church of England, Ecclesiastical History of the first three centuries, and the History of the Reformation in England: and that no one shall be deemed to have passed the Examination, whether a Candidate for Honors or not, who has not shewn a competent knowledge of all the said Subjects. Public notice of the portion of the Epistles selected for the examination in any year, shall be given by the Board of Theological Studies in the first week of the Lent Term in the preceding year.

7. That at the Easter Examination in every year the Candidates for Honors shall be further examined in the Greek Testament, in assigned portions of the Early Fathers and of the Septuagint version of the Old Testament, and assigned works or parts of works of standard Theological writers; public notice of the portions of the Early Fathers and of the Septuagint version and of the works or parts of works of standard Theological writers, assigned for the Examination in any year, being given by the Board of Theological Studies in the first week of the Lent Term in the preceding year.

8. That the order of the Subjects and times of Examination shall be according to the following Schedules:

Easter and October Examinations.

Days.	Hours.	Subjects.
Tuesday	9 to 12 1 to 4	Historical books of the Old Testament. Greek Testament.
Wednesday	9 to 12 1 to 4	Articles of Religion. Liturgy of Church of England.
Thursday	9 to 12	Ecclesiastical History.

Additional Examination at Easter of Candidates for Honors.

Days.	Hours.	Subjects.
Thursday	1 to 4	Early Fathers.
Friday	9 to 12 1 to 4	Greek Testament and Septuagint. Standard Theological writers.

9. That immediately after each of the Easter and October Examinations an assigned portion of the Hebrew Scriptures shall form the subject of a new Examination for such of the Students already admitted to Examination as shall offer themselves to be examined therein; public notice of the portion of the Hebrew Scriptures assigned for such Examination in any year being given by the Board of Theological Studies in the first week of the Lent Term in the preceding year.

10. That marks of distinction shall be affixed in the several classes to the names of those Students, who pass the Examination in the Hebrew Scriptures to the satisfaction of the Examiners; and that at the Easter Examination the places of those Students, who are deemed worthy of Honors, shall be determined by estimating the aggregate merits of each Student in all the Subjects of Examination, including the Hebrew Scriptures.

11. That the Easter and October Examinations in every year shall be conducted by six Examiners; two of whom may be appointed by the five official members of the Board of Theological Studies out of their own number, such appointments being signified to the Vice-Chancellor before the division of the preceding Michaelmas Term, and if one or both of such appointments be not made in any year, an Examiner or Examiners for that year shall be nominated by the Board of Theological Studies and elected by the Senate, such Examiner or Examiners, however, not being entitled thereby to sit on the Board of Theological Studies; and the remaining four Examiners shall be nominated by the Board of Theological Studies and elected by Grace, two such Examiners being nominated in every year and proposed singly to the Senate before the division of the said Michaelmas Term, who shall, if elected by the Senate, and also re-elected by the Senate in the following year, hold their office for two years.

12. That each of the Examiners elected by the Senate shall receive Twenty Pounds from the University Chest.

13. That the Examinations according to the new Regulations shall be first held in the year 1856; and that four Examiners shall be nominated and elected to conduct the Examinations for that year, two to hold office for one year only.

BACHELOR OF DIVINITY (B.D.)

A Master of Arts must be of at least seven years' standing before he can be admitted to the Degree of Bachelor in Divinity, for which degree the requisite Exercises are, one Act, and an English Sermon. The Act cannot be kept by a Master of Arts of less than four years' standing: the other Exercise may be kept at any time after the Degree of Master of Arts has been completed.

The Act is required to be kept in the following manner:

The Regius Professor of Divinity shall assign the day and hour when the exercise shall be kept;

The Professor, or some graduate of the faculty, who is a member of the Senate, deputed by him, shall preside over the exercise;

The Candidate shall read a thesis, composed in Latin by himself on some subject approved by the Professor; the Professor, or graduate presiding, shall bring forward arguments or objections in English for the Candidate to answer, and shall examine him in English vivâ voce as well on questions connected with his thesis as on other subjects in the faculty of a more general nature; the exercise being made to continue at least one hour;

Public notice of the Act shall be given by fixing on the door of the University schools, eight days at least before the assigned time, a written paper specifying the name and college of the Candidate, the day and hour appointed for the exercise, and the subject of the thesis: copies of the notice shall be delivered also, at the same time, to the Vice-Chancellor and to the Professor.

The regular time for proceeding to this Degree, in the case of a Master of Arts of seven years' standing, is on the eleventh of June. Masters of Arts of more than seven years' standing may be admitted on other days. At the Congregation, when he is to be admitted, the Candidate must be present, in his gown and cassock, and a black hood.

BACHELOR IN DIVINITY, by the 9th chapter of the Statutes of ELIZABETH in the 12th year of her reign.

The right of proceeding to the Degree of B.D. under this Statute is reserved for all persons who were admitted of any College before July 31, 1858, being then more than 24 years old.

Such a person having continued a member of his College for ten years at the least, during the last two of which he has resided in College the greater part of three several Terms, may proceed to the Degree of Bachelor in Divinity. The Exercises to be performed in this case are precisely the same as those required of a Master of Arts. The Candidate is moreover examined by the Regius Professor of Divinity, for the purpose of ascertaining whether he has complied with the provisions of the Statute, and actually devoted himself to the study of Theology.

It is recommended to all persons who intend to proceed to the Degree of Bachelor in Divinity under this statute, to call upon the Regius Professor of Divinity, at the commencement of their residence in the University, in order that due arrangements may be made for the performance of the requisite Exercises.

DOCTOR OF DIVINITY.

A Doctor in Divinity must be a Bachelor in Divinity of five years' standing. The Exercises are one Act, and an English Sermon.

PROCEEDINGS IN LAW.

PREPARATORY to the Degree of Bachelor of Law, a student is obliged to pass the Previous Examination; and to attend the Lectures of the Professor during two terms at least, or the Lectures of the Professor during one term and the Lectures of the Downing Professor of Law during one term.

REGULATIONS for the EXAMINATION for the Degree of Bachelor of Law confirmed by Graces of the Senate.

That in the year 1858, and in all subsequent years, every Candidate for the Degree of Bachelor of Law should be required to pass an Examination, established according to the following Plan:—

1. That there shall be an Examination in every year, commencing on December 11, (or December 12 if December 11 be a Sunday) and open to all Students who have passed the previous Examination, and have kept nine Terms at least.

2. That the Subjects of Examination shall be portions of the Roman Civil Law, the Constitutional and General Law of England, International Law, and General Jurisprudence; and that the Examination shall be conducted according to a scheme formed by the Board of Legal Studies and approved by the Senate.

3. That the Examiners shall be the Regius Professor of Laws, and three other Members of the Senate nominated by the Board of Legal Studies and elected by Grace before the division of Michaelmas Term in every year: and if the Regius Professor of Laws shall be prevented from examining in any year, a Deputy to examine in his stead shall be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor and elected by the Senate.

4. That the names of those Students who pass the Examination with credit shall be placed according to merit in three Honor classes; and the names of those who pass the Examination to the satisfaction of the Examiners, yet not so as to deserve Honors, shall be placed alphabetically in a fourth class.

5. That no person shall have his name placed in any of the Honor classes if more than ten Terms have passed after his first Term of residence, unless he has obtained permission to be a Candidate for Honors from the Syndicate appointed to examine into the cases of applicants for permission to become Candidates for Honors after they have degraded.

6. That there shall be one additional Examination in every year, commencing on the Tuesday preceding the end of the first two thirds of the Easter Term, and open to all Students who have passed the Previous Examination and have entered upon their ninth Term at least, having previously kept eight Terms; the subjects of Examination being the same as in the preceding Lent Term, and the Examination being conducted by the same Examiners according to a scheme formed by the Board of Legal Studies and approved by the Senate. If a Student passes this Examination in his ninth Term, he must shew, when he applies for admission to his Degree, that he has kept the said ninth Term.

7. That the names of those Students who pass the Examination in the Easter Term shall be arranged alphabetically in one class.

8. That each of the three Examiners elected by the Senate shall receive Ten Pounds from the University Chest.

The following Scheme for the Examination of Candidates for the Degree of Bachelor of Law has been formed by the Board of Legal Studies, in compliance with the foregoing Regulations, and approved by the SENATE.

1. That the fixed subjects for Students who are Candidates for Honors shall be:—Hallam's "Constitutional History of England," Wheaton's "Elements of International Law," and some modern Edition of Blackstone's "Commentaries."

2. That, in addition to these fixed subjects, there shall be others selected by the Board of Legal Studies, of which one or more Books of the Digest, portions of the "The Institutes of Gaius and Justinian," and portions of "Quintilian de Institutione Oratoria," or some Oration of Cicero involving points of law, shall always form part, public notice of which shall be issued in the Lent Term of the year next preceding the Examination, or earlier if the Board think fit.

3. That the fixed subjects of examination for Students not Candidates for Honors shall be:—Justinian's Institutes, Books I. and II. with Sandars's Annotations and Commentary, and the 2nd Title of the Ist Book of the Digest, "De Origine Juris," Ulpian's Fragments, Hallam's Constitutional History, from the time of the Revolution, and Warren's Blackstone.

4. That Candidates for the ordinary degree in Law be allowed the option of being examined in the principles of Jurisprudence and in Hindoo and Mahommedan Law instead of Hallam's Constitutional History.

5. That the distribution of the subjects and times of Examination be at the discretion of the Examiners; such distribution, however, being made known by public notice before the commencement of the Examination.

REGULATION concerning an additional EXAMINATION BY A PROFESSOR, appointed as a Condition for the LL.B. Degree by Grace, Oct. 31, 1848.

THAT all Students, who, being Candidates for the Degree of LL.B., do not obtain Honours in that Faculty, shall, in addition to what is now required of them, have attended, before they be allowed to keep their Act, the Lectures delivered during one Term at least, by one or more of the following Professors:

Regius Professor of Physic,
Professor of Moral Philosophy,
Professor of Chemistry,
Professor of Anatomy,
Professor of Modern History,
Professor of Botany,
Woodwardian Professor of Geology,
Jacksonian Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy,
Downing Professor of Medicine,
Professor of Mineralogy,
Professor of Political Economy;

and shall have obtained a certificate of having passed an Examination satisfactory to one of the Professors whose Lectures they have chosen to attend.

Candidates for Honors in Law at the Examination in December are required to keep an exercise in the schools in the following manner.

THE Regius Professor of the faculty assigns the day and hour when the exercise shall be kept;

The Professor and the other Examiners preside over the exercise;

The Candidate reads a thesis, composed in English by himself on some subject approved by the Professor; having read the thesis, the Professor, and other Examiners presiding, proceed to examine the Candidate vivâ voce on his thesis, and subjects connected with it.

Public Notice of the Exercise shall be given by fixing on the door of the University Schools, eight days at least before the assigned time, a written paper specifying the name and college of the Candidate, the day and hour appointed for the exercise, and the subject of the thesis: copies of the notice shall be delivered also, at the same time, to the Vice-Chancellor and to the Professor.

It is further ordained:

1. That no one be placed in the Honor classes of the examination for the degree of Bachelor of Law, who has not kept his exercise to the satisfaction of the Professor.

2. That in determining the said Honor classes credit be given to every Student for the manner in which he kept his exercise.

3. That every Candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Law, who is not a Candidate for Honors, be examined vivâ voce in the public schools of the University in a public manner by two at least of the Examiners, appointed to conduct the examination for the degree of Bachelor of Law, present at the same time; the time of such examination being assigned by the Professor, and public notice of it given eight days at least beforehand by a written paper fixed on the school door; and that no such Candidate be admitted to his degree unless he passes the said Examination to the satisfaction of the Examiners.

4. That Students who have obtained honors in the Mathematical or Classical Tripos and have thereby become entitled to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, or who, having passed the ordinary examination for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, have afterwards obtained Honors in the Classical, or Moral Sciences', or Natural Sciences' Tripos, be allowed to be candidates for Honors in the examination for the degree of Bachelor of Law next succeeding the examination, by which they became entitled to the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

5. That a fee of £3 3*s*. be paid by every Student who attends one or more courses of the Professors' Lectures, and a fee of £3 3*s*. be paid to the Professor by every Student whose name is sent in for the Examination in Law.

Students, who kept nine terms, and passed the exercises required by the Statutes of Elizabeth, before January 1, 1858, are not required to pass any further examination, but may be admitted at once to the title of Bachelors Designate in Law.

There are two days of general admission of Bachelors Designate in Law in every year, viz. the last Saturday in January and the Saturday before the Commencement in June. Students, admitted at other times, pay additional fees.

The Inauguration of Bachelors Designate, and perfecting of their degrees, takes place, as in Arts, on the second day of the Easter term in every year.

A Bachelor of Law may take the Degree of Master of Law, by incepting, as in Arts, at any time after the completion of three years from his Inauguration. The creation of Masters of Law takes place, without their personal attendance, on Commencement Tuesday.

Bachelors of Arts and Masters of Arts may also take the degree of Master of Law; but they must pass the same examination as Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Law.

A Master of Law of five years' standing may proceed to the degree of Doctor of Law; he is required to keep an Act in the following manner:

The Regius Professor of the faculty shall assign the day and hour when the exercise shall be kept;

The Professor, or some graduate of the faculty, who is a member of the Senate, deputed by him, shall preside over the exercise;

The Candidate shall read a thesis, composed in English by himself on some subject approved by the Professor; the Professor, or graduate presiding, shall bring forward arguments or objections in English for the Candidate to answer, and shall examine him in English vivâ voce as well on questions connected with his thesis as on other subjects in the faculty of a more general nature; the exercise being made to continue at least one hour;

Public notice of the Act shall be given by fixing on the door of the University Schools, eight days at least before the assigned time, a written paper specifying the name and college of the Candidate, the day and hour appointed for the exercise, and the subject of the thesis: copies of the notice shall be delivered also, at the same time, to the Vice-Chancellor and to the Professor.

Candidates for the Degree of Doctor of Law pay to the Professor for keeping their Act a fee of £10. 10*s*.

PROCEEDINGS IN MEDICINE AND SURGERY.

A STUDENT before he can become a Bachelor of Medicine must have resided nine terms.

The Exercise for this Degree is one Act.

The Degree of Doctor of Medicine may be granted to a Bachelor of Medicine in the ninth term after his Inauguration, and to a Master of Arts in the twelfth term after his creation.

The Exercise for this degree is one Act.

The Act, whether for a Bachelor's or Doctor's degree, is to be kept in the following manner:

The Regius Professor of the faculty shall assign the day and hour when the exercise shall be kept;

The Professor, or some graduate of the faculty, who is a member of the Senate, deputed by him, shall preside over the exercise;

The Candidate shall read a thesis, composed in English by himself on some subject approved by the Professor; the Professor, or graduate presiding, shall bring forward arguments or objections in English for the Candidate to answer, and shall examine him in English vivâ voce as well on questions connected with his thesis as on other subjects in the faculty of a more general nature; the exercise being made to continue at least one hour;

Public notice of the Act shall be given by fixing on the door of the University schools, eight days at least before the assigned time, a written paper specifying the name and college of the Candidate, the day and hour appointed for the exercise, and the subject of the thesis: copies of the notice shall be delivered also, at the same time, to the Vice-Chancellor and to the Professor.

The Candidate for the degree of M.D. pays the Professor 10 guineas on keeping the Act.

A Student before he can become a Master in Surgery must have resided nine terms.

For the first three years after the completion of the degree, a Master in Surgery has the status of a B.A., afterwards he has the privileges of a M.A.

The following REGULATIONS were confirmed by Grace of the Senate, Feb. 27, 1862:

BACHELOR OF MEDICINE.

Preliminary Examinations.

1. STUDENTS proceeding to the degree of Bachelor of Medicine, who have not graduated in Arts, shall be required to pass the Previous Examination, and subsequently, (in conformity with the Grace passed April 8, 1859,) the Examination in Algebra, Mechanics and Hydrostatics, as required of Candidates for the degree of B.A.

Time to be spent in Medical Study.

2. Five years of Medical Study shall be required of Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Medicine, with the exception of Students who have graduated with Honors as Bachelors of Arts, in whose case four years of Medical Study shall be deemed sufficient.

3. Of this time six terms shall be spent in the University, commencing not earlier than after the expiration of the first three terms of residence, provided that four terms so spent shall suffice in the case of any B.A. who shall have graduated with Honors.

Number of Medical Examinations and times of passing them.

4. There shall be two Examinations for the degree of Bachelor of Medicine. The first Examination may be passed after the completion of three years of Medical Study, the time of Medical Study required to be spent in the University being included in these three years. The second Examination may be passed after the completion of the course of Medical Study.

No Student shall be admitted to the first and second Examinations in the same term.

Subjects and course of Study previous to the first Examination.

5. The Student before admission to the first Examination shall produce certificates of diligent attendance on one course at least of Lectures on each of the following subjects:

Chemistry, including manipulations,
Botany,
Elements of Comparative Anatomy,
Human Anatomy and Physiology,
Pathology,
Materia Medica and Pharmacy.

He shall also produce a certificate of having practised dissection during one season at least.

The certificates must shew that the Lectures on Pathology were attended subsequently to those on Chemistry and Human Anatomy and Physiology, and the Lectures on Materia Medica and Pharmacy subsequently to those on Chemistry and Botany.

6. As evidence of Medical Study in the University, the Student shall produce Certificates of diligent attendance in each term on courses of Lectures on two of the following subjects: viz.

Chemistry,
Botany,
Human Anatomy and Physiology,
Comparative Anatomy,
Materia Medica and Pharmacy,
Pathology;

Or of diligent attendance in each term on a Course of Lectures on one of those subjects, and also on the Medical Practice of Addenbrooke's Hospital.

7. Certificates of attendance on Lectures shall be deemed satisfactory if the Lectures be delivered either by a Professor of the University, or by a Graduate of the University approved by the Senate; provided that the Course, in each case, consist of not fewer Lectures than shall have been determined by the Board of Medical Studies.

Subjects of the first Examination.

8. The subjects of the first Examination shall be—

Chemistry,
Botany,
Elements of Comparative Anatomy,
Human Anatomy and Physiology,
Materia Medica and Pharmacy,
Pathology,
Celsus—The Aphorisms and Epidemics of Hippocrates—Aretæus on the Causes and Signs of Disease—portions of these authors having been selected for examination by the Board of Medical Studies in the year preceding that of the Examination.

Exemptions in favour of those Persons who have obtained Honors in the Natural Sciences Tripos.

9. In the case of every person who has obtained Honors in the Natural Sciences Tripos and has passed with distinction or to the satisfaction of the Examiners for that Tripos the Examination in Botany, Chemistry or Comparative Anatomy, the Examiners, if required, shall give to such person a certificate, stating that he has passed the Examination in those subjects; and Candidates possessing such certificates, shall not be required to be examined again in those subjects to which the certificates relate.

Examiners for the first Examination.

10. The Examiners for the first Examination shall be:

The Regius Professor of Physic,
The Professor of Anatomy,
The Professor of Chemistry,
Three Members of the Senate nominated annually by the Board of Medical Studies and elected by the Senate, one of whom shall be a Doctor of Medicine and shall become a Member of the Board of Medical Studies, in accordance with the Grace for the Constitution of that Board.

Requirements previous to the second Examination.

11. Before admission to the second Examination, the Student shall have passed the first Examination, and shall produce certificates of having attended one course at least of Lectures on each of the following subjects:

Principles and Practice of Physic,
Clinical Medicine,
Clinical Surgery,
Medical Jurisprudence,
Obstetrical Medicine,

and of having attended Hospital Practice during three years.

Subjects of the second Examination.

12. The subjects of the second Examination shall be—

Physiology,
Pathology and the Practice of Physic,
Clinical Medicine,
Medical Jurisprudence,
The medical treatment of Surgical and Obstetrical Diseases.

Examiners for the second Examination.

13. The Examiners for the second Examination shall be—

The Regius Professor of Physic,

The Professor of Anatomy,
The Downing Professor of Medicine,
A Doctor of Medicine, being a Member of the Senate, nominated annually by the Board of Medical Studies, and elected by the Senate.

Mode of conducting the Examinations.

14. The Examinations shall be conducted partly by written questions, to which the persons examined shall be required to give answers in writing, and partly vivâ voce.

Time of the Examinations.

15. The Examinations for the degree of Bachelor of Medicine shall take place twice annually, commencing on the Monday following the completion of the first two-thirds of Michaelmas Term, and on the Monday following the completion of the first two-thirds of Easter Term.

Public Exercise in the Schools.

16. The Act (Graces, May 6, 1858, and May 20, 1858) shall not be kept till after the Candidate has passed both Examinations.

Time of admission to the degree of Bachelor of Medicine.

17. The Student may be admitted to the degree of Bachelor of Medicine in the eleventh term after the completion of his first term of residence.

Inauguration.

18. (1) The Inauguration of Bachelors of Medicine and the perfecting of their degree shall be on the day of the Magna Comitia.

(2) At the Inauguration the names shall be arranged in order of seniority as follows:

(a) Those who have been Bachelors of Arts, arranged alphabetically.
(b) Other Bachelors designate of Medicine, arranged alphabetically.

DOCTOR IN MEDICINE.

Time to be spent in Medical Study.

19. All persons proceeding to the degree of Doctor of Medicine, shall be required to produce certificates of having been engaged in Medical Study during five years.

Examinations and Hospital Practice.

20. Masters of Arts, proceeding to the degree of Doctor of Medicine, shall be required to produce the same certificates of attendance on Lectures and of attendance on Hospital Practice, and to pass the same Examinations as are required for the degree of Bachelor of Medicine.

MASTER IN SURGERY.

Preliminary Examinations.

1. The same as for Bachelor of Medicine.

Time to be spent in Medical Study.

2 & 3. The same as for M.B.: "Medical Study" being understood to include the study of Surgery, in which three years at least must be occupied.

Number of Medical Examinations and times of passing them.

4. The same as for M.B.

Subjects and course of Study previous to the first Examination.

5, 6, & 7. The same as for M.B., either the surgical or medical practice of Addenbrooke's Hospital being accepted as, in part, evidence of Medical Study in the University.

Subjects of the First Examination, Exemptions and Examiners.

8, 9, & 10. The same as for M.B.

Requirements previous to the second Examination.

11. Before admission to the second Examination, the Student shall have passed the first Examination, and produce Certificates of having attended
A second course of Lectures on Human Anatomy,
One course of Lectures on the Principles and Practice of Surgery,
Lectures on Clinical Surgery during one year,
One course of Lectures on Midwifery, and ten cases of Midwifery,
One course of Lectures on Medical Jurisprudence,
Of having practised dissection during a second season,

Of having attended the Surgical practice during three years, and the Medical practice during one year, of a recognised Hospital (the Medical and Surgical Practice being allowed to be attended at the same time), and of having been House Surgeon or Dresser for six months at least of such a Hospital.

Subjects of the second Examination.

12. The subjects of the second Examination shall be Surgical Anatomy,
Pathology and the Principles and Practice of Surgery,
Clinical Surgery,
Midwifery,
Medical Jurisprudence (the same Examination as for the M.B. degree).

Examiners for the second Examination.

13. The Examiners for the second Examination shall be
The Professor of Anatomy,
Two Members of the Senate, being Masters in Surgery or Fellows of the Royal College of Surgeons in England, nominated annually by the Board of Medical Studies and elected by the Senate,
In Medical Jurisprudence the same as for M.B.

Time and Mode of conducting the Examinations.

14 & 15. The same as for M.B.

Time of admission to the degree and Inauguration.

17 & 18. The same as for M.B.

Certificates.

1. The certificates required in each case shall be delivered to the Regius Professor of Physic.

Medical Study out of the University.

2. Medical Study out of the University shall in all cases be understood to mean study at some well-known School of Medicine, which shall have been recognized by the Board of Medical Studies.

It shall be the duty of the Board to define from time to time what shall be sufficient evidence of such Medical Study.

Deputy Examiners.

3. In case any one of the ex officio Examiners for Medical or Surgical degrees be prevented by illness or other reasonable cause from taking part in such Examinations, it shall be competent for him to appoint a Member of the Senate to examine in his stead, subject to the approbation of the Vice-Chancellor; with the proviso that in the case of either the Regius Professor of Physic or the Downing Professor of Medicine appointing a deputy, such deputy shall be a Doctor of Medicine.

Appointment and Salaries of the Additional Examiners.

4. The Election of the additional Examiners for Medical and Surgical degrees shall take place at the first Congregation after the first of October in each year.

Each of such Examiners shall receive ten pounds from the University Chest.

A fee of 3 guineas is paid to the Regius Professor of Physic by each Student when his name is sent in for the first Examination for the M.B. degree.

Candidates for degrees in Medicine, who began their course of Medical Study in the University before Feb. 17, 1859, are allowed to proceed according to the regulations which were in force before that day, but no one can take the degree of Bachelor of Medicine without passing the two Examinations now established for that degree.

Students, who took the degree of Bachelor of Medicine before March 3, 1859, but have not passed the Examination for the Licence to practise, are required to pass the second of the two Examinations for the degree of Bachelor of Medicine before they can be admitted to the degree of Doctor.

Students, who took the degree of Bachelor of Medicine before the Lent Term, 1836, may be admitted to the degree of Doctor of Medicine without passing any further Examination.

Clauses 2, 11 and 12 of the Regulations for the M.B. degree, as far as they differ from those hitherto in force, will not affect Students presenting themselves for Examination before Michaelmas, 1864, and the second paragraph of Clause 4 will not affect Students presenting themselves before Michaelmas, 1862.

PROCEEDINGS IN MUSIC.

A Bachelor in Music (Mus. B.) must enter his name in some College, and compose and perform a solemn piece of music as an exercise, before the University.

A Doctor in Music is generally Mus. B., and his exercise the same.

"The University confers the Degrees of Bachelor and Doctor of Music. The conditions for either Degree are the same; namely, that the Candidate be a member of some College; and that he satisfy the Professor of Music as to his proficiency in the Art, more particularly by composing a solemn piece of Music* to be performed, at the appointment of the Vice-Chancellor, before the University."

Extract from Report of Cambridge University Commission.

The present Professor will hold one Examination in each term, due notice of which will be given to all those Candidates who previously send in their names and exercises.

* Canticum.—For the Degree of Bachelor, it is required that it be written for five Voices, with Orchestral Accompaniments. For the Degree of Doctor, a more extended Composition is expected, written in Eight Parts with Accompaniments for full Orchestra.

CAUTION MONEY.

The money paid on admission at each College is for

Nobleman	£50 0 0	Pensioner	£15 0 0
Fellow-Commoner	25 0 0	Sizar	10 0 0

The Caution Money remains in the hands of the Tutor, and is not returned till a person takes his name off the boards. Noblemen and Fellow-Commoners usually make a present of Plate to the College.

ADMISSION FEES.

In addition to the Caution, every Student on admission, or coming into residence, makes a payment, differing at different Colleges.

MATRICULATION FEES.

By Graces of the Senate, it has been decreed that the Matriculation fees paid to the Registrary for the Common Chest should be as follows:

Nobleman	£15 10 0	Pensioner	£5 0 0
Fellow-Commoner	10 10 0	Sizar	0 15 0

FEE AT THE PREVIOUS EXAMINATION.

Before admission to Examination at the Previous Examination in every year every Candidate is required to pay the sum of 50 shillings to the Common Chest; such sum not to be returned to the Candidate in case of his not being approved by the Examiners, but no Student to be required to pay it more than once.

COLLEGE PAYMENTS.

In each College a quarterly payment is made by each Member of it, according to his degree and condition, on a scale which differs in the several Colleges.

This payment includes the small annual contributions made to the University. These payments may be compounded for in several Colleges, subsequent to the degrees D.D., LL.D., M.D., B.D. and M.A.

TUITION.

The terminal payments of persons in statu pupillari in every College, are the following:

Nobleman	£13 6 8	Bachelor Fellow-Commoner	£2 10 0
Fellow-Commoner	10 0 0	Bachelor of Arts	1 10 0
Pensioner	6 0 0
Sizar	2 0 0

Such payments being made only during residence. No payment for tuition is required from non-resident Bachelors or Undergraduates.

FEES FOR DEGREES.

The following Rules have been made by the Senate:

1. That in lieu of the fees now payable to the Common Chest and to the Officers and Servants of the University by Candidates for degrees, the following fees only be paid to the Common Chest, viz.

(a)	On admission to the degree of B.A. or LL.B. at the time or times of general admission	7	0	0
(b)	On admission to the degree of B.A. or LL.B. at any other time	10	10	0
(c)	On admission to the degree of M.A. or LL.M. whether the Candidate be a Fellow of a College or not	12	0	0
(d)	On admission to the degree of S.T.B., M.B., or Mus. B.	8	0	0
(e)	On admission to the degree of M.B. when the Candidate is a Bachelor of Arts	2	0	0
(f)	On admission ad practicandum in medicina	2	0	0
(g)	On admission to the degree of S.T.P. or LL.D.	20	0	0
(h)	On admission to the degree of M.D., whether the Candidate be a Bachelor of Medicine or a Master of Arts	10	0	0
	On admission to the degree of M.C., (Master in Surgery) with no previous degree	18	0	0
	When the Candidate is B.A. or M.B.	12	0	0
	When the Candidate is B.A. and M.B.	6	0	0
	When the Candidate is M.A. or M.D.	1	0	0
(i)	On admission to the degree of Mus. D., when the Candidate is Mus. B.	10	0	0
(k)	On admission to the degree of Mus. D., when the Candidate has no degree	15	0	0

2. That every person, admitted to a complete degree jure dignitatis aut natalium, be required to pay twice the ordinary fee for that degree, together with ten guineas in consideration of the Public Orator's speech, to the Common Chest.

3. That every person, admitted to a complete degree propter merita, i. e. under cap. 3, sect. 5, par. 2 of the new Statutes, be required to pay the ordinary fee for that degree only, together with five guineas in consideration of the Public Orator's speech, to the Common Chest.

4. That no fee whatever be required to be paid by persons admitted ad titulos graduum.

5. That every person, on whom a degree is conferred in his absence, be required to pay five pounds to the Common Chest in addition to the ordinary fee for the degree.

6. That every person coming from another University and admitted ad eundem gradum without incorporation, be required to pay to the Common Chest a fee of one pound.

7. That persons coming from other Universities and admitted ad eundem gradum by incorporation be required to pay the same fees as members of this University on admission to the same degree.

8. That Candidates for admission to the degree of Bachelor of Divinity, under the provisions of the ninth chapter of the Statutes of Elizabeth, whose rights may be reserved by the new Statutes, be required to pay to the Common Chest the fee now exacted from them, viz. £14. 10s.

By Graces of the Senate, passed March 23, 1860, Students, who have obtained Honors in the Classical Tripos, and are admitted to the degree of B.A. between the time of publication of the classes and the first day of the following Easter Term, are required to pay only the same fee as at a time of general admission. Also, Students, who have obtained Honors in the Moral Sciences Tripos or Natural Sciences Tripos and are admitted to the degree of B.A. between the time of publication of the classes and the last Saturday in the following January, are required to pay only the same fee as at a time of general admission.

THE following TABLE of AVERAGE EXPENSE, regularly incurred by the STUDENT, is calculated for one of the Colleges. The difference is not much at any other College.

Attendance, Assessed Taxes, &c.	6	5	0
Coals	3	10	0
College Payments	5	7	4
Cost of Living.
Breakfast, Dinner, and Tea, at 16*s.* 6*d.* a week, for 25 weeks, making the average 3 Terms' residence in the year	20	12	6
Laundress	5	8	0
Amount	£69	2	10

Rent of Rooms varies in the several Colleges from £4. to £30.

Price of Lodgings—8*s.* to 28*s.* per week: the most frequent Payment is 14*s.* or 16*s.*; and Half-Price is paid in Vacations.

Entertainment in Rooms, Attendance of a Gyp, Orders in the Hall, are extra and optional.

Private Tuition is for the most part £14., or £8. a Term.

Personal Expenses and Tradesmen's Bills are independent of the place: they are paid by the Student himself, or through the Tutor, as may be found expedient.

No person in statu pupillari, lodging in a house not duly licensed, is considered as resident in the University or keeping Terms.

Licences to keep Lodging-Houses for the residence of persons in statu pupillari are granted under the following regulations:—

1. That a Syndicate shall be constituted, consisting of the Vice-Chancellor, the Proctors, the Proctors of the preceding year, and four other members of the Senate elected by Grace.

2. That one of the said four members shall retire from the Syndicate in every year on Oct. 10, the order for retirement being that of priority of election; and that his place shall be supplied by a person nominated by the Vice-Chancellor, and elected at the next ensuing Congregation.

3. That in the case of a vacancy occurring in any year by the death of one of the said four members, or otherwise, a new member shall be elected as soon as possible to supply the vacant place, and that the person so elected shall continue to be a member of the Syndicate for the same period as that during which the person, whose substitute he is, would have continued.

4. That the Syndicate shall be entrusted with the power of granting licences to the keepers of Lodging-Houses for the residence of persons in statu pupillari, subject to such Regulations as may be prescribed by Graces of the Senate. That they shall also have the power of hearing and adjudicating upon all complaints against the keepers of Lodging-Houses, and of suspending or revoking licences whenever it appears to them expedient.

5. That no business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Syndicate unless the Vice-Chancellor or his deputy and four other members at least be present.

6. That the Syndicate shall meet for the purpose of granting licences on the Tuesday after the division of Michaelmas Term.

7. That all applications for licences shall be sent to the Vice-Chancellor at least one fortnight before the licensing day; and that every application shall state the name, residence, and occupation of the applicant, the number of sets of lodgings for which the licence is required, and the price per week of each set; and shall be accompanied by a Certificate, signed by the Master and Tutor of some College, that the applicant is a person of good character, that the lodgings are healthy and clean, and that the prices stated are reasonable.

8. That printed lists of the names, residences, and occupations of the applicants, together with the number of sets of lodgings in each house and their respective prices, shall be sent as soon as practicable after the last day appointed for receiving applications to the Master, Tutors, and Deans of every College, accompanied by a request that any remark or objection, which it may seem desirable to make, may be sent in writing to the Vice-Chancellor for the consideration of the Syndicate before the time of licensing, or that the person objecting may attend the Syndicate on the day of licensing and confer with them in person.

9. That no licence shall be granted to any person for more than one year, nor beyond certain limits in the Town, such limits to be defined and published from time to time by the Syndicate.

10. That every certificate of licence shall be signed on behalf of the Syndicate by the Vice-Chancellor or his deputy and the two Proctors.

11. That a statement shall be sent after every licensing day to the Master, Tutors, and Deans of every College, containing the names, residences, and occupations of the persons to whom licences have been granted, together with the number of sets of lodgings in each case and their respective prices.

12. That in special cases the Syndicate may grant provisional licences, to continue in force until the end of the next Michaelmas Term, or for any shorter period.

13. That registers shall be kept of the names, residences, and occupations (1) of all persons to whom licences are granted on any licensing-day, together with the number of sets of lodgings in each case, and their respective prices, (2) of all persons to whom the Syndicate have refused to grant licences, and (3) of all persons whose licences have been suspended or revoked by the Syndicate.

14. That before receiving a licence every applicant shall sign the following promise and declaration:

I hereby promise and declare:

1. That I will shew my licence to any Student desirous to take my lodgings, and will not require him to take them for more than one Term certain:
2. That I will not let my lodgings to any Student without an express permission signed by his College Tutor:

3. That I will fasten the shutters of the ground-floor of my house, and lock the doors at ten o'clock every night, and keep the keys in my own possession; and that after that hour the doors of my house shall not be opened except by the master or mistress in person.
4. That I will note down the time after ten o'clock at which any Student lodging in my house enters or leaves his lodgings, and will deliver or send a statement thereof every morning to the Porter of the College to which such lodger belongs, to be by him inserted in his gate-bill for the inspection of the College Officers; and also will deliver or send to the Porter a weekly statement of the same particulars:
5. That I will specially report to the Tutor and Dean the next morning if any such lodger shall pass the night out of his lodgings:
6. That I will not allow on any account a key of any outer door of my house to any such lodger:
7. That I will not supply or receive into my house a dinner or a supper for any Student without an express permission signed by his College Tutor:
8. That I will not supply or receive into my house for any Student provision for any entertainment whatever on Sunday without an express permission signed by his College Tutor:
9. That when a Student of the University is lodging in my house, I will not receive as lodger any person, who is not a member of the University, without obtaining permission in writing from the Master and Tutor of the College to which such Student belongs:
10. That the house for which I apply for a licence, is in my own occupation.

The following LIMITS for Licensed Lodging-houses for Students within the Precincts of the University were published by the Syndicate, May 19, 1854.

No Licence will be granted for Students in general (married and unmarried) to houses situated on the North side of the Town beyond the road leading to Chesterton, and to none on that road beyond Wentworth House.

On the East and North East sides of the Town, to no houses beyond Belmont Place in the Newmarket Road, Emmanuel Road, Parker Street, Park Terrace, and Regent Terrace.

On the South, to no houses beyond St Andrew's Terrace, Downing Terrace, and Bene't Place.

On the West and North West, to no houses beyond the river, upwards from Magdalene Bridge.

Wider Limits will be allowed for houses licensed for married Lodgers only.

The following Report was confirmed by Grace of the Senate Feb. 12, 1857.

THE LODGING-HOUSE SYNDICATE, having had their attention drawn to the case of Students residing in the Town under special circumstances with their relations or others, beg leave to recommend to the Senate that authority should be given to the Syndicate to grant permission to persons in statu pupillari, on application from the Heads of their respective Colleges, to reside in the Town in their own or in hired houses or with their relations or others under special circumstances to be approved by the Syndicate; and that no member of a College in statu pupillari, not residing within the walls of a College or in a duly licensed Lodging-House, should be considered as resident in the University or keeping Terms unless he has received such permission.

The following Report was confirmed by Grace of the Senate Dec. 10, 1860.

The Lodging-House Syndicate beg leave to report to the Senate:

That applications are frequently made to them, after the first third of a Term has elapsed, for permission to be granted (under authority of Grace of the Senate, 12 Feb. 1857) to persons in statu pupillari to reside in the town in their own or in hired houses, or with their relations or others, under special circumstances.

Now, though it is clear that the Syndicate are empowered to grant such permission prospectively, it is doubtful whether they have power to do so retrospectively: and consequently it is doubtful whether that part of a term, which has elapsed before the permission of the Syndicate has been granted, can be reckoned as kept by a person in statu pupillari under these special circumstances.

The Syndicate therefore beg leave to recommend to the Senate, that authority should be given to the Syndicate to extend their permission, in such cases, backwards so far as to include the whole of the current term in which such permission is applied for, and granted, but no farther backwards.

UNIVERSITY OFFICERS, &c.

[For distinguished characters unnoticed in this and the following pages, see the list of Triposes.]

CHANCELLORS.*

The office of Chancellor is biennial, or tenable for such a length of time beyond two years as the tacit consent of the University may choose to allow. The election of a Chancellor must be within fourteen days after the vacancy—and is, more burgensium. At the time of election, the Vice-Chancellor, the two Proctors, and the junior D.D. present, stand in scrutiny, (in failure of the latter, the junior LL.D., and in the absence of such, the junior M.D.) and first write their votes. All members of the Senate then bring their votes written in the same form, and the Vice-Chancellor pronounces the election.

ELECTED.
1688 Charles Seymour, Duke of Somerset, Trinity.
1748 Thomas-Holles Pelham, Duke of Newcastle, Clare.
1768 Augustus-Henry Fitzroy, Duke of Grafton, M.A. St Peter's.
1811 His Royal Highness William-Frederick, Duke of Gloucester, D.C.L. Trinity.
1834 John Jefferies, Marquis Camden, LL.D. Trinity.
1840 Hugh-Percy, Duke of Northumberland, F.R.S. LL.D. St John's.
1847 His Royal Highness the Prince Consort, LL.D. Trinity.
1861 William Cavendish, Duke of Devonshire, K.G. F.R.S. LL.D. Trinity.

HIGH STEWARDS.

The election is likewise more burgensium.

ELECTED.
1721 Arthur, Earl of Anglesea, Magdalene.
1737 Thomas-Holles, Duke of Newcastle, Clare.
1749 Philip, Lord Hardwicke, D.C.L. Lord Chancellor, Corpus.
1764 Philip, Earl of Hardwicke, D.C.L. Corpus.
1790 Right Hon. William Pitt, M.A. Pembroke.
1806 Philip, Earl of Hardwicke, M.A. Queens'.
1834 Hugh-Percy, Duke of Northumberland, F.R.S. LL.D. St John's.
1840 John Singleton Copley, Lord Lyndhurst, LL.D. Trinity.
1864 Edward James Herbert, Earl of Powis, LL.D. St John's.

REPRESENTATIVES IN PARLIAMENT.

JAMES I., by his Charter in the first year of his reign, granted power to the Chancellors, Masters, and Scholars of the two Universities, to elect and return two persons in each, to represent them in Parliament. Whenever there is a vacancy in the representation, the Sheriff sends the precept to the Vice-Chancellor; and the election, of which the Vice-Chancellor gives four days' notice at least, is to be within eight days from the receipt of it. At the time of election, the two Proctors, and the junior D.D. present, stand in scrutiny with the Vice-Chancellor, who is the returning officer. The members of the Senate then give their votes in writing, and a majority of such determines the election.

ELECTED.
1832 Rt. Hon. H. Goulburn, M.A. Trinity.
Rt. Hon. Sir C. Manners Sutton, K.G.C.B., LL.D., Trinity.

PROCTORS.

Two Colleges are every year to nominate persons for Proctors in the order prescribed in a cycle of 50 years; in which time, Trinity, and St John's Colleges have each of them eleven turns; King's seven; St Peter's, Christ's, Queens', Clare, Caius, and Pembroke, six each; Corpus Christi, Jesus, Magdalene, Emmanuel, Catharine, and Sidney, five each; Trinity Hall three, and Downing College two. Each of the two Colleges nominates one person. The person nominated may be a Master of Arts or Law, or a Bachelor of Divinity. If a Master of Arts or Law he must be of more than three years' standing. He must have resided in the University for the major part of each of three terms during the last two years.

He must be presented to the Vice-Chancellor, in the presence of the Registrary, by the head of his College, or by some one in his name, before the end of the Easter Term.

If the office becomes vacant before the expiration of the year, Trinity Hall presents a Proctor for the remainder.

The Proctors are elected by the Senate on the first of October.

PROFESSOR THOMPSON'S LECTURES.

The present Professor lectures three times a week during one Term at least, in one of the Lecture Rooms of Trinity College. Since his appointment he has given courses of Lectures on portions of Thucydides, Plato, Aristotle, Euripides and Aristophanes.

ARABIC.

This can be held in conjunction with the Lord Almoner's Readership in Arabic, but not with any other Professorship. The candidate must be well learned (probe eruditus), and skilled in the Oriental Languages, especially the Arabic. Among persons so qualified, Heads of Houses, Fellows, and then Masters of Arts, being gremials of the University, are to be preferred. The electors are, the Vice-Chancellor and the Heads. The time of election must not be deferred beyond the thirtieth day from the first signification of the vacancy. Founded by Sir THOMAS ADAMS, Bart., 1632. Salary, £40 per annum.

The Rev. John Palmer (late Arabic Professor) bequeathed £1000 for the perpetual augmentation of the Arabic Professorship. By a Grace of the Senate passed Oct. 20th, 1841, this sum was invested in the 3 per cent. consols.

Professor Stokes's Lectures.

The present Professor gives a Course of Lectures, theoretical and experimental, on Hydrostatics, Pneumatics, and Optics, or on Optics alone, with particular reference to the physical theory of Light. These Lectures are delivered in the Easter Term. The course for the present year will be on Hydrostatics, Pneumatics, and Optics.

MORAL THEOLOGY, OR CASUISTRY.

The electors are, the Vice-Chancellor, the Regius Professor of Divinity, the Lady Margaret's Professor, and the Master of St Peter's; but in case of an equality of votes between the electors, the last has the casting vote. Founded by John Knightbridge, D.D. Fellow of St Peter's, 1683: the stipend augmented by Dr Smoult.—Value, about £130 per annum.

1855 J. Grote, B.D. Trin.

The Professor gives Lectures (this year in the Lent and Easter Terms) upon Moral and Mental Philosophy, and upon the Special Subjects for Examination in the Moral Sciences Tripos.

CHEMISTRY.

Founded by the University, 1702.

The Professors, previously to the year 1773, were elected by Grace of the Senate, subsequently "more burgensium;" but by the existing Statute for this Professorship (bearing date 1860) the Professor is chosen by the persons whose names are on the Electoral Roll of the University.

There is an endowment of £300 per annum paid from the University Chest.

Professor Liveing's Lectures.

The Professor of Chemistry gives a Course of Lectures during two Terms. Students requiring Certificates for the degree of B.A. or LL.B. are expected to attend only the first part of this Course during one Term. Students requiring certificates for a medical degree are expected to attend the whole Course extending over both Terms.

The want of a properly appointed Laboratory belonging to the University which has hitherto made it necessary for Medical Students and others desiring to obtain a practical knowledge of Chemical manipulations to complete their studies in a college laboratory or elsewhere, will, it is hoped, be remedied in the course of the present year by the adaptation of part of the old buildings adjoining the Anatomical School for this purpose. Three colleges at present have laboratories of their own, namely, St John's, Sidney, and Downing. The Laboratory of St John's College, so far as it is not required for the use of members of that College, is accessible to a limited number of students from other Colleges.

The Professor of Chemistry is authorized by Grace of the Senate to receive the following fees from students attending his lectures. For a Course not exceeding 25 lectures, £2. 2*s*. For a Course exceeding 25 lectures, £4. 4*s*. For a Course of Practical Chemistry during one Term, £4. 4*s*. These fees however are not paid by students attending the lectures for the purpose of obtaining a certificate for the degree of B.A. or LL.B. See p. 22.

ASTRONOMY AND EXPERIMENTAL PHILOSOPHY.

The Candidates may be bachelors, married men, Englishmen (Nostrates), or Foreigners. The election is not to be before the thirtieth, nor protracted beyond the sixtieth day after the schedule is affixed. The electors are, the Vice-Chancellor, the Masters of Trinity, Christ's and Caius colleges, and the Lucasian, Lowndean, and Sadlerian Professors. If any of the Masters be Vice-Chancellor, the Master of St John's acts in his stead. Founded by Dr Plume, Archdeacon of Rochester, 1704.

This Professorship was endowed with the rent of an estate situated at Balsham. The stipend was increased by the bequest of Dr Smith; a sum now amounting to about £46 per annum being left by him to the Plumian Professor, on condition of an examination for Smith's Prizes being annually made. The present Professor having expressed a wish to retire from the duties of the Observatory, Graces of the Senate were passed on May 2, 1861, for making provision for its future superintendence, and for granting to the Professor out of the University Chest a yearly stipend of £100, in consideration of his long service and his undertaking to complete the reduction and publication of the observations made during his superintendence; the stipend to be continued until Professor Challis can receive the share of Lady Sadler's Benefaction which has been allotted by Statute to the Plumian Professor, or ceases to hold his Professorship.

1707 Roger Cotes, M.A. Trinity.
1716 R. Smith, M.A. Trinity.
1760 A. Shepherd, M.A. Christ's.
1796 S. Vince, M.A. Caius.
1822 R. Woodhouse, M.A. Caius.
1828 G. B. Airy, M.A. Trinity.
1836 James Challis, M.A. Trinity.

Professor Challis's Lectures.

The Plumian Professor gives a Course of Lectures on Practical Astronomy in the Lent Term. The object of the Lectures is to describe the parts and uses of Astronomical Instruments, and the methods of observing, and to prove and exemplify the mathematical formulæ required in the reduction of observations. In the course of the Lectures the Instruments of the Cambridge Observatory are described to the Class in the observing rooms.

ANATOMY.

At the period of election, the Vice-Chancellor, the two Proctors, and the junior Doctor in Divinity present, stand in scrutiny: in failure of the latter, the junior LL.D., and in the absence of such, the junior M.D. All members of the Senate have votes, and the majority of such decide the election. Founded by the University, 1707. Salary, £300 per annum, paid from the University Chest.

1785 B. Harwood, M.B. Christ's.
1814 J. Haviland. M.A. John's.
1817 W. Clark, M.A. Trinity.

Dr Clark's Lectures on Comparative Anatomy and Physiology with Zoology.

These Lectures are delivered in the Michaelmas and Lent Terms on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at One o'clock.

The introductions to the Classes in Van der Hoeven's Handbook of Zoology serve for the Syllabus to these Lectures.

MODERN HISTORY.

The Professor is appointed by the Queen, and holds the Professorship during pleasure. He must either be a Master of Arts, of Law, or of a superior degree. Founded by George I. 1724. Salary, £371 per annum, paid from the University Chest.

1724 S. Harris, M.A. Peter's.
1735 Shallet Turner, LL.D. Peter's.
1762 L. Brockett, B.D. Trinity.

1860 C. Kingsley, M.A. F.L.S. Magd.

BOTANY.

This Professorship was founded by the University on Nov. 19, 1724. It is endowed by Act of Parliament with a stipend of £182, which was increased by Grace of the Senate, 7 Nov. 1861, to £300 per annum: the increase to continue for as long as the present Professor retains the office.

1724 Richard Bradley, F.R.S.
1732 J. Martyn, F.R.S. Emmanuel.
1761 T. Martyn, M.A. Sidney.
1825 J. S. Henslow, M.A. John's.
1861 C. C. Babington, M.A. John's.

Professor Babington's Lectures.

A course of Lectures on Botany is given during the Easter Term, in the lower South-Western Lecture Room of the New Museum. The Professor makes herborizing excursions with his class.

GEOLOGY.

This Professorship was founded by Dr Woodward, in the year 1727; and on January 31, 1731-2 the four executors of the Founder's will appointed Dr Conyers Middleton the first Professor. After their decease the election was vested in the members of the Senate; in addition to whom the following persons were allowed, by the express direction of the Founder's will, to give their votes by proxy, viz. the Chancellor of the University, the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishop of Ely, the President of the Royal Society, the President of the College of Physicians, and the Members for the University.

1731 Convers Middleton, D.D. Trinity.

ASTRONOMY AND GEOMETRY.

This Professorship is in the appointment of the Vice-Chancellor of the University, the President of the Royal Society of London, the Astronomer Royal, and the Lucasian and Plumian Professors. Founded by Thomas Lowndes, Esq. 1749. The endowment is an estate producing about £400 per annum. By a Grace of the Senate, passed May 2, 1861, the superintendence and management of the Observatory were entrusted to the present Lowndean Professor, and a stipend of £250 a year was allowed to him out of the University Chest, so long as he should retain the office of director of the Observatory.

Professor Adams's Lectures.

The present Professor gives a course of Lectures in the Lent Term on the Lunar Theory. The principal object of these Lectures is to give geometrical illustrations of the analytical processes employed in the determination of the Moon's motion, and thus to shew the connection between the Newtonian and the modern methods of treating the subject.

DIVINITY.

(Mr Norris's.)

The electors are the Heads of Houses, eleven of whom must be present. In case of equality of votes, after three scrutinies, the Master of Trinity, or in his absence the Provost of King's, or in the absence of both the Master of Caius, is to give his casting-vote. The Professor is required to give lectures in every year, and to reside within a mile-and-a-half of Great St Mary's Church for at least six weeks during the Michaelmas Term, and twelve weeks in the course of the other two Terms.

The office is tenable for life.

Founded by John Norris, Esq. of Whitton in Norfolk, in 1760, and endowed by him with £105 a-year[3]. The late Benedict Chapman, D.D. Master of Gonville and Caius College, added about £30 a-year. By the recent Statutes of the University the Professorship will be at some future time further endowed with the rectorial tithe rent-charge of Terrington St John's and a portion of the rent-charge of Terrington St Clement's.

[2] Late Dean of Ely.

[3] By Mr Norris's Will, a further sum of 18s. is bequeathed to be expended by the Professor in books, the New Testament, or the Great Importance of a Religious Life, to be given, through the hands of the Senior Proctor, to the prisoners either in the Town or County Prison.

[4] Lord Bishop of Ely.

NATURAL AND EXPERIMENTAL PHILOSOPHY.

This Professor is to be chosen in future by the persons whose names are on the Electoral Roll of the University. In cases of disputes about the majority of the electors, the same is to be determined by the Vice-Chancellor, the Provost of King's, and the Master of Trinity, or if either of the two latter be Vice-Chancellor, by the Master of St John's. Founded by the Rev. Richard Jackson, M.A. 1783. Salary, an estate about £140 per annum. To this is added such a sum paid from the University chest as will augment the endowment stipend to £300 per annum, on condition that the Professor reside within the precincts of the University for eighteen weeks in every year between the 1st of October and the end of the following Easter Term.

DOWNING PROFESSOR OF MEDICINE.

The foundation, election, and salary, the same as the preceding.

The Downing Professor of Medicine delivers, during the Easter Term, a Course of Lectures introductory to the study of the Natural Sciences considered in their connexion with several of the Arts, especially that of Medicine.

These Lectures are intended for Students commencing the study of Medicine, in order to furnish them with a general view of its collateral sciences, or for Undergraduates who desire to obtain the Professorial Certificate.

The Professor delivers also, during the Lent Term, a Course of Lectures on the Materia Medica and Pharmacy, intended for Medical students only.

1800 Busick Harwood, M.D. Emmanuel.
1814 Cornwallis Hewett, M.A. & M.D. Downing.
1841 William Webster Fisher, M.D. Downing.

MINERALOGY.

This Professorship was founded by the University in the year 1808, and is now endowed with a Salary of £300 per annum paid from the University Chest.

Lectures had been given by Dr Clarke for two years prior to the establishment of the Professorship, and specimens exhibited which had been collected during his travels.

After the death of Dr Clarke, the Senate decreed that the Professorship should be continued.

1808 E. D. Clarke, LL.D. Jesus.

Professor Miller's Lectures.

A Course of Lectures on Crystallography and Mineralogy is delivered during the Lent Term. These Lectures are given in the new Mineralogical Museum.

SADLERIAN PROFESSOR OF PURE MATHEMATICS.

By a Statute sanctioned by the Queen in Council, March 7, 1860, no person was to be elected a Lecturer on Lady Sadler's Foundation after that date; and when so many vacancies should have occurred that not more than one-half of the net income of the Foundation should be required for the payment of the stipends of the remaining Lecturers at the then present rate, there was to be established in the University a Professorship to be called the Sadlerian Professorship of Pure Mathematics, and one-half of the net income was to be assigned as stipend to the person elected as Professor. The Electors were to be the Vice-Chancellor, three Heads of Colleges to be elected by the persons on the Electoral Roll, and to hold office as long as they continue to be Heads of Colleges, and the Lucasian, the Plumian, and the Lowndean Professors. It was declared that the duty of the Professor should be to explain and teach the principles of Pure Mathematics, and to apply himself to the advancement of the science.

Pursuant to the above Statute the Masters of Trinity, St John's, and St Peter's were chosen Electors; and on June 10, 1863, the present Professor was appointed.

PROFESSOR CAYLEY'S LECTURES.

The Professor has given in the Michaelmas term, 1863, and Lent term, 1864, a course of Lectures on Analytical Geometry, historical and theoretical, in relation to the history of the science from Descartes to Cramer. And he has in the same Terms, 1864—5, given a course in relation to the later history of Analytical Geometry.

POLITICAL ECONOMY.

THE title of Professor of Political Economy was conferred by a Grace of the Senate, in May 1828, on George Pryme, Esq., M.A., late Fellow of Trinity College.

The Professorship was founded by Grace of the Senate, Oct. 29, 1863.

1863 H. Fawcett, M.A. Trinity Hall.

DISNEY PROFESSORSHIP OF ARCHÆOLOGY.

THIS Professorship was founded in 1851 by JOHN DISNEY, Esq. of the Hyde, Ingatestone, who also presented to the University a valuable collection of Ancient Marbles. The Professor must be a member of the University of Cambridge, and of the degree of M.A., or some higher degree. He is required to deliver Six Lectures, at least, during the academical year, on the subject of Classical, mediæval, and other antiquities, the fine arts, and all matters and things connected therewith. The appointment remained with the Founder during his life-time, and it is now vested in the Vice-Chancellor and Heads of Colleges: the locum-tenens of the Head of any College being entitled to vote in his stead. The Professorship is tenable for five years, and the Professor may be re-elected. Original Salary: the interest of £1000, 3 per Cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities: which sum was increased in 1857 by a bequest in Mr Disney's will, to £3250.

1851 J. H. Marsden, B.D., John's.

MUSIC.

THIS Professorship was founded by the University, in 1684, on the recommendation of the Crown. The election is by a Grace of the Senate, and occasionally by open poll. There is no endowment, and the only emolument is derived from fees for Degrees.

SADLERIAN LECTURES.

The Algebra Lectureships were founded by Lady Sadler, and the Lectures commenced in 1710.

By a Statute, sanctioned by the Queen in Council March 7, 1860, no person is to be elected a Lecturer on Lady Sadler's foundation in any College after that date.

The stipend of each of the Lecturers is £60 per annum. Every Lecturer produces a certificate signed by the Master of his college, that the Lectures have been by him regularly given, before payment of the stipend, which is annually at Lady-day, at St John's Lodge.

The Lectureships are tenable only for ten years. The present Lecturers are

J. Porter, M.A. Peter's.
J. C. W. Ellis, M.A. Sidney.
W. B. Pike, M.A. Downing.

Mr HULSE's FOUNDATIONS.

The Rev. John Hulse was educated at St John's college, became Bachelor of Arts in 1728, and died in 1789, bequeathing his estates in Cheshire to the University for the advancement and reward of religious learning. The various purposes to which he appropriated the revenue of these estates, are—first, the maintenance of two Scholars at St John's college—secondly, to recompense the exertions of the Hulsean prizeman—thirdly, to found and support the office of Christian Advocate—and fourthly, that of the Hulsean Lecturer or Christian Preacher. By a Statute, confirmed by the Queen in Council Aug. 1, 1860, the office of Hulsean Professor of Divinity was substituted for that of Christian Advocate; and the office of Hulsean Lecturer considerably modified.

The trustees of Mr Hulse's bequest are, the Vice-Chancellor for the time being, the Master of Trinity college, and the Master of St John's college. If the Master of Trinity or St John's be Vice-Chancellor, the Greek Professor supplies his place. The Bishop of Ely is visitor, with power to determine, in reason and equity, in all disputes[1].

HULSEAN PROFESSOR OF DIVINITY.

The Professor is appointed by the three Trustees of Mr Hulse, together with the Regius, the Margaret and the Norrisian Professors of Divinity. He is to print and publish at least six lectures in the course of every six years.

The present Professor lectures on the Greek Testament. His lectures are delivered in the October and either the Lent or Easter Terms.

1860 C. J. Ellicott, B.D. St John's.
1861 J. B. Lightfoot, M.A. Trinity.

[1] For a Memoir of Mr Hulse, with a full account of the duties required under each of his foundations, see Parkinson's Hulsean Lectures 1837.

HULSEAN LECTURER OR CHRISTIAN PREACHER.

The election to this office is to take place on some day in February, not later than the twentieth. The persons eligible are, Masters of Arts of the University of Cambridge. The office is annual. The duty of the Lecturer is to preach not less than four, nor more than six sermons in the year. The subject of the discourses is—to shew the evidence for revealed religion, or to explain some of the most difficult texts or obscure parts of Holy Scripture, —or both. The time of delivery is to be prescribed by the University; and if the duties be not discharged by the person appointed, his salary is divided amongst the six senior Fellows of St John's college.

TEACHERS OF ORIENTAL LANGUAGES.

By a Grace of the Senate, Dec. 1863, the Vice-Chancellor was empowered to expend annually a sum not exceeding £150 from the University Chest in engaging teachers of such Oriental languages and for such periods as he may think fit; and also to fix from time to time the fees which the Students should pay for such instruction.

TRAVELLING BACHELORS.

William Worts, Esq. M.A. formerly of St Catherine's College, in this University, gave two pensions of £100 per annum each, to two recent Bachelors of Arts, presented[1] to the Vice-Chancellor by the Master of the College whose turn it is to nominate, and elected by the Senate. The Bachelors are required to visit foreign countries, to take different routes, and severally to write during their travels, one Latin letter in each year, giving an account to the University of the religion, learning, laws, politics, ustoms, manners and rarities, natural and artificial, which they shall find worth observing in the countries through which they pass: which Letters, as soon as received by the Vice-Chancellor, are laid before the Senate, and afterwards deposited in the University Library.

[1] The nomination respecting the colleges is according to the cycle of Proctors.

The income of these travellers is continued for the space of three years, the period during which they are to continue abroad.

The following Regulations have been made by the Trustees, with a view to insure greater regularity in the recurrence and filling up of vacancies:

1. That no election of a Travelling Scholar shall take place in any year, excepting between the second Tripos day and the end of the Easter Term in that year.

2. That no persons shall be eligible, excepting actual Bachelors of Arts, who shall have been admitted ad respondendum quæstioni not later than Ash-Wednesday in that year, and subsequently to Ash-Wednesday in the preceding year.

3. That the Travelling Scholarship of each person so elected shall be deemed to expire, if not sooner vacated by resignation or otherwise, on the second Tripos day in the third year after that in which his election took place; when he will be a Bachelor of Arts of three years' standing complete.

4. That, if any college, whose turn it is to nominate, shall not do so before the end of the Easter Term next ensuing after any vacancy, provided its occurrence shall have come to the knowledge of the Master of the college or his locum tenens, that college shall be held to have forfeited its right of nominating for that turn, and such right shall devolve in the succeeding year upon the college, whose turn follows next according to the appointed cycle.

5. That, if a vacancy shall occur by resignation or otherwise during the Easter Term of any year, it shall be at the option of the college, which has the next turn, either to nominate in that same Term or to defer nominating until the following year.

The Commissioners, appointed by the Cambridge University Act have authorized the University to suspend the election of Travelling Bachelors at present; but no new Statute has yet been made for the Endowment.

WHITEHALL PREACHERS.

The Whitehall Preacherships were established by George I. in the year 1724. The preachers were originally 24 in number, twelve from each University. By a recent alteration they have been reduced to two, one from each, who are to hold the office for two years. They must be Fellows of colleges during their time of holding the office, to which they are appointed by the Bishop of London, as Dean of her Majesty's Chapel.

The Cambridge preachers since the alteration have been,

SERMONS IN THE UNIVERSITY CHURCH.

The Sermons before the University at Great St Mary's, are preached by Bachelors in Divinity and Masters of Arts who have completed their first year, beginning with the former.

Persons of sixty years of age, and upwards, are excused from preaching.

Substitutes procured by such as omit to preach in their turn, receive three guineas a sermon. The Vice-Chancellor appoints the preachers for the Lent and Summer Assizes, and for extraordinary Fasts and Thanksgivings. The payment is five guineas a sermon.

The following Rules were confirmed by the Senate, June 3, 1858.

1. That the Sermons on Sunday mornings and on festivals, excepting Michaelmas day, be discontinued during the long vacation.

2. That the fine to be imposed under the new Statutes on every Bachelor of Divinity or Master of Arts neglecting to preach in his appointed turn, or to provide an approved substitute, be three guineas; and that such fine be paid to the Common Chest.

3. That, excepting the days assigned to the Hulsean Lecturer and the Preacher of the Ramsden Sermon, select preachers be appointed yearly for the Sunday afternoons from the first of October to the second Sunday in June inclusive; and for the afternoons of Christmas day, Good Friday and Ascension Day.

4. That no preacher be appointed in the ordinary course for any Sunday afternoon from the first day of October to the second Sunday in June inclusive, or for Christmas day or Good Friday, or the afternoon of Ascension Day.

5. That a Syndicate be constituted, consisting of the Vice-Chancellor, the Regius, the Lady Margaret's and the Norrisian Professors of Divinity, and the two Proctors, who shall in every year before the end of the Easter Term, assign the days for preaching the Hulsean Lectures, and appoint the select preachers, for the next academical year; the days on which each select preacher is to preach being also determined at the same time by the Syndics.

If any select preacher be prevented from preaching on the days assigned to him, the Syndics shall appoint another preacher in his place.

6. That for every Sermon the select preacher be paid a fee of three guineas out of the Common Chest.

RAMSDEN SERMON.

Mrs Charlotte Ramsden, of Bath, having at the suggestion of J. H. Markland, Esq., formerly Treasurer of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, proposed:

"To provide, by an adequate endowment (viz. by an investment in the Consolidated Fund of a sum which shall produce Five Guineas per annum) for an Annual Sermon at St Mary's Church, before the University of Cambridge, to be delivered on such Sunday of full Term, and by such Preacher as the Vice-Chancellor for the time being shall appoint, upon the subject of 'Church Extension over the Colonies and Dependencies of the British Empire:'"—

The proposal was accepted by the Senate on the 9th Feb. 1848, and Preachers have been appointed as follows:

1849 Melvill, H. St Peter's.
1850 Llandaff, Lord Bp of, Trinity.
1851 Bailey, H. St John's.

MEMBERS' PRIZEMEN.

The Representatives in Parliament of this University give four annual prizes of fifteen guineas each, which are adjudged by the Vice-Chancellor and Heads of Colleges, to two Bachelors of Arts, and two Undergraduates, who compose the best Dissertations in Latin prose, which are read publicly by them in the Senate-House on a day appointed near to the Commencement, and afterwards sent by them to the aforesaid Members. Of these prizes, two are open to all Bachelors of Arts, without distinction of years, who are not of sufficient standing to take the degree of M.A.;—and the other two are open to all Undergraduates who shall have resided not less than seven terms at the time when the exercises are to be sent in. The subjects are delivered out at the end of Michaelmas Term, and each candidate is to send his exercise privately to the Vice-Chancellor, on or before the 31st of March, in the same manner as the exercises for the Chancellor's Medal. These prizes, confined until 1827 to Senior and Middle Bachelors, were established by the Hon. Edward Finch and the Hon. Thomas Townshend, and have been continued by the succeeding Members.

Sir Wm. BROWNE's MEDALLISTS.

Sir William Browne, Knt. M.D. directed three gold medals, value five guineas each, to be given yearly to three Undergraduates on the Commencement day, when the exercises are publicly read, and copies of them sent by the successful candidates to Sir W. J. B. Folkes, Bart. The first to him who writes the best Greek Ode in imitation of Sappho; the second for the best Latin Ode in imitation of Horace; the third for the best Greek and Latin Epigrams: the former after the manner of the Anthologia, the latter after the model of Martial[1]. The subjects (delivered out at the end of Michaelmas Term) are appointed by the Vice-Chancellor, the sole adjudicator of these prizes. The exercises must be sent in on or before the 31st of March, in the same manner as the exercises for the Chancellor's Medal. The Greek Ode is not to exceed 25, and the Latin Ode 30 stanzas.

A Statute, approved by Her Majesty by order in Council, April 6, 1858, directs that no Candidate should receive a Medal, who has not commenced his residence in the University when the exercises are delivered: also that Candidates for the Medal, to be given for Greek verse, may be required to write their exercises, if the Vice-Chancellor sees fit, in Hexameter, Elegiac or Lyric Metre; and that if in any year the best Greek Epigram and the best Latin Epigram shall not be produced by the same Candidate, two Medals for Epigrams shall be given in that year, each of the value of two guineas and a half, one to him who produces the best Greek, and the other to him who produces the best Latin Epigram.

PORSON PRIZE.

The Rev. Charles Burney, D.D. and the Rev. John Cleaver Bankes, M.A. only surviving trustees of a fund raised by the friends of the late Professor Porson, and appropriated to his use during his lifetime, did, by deed, bearing date the 27th November, 1816, transfer to the University the sum of £400 Navy 5 per cents. upon trust, that the interest arising therefrom shall be annually employed in the purchase of one or more Greek books, to be given to such resident Undergraduates as shall make the best translation of a proposed passage in Shakspeare, Ben Jonson, Massinger, or Beaumont and Fletcher, into Greek verse.

The metre of the translation, if the selection be from a Tragedy, shall be Tragicum Iambicum Trimetrum Acatalecticum, or Tragicum Trochaicum Tetrametrum Catalecticum; if from a Comedy, the metre of the translation shall be Comicum Iambicum Trimetrum Acatalecticum, or Comicum Trochaicum Catalecticum. The exercises (the subjects of which are delivered out at the end of Michaelmas Term) must be distinctly written and accentuated, and accompanied by a literal Latin prose version of the Greek, and sent in privately to the Vice-Chancellor on or before the 31st of March, in the same manner as the exercises for the Chancellor's Medal. The examiners are, the Vice-Chancellor or his deputy, the Provost of King's, the Masters of Trinity, St John's, Christ's, and Caius colleges, the Greek Professor, and the Public Orator. The prize translation is to be printed at the expense of the author, and copies to be given to the Vice-Chancellor and Heads of Houses, previous to the Commencement, at which time it is to be recited in the Senate-House. And if in any year there be no translation worthy of the prize, the book or books provided for that year shall be reserved and given to the candidate who shall be considered second best in the subsequent year, and so from time to time the book or books provided in any year, and not given in that year as a prize, shall be reserved till the examiners shall adjudge the same to be given in some subsequent year to a candidate whose translation is second best, or third best to the prize translation, but worthy to be rewarded, and then shall be disposed of accordingly; provided also that they be printed and recited as in the case of the prize translation. All the prize translations, and every such second best or third best translations, shall be transcribed in a book to be kept by the Vice-Chancellor.

A Statute, approved by Her Majesty by order in Council, April 6, 1858, directs that passages for translation may be chosen from the works of any standard English Poet; and that no Candidate should receive the Prize who had not commenced his residence in the University when the translations were sent in.

CAMDEN MEDAL.

The most noble the Marquess Camden, wishing to mark his sense of the respect shewn to his late Father by the University of Cambridge, is pleased to give annually a Gold Medal as a Prize for the best Exercise composed in Latin Hexameter Verse.

The Prize is subject to the following Regulations.

1. That this Medal be called the "Camden Medal."

2. That the Subject for the Exercises be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor.

3. That notice thereof be issued on or before the first day of January in every year; and that the Exercises be sent in to the Vice-Chancellor on or before the thirty-first day of the following March, (in the same manner as the exercises for the Chancellor's Medal).

4. That no such Exercise exceed in length one hundred lines.

5. That all Undergraduates, who shall have resided not less than two Terms before the day on which the Exercises must be sent in, or who shall at least be then in the course of their second Term of residence, may be Candidates for this Medal.

6. That this Medal be adjudged by the Examiners for the Chancellor's Medals; and that the Prize Exercise be recited publicly at the Commencement.

7. That a Copy of the successful Exercise, when printed, be sent annually to the Marquess Camden, the Donor of the Medal.

ADAMS PRIZE.

SEVERAL members of St John's College having raised by Subscription a Fund for the purpose of Establishing a Prize to be connected with the name of Mr Adams, in testimony of their sense of the honour he had conferred on his College and the University by having been the first among the Mathematicians of Europe to determine from perturbations the unknown place of a disturbing Planet exterior to Uranus, offered the said fund to the University for its acceptance under the following Regulations:—confirmed by Grace of the Senate, April 7, 1848.

1. That a Prize, to be called "THE ADAMS PRIZE," be awarded every two years, during the Michaelmas Term, to the author of the best Essay on some subject of Pure Mathematics, Astronomy, or other branch of Natural Philosophy.

2. That the Vice-Chancellor and the Plumian Professor of Astronomy and Experimental Philosophy be requested to undertake the office of Examiners and Adjudicators of the Prize, in conjunction with two persons to be nominated by Colleges in rotation, according to the cycle of Proctors, and to be approved by Grace of the Senate, provided always that not more than two of the Examiners be members of the same College.

3. That the Adams Prize be open to the competition of all persons who have at any time been admitted to a Degree in this University.

4. That the successful Candidate receive two years' Income of the Fund, and in case no Essay be considered deserving of the Prize, the Income of the past two years be added to the Capital of the Fund.

5. That the first two Examiners to be chosen by the Senate be elected at the second Congregation of the Lent Term of 1849, and that the future Examiners be in like manner elected every second year.

6. That as soon as may be after the election of the said two Examiners, or at least before the end of the Lent Term in which they shall have been elected, the four Examiners select and publicly announce the Subject for the next Essay.

7. That the Essays be sent to the Vice-Chancellor on or before the 16th day of December of the year next following that in which the subject is announced, in the same manner and form as are prescribed in the regulations for the Chancellor's English Medal; and that the prize be awarded before the division of the following Easter Term.

8. That the Essay be printed at the expense of the successful Candidate, and a copy be presented to the University Library, to the Library of St John's College, and to each of the four Examiners.

9. That if at any time hereafter it appear to the Senate to be expedient to alter the foregoing scheme, it be competent to the Master and Senior Fellows of St John's College, at the request of the Senate, to propose for its adoption an amended Scheme.

1850 R. Pierson, M.A., Joh.
1857 J. C. Maxwell, Trin.

SEDGWICK PRIZE.

The sum of £500 Scinde Railway Stock having been offered to the University, for the purpose of encouraging the study of Geology among the resident Members of the University and in honour of the Rev. Adam Sedgwick, Woodwardian Professor of Geology, the same was accepted by Grace of the Senate, Feb. 23, 1865, under the following conditions:—

1. That a Prize, to be called the Sedgwick Prize, shall be given every third year for the best Essay on some subject in Geology or the kindred sciences.

2. That the Examiners shall be the Professor of Geology and two persons to be appointed by Grace of the Senate on each occasion of the prize being adjudicated.

3. That in case the Professor is prevented by illness or other cause from examining, a deputy shall be appointed by Grace of the Senate.

4. That the Prize shall be open to all Graduates of the University of Cambridge who have resided 60 days during the twelvemonths preceding the day on or before which the Essay must be sent in.

5. That the successful candidate shall receive three years' income of the Fund, or if no Essay be thought worthy of a Prize, this amount shall be added to the capital of the Fund.

6. That the subject of the first Essay shall be given out by the Professor of Geology some time in the Lent Term of 1865.

7. That the first two Examiners shall be appointed by Grace of the Senate some time in the Easter Term of 1867; and so on every third year.

8. That the Essays must be sent in to the Registrary on or before October 1, 1867, in the usual form and manner: and so on every third year.

9. That the Examiners shall award the prize some time in the Lent Term of 1868, and at the same time give out the subject for the next Essay; and so on every third year.

10. That the University shall have power to alter and amend this scheme from time to time by Grace of the Senate, on the recommendation of the Board of Natural Sciences.

MORAL SCIENCES.

MORAL PHILOSOPHY PRIZES.

The late Professor of Moral Philosophy, with the approval of the University, offered two Prizes of Fifteen pounds each, to be given every year, so long as he held the Professorship, to the two Persons who should shew the greatest proficiency in Moral Philosophy in the Examination for the Moral Sciences Tripos, provided that, in the judgment of the Examiners, they possessed sufficient merit.

1851 Hort, Trinity.

CHANCELLOR'S MEDAL FOR LEGAL STUDIES.

His Royal Highness the Prince Consort, late Chancellor of the University, gave annually a gold medal for the encouragement of Legal Studies in the University.

The following Rules respecting the Prize were adopted by Grace of the Senate Feb. 21, 1855.

1. That the Examination shall commence on the third Monday after the last Saturday in January.

2. That the Examination shall be open (1) to all Students who, having passed the Examinations entitling to admission to the title of Bachelor Designate in Arts or Law, are not of sufficient standing to be created Masters of Arts or Law; (2) to all Students who, having taken the degree of Bachelor of Arts jure natalium, are not of sufficient standing to be created Master of Arts; and (3) to all Students in Medicine of not more than seven years' standing from matriculation, who have passed both the Examinations for the degree of Bachelor of Medicine.

3. That no person, who has gained the Prize, shall be admitted as a Candidate for it a second time.

4. That the Examiners shall be the persons appointed to conduct the Examinations of Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Laws in the same year.

5. That the Subjects of Examination shall be in general the Elements of Roman Civil Law, the Principles of International Law, the Constitutional History and Constitutional Law of England, and the Principles of the General Law of England, viz., of the Law of Real Property, of the Law of Personal Property, and Criminal Law, and of Equity.

The Board of Legal Studies is required to assign certain books or parts of books to be special Subjects of study for the Examination in every year; public notice of the books and parts of books so assigned for the Examination in any year being given in the first week of the Lent Term of the preceding year.

THEOLOGICAL.

NORRISIAN PRIZEMEN.

John Norris, Esq. the Founder of the Divinity Professorship, by his Will bequeathed a premium of £12 per annum, £7. 4*s.* of which is to be expended upon a gold medal, the residue in books, to the author of the best prose Essay on a sacred subject, which is to be proposed by the Vice-Chancellor, the Norrisian Professor, and two members of the Senate, to be appointed on each occasion by Grace of the Senate, at the first Congregation after Nov. 12.

The subject is delivered out on or before December 1, and the Essay must be sent to the Vice-Chancellor, on or before the 30th of April following. A sheet of paper, folded up like a letter, with the name of the candidate enclosed, and sealed, must be sent with the Essay; also a Greek or Latin motto must be inscribed on the Essay, and the same on the sheet inclosing the name.

No doctrine must be advanced in the Essay contrary to the Liturgy, Articles, and Homilies of the Church of England.

The following regulations were made by a Statute, approved by Her Majesty by order in Council, April 6, 1858.

1. The University shall have power to alter and determine from time to time, by Grace of the Senate, the regulations respecting the persons by whom the subject of the Essays is to be given out and the Prize adjudged; and also the regulations respecting the time and mode of publication of the subject, and the times of sending in the Essays, of adjudging the Prize, and of printing and publishing the Essay for which the Prize is given.

2. The Prize shall be given once in five years only, and shall be the sum of the annuities of the five years preceding the adjudication.

3. The Candidates shall be Graduates of the University of Cambridge, and of not more than thirteen years' standing from admission to their first degrees when the Essays are sent in. They shall not be required to be between the ages of twenty and thirty, nor to have attended the Lectures of the Norrisian Professor.

4. The successful Candidate shall receive the gold medal described by Mr Norris, together with books, to be selected by himself and approved by the Norrisian Professor, not exceeding in value Fifteen pounds, and the remainder of the Prize in money; or money instead of the gold medal or books according to his option; but in no case shall the medal or books be given, or the money paid, till the Essay has been printed and published.

HULSE'S PRIZEMEN.

The Rev. John Hulse, B.A. of St John's College, bequeathed to the University certain estates for the advancement of religious learning, and directed in his Will that out of the rents and profits, an annual premium of £40 should be given to any member of this University, under the degree or standing of M.A., who composed the best Dissertation in the English Language, on the Evidences in general, or on the Prophecies or Miracles in particular, or on any other particular argument, whether the same be direct or collateral proofs of the Christian religion, in order to evince its truth and excellence.

The subject is delivered out on Christmas-Day, or New Year's-Day, and the Dissertations are to be sent to the Vice-Chancellor, or to the Masters of Trinity and St John's, who are the trustees, on or before the 20th of the ensuing October, with the names of the respective authors, sealed up.

The writer of the Dissertation best approved is to print it at his own expense, and not to offer himself a second time for the premium.

By a Statute, confirmed by the Queen in Council, Aug. 1, 1860, the premium of the Dissertator is to be one-tenth part of the net income of Mr Hulse's Benefaction.

SIR PEREGRINE MAITLAND'S PRIZE.

The friends of Lieutenant-General Sir Peregrine Maitland, K.C.B., late Commander in Chief of the forces in South India, being desirous of testifying their respect and esteem for his character and principles, and for his disinterested zeal in the cause of Christian truth in the East; have raised a fund for the institution of a Prize in one of the Universities, and for the establishment of two native Scholarships at Bishop Corrie's Grammar School at Madras,—such Prize and Scholarships to be associated with the name of Sir Peregrine Maitland.

In pursuance of the foregoing scheme, the sum of £1000 has been given to the University of Cambridge for the purpose of instituting a Prize, to be called "Sir Peregrine Maitland's Prize," for an English Essay on some subject connected with the propagation of the Gospel, through Missionary exertions, in India and other parts of the heathen world. The prize is subject to the following regulations.

1. That the Prize shall be given once in every three years, and shall consist of the accruing interest of the principal sum during the preceding three years.

2. That the subject shall be given out in the Michaelmas Term by the Vice-Chancellor, and the exercises sent in before the Division of the Easter Term.

3. That the candidates for the Prize shall be Graduates of the University, who are not of more than ten years' standing from admission to their first degrees, when the exercises are sent in.

4. That the Examiners for the Prize shall be the Vice-Chancellor and two other members of the University, either Masters of Arts, or of degrees superior to the degree of Master of Arts, to be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor and approved by the Senate, and that their names shall be announced together with the subject of the Essay.

5. That the Essay be printed at the expense of the successful candidate; and that fifty copies be distributed to each of the three following institutions:—The Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts; the Church Missionary Society; Bishop Corrie's Grammar School at Madras.

Besides the £1000 before mentioned, the sum of £100 has been given for the first Prize.

Vice-Chancellor, to the University of Cambridge, the sum of £3,500 Reduced Three per Cent. Stock, for the purpose of establishing an Annual Prize, to be awarded to the Graduate, who should produce the best Essay on a subject to be set by the Vice-Chancellor.

On the day after this offer was communicated to the Vice-Chancellor, Mr Burney died; but his sister and executrix, Miss J. Caroline Burney, being desirous of carrying her brother's intentions into effect, generously renewed the offer.

The Prize is to be awarded to a Graduate of the University, who is not of more than three years' standing from admission to his first degree when the Essays are sent in, and who shall produce the best English Essay "on some moral or metaphysical subject, on the Existence, Nature, and Attributes of God, or on the Truth and Evidence of the Christian Religion." The successful Candidate is required to print his Essay; and after having delivered, or caused to be delivered, a copy of it to the University Library, the Library of Christ's College, the University Libraries of Oxford, Dublin, and Edinburgh, and to each of the Adjudicators of the Prize, he is to receive from the Vice-Chancellor the year's interest of the Stock, from which sum the Candidate is to pay the expenses of printing the Essay.

The Vice-Chancellor, the Master of Christ's College, and the Norrisian Professor of Divinity, are the Examiners of the Compositions and the Adjudicators of the Prize.

In the event of the exercises of two of the Candidates being deemed by the Examiners to possess equal merit, if one of such Candidates be a member of Christ's College, the prize is to be adjudged to him.

LE BAS PRIZE.

A large number of Members of the Civil Service of India who were students at the East India College at Haileybury at various intervals during the thirty years that the Rev. C. W. Le Bas, M.A., formerly Fellow of Trinity College, was connected with that Institution, desirous of testifying their regard for Mr Le Bas, and of perpetuating the memory of his services, raised a Fund amounting to £2000, three per cent. Consols, which they offered to the University of Cambridge for founding an annual Prize, to be called in honour of Mr Le Bas the Le Bas Prize, for the best English Essay on a subject of General Literature, such subject to be occasionally chosen with reference to the history, institutions, and probable destinies and prospects of the Anglo-Indian Empire.

The Prize is subject to the following Regulations:—

1. That the Le Bas Prize shall consist of the annual interest of the above-mentioned Fund, the Essay being published at the expense of the successful Candidate.

2. That the Candidates for the Prize shall be, at the time when the Essays are sent in, Graduates of the University who are not of more than three years' standing from their first degree.

3. That the subject for the Essay shall be selected and the Prize adjudicated by the Vice-Chancellor and two other Members of the Senate, to be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor and approved by the Senate at the first Congregation after the tenth day of October in each year.

4. That the subject shall be given out in the week preceding the division of the Michaelmas Term in each year, and the Essays sent in to the Vice-Chancellor, before the end of the next ensuing Easter Term.

CARUS GREEK TESTAMENT PRIZES.

Several friends of the Rev. William Carus, M.A., Canon of Winchester, and late Senior Fellow of Trinity College, desirous of testifying their regard to Mr Carus, raised a Fund amounting to £500, 3 per Cent. Consols; which they offered to the University for the purpose of founding a yearly Prize or Prizes for the encouragement of the accurate Study of the Greek Testament.

Soon after the Senate had accepted the Fund Mr Carus gave to the University the munificent sum of £500, 3 per cent. Consols, to augment the Prize Fund.

The following regulations were confirmed by Grace of the Senate, May 25, 1853.

1. That there shall be two yearly Prizes, to be called The Carus Greek Testament Prizes.

2. That one of the Prizes shall be open for competition to all Students who, having been admitted by Inauguration to the degree of Bachelor in Arts or Law, are not of sufficient standing to be created Masters of Arts or Law, and to Students in Medicine, of not more than seven years' standing from Matriculation, who shall have passed both the Examinations for the degree of Bachelor in Medicine.

3. That the other Prize shall be open to all Students whether undergraduates or Bachelors designate in Arts or Law, who are not of sufficient standing to be admitted by Inauguration to the degree of Bachelor in Arts or Law.

4. That the net proceeds of the Fund, after the Examiners have been paid, shall be divided into two equal parts (one for each Prize) to be laid out in standard Theological Books, the successful Candidates being allowed to choose the Books, subject to the approval of the Regius Professor of Divinity.

5. That one Examiner, who shall be a Member of the Senate, shall be nominated in every year by the Vice-Chancellor, the three Professors of Divinity, and the Regius Professor of Greek, to hold office for two years, and that his name shall be proposed to the Senate for election at the first Congregation after the B.A. Commencement.

6. That whenever a vacancy may occur, a new Examiner shall be nominated and elected in a similar manner.

7. That each Examiner shall receive five pounds yearly out of the proceeds of the Fund.

8. That the Examination for the Bachelors' Prize shall take place on the day following the completion of the Theological Examination in October.

9. That the examination for the Undergraduates' Prize shall take place on the Thursday after the division of Michaelmas Term.

10. That the Candidates shall be required to send in their names to the Examiners at least a week before the day on which they are to be examined.

11. That each Examination shall consist of two printed papers, and shall be concluded in one day.

12. That the Examinations shall embrace Translation and Questions upon the Criticism and Interpretation of the Greek Testament.

13. That no Student shall be eligible for the Bachelors' Prize who has not passed the Theological Examination.

14. That the Prizes shall be first given in the year 1854, and that two Examiners shall be nominated and elected in the Lent Term of that year, of whom one shall hold office only for one year.

15. That a successful Candidate shall not be a second time elected to receive the same Prize.

THE SCHOLEFIELD PRIZE.

The friends of the late Rev. James Scholefield, M.A., Regius Professor of Greek, wishing to establish a memorial of him in the University, presented the sum of £500, 3 per Cent. Consols to the University, to be applied to the encouragement of the critical study of the Holy Scriptures.

The following rules were adopted by the Senate May 22, 1856.

"That the net proceeds in every year of the Fund presented to the University for that purpose by the friends of the late Professor be given as a Prize to that Student among the Middle Bachelors, who, being in the First Class of Honours in the Theological Examination of that year, shall be judged by the Examiners to have shown the best knowledge of the Greek Testament and of the Septuagint Version of the Old Testament.

"That the Prize be called the Scholefield Prize, and that the Prizemen be distinguished as such by a mark attached to his name in the list of Honours published by the Examiners."

HARE PRIZE.

The friends of the late Ven. Archdeacon Hare, formerly Fellow of Trinity College, desiring to testify their admiration for his character, and the high sense they entertain of his services to learning and religion, raised a fund amounting to £500, 3 per cent. Consols, which was accepted by the University, March 7th, 1861, on the following conditions:

1. That a Prize, to be called the Hare Prize, be given once in every four years, in the form of a sum of money representing the interest of the aforesaid £500 which shall have accrued during the four years preceding.
2. That such Prize be given to the author of the best English Dissertation on some subject taken from Ancient Greek or Roman History, political or literary, or from the History of Greek or Roman Philosophy.
3. That notice of the subject of the Dissertation shall be given in the Easter Term of the year preceding that in which the Prize is to be adjudged; and that the Exercises be sent in before the division of the Easter Term succeeding.
4. That the Candidates for the Prize shall be actual members of the University, and Graduates of not more than ten years' standing from admission to the first degree at the time when the Exercises are directed to be sent in.
5. That the subject of the Dissertation shall be selected and the Prize adjudged by the Vice-Chancellor, assisted by two Examiners, who shall be nominated during the Lent Term by the Vice-Chancellor, the Greek Professor, the Professor of Moral Philosophy, and the Public Orator, and approved by the Senate before the end of that Term.
6. That the Dissertation be printed at the expense of the successful Candidate, and that a copy be sent to each of the following persons: the Vice-Chancellor, the Master of Trinity, the Greek Professor, the Professor of Moral Philosophy, the Public Orator, and the two Examiners.

THE KAYE PRIZE.

The Committee of the Subscribers to the late Bishop KAYE'S Memorial at Lincoln, having offered the sum of £500, 3 per Cent. Consols for the foundation of a Prize to be called the Kaye Prize, to be given every fourth year to the graduate of not more than ten years' standing from his first degree, who shall write the best English Dissertation upon some subject or question relating to ancient Ecclesiastical History, or to the Canon of Scripture, or important points of Biblical criticism. The offer was accepted by Grace of the Senate, June 6, 1861, under the following conditions.

The Prize to consist of the accumulation of interest on the Capital sum during the four years preceding, and the successful Candidate to print and publish his Dissertation at his own expense, and to send ten copies to the Cathedral Library at Lincoln, and one copy to the Vice-Chancellor, the Regius Professor of Divinity, and each of the two Examiners.

The subject of the Dissertation is to be given out by the Vice-Chancellor, in the month of December, and the Exercises sent in on or before the 31st October next following.

The Adjudicators of the Prize are to be two persons nominated by the Regius Professor of Divinity, and approved by the Senate.

POETICAL.

CHANCELLOR'S ENGLISH MEDALLISTS.

H. R. H. the Duke of Gloucester, formerly Chancellor, gave annually a gold medal, to be conferred upon a resident Undergraduate, who shall compose in English the best Ode or best Poem in heroic verse[1].

The present Chancellor continues this prize. The subject is given out at the end of Michaelmas Term, and the Exercises are to be sent in to the Vice-Chancellor on or before the 31st of March following, and are not to exceed 200 lines. Each candidate is to send his exercise privately: each is to have some motto prefixed; and to be accompanied by a paper sealed up, with the same motto on the outside, which paper is to enclose another, folded up, having the candidate's name and college written within. The papers containing the names of those persons who do not succeed are destroyed unopened. No prize will be given to any exercise which is written, wholly, or in part (or of which the title, motto, superscription, address, &c., are written), in the hand-writing of the candidate; nor to any one who has not, at the time for sending in the exercises, resided one term at least. Any candidate is at liberty to send in his exercise printed or lithographed. The successful candidate recites his Poem in the Senate-House on Commencement-day. Examiners the same as for the Classical Medals.

SEATONIAN PRIZE.

THE Rev. THOMAS SEATON, M.A., late Fellow of Clare, bequeathed to the University the rents of his Kislingbury estate, now producing clear £40. per annum, to be given yearly to that Master of Arts who shall write the best English Poem on a sacred subject. The Vice-Chancellor, the Master of Clare, and the Greek Professor (who are the disposers of this premium) determine the subject, which is delivered out before the end of the Lent Term, and the Poem is to be sent to the Vice-Chancellor on or before the 29th of September following. The poem is to be printed, and the expense deducted out of the product of the estate; the remainder is given as a reward to the composer. The prize is determined a few days previous to the resignation of the Vice-Chancellor's office[2].

UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS.

CRAVEN's SCHOLARS.

John, Lord Craven, founded two classical Scholarships of £25 per annum each, arising from estates vested in the hands of six trustees.

By a decree of the Court of Chancery, in 1819, the income of the Scholars was augmented to £50 per annum each, and three additional Scholarships founded. And by a decree of the Court of Chancery, in 1841, the Scholarships have been further augmented to £75 per annum. And by a decree of the Court of Chancery in 1861 the number of Scholarships is extended from 5 to 6 and the stipend increased from £75 to £80. The additional £5 is to be received by all now holding Craven Scholarships.

Each Scholarship shall be tenable for seven years if the Scholar shall continue a member of the University, but no longer.

The regulations respecting the persons who are to examine the Candidates and elect the Scholars, respecting the notice of vacancies, the notice to be given by candidates of their intention to present themselves for examination, the time of examination and the residence of the Scholars, will be found at the end of this list of University Scholarships.

BROWNE's SCHOLARSHIP.

Sir William Browne, Knt. M.D., left a perpetual rent-charge of £21 per annum, upon sundry estates for founding a Scholarship, to be paid clear of taxes and disbursements, to the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars, of the University. The Scholarship, with all the arrears which may happen by vacancy, is tenable for seven years; but if the Scholar fail to reside in the University during term time for 20 weeks at least in every year, the Electors may declare his Scholarship vacant. He must not hold any other University Scholarship.

The following rules were made by the Senate, Feb. 17, 1859:

1. Any Undergraduate may be a Candidate for Sir William Browne's Scholarship, provided he be not of more than three years' standing from the time of his first residence in the University.

[7] The Electors were unanimously of opinion that Robert Charles Green, Trinity College, and Herbert Snow, St John's College, acquitted themselves in such a manner as to be deserving of special commendation.

[8] The first five Battie's scholars were appointed by Dr Battie's nomination.

[9] Lord Bishop of Lichfield.

2. The Vice-Chancellor shall declare the vacancy of the Scholarship from time to time as occasion shall require, and the Electors shall be the Vice-Chancellor, the Public Orator, the Regius Professor of Greek, and two members of the Senate appointed by Grace of the Senate at the last Congregation in November after the vacancy has been declared, provided that, in case any of the ex officio Electors be prevented from taking part in the Examination, a deputy shall be appointed in each case by Grace of the Senate.

3. The Examination shall begin on the Monday next after the last Saturday in January of the following year.

4. The names of the Candidates for the vacant Scholarship shall be made known to the Vice-Chancellor by their respective Tutors not later than the Monday next before the commencement of the Examination.

PORSON SCHOLARSHIP.

THE Venerable CHARLES PARR BURNEY, D. D., Archdeacon of Colchester, the representative of the last surviving Trustee of a Fund, which was raised by the friends of the late Professor Porson for his benefit, in conformity with the intention of the said Trustee, by Indenture, made Jan. 27, 1848, invested the residue of the said Fund, with the interest thereon, then amounting to £1732 13*s.* 4*d.* which had been laid out in the purchase of the sum of £1941 12*s.* 10*d.* 3 per Cent. Consolidated Annuities, in the names of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, upon certain trusts, for the purpose of founding a Scholarship, to be called the "Porson Scholarship," so soon as the money so to be invested shall have accumulated to such an amount as will produce the yearly sum of £65. The above Sum, having been increased by four subsequent investments in the same stock, now amounts to £2339 17*s.* 7*d.* and the first Porson Scholar was elected in March, 1855.

The Scholarship is subject to the following regulations.

1. That the person, who shall from time to time be elected into the said Scholarship, shall, during the time of his holding such Scholarship, receive out of the annual proceeds of the said stock an Exhibition of not less than £60 per annum, and that the residue or surplus of the said proceeds, together with the dividends which may at any time accrue during the vacancy of the said Scholarship, shall be invested in the like stock, and appropriated to the general purposes of the Trust.

2. That any Undergraduate shall be eligible to the said Scholarship, who shall have been matriculated, and shall not have resided in the University more than five Terms.

3. That the Vice-Chancellor shall declare the vacancy of the Scholarship, and the names of the Candidates shall be made known to him by their respective Tutors not later than the Monday next before the commencement of the Examination.

4. That the Electors shall be the Vice-Chancellor, the Public Orator, the Greek Professor, and two Members of the Senate appointed by Grace at the last Congregation in November after the vacancy has been declared.

5. That the Examination shall be exclusively Classical, and shall commence on the Monday next after the last Saturday in January.

6. That the Porson Scholar shall reside during the major part of every term, unless prevented by sickness or other cause to be approved of by the Vice-Chancellor and a majority of the other Electors.

7. That the Porson Scholar shall not hold any other University Scholarship; and that he shall vacate his Scholarship at the expiration of four years from his election, so as to be entitled to Eight half-yearly payments.

BELL'S SCHOLARSHIPS.

The Rev. William Bell, D.D. Prebendary of the collegiate church of Westminster, and late Fellow of Magdalene college in this University, in the year 1810, transferred £15,200 stock, 3 per cents., to the University of Cambridge, in trust, to found eight new Scholarships. On the receipt of this benefaction, Scholars were elected in such a manner, and for such a period, that two Scholarships will become vacant every year.

The regulations of these Scholarships are, that candidates for them must be of not more than one year's standing from the time of their first residence, and every Scholar elected on this foundation shall promise in writing to take the degree of B.A. in the most regular way. Where personal merits are equal, those are to be preferred who stand most in need of assistance. If any Scholar shall degrade or determine, and go out in a bye term or declare for law, or be rusticated or expelled, his Scholarship shall be ipso facto vacant. The profits to continue for four years and no more. No person shall ever have two sons Scholars, nor shall there be two orphans, brothers, Scholars at the same time. If no sons or orphans of clergymen shall be found properly qualified for the Scholarships, then, and then only, the electors shall elect the sons of laymen, being undergraduates, who stand in need of assistance.

The electors are, the Vice-Chancellor, the Regius Professor of Divinity, the Lucasian Professor of Mathematics, and two Members of the Senate appointed by Grace of the Senate at the last Congregation in November in every year. The Examination commences on the Monday next after the second Sunday in Lent, and the election takes place on the Friday after Midlent Sunday.

In the following list, wherever two or more gentlemen are recorded as æquales, their literary merits were considered by the electors as nearly equal. In this case the choice of the Scholar or Scholars was made simply on the ground of pecuniary circumstances, according to the express direction of the Supplemental clause to Dr Bell's Deed of foundation.

TYRWHITT's HEBREW SCHOLARSHIPS.*

The Rev. Robert Tyrwhitt, M.A. late Fellow of Jesus College, who died in 1818, by his Will bequeathed £4000 Navy 5 per cents. for the promotion and encouragement of Hebrew learning, the mode and disposition of this bequest to be left to the University.

The Senate in 1818 decreed the foundation of three Scholarships, which decree was revised in 1826, and the number increased to six; this was again revised in 1836, when the following Regulations passed the Senate:

[1] Head Master of the Blackheath Proprietary School.

* It may be here stated, that the Kennicott Hebrew Scholarship at Oxford is open not only to Oxford Graduates, but to all who have been admitted B.A. there comitatis causa. For the conditions and emoluments, see the Oxford University Calendar.

Decree of the Senate, April 29, 1836.

1.—That there shall in future be six Scholarships, called Tyrwhitt's Hebrew Scholarships.

2.—That the candidates for these Scholarships shall be, first, (actualiter) Bachelors of Arts or Inceptors who are not of sufficient standing to be created Masters of Arts; or secondly, Students in the Civil Law or Medicine, of not less than four or more than seven years' standing, who shall be required, before they are admitted to become candidates, to produce certificates from their respective Professors, that they have kept the exercises necessary for the degree of Bachelor of Law or Physic.

[1]3.—That out of the net annual proceeds of Mr Tyrwhitt's Benefaction the sum of £150 be divided among the six Scholars, in the proportions hereinafter specified.

4.—That the electors to these Scholarships shall be the Vice-Chancellor, the Regius Professor of Hebrew, the Professor of Arabic, and two members of the Senate, to be nominated by the different colleges according to the cycle of Proctors.

5.—That if the Regius Professor of Hebrew, or the Professor of Arabic, or both of them, shall decline, or be prevented from examining, a deputy or deputies shall be appointed by a Grace of the Senate.

6.—That if it shall happen at any time, that two of the offices severally constituting electors are united in the same person, the deputy for the elector in respect of one of the said offices shall be the Lord Almoner's Reader in Arabic; but if in any case the Lord Almoner's Reader shall decline the office of deputy examiner, or shall be prevented from undertaking the said office, a deputy examiner shall be appointed in his place by a Grace of the Senate.

7.—That if the Vice-Chancellor, the Regius Professor of Hebrew, the Professor of Arabic, or any two of them, shall be members of the same college, no elector shall in that case be appointed by that college according to the cycle of Proctors; but the appointment shall be made by a Grace of the Senate.

8.—That the appointment, when requisite, of an examiner or examiners by Grace of the Senate take place at the first Congregation of the Lent Term of the year, and that the examiner or examiners so appointed continue in office until the first Congregation in the Lent Term of the following year.

9.—That the examination for these Scholarships commence annually on the second Wednesday in May; and that persons intending to be candidates send in their names to the Vice-Chancellor on or before the first day of May.

10.—That two Scholars be elected in each year; that the first in the order of merit of these two, receive an annual stipend of £30, and the second an annual stipend of £20, for three years from the time of election. That in case of equality of merit the stipend of each be £25.

[1] In consequence of successive reductions of Interest of the Stock, in which Mr Tyrwhitt's Benefaction was invested, the sum received by the University became reduced to £135 per annum. To meet the deficiency a Subscription was opened, and a fund amounting to £400 Exchequer Bills and £86 was offered to the Senate and accepted by Grace, June 12, 1862.

11.—That should it appear in any case to the majority of the electors that no one of the candidates is deserving of a Scholarship with the stipend of £30 a year, it shall be competent for them to elect one Scholar only, with the stipend of £20 a year.

12.—That in case there shall be a deficiency of deserving candidates for the two Scholarships in any year, the electors shall have power, in the second or third succeeding year, to elect additional Scholars into the vacancy, or vacancies, thus occasioned; after which time the stipends, belonging to the Scholarships which have not been filled up, shall be appropriated in the manner appointed in the next regulation.

13.—That the residue of the net annual proceeds of Mr Tyrwhitt's benefaction, not already disposed of by the third regulation, together with all accumulations which may arise under the twelfth regulation, shall form a fund to be expended in the promotion and encouragement of Hebrew Literature, at the discretion of the examiners, provided that not more than a third part of such fund be expended in any year.

14.—That the accounts of this Bequest be kept distinct from the general Accounts of the University, and be annually audited by the electors in Michaelmas Term before the first of November; and being so audited, shall be laid on the Registrary's Table in the Senate-House at the next Congregation, for the inspection of the Senate.

15.—That these Regulations shall be in force until the first Congregation in Lent Term, 1842.

On December 15, 1841, the following Grace passed the SENATE :—

"That the existing regulations of the Tyrwhitt's Hebrew Scholarships be continued."

The following Grace passed the SENATE, May 8, 1842 :—

"That the Examiners shall publish the names arranged in the order of merit, of such candidates as pass the examination with credit."

CROSSE SCHOLARSHIPS.

THE Rev. JOHN CROSSE, late Vicar of Bradford in Yorkshire, left to George Buxton Browne, Esq. in trust, the sum of £2000 free of legacy-duty, for the purpose of founding three Theological Scholarships, "for promoting the cause of true Religion." They are subject to the following Regulations.

1.—That they be called "The CROSSE SCHOLARSHIPS."

2.—That the Candidates for the same be Bachelors of Arts under the standing of Masters of Arts; and that such Scholarships be tenable for three years.

3. That in case of any vacancy of a Scholarship after a shorter tenure than three years, the person elected into that Scholarship shall hold it only till the expiration of three years from the election of the Scholar, by whom the Scholarship was vacated.

4.—That the annual Examination and Election take place in the Michaelmas Term after the division of the said Term.

5.—That the annual interest arising from the fund be divided equally among the three Scholars.

6.—That the Electors be the Vice-Chancellor, the Margaret Professor of Divinity, the Regius Professor of Divinity, the Regius Professor of Hebrew, the Regius Professor of Greek, the Norrisian Professor of Divinity, and the Professor of Arabic.

7.—That the Examination turn upon a knowledge of the Holy Scriptures in their Original Tongues, Hebrew and Greek, of Ecclesiastical History, of the earlier and later Heresies, and such other subjects of useful enquiry, as may be thought most likely to assist in the formation of valuable Characters, fitted to sustain and adorn "the Cause of true Religion."

THE SHEEPSHANKS ASTRONOMICAL EXHIBITION.

The representatives of the late Rev. RICHARD SHEEPSHANKS, M.A., Fellow of Trinity College, founded in 1858 an Exhibition to be given to that Undergraduate of the University, elected by the Master and Seniors of Trinity College, who shall be found, upon notice of competition publicly given, and examination held by them or by persons appointed by them, to be best versed in Astronomy, theoretical and practical.

The person elected is to become a Student of Trinity College and to retain the Exhibition for three years, on condition that he shall keep by residence every University term of that time.

The Exhibition is the interest of £1666. 13*s*. 4*d*. three per cent. consols.

LUMLEY EXHIBITIONS.

THE Right Honourable ELIZABETH, Viscountess LUMLEY, by a deed bearing date October 8, 1657, directed certain Trustees therein named, to pay and allow yearly to ten poor Scholars of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, educated in the School founded by her at Thornton in the county of York, or in default of such, to any other poor Scholars, not exceeding ten in number

---

[1] Senior B.A.

[2] Middle B.A.

[3] Junior B.A.

[4] The electors were unanimously of opinion that the merits of Ds. Proby, of Trinity college, were very nearly equal to those of the successful candidate, and that Ds. G. F. Maclear, of Trinity college, acquitted himself in such a manner as to be deserving of special commendation.

(subsequently reduced to five), who should be nominated thereto by the respective Convocations of the said Universities for the time being, the sum of £4 a year each, to be continued until they should have time to become graduates in one of the said Universities.

By an Order of the Court of Chancery, issued in the year 1820, it was directed that, in consequence of the increased rents these five Exhibitions should in future be £15 per annum each, and that the rents not called for should accumulate.

REGULATIONS

RESPECTING

THE CRAVEN, BATTIE, DAVIES AND PITT SCHOLARSHIPS.

[Confirmed by Grace of the SENATE, Nov. 7, 1861.]

1. The persons who are to examine the Candidates for the above-named Scholarships and to elect the Scholars shall be the Vice-Chancellor, the Public Orator, the Regius Professor of Greek, and two members of the Senate appointed by Grace of the Senate at the last Congregation in November in every year, provided that in case any of the ex-officio Electors be prevented from taking part in the Examination a deputy shall be appointed in each case by Grace of the Senate.

2. On the first Monday in December in every year there shall be a meeting at the Vice-Chancellor's of the Electors to the Scholarships to consider which of the Scholarships shall be declared vacant, and public notice of the vacancy or vacancies declared shall be given forthwith.

3. The Scholars on the above-mentioned Foundations shall ordinarily be required to reside in the University during the major part of every Term, with the understanding that they shall have such leave of absence as will enable them to retain their Scholarships until each Scholar becomes in rotation Senior Scholar.

In case of any instance of non-residence in the University, for one whole Term before the Bachelor's Degree, the Electors at their meeting shall have the power of declaring vacant the Scholarship of the person so non-resident in preference to that of the Senior Scholar, if it appear to them that such non-residence is without sufficient excuse.

4. Of the Scholarships which shall have become voidable by non-residence that shall be declared vacant which has been held for the longest time, provided that no one Scholarship shall have become necessarily void before the day of the meeting of the Electors, in which case no other Scholarship shall be declared vacant for that year.

5. Any Undergraduate may be a Candidate for any of the above-mentioned Scholarships, provided he be not of more than three years' standing from the time of his first residence.

6. The names of the Candidates shall be made known to the Vice-Chancellor by their respective Tutors not later than the Monday next before the commencement of the Examination.

7. The Examination shall begin on the Monday next after the last Saturday in January in every year.

UNIVERSITY AND COLLEGE PRIZES.

The prizes for the encouragement of literature, free and open to competition for the whole University, amount to upwards of £1,500, three-fourths of which are given for Classics and English Composition.

The amount of the annual prizes in the different colleges is about £800, more than half of which are given for the encouragement of Classical Literature.

Regulations respecting University Prizes, confirmed by Grace of the Senate, March 23, 1855.

1. That a Prizeman, desiring to have Prize Books stamped with the Arms of the University, shall be required to submit to the Vice-Chancellor the proposed Books, with an account of the cost, within six months after the Prize is adjudged.

2. That the Sum allowed to be expended in Books (including the cost of binding) shall not exceed Fifteen Pounds.

3. That the Vice-Chancellor shall be authorized, if he approves of the Books submitted to him, to permit the arms of the University to be stamped thereon, with the Name and Year of the Prize, and the Name and College of the Prizeman; such permission to be recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose.

The Syndicate further recommend that the first and third of the foregoing Regulations shall apply to those Money Prizes which are now directed to be laid out in Books, provided that in no case the cost of the Books (including binding) exceed the amount of the Prize.

Regulation respecting Prizes, confirmed by the Senate, March 19, 1858.

That in the case of every Exercise, to which hereafter a Prize shall be adjudged, and which is required to be printed, the Prize be not given unless the Exercise be printed within twelve months after the adjudication; and that the author be not at liberty to make any alteration or addition without the leave of the Adjudicators.

PATRONAGE

IN THE GIFT OF THE UNIVERSITY.

WHEN a benefice becomes vacant, the senior Proctor declares the vacancy, and a candidate is chosen by the Senate. In regard to the vicarage of Burwell, the University, within four months after a vacancy, names two candidates, and the Earl of Guildford presents one of them to the Bishop of Norwich.

CRANE's CHARITY FOR THE RELIEF OF SICK SCHOLARS.

John Crane, Apothecary in Cambridge, and M.A., died in 1654, and left by his Will money to buy an estate of £62 per annum[1], to be settled on the five corporations following, viz. the University of Cambridge, the towns of Wisbech, Cambridge, Lynn, and Ipswich[2]. The rents to be received in order, and to be applied by the University in their turn towards the relief of Sick Scholars. The distribution to be made by the Vice-Chancellor, the Professors of Divinity, the Civil Law, and Physic, and the Chief Apothecary of the town. The Master of Caius college is requested to assist the Distributors. Meetings of the distributors, to consider and determine the claims of applicants for the benefit of this charity, take place on the third Tuesday of May, and the third Tuesday of November, in every year, and all applications of Scholars must be made by the Tutors of their respective colleges.

The Trustees wish it to be understood that they are willing to apply to the "Institution for Nursing Sisters," in London, for nurses to attend poor sick scholars and to pay their wages in case of necessity; applications to be made to the Vice-Chancellor for the time being, or to the Regius Professor of Physic.

PERSE FREE GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

Trustees, The Master and four Senior Fellows of Gonville and Caius College.

Stephen Perse, M.D., senior Fellow of Caius College, by a clause in his Will[3], dated September 27th, 1615, bequeathed certain property in charge to his executors, to purchase divers grounds and tenements, to be applied, amongst other purposes, to that of erecting and establishing within three years (if possible), after his decease, a convenient house capable of containing one hundred Scholars to be used for a Free Grammar School, with apartments for a Master and Usher, who are required to be graduates in this University; the former a Master, the latter a Bachelor of Arts at least. The Free Scholars are to be natives of Cambridge, Barnwell, Chesterton, or Trumpington.

The School is conducted under rules framed by the Court of Chancery, July 31, 1841, by which it is provided "that the education should be of a commercial and general nature, in which reading with the mother tongue, with arithmetic, and a knowledge of the science of book-keeping, as applicable to Tradesmen, shall be main ingredients, as serviceable to the class of persons partaking of the benefits of the Charity."

[2] The first payment was made about the year 1660.

[3] A Copy of the Will is in Baker's MSS. Vol xxvi. p. 131.

Every Scholar on admission pays twenty shillings, and to the Assistant Usher, ten shillings entrance, and ten shillings each half-year, for being taught Reading, Writing, and Arithmetic.

The age of admission is between 10 and 14 years. No free Scholar is to remain longer than till the Midsummer Vacation next after he has attained the age of 18 years.

None but free Scholars are to be instructed in the School, unless with further sufficient help besides the present Master, Usher, and Assistant Usher; and then according to the direction of the Trustees.

A List of the Rules of the School, and of the Names of the Scholars, is kept in the School Room.

The School is examined annually at Midsummer, by two Masters of Arts appointed by the Trustees, and prizes are awarded according to merit.

In case of a vacancy in the place of a Master or Usher, preference is to be given to one who has received his education at the School.

In 1842 the old School-house was taken down, and new buildings were erected, comprehending a school-room, and houses for the Master and Usher.

ADDENBROOKE's HOSPITAL

Was opened in the year 1766, having been founded by John Addenbrooke, M.D., formerly fellow of Catharine Hall. It was further endowed in 1813 by Mr John Bowtell, late bookseller and stationer in Cambridge, and is supported chiefly by the voluntary contributions of the public. It is now being greatly enlarged and altered, indeed almost rebuilt, and will be capable of containing above one hundred and twenty beds for patients.

Certificates of attendance on the practice in it are recognized by the University, by the Royal Colleges of Physicians and Surgeons, and by the Society of Apothecaries in London.

During Term Clinical Lectures are delivered weekly by the Physicians and Surgeons.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY.

THIS magnificent Library, containing at present more than 200 000 volumes, has been enriched at different times by royal and private benefactors, amongst whom the name of Thomas Rotheram, Archbishop of York, and Lord Privy Seal to King Edward IV., Bishop Hacket, Doctors Lucas and Holdsworth, and the royal names of George I. and II. may be mentioned as pre-eminently distinguished.

The permanent sources of its increase are as follows:

1. The Copyright Act (8th of Queen Anne, 54th Geo. III. and 6 & 7 Will. IV.) under which this Library, in common with the British Museum, the Bodleian Library at Oxford, the Library of the faculty of Advocates at Edinburgh, and that of Trinity College, Dublin, is entitled to demand a copy of every book published in Great Britain.

2 The Rustat Fund, arising from an estate at Ovington in Norfolk. This estate was bought with the money given to the University in 1666, by Tobias Rustat, Esq. M.A. Yeoman of the Robes to King Charles II., to be laid out in land, the rents to be applied in the purchase of choice books for the Public Library.

3. William Worts, M.A. of St Catharine's College, ordered by his Will that the annual surplus of the rents and profits of his estate at Landbeach, in this county, after the discharge of the other outgoings, should be applied to the use of the Public Library.

4 The Rev. John Manistre, M.A. late Fellow of King's College, lately bequeathed £5000, to purchase books. This sum has been invested, and produces the annual income of £150.

5. A quarterly contribution of one shilling and sixpence each from all members of the University, excepting Sizars, is likewise made for the support of the Library.

The great want of accommodation for books in the present Library, and of Lecture-Rooms for the Professors, had long been complained of; and, as the University was not itself in possession of funds to supply these deficiencies, a subscription was set on foot in 1835, and above £20,000 were collected from Members of the University and others, who felt an interest in the undertaking.

The late Rev. T. Halford, M.A. of Jesus College, invested in the hands of Trustees the munificent sum of £2000 for completing a second wing of the New Library, to which have been added for the same purpose the following subscriptions:

The Right Rev. The Lord Bishop of Durham	£100.
The Rev. B. Chapman, D.D. Master of Caius College	50.
Robert Moon, Esq. M.A. Fellow of Queens' College	100.
The Rev. J. Power, M.A. Librarian	50.
Edwin Guest, Esq. LL.D. Master of Gonville and Caius College	50.
Dr Peacock, Dean of Ely	100.

The portion of the New Library, of which the first stone was laid Sept. 29, 1837, is according to part of a design by Mr C. R. Cockerell of London, for an entire Court.

The management of the Library is committed to the Librarian under Rules and Regulations enacted by the Syndics.

The Syndics are the Vice-Chancellor, and sixteen members of the Senate, four of whom in rotation retire every year, and their places are supplied by four other members elected by the Senate. They meet in the Library on every alternate Wednesday in Term time; and to them, or the major part, not less than five, of whom the Vice-Chancellor or his deputy, must always be one, full powers are committed for regulating the same.

RULES AND ORDERS OF THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY.

Published by Authority.

I. For Books allowed to be taken out of the Library.

1. That no person shall be allowed to take Books out of the Library, but those who, having been admitted to the Degree of M.B., M.L., M.A., M.D., LL.D., or D.D. have their names on the Register of Members of the Senate, or on the Boards of their respective Colleges.

2. That no one shall take or borrow any Book out of the Library without first delivering a note for the same to one of the Library Assistants, expressing in his own handwriting his Name and College, the title of the Book, and the year and day of the month on which such Book is taken or borrowed, on pain of forfeiting Five Pounds, or double the value of such Book, at the discretion of the Vice-Chancellor.

3. That the Library Assistants shall preserve all such notes, till the Books so taken out are returned to the Library; and that when all the Books specified in each note are returned, the notes shall be delivered up to the persons by whom the Books are brought back: when only some Books specified in each note are returned, the titles of the Books so returned shall be erased from the note at the time.

4. That no person shall be allowed to have in his possession at one time more than Ten Volumes belonging to the Library; but that the Syndicate will dispense with this Order in any particular case, if they shall be of opinion that sufficient reasons have been assigned for such dispensation: that such dispensation however shall continue in force no longer than to the end of the Quarter for which it shall be granted; but upon fresh application may be renewed by the same authority.

5. That every one who shall borrow or take any Book out of the Library shall return it thither again on or before the next of the Four following Quarter Days: viz. March 25th, June 24th, September 29th, December 21st, under penalty of Two Shillings for every Folio or Quarto, and One Shilling for every Book of less size: all penalties to be repeated every fortnight till the Books be returned, or others of the same editions and equal value placed in their room, such fortnight being first reckoned from the day on which the Library is re opened after the Quarter Day.

If any one of the Quarter Days should fall on a Sunday, or on any other day on which the Library is closed by Rule 26, the day appointed for returning Books shall be the following day.

6. That no Books shall be taken out of the Library on the days appointed for the return of Books.

7. That every Tutor of a College (being a Member of the Senate or a Bachelor of Medicine) shall have the privilege of obtaining, for each resident pupil, who shall have been admitted to the title of Bachelor Designate of Arts or Law, any number of Volumes not exceeding Five from the Library: that each order for the Volumes so obtained shall bear the titles of the Books, and be dated and subscribed as follows:

For M. N., B.A., —— College.
186 C. D. Tutor.

That the Books so obtained shall not be taken out of the Library till the day after that on which the Library is re-opened for the Quarter, and that they shall be returned not later than the day before the next Quarter Day.

That the Tutor shall be responsible for the Books so obtained and for the penalties prescribed by Rule 5.

8. That a list of the Books omitted to be returned at the end of any Quarter, together with the names of the borrowers, shall be suspended in some conspicuous place in the Library.

9. That no person, from whom any fine is due to the Library, shall be allowed to take out Books until such fine has been paid.

10. That if any Book be injured or defaced by writing while in the possession of any person taking it out of the Library, he shall be required to replace it by another Book of the same edition and of equal value.

Persons taking Books out of the Library are required to report without delay to the Librarian any injury which they may observe in them.

II. For Books not allowed to be taken out of the Library without a note countersigned by the Vice-Chancellor, or by the Syndicate.

11. That certain printed Books, and also a selection of Books containing collections of Prints and Drawings, (of which Books a list shall be kept) shall not be taken out, except by a note countersigned by the Vice-Chancellor, or his Deputy, nor until the day after that on which the note is presented; nor shall any person have more than five volumes of such Books out of the Library at one time.

12. That certain printed Books, regarded as Books of reference, (of which a list shall be kept), shall not be taken out except by a note countersigned by the authority of the Syndicate: and that all such Books shall be labelled on the back accordingly.

13. That a selection of the more valuable Books containing collections of Prints or Drawings shall be locked up in cases or compartments by themselves, and not to be taken out of the Library except by a note under the authority of the Syndicate, and upon such conditions as the Syndicate may deem expedient.

14. That a register shall be kept of all such Books taken out of the Library, agreeably to Rules 11, 12, and 13, and of the date at which they are returned; that after the Books are returned, the plates in them shall forthwith be collated, and the collation be registered; that until such collation shall have been made, the Books shall not be accessible to persons using the Library, nor shall the countersigned note be given up to the persons by whom the Books are returned, but in lieu of it an acknowledgment signed by the Librarian, or one of his assistants; that the name of the person by whom the acknowledgment is signed shall also be registered; and that the fines for not returning such Books be double the ordinary fines.

III. For MSS. and Books not allowed to be taken out of the Library except upon a Bond being given for their safe return.

15. That no Manuscript whatever shall be taken out of the Library without a Grace for its removal being obtained from the Senate; nor without a Bond being given by the borrower to the Librarian, to return it uninjured within a certain time, to be specified in the Grace, under a penalty of Fifty Pounds at the least.

16. That a selection of the very rare and early printed Books shall be locked up in cases by themselves, and shall only be taken out of the Library under the conditions that apply to the borrowing of Manuscripts.

17. That the Librarian shall have the custody of the keys of all the locked cases that contain Books or MSS.

18. That with a view to retaining the free use in the Library of such Books to those who are desirous of consulting them for the purpose of study, and who may wish to have access to them for a considerable time at one visit, the Librarian, if he see cause, may allow such persons to use the Books without the continued presence of himself or one of the assistants.

19. That persons desirous of referring to any particular Manuscripts or scarce printed Books shall apply to the Librarian, who, if he see cause, may allow such Manuscripts or Books to be consulted, but not in the compartments in which the Manuscripts or scarce printed Books are kept.

20. That parts of Periodicals, Works in progress, Pamphlets, Quarto and Folio Books of a few pages, single Sermons, &c. until such time as is proper for binding them, shall be kept in store rooms under such a system of management that they may be produced, if required, after a few minutes' notice on application being made to the Librarian by means of an ordinary Library note, so that persons to whose literary researches such works are necessary may consult them in the Library with the consent of the Librarian.

IV. For admission to the Library.

21. That except on the day when the Library is re-opened for any Quarter, those persons, for whom Tutors of Colleges are allowed under Rule 7 the privilege of obtaining Books, shall be admitted into the Library for the purpose of selecting their Books, or otherwise consulting the Library, provided they appear in their Academical Dress.

22. That except on the day when the Library is re-opened for any Quarter, Undergraduates shall be admitted to consult Books in the Library during the last two hours that it is open each day, provided they appear in Academical Dress.

23. That other persons, who are not Members of the University, shall be admitted into the Library only when accompanied by a Graduate Member of the University, who shall remain with them during the whole time they are in the Library; but they shall not be allowed to examine the Catalogues or to take down Books from the shelves.

24. That the Library Assistants shall not be allowed to receive any gratuities.

V. Admission of Persons not Members of the University, for the purpose of study and research.

1. "That the Syndicate, before granting such Permission to any Person, require and receive recommendations in writing from two Members of the Senate, each of whom shall separately state;

   i. "That the Person recommended is well known to him, and that he is a fit and proper Person to receive such permission:

   ii. "What the particular branch of Study is, for which the Person recommended wishes to consult the Library.

2. "That the names of the Members of the Senate, upon whose recommendation any such permission shall be granted, shall be placed after the name of the Person receiving the permission in a List to be suspended at the entrance of the Library.

3. "That such persons be permitted to use the Library between the hours of 10 and 2, except on any day on which the Library is first opened for the quarter, or on any day when the Library is closed for the quarter.

4. "That this permission shall not entitle the holder to have access to the lock-up cases.

5. "That this permission shall expire on the 20th of October of each year."

VI. For opening and closing the Library.

25. That for the purpose of allowing the Librarian sufficient time to inspect the Books, the Library shall be closed for the twelve days (excluding Sundays) immediately following Midsummer day; and also for the two days (excluding Sunday) next after each of the Three other Quarter Days.

26. That the Library shall be closed on the following days, viz. Sundays, Christmas-Day, St Stephen's Day, the Circumcision, the Epiphany, the Purification, Ash-Wednesday, Good-Friday, Easter-Monday and Tuesday, Ascension-Day, Whit-Monday and Tuesday, the Queen's Accession (June 20), All Saints'-Day, November 5th, days which may be appointed by authority for Public Fasts or Thanksgivings, the days mentioned in Rule 25; and on no other days.

27. That the Library shall be open on Saturdays from Ten till One; and on other days from Ten till Four.

The following Order was made July 8, 1857.

That no Persons shall be admitted into the Library on the day when it is first opened for any quarter, except those who have the privilege of taking Books out of the Library on that day.

THE UNIVERSITY PRESS.

The management of the University Press is committed by the Senate to Syndics, who meet to transact business in the Printing-office, and cannot act unless five are present, the Vice-Chancellor being always one.

On the death of the Right Honourable William Pitt, many distinguished personal friends of that statesman and admirers of his public conduct, entered into a subscription for the purpose of erecting some memorial worthy of his name.

By means of the funds thus raised, a marble statue of Mr Pitt, executed by Westmacott, was erected in Westminster Abbey; and another bronze statue of him, executed after a model by Chantry, has been more recently placed in Hanover Square, London. A large sum still remained unexpended; and the Committee at whose disposal the Funds were placed, desiring to employ the surplus in some mode that might contribute to the honour and usefulness of the University in which Mr Pitt had received his education, offered, with a noble liberality, to erect a building after a design by Mr Blore, which should form the front of the University Printing Offices, and be designated by the name of the Pitt Press.

This munificent offer was accepted; and a large sum of money was expended by the University in purchasing the necessary site. The first stone of the New Building was laid in 1831 by the Marquis Camden, the chairman of the before-mentioned Committee, attended by the Earl of Clarendon, the Earl of Harrowby, Lord Farnborough, and Henry Bankes, Esq. M.P.; also Members of that Committee.

The edifice was completed in 1833.

Strangers and persons in statu pupillari are admitted to this Establishment on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, from Twelve to One o'clock, if accompanied by a Master of Arts.

THE FITZWILLIAM MUSEUM.

Richard, Viscount Fitzwilliam, formerly of Trinity Hall, (M.A. 1764,) who died 5th February, 1816, bequeathed to the University his splendid collection of books, paintings, drawings, engravings, &c., together with the dividends or annual proceeds of £100,000 South Sea Annuities, for the erection of a Museum for their reception.

The dividends on the above-mentioned Stock having accumulated to a sum exceeding £40,000, the existing building was commenced on the 2nd of November, 1837, from the designs of George Basevi, Esq., and carried on under his superintendence until his death in 1845, when C. R. Cockerell, Esq., the architect of the Public Library and many other works, was appointed to succeed him, and to this gentleman are due the designs for the interiors of the Entrance-hall and Library; for which the late architect had left no drawings. In the course of the year 1847, it became evident that the available funds would not suffice for the entire finishing of the Hall, the farther works were therefore suspended for a period of years sufficient to allow of the accumulation of the requisite sum, and the Pictures, Books, and other articles which comprise the Fitzwilliam Collection, together with the Mesman Collection described below, and other donations were removed into the new building, where they are now open for inspection.

The late Mr MESMAN bequeathed a valuable collection of Pictures to the University. His brother, the Rev. Mr Mesman (to whom they were bequeathed for his life,) having given up his life-interest in the bequest, the collection came into the immediate possession of the University. These pictures were for many years deposited in one of the apartments of the Pitt Press, but are now removed into the Fitzwilliam Museum. The collection amounts in number to 248 Paintings and 33 Drawings and Prints. Among the Painters are the names, Vandyck, Schidoni, P. Brill, Ruysdael, Canaletti, Teniers, Gerard Dow, Cuyp, Wouvermans, Tintoretto, the Carracci, Holbein, L. Van Leyden, Castiglioni, Van Goyn, &c. &c. &c. The majority of the Pictures are of the Flemish and Dutch schools.

On the 16th of April, 1850, John Disney, Esq., F.R.S., F.S.A., of the Hyde, near Ingatestone, Essex, presented a Collection of Ancient Marbles, eighty-three in number; and on the 29th of July, John Kirkpatrick, Esq., M.A. of Trinity College, presented a Collection of thirty-four Casts of Antique Statuary.

In 1861 John Ruskin, Esq. presented to the Museum twenty-five water colour drawings of great interest and beauty by the late J. M. W. Turner, R.A.; and in 1862 Mrs Elizabeth Ellison, of Sudbrooke Holme, Lincolnshire, presented thirty valuable pictures in oil by modern English Masters. Seven choice pictures by old Masters were presented in 1864 by A. A. Vansittart, Esq., late Fellow of Trinity College. They are by Adrian Vandervelde, Ruysdael, Paul Potter, Old Francks, Patel and Nikkelen.

The Museum has been augmented by many other valuable presents of Paintings, Prints, Books, Statues, Models, and Curiosities; a list of which may be seen in the donation book.

REGULATIONS of the FITZWILLIAM MUSEUM.

A.

1. That the general management of the Fitzwilliam Museum should be entrusted to a Syndicate composed of the Vice-Chancellor and eight other members of the Senate, to be elected by Grace.

2. That of the said eight members two should retire by rotation on the day of division of the Michaelmas Term in every year, and that their places should be supplied by two other Members of the Senate, elected by Grace at the next ensuing Congregation, the retiring Members not being re-eligible at that election.

3. That the Order of rotation for retirement should be that of priority of election.

4. That in the case of a vacancy occurring in any year by the death of a Member or otherwise, a new Member should be elected as soon as possible to supply the vacant place, and that the person so elected should continue to be a Member of the Syndicate for the same period as that during which the person, whose substitute he is, would have continued.

5. That there should be at least two meetings of the Syndicate in every Term; and that four Members (the Vice-Chancellor or his deputy being one) be requisite to constitute a quorum; but that in cases of emergency arising at times when the Members of the University are for the most part absent from Cambridge, a smaller number be authorized to act, provided they be unanimous.

6. That the Syndicate should be empowered—

To provide generally for the care of the Building, and to direct ordinary repairs and cleaning:

To provide for the care of the Collection, and to make arrangements for the placing of the various articles at any time composing it:

In the case of presents being offered to the Collection, to decide whether they shall be at once accepted or rejected, or whether the question shall be referred to the Senate:

To carry into effect the regulations for admission; and on special occasions to modify or suspend them:

To examine and audit the accounts of all receipts and disbursements; it being distinctly understood that in any question of considerable or extraordinary expense, application shall be made to the Senate for its express sanction and authority:

In cases of misconduct or incompetency, to reprimand, and, if need be, to dismiss the Curators or servants; but not without the concurrence of a majority of the whole Syndicate:

And to order generally all such things as shall be necessary for better regulating and securing the Museum; it being understood that the Syndicate shall in especial cases decide whether the question shall be referred to the Senate:

Also should make an Annual Report to the Senate of the state of the Building and Collection, together with a statement of the accounts, and such other particulars as may appear to require notice.

B.

I. For the Picture and Sculpture Galleries and Entrance Hall.

1. The Museum shall be open for inspection every day (with the exceptions after mentioned) from ten to four during the whole year.

2. Every Graduate of the University shall have admission during the whole time that the Museum is open, provided he appear in his academical habit.

3. Every Undergraduate shall have admission after twelve o'clock, provided he appear in his academical habit.

4. There shall be three days appointed in every week, namely, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, which shall be called Public Days, upon which all persons respectably dressed shall be freely admitted between the hours of ten and four, upon condition that, if required, they give their names and addresses. Children under fifteen years of age may not be admitted unless accompanied by older friends.

5. Every Graduate of the University may introduce any strangers or friends, provided he accompany them and (if strangers) remain with them during the whole time they are in the building.

6. Every Undergraduate of the University may, during the time that the Museum is open, introduce any strangers or friends who do not belong to the University, on delivering a ticket signed by himself and countersigned by the Tutor or Head of his College, containing the name and address of at least one of the party so introduced. He must also accompany the party and remain with them during the whole time they are in the building.

7. Any person desirous of copying the pictures must first obtain express permission from the Vice-Chancellor. Application for such permission shall be accompanied with a written recommendation from some Member of the Senate. The permission shall be granted by means of a ticket, signed by the person applying, and countersigned by the Vice-Chancellor, and specifying the time to which the permission shall extend; it being understood that copyists shall be subjected to rules hereafter to be prepared by the Managing Syndicate.

The bearer of such a ticket will be required to insert his signature in a book to be kept for the purpose; and, if a stranger, must be accompanied upon the first visit to the building by some Resident Member of the Senate.

8. The days upon which the building shall be closed to be the following:—Sundays, Christmas-day, Epiphany, Purification, Ash-Wednesday, Good-Friday, Ascension-day, and November 5. It shall also remain closed for the purpose of cleaning and verifying the state of the Collection on the first Wednesday of every month, or oftener if deemed necessary by the Managing Syndicate.

II. For the Library.

9. The Library shall remain open during the same days and hours as the Museum.

10. Every Graduate of the University shall have admission to the Library for the purpose of consulting or examining its contents.

11. Any Undergraduate may obtain admission on the delivery of a ticket signed by himself and countersigned by the Tutor or Head of his College.

12. Every Graduate of the University may introduce any strangers or friends into the Library for the purpose of consulting or examining its contents, provided he remain with them during the whole time they are in the apartment. But the rule (4) for the admission to the Museum on public days, and the rule (6) for the admission of strangers by Undergraduates, shall not extend to the Library.

13. Any person who wishes to examine or copy the Prints or Manuscripts may apply for permission to do so in the manner prescribed in rule (7).

III.

14. Regulations for examining and copying the Pictures, Prints, and Manuscripts, as well as forms for the tickets required by rules (6), (7), (11), (13), shall be prepared by the Managing Syndicate.

15. No money shall be received from Visitors by any of the officers or servants.

C.

1. That there shall be two Curators of the Fitzwilliam Museum.
   (1) The Curator of the Library.
   (2) The Curator of the Building.

2. That the Curator of the Library shall remain therein during the hours of exhibition, and his duty shall be to assist visitors, and generally to take care that the rules which may be hereafter drawn up for the management of the Library be observed.

3. That the Curator of the Building shall manage the admission of persons according to the rules laid down for that purpose, and shall attend to the warming apparatus, and generally to the care and cleaning of the building and fixtures. One servant shall be assigned to him.

Curator of the Library—John Massey.
Curator of the Building—W. Stone.

The Syndics have made the following

RULES for the Admission of Persons to copy Pictures in the Fitzwilliam Museum.

1. That no person be allowed to copy in the Fitzwilliam Museum without leave previously obtained from the Vice-Chancellor; and that applicants for such leave be required to name the pictures they severally wish to copy, and state the time they require for that purpose.
2. That no copying be allowed after One o'clock.
3. That not more than four persons be allowed to copy at one time in the largest room, and not more than three in any one of the other rooms.
4. That no person be allowed to copy two pictures in succession to the exclusion of others who have obtained permission to copy.
5. That a book be kept in the Museum for the purpose of recording the applications for copying and the leave granted, and that the Curator of the Pictures be required to inform himself of the applications and to bring them under the notice of the Vice-Chancellor.

THE BOTANIC GARDEN

WAS founded by RICHARD WALKER, D.D. formerly Vice-Master of Trinity College in 1762. The original site, now in the centre of the town, and partly occupied by the new Museums and Lecture-Rooms, being unfitted for the purpose both by its size and position, a new garden has been formed at the outskirts of the town.

The Garden is under the government of the Vice-Chancellor, the Provost of King's, the Masters of Trinity and St John's, the Professor of Physic, the Professor of Botany, and six members of the Senate appointed by Grace.

RULES for admission to the Botanic Garden.

The Botanic Garden is open daily until about 6 o'clock P.M. to all Graduates of the University, all Undergraduates giving their names and colleges if required, and all respectably dressed strangers on condition of giving their names and addresses, if required.

Servants with children, and children by themselves, are not to be admitted; nor persons with dogs.

The hot-houses may be visited from one o'clock till four by persons accompanied by the Curator.

Curator—William Mudd.

THE CAMBRIDGE OBSERVATORY

WAS erected in 1822-4, after the designs of Mr J. C. Mead, of London, at an expense of upwards of £18,115. About £6000 of this sum was contributed by subscriptions, and the remainder was granted from the public chest of the University.

The principal instruments in the Observatory are, a Transit

Instrument of 10 feet focal length by Dollond, a Mural Circle of 8 feet diameter by Troughton and Simms, which was graduated on its pier; and an Equatoreal of 5 feet focal length with Declination Circle of 3 feet diameter, and Hour Circle of 2 feet Diameter, by Jones. The Transit Clock is by Hardy. There are also two other clocks, one by Molyneux and Cope, and one by Graham, with several smaller instruments, of which some have been purchased by the Plumian Professors according to the regulations of their foundation, and others have been bought by the University, or have been presented to the Observatory by individuals.

In the Spring of 1835, a magnificent telescope, of nearly twelve inches aperture and twenty feet focal length, made by M. Cauchoix of Paris, was presented to the Observatory by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland. His Grace at the same time intimated his wish to be allowed to present the telescope in a complete working state. A building was accordingly erected near the Observatory, with a revolving dome, twenty-seven feet in diameter, and the equatoreal mounting of the telescope was completed under the superintendence of the Astronomer Royal, late Plumian Professor.

In December 1858, the Representatives of the late Rev. Richard Sheepshanks, M.A. fellow of Trinity College, gave £10,1000 stock, 3 per cent. Consols, for the promotion of the science of Astronomy in the University.

The annual proceeds of one-sixth part of this stock is to be applied every year to the maintenance of "The Sheepshanks Astronomical Exhibition," and the annual proceeds of the remaining five-sixths are to be applied to the following purposes, viz.:

To the causing to be made the best possible observations and calculations for advancing the science of Astronomy (whether Physical or Gravitational, or Mensurative), or the sciences of Terrestrial Magnetism and Meteorology, or other sciences usually pursued continuously in an Observatory; or to the erection of Buildings or procuring of Instruments proper for, and appropriated to those Observations; or to the payment of actual observers and actual computers personally employed on the Observations and Calculations.

The entire endowment is invested in the names of Trustees, who are the Master, Fellows and Scholars of Trinity College, together with G. B. Airy, Esq., Astronomer Royal, but the immediate expenditure of the sums annually available for the purposes above mentioned is intrusted to the Observatory Syndicate.

In March, 1863, a further sum of £2000 was transferred to the University by Miss Sheepshanks to be employed for the benefit of the Observatory, with special preference for its employment in the purchase of one or more large instruments or classes of instruments, if such should be required.

By the Grace of Nov. 27, 1862, it was ordered:—That the Observatory Syndicate should consist of the Vice-Chancellor, the Lucasian, the Plumian and the Lowndean Professors, and six other Members of the Senate to be elected by Grace.

That of these six Members two should retire by rotation on the 12th Nov. in every year, and that their places should be supplied by two other persons elected at the next ensuing Congregation.

That the Syndicate should be empowered to order new Instruments for the Observatory, to direct the requisite repairs of the buildings, and audit the accounts.

That the Syndicate should visit the Observatory once at least in every Term, and should annually, in the month of May, inspect all the Instruments, &c. belonging to the Observatory, and afterwards make a Report to the Senate as well of the state of the Observatory as of the proceedings of the previous year.

By Grace of the Senate, May 2, 1861, the present Lowndean Professor (Prof. Adams, under whose superintendence the Observatory is placed) is authorised to appoint, with the consent of the Vice-Chancellor, one or two Assistant Observers, as he may see necessary: and they or either of them are removable from the office by the authority of the Professor with the consent of the Vice-Chancellor: and their annual salaries are to be determined by Graces of the Senate, and to be paid out of the common chest.

The volumes of Observations made in the years 1828—1860 have been published (the expense of which was defrayed by the Press Syndicate), and copies have been distributed to the principal Observatories and Academies in Europe, as well as to several private Observers.

The Observatory is open to members of the University and their friends every day (except Sunday), between half-past Twelve and half-past One. No stranger is admitted except in company with a Member of the University.

First Assistant—Mr A. Graham.
Second Assistant—Mr H. Todd.

THE ANATOMICAL MUSEUM.

This rich and interesting Collection, placed in buildings once commodious, but now insufficient for its display, is under the care and superintendence of the Professor of Anatomy for the time being. It is used by him and by the Regius Professor of Physic for the illustration of their respective lectures. It originated in a small number of choice preparations which were presented to the University by Mr Lawrence. The Museum of the late Sir Busick Harwood was afterwards added to it by purchase on the part of the University: and further acquisitions were made at various times, with grants of money from the common chest, particularly on occasion of the sale of Mr Brook's Museum, and when a series of models in wax was executed under the direction of the present Professor at Florence and Bologna.

In the year 1836, the rare and valuable collection of Dr Macartney, Professor of Anatomy in Trinity College, Dublin, was purchased by the University. This consists of more than two thousand specimens, and is an acquisition by which the riches of the Museum have in every department, except the osteological, been more than doubled. Since the above date, the Osteological specimens have been gradually increased to the number of at least 700, principally given by the present Professor and other members of the University. Among these are several interesting skeletons of large animals.

Besides these a collection of the invertebrate animals has been commenced. It includes at present specimens from but few classes: and to complete it the contributions of members of the University are much desired.

A descriptive Catalogue of the entire Museum is in course of preparation: of which the Osteological portion was printed in the course of the summer of 1862. It distinctly records the names of each of the donors, or authors of the works, which it enumerates.

By a Grace of the Senate, passed Nov. 16, 1836, the Museum is at all times open to the Regius Professor of Physic; to the other Professors of Medicine or Natural Science, to Doctors and Bachelors of Physic, and to all Students attending the Lectures of the Regius Professor of Physic, and of the Professor of Anatomy, or of any of the above-described Professors, from Eleven to Twelve every day, with the exception of Sundays, Christmas-day, and Good Friday. It is also open to all Graduates, and to Visitors introduced by any Member of the Senate, from Two till Three on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays.

The Museum is visited by the Vice-Chancellor, the Regius Professor of Physic, and one other Inspector appointed by the Vice-Chancellor, on some day in the Michaelmas Term previous to the 1st of November in each year, who examine and report upon its condition to the Senate.

THE GEOLOGICAL MUSEUM.

The original collection in the Geological Museum consisted exclusively of those specimens, English and Foreign, which are described in Dr Woodward's Catalogues, printed in 1729. The English Fossils were bequeathed by him to the University; and by a Grace of the Senate, dated Feb. 26, 1728-9, the Vice-Chancellor was empowered to purchase of his heirs, for a sum not exceeding £1000, the foreign fossils described in the above-mentioned catalogues. This purchase having been carried into immediate effect, the whole collection came into the possession of the University, and remains nearly in the same order in which the Doctor first arranged it. Two Graduates of the University are annually appointed to inspect its condition, and their report is delivered on the 1st of May to the Heads of Houses, who form a board of Auditors under the provisions of the Founder's will.

This collection is now deposited in the north-eastern corner of the Museum, under the new wing of the Public Library. It not merely possesses a great historical value, as representing the condition of a progressive science during the latter half of the 17th century; but it contains such a large series of organic remains, with the locality of each British specimen carefully recorded, that almost every part of secondary geology may still derive from it very important illustrations. Out of respect to the Founder it is preserved in its original state, unmixed with the more recent additions to the Museum.

Professor Green added a few valuable organic remains to the Woodwardian cabinets: but Professor Hailstone, after his appointment, formed another distinct collection, composed of many rare and beautiful simple minerals, and of specimens illustrative of the physical structure both of the British Isles and of some portions of the Continent. In this labour he was assisted by the munificence of various friends of the University.

During the last forty-five years continual additions have been made to the collection; partly by the personal labours of the present Professor; partly by munificent contributions from Cambridge Graduates, several of whom are noticed in the Report of the University Commission: and partly by the purchase of specimens from time to time, under the sanction of the Board of Auditors, out of the Woodwardian surplus fund. By such means a collection has at length been formed in the Museum, containing many thousand specimens of organic remains illustrating the natural history of the British rocks, from the newest beds above the chalk, to the lowest fossiliferous strata of Cumberland and North Wales. It contains also a noble series of many thousand rock-specimens collected by the present Professor from the various formations of the British Isles. The Museum also contains some good foreign collections, among which may be specified, (1) A miscellaneous series of many thousand fossils, purchased (in 1840) of Count Münster; (2) A good series of organic remains from the Muschelkalk; (3) A series of specimens, illustrating the tertiary geology of France, partly collected, and partly purchased by the present Professor.

All the palæontological collections added to the Museum during forty-four years were excellently arranged and classified by Professor M^cCoy, and are open to the public. His systematic and descriptive catalogue of the Palæozoic fossils is now also published, along with an introductory Essay by the Woodwardian Professor.

To the previous description of the collection of specimens added from time to time to the Geological Museum we have now to add

(1) An excellent secondary collection, chiefly cretaceous, which was purchased of the Rev. T. Image, formerly of Caius College, out of a fund raised by subscription.

(2) A series of recent shells dredged up from deep water off the northern coast of Norway and off the western coast of Greenland, by the late Mr L. Barrett, and presented by him to the Museum.

(3) A great and instructive series of Saurians of the Lias, presented by T. Hawkins, Esq.

(4) A very fine series of Palæozoic Fossils, purchased of Monsieur Barrande and named after his descriptive catalogue.

(5) A most valuable accession to the Museum: viz. a large and extremely fine series of Chalk Fishes, Echinoderms, Sponges and Shells; forming the Dr Forbes-Young's Collection, presented by Sir Charles G. Young, and Henry Young, Esq.

(6) A large series of Reptilian fossils from the Upper Greensand.

Great progress was made in the arrangement of these additions by the late Mr L. Barrett. It is hoped that their systematic classification will be speedily completed by the labours of Mr Seeley. The Lectures of the Woodwardian Professor have been given, for many past years, in one of the rooms of the Museum, during the Michaelmas Term.

THE MINERALOGICAL MUSEUM.

The formation of the Collection commenced with the purchase of the minerals collected by the late Dr Edward Daniel Clarke during his travels, by the University after his death, for the sum of £1500. A very extensive and complete collection of minerals well suited for the purposes of instruction, was afterwards presented by Dr Whewell. Many rare and fine minerals have at different times been given by the late Marquis of Northampton, the Rev. C. Francis, G. W. Hallam, Esq., J. Hibbert, Esq., Mrs Calverley, Mrs Peacock, W. Hopkins, Esq. and others. In 1858, H. W. Elphinstone, Esq., M.A. of Trinity College, presented the collection of the late Henry Warburton, Esq. M.A., F.R.S., which includes the minerals formerly in the possession of Dr W. H. Wollaston. In 1860, the collection of the late Dr James Forbes Young was presented by his brothers, Sir Charles George Young and H. Young, Esq.

THE HUMIAN COLLECTION.

In 1841, Viscount Alford gave the University the rich collection of minerals, including a valuable collection of diamonds, formed by the late Sir Abraham Hume, Bart. This collection is arranged in the Museum, but kept distinct from the rest of the minerals belonging to the University.

THE BROOKE COLLECTION.

In 1857, Charles Brooke, Esq. M.A., F.R.S., of St John's College, presented the collection of minerals, in many respects unrivalled, made by his late father Henry James Brooke, Esq. F.R.S., on condition that it be maintained entire as the Brooke collection.

St PETER's COLLEGE.

(Founded 1257.[1])

Copies of the Statutes in the British Museum; Old Statutes Mss. Harley, No. 7032, p. 187. New,—No. 7046, p. 132 (Printed in "Documents relating to the University and Colleges of Cambridge," Vol. II. pp. 6—116). The Statutes as confirmed by the Queen in Council 27th August, 1860, are printed in the London Gazette 3 July, 1860.

This most ancient College or House was founded by Hugh de Balsham, Bishop of Ely, for a Master and fourteen Fellows.

According to the Statutes of 1860, the foundation consists of a Master, fourteen Fellows at the least, and twenty-three Scholars at the least.

The Master, who will hereafter be elected by the Fellows, must be a Member of the Church of England, a Master of Arts, Master of Laws, Doctor of Medicine, or of some superior degree in the University. The Fellows are required to be Graduates of the College, or, if the Society think fit, Graduates of the University; but there is no limitation as to place of birth, provided that the Candidates be British subjects. They must be members of the Church of England. A Fellowship is not tenable by any one who is in possession of a life income exceeding twice the amount of such Fellowship: neither is it tenable after marriage, unless the possessor shall declare within twelve months of his election that he elects to hold it for twelve years only, in which case he may retain it, notwithstanding his marriage, for twelve years from the date of his election. The privilege of holding a fellowship after marriage is also extended to any Professor of the University who is a Fellow; but his professorship must not exceed £800 in annual value. The same privilege may also be extended by a vote of not less than two-thirds of the whole Society, to any Fellow who is serving the College in the office of Tutor, assistant Tutor or Lecturer, so long as he shall continue to discharge such office.

Three at least of the whole Society must be in Holy Orders.

The following scheme for the foundation of open Scholarships is embodied in the Statutes of 1860, and will gradually come into operation. It is directed that the Scholarships and Bye-fellowships of the College be consolidated and form a common fund to be called the Open Scholarship Fund, and out of this there be provided

[1] The date of the Charter is A.D. 1284.

Twelve open Scholarships of	60	per annum each,
Six ditto	40	ditto
Five ditto	20	ditto

The Scholarships are tenable till the possessors are of standing to take the degree of B.A. In case of special merit the Master and Fellows have power to prolong the tenure of such scholarships; also to promote from one to another, or to confer upon a Scholar a second scholarship in consideration of distinguished merit.

At present (Feb. 1863) there have been founded

Six Hale Scholarships of	60	per annum each.
Two Parke	40	....
One Gisborne	40	....
One Cosin	40	....
One North and Woodward	40	....
One Whitgift and Perne...	40	....
One Ramsey	20	....
Two Gisborne	20	.. ..

The Master and Fellows have also power to apply a certain part of the open Scholarship Fund for the benefit and encouragement of deserving Students.

There is an Exhibition from the Company of Clothworkers, and one from the Company of Ironmongers.

Annual Prizes are given to those who are most successful in the Midsummer Examination. The Scholarships are also adjudged according to the result of the same examination, unless some are thrown open to competition among candidates who have not commenced their residence in the University, and of this due notice is given. Donations from the Open Scholarship Fund are distributed from time to time according to the result of the examinations.

CLARE COLLEGE.

This very ancient College, founded by Lady Elizabeth, sister and co-heir of Gilbert, Earl of Clare, at present consists of a Master, eight Senior, and nine Junior Fellows, besides Scholars, and Students. The seventeen Fellowships are perfectly open to Bachelors of Arts, or persons of a higher degree, without restriction as to marriage. A fellowship held by a layman becomes vacant in ten years from the proper time of proceeding to the degree of Master of Arts or a corresponding degree, unless he hold a College Office. A Clerical Fellow continues to retain his Fellowship after the expiration of the ten years, but vacates it immediately upon the offer of a College living of the clear value of £300 a year, unless he hold a College Office. Those holding a College Office retain their Fellowships after the ten years and notwithstanding they have had the offer of a College living, during tenure of Office. The electors to the vacant Fellowships are, the Master, Senior and Junior Fellows; and, in case there be an equal division, the Master has the casting vote. The Master is elected by the above-mentioned Fellows within thirty days after a vacancy is known. If the vacancy occurs during the Long Vacation, the thirty days are reckoned from the first day of October. One third of the Fellows must be in Holy Orders.

The nine Junior Fellowships were originally founded by different benefactors (viz. three by Lord Exeter in 1612, two by John Freeman, Esq. in 1622, and four from the estates bequeathed to the college by Joseph Diggons, Esq. in 1658). They now enjoy a share of the general revenues of the College, and have the same privileges as the Seniors in other respects.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

The Scholarships at this College are as follows:

Eight of £60 per annum, viz.
Three by Lady Clare.
Two by Mr Freeman.
Two by Mr Diggons.
One by Dr Green.

Eight of £40 per annum, viz.

One by Lady Exeter.
One by Sir John Trott.
One by Mr Scrivener.
One by Mr Marshall.
One by Mr Borage.
One by Mr Wilson.

EXHIBITIONS.

Two by Mr Cave, appropriated to Scholars from Wakefield School, value £50 per annum.

One by Alexander Metcalfe, appropriated to a Scholar from Hull School, value about £50 per annum.

Four of £32 per annum each, founded by Archdeacon Johnson, with a preference to persons educated at Oakham and Uppingham Schools. Awarded, in 1864, to Stogdon.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

Two silver cups, with appropriate inscriptions, value £6 each, left by Dr Robert Green, of Tamworth; the first as the reward of regularity of conduct, the second of general learning. These were adjudged last year to Ds Whittington, for regularity of conduct, and Ds Bryan for general learning.

An additional prize for regularity of conduct was awarded to Ds Gooch.

There is also an annual examination about the division of the Easter Term, when prizes in books, bearing the college arms, are given to all such as may be thought deserving.

A prize is also given to the best reader in chapel.

PEMBROKE COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1347.)

THIS College was founded under the name of VALENCE-MARY, by Mary de St Paul, the widow of Aymer de Valence, Earl of Pembroke; and King Henry VI. was so liberal a benefactor to it, as to obtain the name of a second Founder.

There are fourteen Foundation Fellowships open to persons of every nation, and unrestricted as to counties, except that in the election to that Fellowship which was established by Archbishop Grindal, formerly Master of the College, a preference is given to such Scholars from St Begh's School in Cumberland, as were admitted at the College before June 25, 1857.

Although there may be no Fellowship vacant, yet a candidate is never considered as superannuated.

Four of the Fellows are required to be in Holy Orders; and, if at any time there be less than this number, the Fellow next elected must be either a Clerk, or a person who is shortly to be admitted to Holy Orders.

There are also two Bye-Fellowships, one founded by William Smart, Esq. of Ipswich, with a preference for the Scholars on his own foundation in this College; the other founded by Benjamin Lany, D.D. formerly Bishop of Ely and Master of the College.

A scheme has recently received the sanction of the University Commissioners, according to which the proceeds of the Scholarships and Exhibitions belonging to the College (with certain exceptions as stated below) will form a fund, out of which the undermentioned annual allowances will be made to the Scholars of the College, all of whom are to be considered as on the Foundation:

£60 to each of eight Scholars.
£40 .... six ....
£20 .... six ....

The allowances of £20 will, at the discretion of the College, be tenable together with those of £60 and £40.

The following Scholarships will remain on their present footing:

Three, founded by Archbishop Grindal, of the yearly value of £28 each, for Scholars educated at St Begh's School.

One, founded by Mr Parkin, of the yearly value of £60, for a Scholar coming to the College from the Free School of Bowes in Yorkshire, and having previously been two years at least at that School. When there is no properly qualified Candidate from the School, this Scholarship is at the free disposal of the Master of the College.

Also one Exhibition, of the yearly value of £70, founded by Mr John Holmes, for a Scholar educated at Blackrode School in Lancashire. This Exhibition is given by the Governors of the School, and the Scholar who holds it also receives from the College an additional Exhibition, the gift of Mr Warren, formerly a Blackrode Scholar, of the yearly value of £5.

There is an annual Examination at the division of the Easter Term, when prizes in books are given to the best proficients in each year.

A prize of books is also given annually to the author of the best Compositions in Latin Verse and Prose.

Prizemen, 1864.

GONVILLE AND CAIUS COLLEGE.

(Founded 1348.)

This College, originally styled Gonville Hall, was founded in 1348, by Edmund Gonville, son of Sir Nicholas Gonville, rector of Terrington, in Norfolk, and endowed for a Master and three Fellows. The original site was between Free-School Lane and the churchyard of St Botolph's.

The name of the College and its situation were both changed by William Bateman, Bishop of Norwich, whom Gonville had appointed to be his executor. In 1353, Bateman established the College where the Gonville Court at present stands; and previously to this removal he had changed Gonville's statutes for statutes of his own, and altered the name to the "Hall of the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin." Thus, and by certain endowments, he made himself a Second Founder.

The revenues were afterwards increased by various Benefactors.

In 1558, John Caius, M.D., the Third Founder, obtained the Royal Charter by which the former Foundations were all confirmed, and his own foundation was established. By this charter the College was thenceforward to be called Gonville and Caius College.

New Statutes have been given under the provisions of an Act of Parliament, 19 and 20 Vict. c. 88, by which the College is henceforth to consist of a Master, thirty Fellows, and thirty-six Scholars.

FELLOWSHIPS.

Twelve of the Fellows are Seniors, the other eighteen are Juniors. They are to be chosen from Graduates of the College, or, if the Master and Seniors shall at any time think fit, of the University, who have distinguished themselves in the Studies of the University, or in some department of science, learning, or art.

The Fellowships are all open; and are not vacated by marriage; but terminate in general at the end of ten years from the full standing of M.A. They may however be retained if the Fellow at the end of that time be holding certain University or College Offices; or shall have held some one or more of such Offices during the space of ten years; or shall have taken[1] Holy Orders within five years after attaining the standing of M.A.; or shall have been permitted by a special vote of the Master and Fellows to retain his Fellowship on account of his literary or scientific reputation or labours.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

The thirty-six Scholarships are divided into four classes of different value, nine of £60; nine of £40; six of £30; and twelve of £20. They are all perfectly open. They are tenable until the Scholars are of standing to take the degree of B.A., but the Master and Seniors may, in cases of special merit, prolong the tenure until the holder is of standing to take the degree of M.A.

TANCRED STUDENTSHIPS.

There are also connected with the College:

Four Studentships in Medicine, founded by Christopher Tancred, Esq. each of the annual value of £113. 8*s*.

The Candidate who is elected to one of these Studentships is obliged to enter at this College within a month from the time of election; or to remove hither, if he be a member of any other College.

These Students are required to take the degree of Bachelor in Physic as soon as they are of sufficient standing for the same; and they may hold the Studentship for three years after their degree. Those therefore who are elected previous to admission at any College, can hold them eight years. The electors to these Studentships are, the Masters of Caius and Christ's Colleges, the President of the College of Physicians, the Treasurer of Lincoln's Inn, the Master of the Charter-House, and the Governors of Greenwich and Chelsea Hospitals. The Trustees hold their meetings at Lincoln's Inn, on Wednesday in Whitsun-week, and on the Wednesday after St Martin's day[2].

HARROW SCHOLARSHIPS AND EXHIBITIONS.

Two Scholarships, founded A.D. 1830, by John Sayer, M.A., Barrister-at-Law, and formerly a Senior Fellow of the College, of the annual stipend of £52. 10*s*. The Scholars are elected by the Governors of Harrow School, and proceed to this College.

Two Exhibitions, founded at Harrow School, by John Lyon, A.D. 1590. Each exhibitioner at present receives £10 yearly, for four years.

[1] In this case the Fellow retains his Fellowship until he has had the option of a College living of the clear annual value of 300*l*.

[2] Information respecting vacancies, and the mode of application, may be obtained from B. J. L. Frere, Esq., 28, Lincoln's Inn Fields, London.

LECTURES.

Lectures are given daily to the Students of each year who are Candidates for Classical and Mathematical Honours; Students who are not Candidates for Honours receive Lectures daily in fixed subjects.

A Course of Lectures in the Moral Sciences is given to the Junior Sophs by the Catechist.

The Medical Lecturer, whose office is to direct the studies of declared 'Medical Students,' gives Examinations in the subject of the Professor's Lectures, and once a year he gives a course of Lectures on some subject connected with Medicine.

The Sadlerian Lecturer gives a Course of Lectures on Algebra each year.

A course of Lectures in Hebrew is given by the Reader in Hebrew.

EXAMINATIONS, ANNUAL PRIZES, &c.

The Examination in Classics is held at the end of the Lent Term. The Mathematical Examination takes place about the end of two-thirds of the Easter Term, and the Senior and Junior Sophs, candidates for Mathematical Honours, are also examined in Mathematics at the end of the Michaelmas Term. After the examinations in the Lent and Easter Terms, prizes, in books of five and three guineas value, are given to the first and second of the Freshmen; to the first and second of the Junior Sophs; and to those Senior Sophs who are recommended by the Examiners. There is also an examination in Theology at the end of the Lent Term, when prizes, in books of £3 and £2 value, are assigned to the first and second of the Freshmen.

The Senior Sophs are examined in Theological subjects towards the end of two-thirds of the Easter Term; and prizes, in books of £3 and £2 value, are given according to the joint results of their second and third year's examinations.

A prize of £3. 3*s*. is given annually to that Undergraduate or Bachelor of Arts who exhibits the greatest proficiency in Hebrew. The Examination takes place at the beginning of the Easter Term. The same Student cannot be prizeman twice. Awarded in 1864 to H. B. Morris, B.A.

There is an Examination in Moral Philosophy about the division of the Easter Term, for the Junior Sophs; the first on the list in the order of merit obtains £10.

An Examination in Anatomy and Physiology is held at the beginning of May. To the student who displays the greatest proficiency is assigned one of the Scholarships. All the Medical Students are required to pass this Examination between their seventh term of residence and the period of taking the B.M. degree. The Scholarship in 1864 was awarded to Ralfe.

The Examination in Chemistry takes place about the same time. Medical Students must pass this examination before the degree of B.M. The Student who answers best obtains a Scholarship. All Students who have not entered on their sixth year are eligible to this Scholarship. Bachelors of Arts may be candidates in the next two examinations after their degree. The Scholarships cannot be held after the holders are of M.A. standing.

The Thruston speech, upon the progress of Medicine since the time of Dr Caius, is made on May 11, at Dr Wendy's commemoration. The speaker is presented with the sum of £18; he is chosen by the Master and Fellows out of the Medical Graduates, the appointment being made in rotation according to seniority among the Doctors in Medicine.

The Tancred Speech, in Latin, in perpetual remembrance of the foundation, is delivered annually on October 21, by one of the Tancred Students.

PLATE to the value of £10, the gift in 1774 of Dr Schuldham, is awarded each year to one judged worthy amongst the commencing Bachelors of Arts. Adjudged in 1864 to Ds Pearce.

TRINITY HALL.

(Founded 1350.)

The College Statutes are published among the Parliamentary Papers of 1860.

This College was founded by William Bateman, Bishop of Norwich, in the year 1350. The Founder's words are:

"Volumus quod Collegium Scholarium supradictum vocetur Collegium Scholarium Sanctæ Trinitatis de Norvico, et quod Domus quod inhabitabit dictum Collegium nominetur Aula Sanctæ Trinitatis de Norvico."

The College was further incorporated by an Act of Parliament of the reign of Elizabeth under the name of "The College or Hall of the Holy Trinity in the University of Cambridge."

The foundation was subsequently augmented by Simon Dalling, Bishop Nykke, Robert Goodknape, Dr Hewke, Dr Hervey, Dr Mowse, Horatio Goodbehere, and other benefactors.

The College continued to be governed by the Statutes of the Founder until the year 1860, when new Statutes were enacted.

FELLOWSHIPS.

There are thirteen Foundation Fellowships. All the Fellows have the same stipends and privileges, and they and the Master constitute the Governing Body of the College. Of the Fellowships ten are accounted Lay Fellowships, and are designed for persons intending to pursue the legal profession as Barristers or Advocates at the Scotch Bar, and three are Clerical Fellowships, and are designed for persons who may be engaged in the Tuition of the College. The holders of the latter are required to be in Holy Orders within twelve months from their election. The Governing body has power to permit a person holding a Lay Fellowship to retain it, although he should go into Holy Orders, and also to dispense with the requirement of taking Holy Orders in the case of a person holding a Clerical Fellowship, and to transfer a person from one class of Fellowships to the other. Lay Fellowships are tenable for ten years from the time of attaining the standing requisite for taking the Degree of M.A. or LL.M., but in the case of a person not elected a Fellow until he be past this standing, his Fellowship is tenable for ten years from the date of his election. The holding of certain College offices prolongs the tenure of the Fellowships.

Lay Fellowships are not vacated by marriage.

The Clerical Fellowships are tenable for life, but are vacated by marriage, excepting in certain cases in which the governing body can by special vote permit a College Tutor, or a person who has been engaged in College Tuition for fifteen years, to continue to hold his Fellowship although married.

LAW STUDENTSHIPS.

The study of the Law, for which this College was especially designed by the founder, has been provided for under the Statutes of 1860, by the establishment of a Law Lectureship and three Law Studentships; the latter are tenable for three years, and are of the annual value of £50. They are to be given to graduates of the College in Arts or Law, who intend to prepare themselves for practice in some branch of the Legal profession. The holders of these Studentships are not required to reside in the University.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND EXHIBITIONS.

A fixed proportion of the divisible revenues of the College is annually to be paid over to the Scholarship Fund. The governing body is empowered to distribute this among the Scholars and Exhibitioners in the way it may think best, but any residue which remains at the end of one year must be applied subsequently to the purposes of the fund.

The College Scholarships are tenable up to the time of taking the B.A. or LL.B. Degree; they are at present sixteen in number. One of the Scholarships vacant in 1865 will be of the value of £60 a year, and the rest will vary between £50 and £13 a year. The Scholarships are awarded according to the results of the various College Examinations in Classics, Mathematics, and Law, which are held in the first and second years of residence. The Scholarships of the largest amount are usually given to Students who have just concluded their first year. Scholarships obtained at one Examination may be augmented on a subsequent occasion.

There are also two Exhibitions of the values of £60 and £50 respectively; they are tenable during the first year of residence. The Examination for these Exhibitions takes place in the Easter term; it is open to all persons under 20 years of age, who have not commenced residence in the University.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

Prizes are given for the best Exercises in English and Latin Composition. The subjects are proposed at the end of the Easter Term, and the exercises must be delivered in before the end of the following Michaelmas Term.

Prizes of £5. 5*s*. and £3. 3*s*. are given in Books to the two best proficients of the first year.

A Prize of £3. 3*s*. is usually awarded to the most distinguished of the Candidates for Mathematical and Classical Honors both in the second and third years.

An Examination in the subjects of the Law Tripos takes place in the Easter Term, according to the result of which a Prize of three guineas in Books is awarded.

CORPUS CHRISTI COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1352.)

The Statutes of 1573 are printed in Dr Lamb's edition of Masters' History of the College. The Statutes of 1861 have also been printed for the use of the Society.

THIS College owes its foundation to two Societies which existed in Cambridge in the early part of the fourteenth century, called the Guilds of Corpus Christi and of the Blessed Virgin Mary. These Guilds having, about the year 1350, been united into one under the name of "Gilda preciosi Corporis Jesu Christi et gloriosæ Virginis Mariæ Matris suæ," obtained, through the intercession of Henry, Duke of Lancaster, the Alderman of the consolidated Guild, a License from King Edward III, dated Nov. 7, 1352, for founding a College to be called "Domus Scholarium Corporis Christi et Beatæ Mariæ Virginis."

The College, at the present time, consists of a Master and twelve Fellows, besides Scholars and other Students.

The Fellowships are open to all the Queen's subjects wherever born. Eight of the Fellows are required to take Holy Orders within three years after their admission. The other four are not required to take Holy Orders.

Fellows elected.

1864. Rev. Evan Owen Phillips, M.A.
1865. Robert Townley Caldwell, B.A.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

•There are thirty-one Scholarships at this College; viz.

1. Four of £60, four of £50, four of £40, and six of £20 a year, founded, in 1770, by Dr Matthias Mawson, Bishop of Ely, and formerly Master of this College.

2. Six of £30 a year of the Old Foundation.

3. Four of £25 a year, founded, in 1594, by Roger Manners, third son of Thomas, first Earl of Rutland, and Esquire of the body to Queen Elizabeth.

4. Two of £20 a year, with rooms rent-free, founded, in 1693, by Dr John Spencer, Master of the College, and Dean of Ely.

5. One of £20 a year, with rooms rent-free, founded, in 1577, by Sir Nicholas Bacon, Lord Keeper of the Great Seal.

The first twenty-four Scholarships are awarded (eight every year) to those Freshmen who most distinguish themselves in the College Examination which takes place early in June. They are tenable for three years from the preceding Christmas, and are payable at the rate of £1. 10*s*., £1. 5*s*., £1, 15*s*., and 10*s*. a week, respectively, for any number of weeks not exceeding forty, kept by actual residence in each of the three years.

Of the four Manners Scholarships, two are given annually after the Examination in the Easter Term, to the two Junior Sophs who are considered most worthy. They are tenable for two years, and with any other Scholarships.

Junior Sophs holding Mawson or Foundation Scholarships may also be promoted to those of higher value; and of the Senior Sophs holding such Scholarships, the two that most distinguish themselves in their third year Examination may, if considered worthy, have their Scholarships increased to £90 for that year, payable weekly, as above, for 40 weeks.

The two Spencer Scholarships are bestowed on deserving Students needing assistance, and usually on such as are in their second year of residence. These Scholarships are in the gift of the Master.

Bacon Scholarship. An election to this Scholarship took place in October, 1862. Scholar elected, Fanshawe.

Besides the above Scholars, there are also two Bibliotistæ, who discharge the duties of Chapel Clerk and Organist respectively. They are paid as the Scholars on the Old Foundation, with an additional allowance of £20 a year to the Organist.

Scholars appointed in 1864.

Grove Begley Browne Ram	Mawson.
Graham Mercer	Old Foundation.
Fanshawe Taylor, J. W. W.	Manners.
Butler	Spencer.
Watson Chaplin	Bibliotistæ.

[2] Scholars.

KING'S COLLEGE.

(Founded by King Henry VI. 1441.)

This royal foundation will under the new Statutes of the College, which received the approval of the Queen in Council, 16 April 1861, consist of a Provost, at least forty-six Fellows, and at least forty-eight Scholars. The Fellows will be elected from among all members of the College who are of sufficient standing.

Twenty-four Scholarships will be appropriated to the Scholars of Eton College, which was also founded and endowed by King Henry VI., the remaining twenty-four will be Open Scholarships. They will all be tenable till the holder is of M.A. standing, or Fellow of this or any other College. The number of twenty-four Eton Scholarships must be completed before any Open Scholarships are established.

The Society of Eton consists of a Provost, seven Fellows, and seventy Scholars. The election to the Eton Scholarships is held at Eton about the end of July or beginning of August, at which time a general examination as to proficiency in Divinity, Classics, and Mathematics takes place before the Provost of each College, the Vice-Provost and Head Master of Eton, and two Posers or Examiners nominated by King's. Only such a number of candidates will be elected upon each occasion as will fill the actual number of Scholarships then vacant. Until the new Statutes are fully in operation, not more than three Eton Scholarships need necessarily be offered for competition at the annual Election.

Some peculiar privileges appertain to King's. The Provost has absolute authority within the precincts, and by special composition between this Society and the University, its undergraduates are exempt from the power of the Proctors and other University Officers, within the limits of the College.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

Dr Cooke (formerly Provost) left £6 to be given annually to such Scholar or Scholars as shall be adjudged to have deserved well by application to their studies and general orderly behaviour. Last year adjudged to Phillpotts, Cobbold, and B. S. Young.

Dr Glynn, in the year 1800, bequeathed £20 to be equally divided, towards the end of Easter Term, between such two Scholars of the College as have in the course of the year been most distinguished for learning and regularity of conduct.—Last year adjudged to W. Austen Leigh and Durnford.

There are two £5 prizes for Latin Declamations, founded in 1786, by T. James, D.D., formerly Fellow.

There are also two £5 prizes for English Declamations, given annually by the College.

Books to the value of Five guineas are given by the College for the best translation of an English subject into Greek Iambics.

A piece of plate of the value of Ten guineas is given annually by the College to such Bachelor as shall have most distinguished himself in the Mathematical and Classical Triposes. Last year adjudged to Ds H. W. Mozley.

There are also two prizes of £5 each to the best readers of the Lessons in Chapel. Last year adjudged to Cobbold and B. S. Young.

GEORGE RICHARDS, Esq., (formerly Fellow) bequeathed to the College in the year 1848 the annual sum of £50, "of which sum thirty pounds shall be given annually in his third year to such Scholar who shall have most distinguished himself in his own College and University in Divinity and Classics, and twenty pounds also annually in his third year to such Scholar who shall have excelled and passed the best examination in Mathematics, particular respect being had in both cases to moral and religious conduct." Last year adjudged to Durnford, for Divinity and Classics; no prize given for Mathematics.

Annual Examinations.

At the end of the Easter Term the Scholars are publicly examined in the Hall, and divided into classes according to their respective merits.

Books bearing the college arms, to the value of twenty pounds, are given to the first three Scholars, in the first class in the classical and in the mathematical examination.

QUEENS' COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1448—RE-FOUNDED 1465.)

THIS College was founded in 1448 by Queen MARGARET of Anjou, consort of Henry VI., and refounded in 1465 by ELIZABETH WIDVILLE, consort of Edward IV.

The Society consists of a President and fourteen Foundation Fellows.

The Fellowships are tenable for ten years from M.A., without being subject to any restriction whatsoever. Any Fellow, who takes Holy Orders within two years from M.A., may hold his Fellowship for life. Fellowships held, however, for more than the term of ten years from M.A., are vacated by marriage, and by institution to a Benefice of which the nett annual value exceeds £300 a year. The time spent in discharging the duties of Tutor and of Senior Lecturer in Mathematics or Classics is not to be counted in the above-mentioned term.

A Fellow of the College, who holds a Professorship in the University, of which the stipend does not exceed £500 a year, may hold his Fellowship, free from all restrictions, so long as he holds his Professorship.

SCHOLARSHIPS, EXHIBITIONS, &c.

The New Statutes provide that there shall be at least 14 Scholarships, tenable till B.A., of which

5 shall be of the value of £30 per annum at least,
5 .... £40 .. ..
4 .... £50 ....

It has been agreed by the President and Fellows, that if there be any Students deserving of Scholarships besides those contemplated in this plan, they shall have supernumerary Scholarships; and that if any Students be deemed worthy of Scholarships of more value than those above mentioned, their Scholarships shall be augmented at the discretion of the President and Fellows.

The number of Scholarships at present is 20.

There is an Examination on the Wednesday and Thursday in Easter week of each year, for two Scholarships, open to all persons, under 20 years of age, who have not commenced residence in the University. The Scholarships are of the value of £40 per annum each. One of them is awarded for proficiency in Classics, and the other for proficiency in Mathematics. The Classical part of the Examination comprises the translation of passages from the best Greek and Latin authors, and composition in those languages. The mathematical part is limited to papers in Euclid, Arithmetic, Algebra, Trigonometry, and Conic Sections, treated both analytically and geometrically, with problems arising out of those subjects.

Each Candidate must forward to the President of the College, before Good Friday, a certificate of baptism, and a certificate of good conduct from a Graduate of Cambridge, Oxford, or Dublin.

The successful Candidates are required to enter their names on the Boards of the College and to commence residence in the following October.

In addition to the foregoing there are the following Exhibitions.

[1]Two Sedgwick's Exhibitions, value £20 per annum, (sons of poor Clergymen to be preferred).

[1] One Clark's Scholarship and Librarianship, £15 per annum.

[2] One Sandys' Exhibition, £12 per annum.

The Society has also founded an annual Exhibition called the Penny White Exhibition, value £20, for the encouragement of classical learning. This Exhibition is awarded to that Undergraduate who passes the best examination in Classics at the Christmas examination, provided he be considered worthy of such distinction, and may be held with any other Exhibition or Scholarship.

The President has at his disposal funds to the amount of £130 per annum with which he assists deserving Students of limited means.

EXAMINATIONS AND ANNUAL PRIZES, &c.

At the division of the Easter Term there is an Examination of the Senior Sophs, Junior Sophs and Freshmen, in Mathematics, Classics, and Theology. Prize-books to the amount of ten guineas are given to the best proficients in Mathematics of the Senior and Junior Sophs, and to the amount of six guineas to those Freshmen who pass the best Examination in Mathematics and Classics.

At the end of the Michaelmas Term there is an Examination of the Senior and Junior Sophs in Mathematics, and of the Senior Sophs, Junior Sophs, and Freshmen in Classics, at which additional prizes are given.

At the same time prize books to the amount of two guineas are given to that Undergraduate who passes the best Examination in a specified subject of Theology or Moral Philosophy.

The Subject for 1865 is Butler's Analogy, Part I.

The Rev. Thomas Penny White, M.A. late Fellow of this College, founded in 1842 a prize of the value of £30 to be given to that commencing Bachelor who has taken the highest degree provided he be among the first four Wranglers, or among the first four in the Classical Tripos, and have kept seven terms at the College. The accumulations within certain limits are given to a Senior Wrangler or a Senior Classic.

[1] The Exhibitions and Scholarships thus marked are in the sole appointment of the Master; the rest are in the appointment of the Master and Fellows present.

[2] This Exhibition was founded in 1840, by the Rev. J. Sandys, late Fellow of Queens' College, and is in his sole appointment.

The Rev. D. Hughes, D.D. formerly Fellow and Vice-President of the College founded an annual prize of ten guineas for the best composition in divinity by a Bachelor of Arts.

He also founded two prizes of five guineas each, one for the best Latin, and the other for the best English Dissertation, by an Undergraduate who is not a Questionist.

[1] In the gift of the President, who must nominate one of the eight Senior Divines.

St CATHARINE's COLLEGE,

(Founded 1473.)

This College or Hall was founded by Robert Wodelarke, D.D. Chancellor of the University, and Provost of King's College, for a Master and three or more Fellows. The foundation was afterwards enlarged by the benefactions of Mr William Basset, Mr Richard Nelson, Mr Robert Sympson, Mr John Chester and others, but principally by the endowments of Mrs Mary Ramsden of Norton and Fockerby in the county of York.

The Statutes, confirmed by order of the Queen in Council May 10, 1860, provide that there should be a Master and nine Fellows. The Fellows must be British subjects and members of the Church of England. Three of them at least must be in Holy Orders.

After the tenure of the present Frankland Fellow there will be two Scholars on Mr Frankland's foundation, each receiving one-half of the net income of the Estate.

There are ten Scholarships on the foundation of Mrs Ramsden each now receiving forty pounds a year, together with rooms rent free.

There are also eleven other Scholarships, two of which are of the value of fifty pounds a year each, and nine of the value of twenty-five pounds a year each.

All the Scholarships are perfectly open to candidates from any school or place of birth.

Bishop Sherlock founded the Librarianship, worth £20 per annum, with Chambers rent free. He also considerably augmented the salary of the Master's Sizar, the present value of which is £40 per annum, with Chambers rent free. The Bible Clerk receives his Commons, with Chambers rent free.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

A prize, called the Corrie Prize, for the encouragement of the study of Theology, being the interest accruing from a sum of money subscribed by certain Graduates of the College formerly pupils of the Rev. Professor Corrie, late President and Tutor.

There is annually a Classical and Mathematical examination of the Junior Sophs and Freshmen at the division of the Easter Term, when prizes in books are adjudged to the best proficient in each year.

Prizemen, 1864.

JESUS COLLEGE.

(Founded 1496.)

At this College, founded by John Alcock, Bishop of Ely, there are sixteen Foundation Fellowships, open to all her Majesty's subjects, without any restriction or appropriation whatsoever; five of the original foundation, four founded by Dr Fuller, Master of the College, and the rest by various benefactors. Six of the Fellows are required to be in Orders. On every vacancy of a Fellowship, the Master and Fellows nominate two candidates, of whom the Bishop of Ely elects one, To one of the Fellowships, however, founded by James Stanley, Bishop of Ely, the Bishop has an exclusive right both to nominate and appoint. The Mastership of this College is in the absolute appointment of the Bishop of Ely.

The following are the principal Scholarships and Exhibitions founded by different benefactors:—

Five foundation Scholarships of £50 a year.

Six foundation Scholarships of £30 a year.

Four foundation Scholarships of £20 a year.

Fifteen Scholarships varying from about £30 to £40, according to merit, founded by Tobias Rustat, Esq. and appropriated to the orphans of clergymen, or, in default of such Candidates, to the sons of living clergymen (a).

One, £40 per annum, or thereabouts, to the son of a living clergyman, with preference to a native of Nottinghamshire or Lancashire, cæteris paribus (b).

One, £15 per annum, or thereabouts, to the son of a clergyman, with preference to an orphan, equally open to all counties (c).

Two, at present £50 per annum each, for students educated at Seven Oaks and Tunbridge Schools (d).

Two, £16 per annum each, left by Dr Gatford, open to all clergymen's orphans, and tenable from the degree of B.A. to that of M.A. (e).

One of £60, or two of £30 per annum, or thereabouts, to students educated at Loughborough School (f).

The foundation Scholarships may be held with any other.

One Mathematical Scholarship and one Classical will be given away by examination early in October to Candidates who intend residing then.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

Prizes of books, each to the value of £3 3*s*., for the best Latin and English Declamations.

Rev. Frederick Keller, formerly Fellow, left £20 per annum to one or more deserving Bachelors.

Rev. Edward Otter, formerly Fellow, gave the dividend of one year's Fellowship, which, increased by the college, forms a Divinity prize of £20 open every two years to Bachelors.

There is an annual examination of the Senior Sophs, Junior Sophs, and Freshmen, about the division of the Easter Term, when prizes of books are given to the best proficients in Classics, and in Mathematics, in each year.

The Master and Fellows grant to six deserving students of the College additional rewards in the form of money payments, not to exceed £12 per annum each.

CHRIST's COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1505.)

THIS College (into which was merged an earlier College founded by King Henry VI., under the name of God's House, for a Master and three Fellows) was founded A.D. 1505, by THE LADY MARGARET, COUNTESS OF RICHMOND AND DERBY, MOTHER OF KING HENRY VII., for a Master, twelve Fellows, and forty-seven Scholars.

The Foundress thus dedicated her Foundation:

'Ad Honorem Christi Jesu, et Fidei ejus incrementum.'

King Edward VI. added one Fellowship and three Scholarships; and Sir John Finch and Sir Thomas Baines two Fellowships and two Scholarships. Various other Benefactors also added Scholarships.

By recent arrangements the Scholarships have been consolidated and greatly improved in value.

The College at present consists of a Master, fifteen Fellows, and twenty-nine Scholars.

The Fellowships and Scholarships are now open to all the Queen's subjects without restriction or appropriation.

Candidates for Fellowships must be at least Bachelors of Arts, or of Law, or of Medicine. No Candidate is superannuated.

Five of the fifteen Fellows (viz. two of the Lady Margaret's, the King Edward VI., and the two Finch and Baines' Fellows) may be laymen: the remaining ten Lady Margaret's Fellows are required to be in Priest's Orders within six years after proper standing for the degree of M.A.

Of the twenty-nine Scholarships

Twelve, named, after the Foundress, the Lady Margaret's Scholarships,	are in value £70 a year each.
Three, named after King Edward VI.	are in value £50 a year each.
One, ... Mr Bunting.
One, ... Dr Widdrington.
One, ... Dr Ward, Bishop of Sarum.

Two, named after	Sir J. Finch and Sir T. Baines.	are in value £30 a year each.
Two, ...	Lady Drury.
One, ...	Mr Broadbanke.
Four, ...	Mr Tancred.
One, ...	Archdeacon Clarke.
One, ...	Mr Rysley.

Besides these Scholarships, there are the following Exhibitions.

Two, named after	Mr Carr, with preference to Giggleswick School.	in value £50 a year each.
Two, named after	Mr Wilson, with preference to Kirkby Lonsdale School.	in value £30 a year each.
One, named after	Mr W. Petyt, and Mr Sylvester Petyt, with preference to Skipton School.	in value £30 a year.
One, named after	Bp. Otway, with preference (1) to Kirkby Lonsdale School, (2) to Sedbergh School.	in value not less than £20 a year.

For each of these Exhibitions, a Candidate from a preferred School must have been educated there for two years at the least in the two years and a half immediately preceding the election.

Also, at any Examination, in the event of there being no properly qualified Candidate from a preferred School for an Exhibition, it will for that turn be considered open; and a Student gaining by open competition any of the foregoing Exhibitions except the last will be regarded as a Scholar of the College.

Students are elected to the Scholarships and Exhibitions after the annual College Examination in the Easter Term.

A Student may be a Candidate in each year of his undergraduate residence.

There is also in the early part of each year an annual election of Scholars and Exhibitioners from Students who intend to commence residence in the following October.

A Student may hold a Scholarship or Exhibition until he is of standing to take the Degree of Bachelor of Arts; and, provided he continue to reside, the Master and Fellows may, if they think fit, allow him to retain the same until he is of standing to take the Degree of Master of Arts, but no longer.

The Master and Fellows are authorised by the College Statutes to confer any two of the foregoing Scholarships or Exhibitions upon the same Student, if they consider him deserving.

Besides the above, there are other Exhibitions founded by Mr Jenens, Dr Hawford formerly Master of the College, Sir Walter Mildmay, Mr Rawlins, Mr Harvey, Mr Laughton formerly Fellow, Dr Plume, and Mrs Beridge, respectively. These, amounting in the aggregate to between £50 and £60 a year, are perfectly open, and are annually distributed amongst the most deserving Students of the College.

Christopher Tancred, of Whixley Hall in the County of York, Esq., founded four Divinity Studentships, for Students to be educated at this College, to which the Governors and Trustees of his Charities, viz.

The Master of Christ's College,
The Master of Gonville and Caius College,
The President of the Royal College of Physicians, London,
The Treasurer of Lincoln's Inn, London,
The Master of the Charter-House, London,
The Governor of the Royal Hospital of Chelsea,
The Governor of the Royal Hospital of Greenwich, are the Electors.

A Student, when elected to the Charity, must have attained the age of 16 years, and be under that of 22 years.

He is required to be admitted of this College within one month after his election; to reside two-thirds of each Academical Term, so long as he holds his Studentship; to pass the University Previous Examination at the proper time; and to proceed to the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, so soon as he is of proper standing.

He may hold his Studentship for three years after the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, but no longer.*

The annual income of each Student is £100. The present Students are Ds Burbidge, Ds Oldham, and Johnston.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

At the division of the Easter Term there is an annual examination of the Senior Sophs, Junior Sophs, and Freshmen. A set of books, of the value of three guineas, is given to each of the three Undergraduates who are the best proficients in Mathematics of their respective years. A prize of books, of the value of two guineas, is given to the second in each year. There is at the same time a Classical Examination of the Senior and Junior Sophs, at which prizes of books are awarded to the first and second in each year.

ST JOHN'S COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1511.)

THIS College was founded by Lady MARGARET, Countess of Richmond and Derby, mother of King Henry VII. and Foundress of Christ's College. In consequence of the death of the Foundress before the full completion of her designs, much difficulty was experienced in establishing the college on as large a scale as was originally intended. It was mainly owing to the exertions and beneficence of Fisher, Bishop of Rochester, then Chancellor of the University, that sufficient funds were obtained to endow thirty-two Fellowships. This number was afterwards augmented by numerous additional Benefactors.

The College now consists of a Master, fifty-six Fellows, and sixty Foundation scholars, the Fellowships and Scholarships being open to all British subjects without any restriction or appropriation.

Candidates for Fellowships must be Bachelors of Arts, Bachelors of Law, or Bachelors of Medicine, and no person is superannuated. The Election takes place every year on the Monday after All Saints'-day.

All the Fellows, except those holding the office of Tutor, Prælector, Lecturer or Senior Bursar, or such as have held one of those offices for ten years, are obliged to be in Priest's orders within seven years from the degree of M.A.

A Divinity Studentship, founded by the Rev. Thomas Naden, of the value of about £100, tenable for three years from the date of election, is open to the competition of Bachelors of Arts not being of sufficient standing to take the degree of M.A.

Two Law Studentships, to be hereafter augmented to four, founded by James M'Mahon, Esq., of the value of £150 per annum each, tenable for four years from the date of election, and open to the competition of the most meritorious graduates of the College in Arts or Law, who shall bonâ fide intend to prepare themselves for practice in the profession of the Law. Graduates are no longer qualified for these Studentships when they are of sufficient standing to be admitted to the degree of Master of Arts or Master of Law.

A Hebrew Scholarship, founded by Mrs Ann Fry, of the annual value of £32, tenable for three years from the date of Election, is open to the competition of Bachelors of Arts. The subjects of examination are the language, literature and history of the Hebrews.

A Sermon is preached by one of the Fellows every year at Hatfield, on the second Sunday after the Feast of St Michael; and at St Martin's, Stamford, on the Sunday after St Luke's day.

The annual commemoration of Benefactors takes place on the sixth of May.

SCHOLARSHIPS, EXHIBITIONS, &c.

The election to any vacancy in the sixty Foundation Scholarships takes place at the beginning of June in every year. The value of a Scholarship is £50 per annum, and it is tenable till the Scholar shall become of standing to be an Inceptor in Arts.

Bachelors of Arts receive the full amount of their Scholarships, whether they are resident in the University or not.

Besides the Foundation Scholarships there are eight Minor Scholarships, four of which must be filled up every year before, or during the Michaelmas Term.

The Minor Scholarships are open to all persons under twenty years of age, whether Students in the University or not, who have not yet commenced residence in the University, or who are in the first term of their residence. The Election takes place every year at the beginning of the Easter Term.

The value of a Minor Scholarship[1] is £50 per annum, and it is tenable for two years from the day of election, or until the Scholar be elected to one of the Foundation Scholarships.

The sum of £360 is given away annually by the Master and Seniors in Exhibitions to the most deserving Students, to be called Wood's Exhibitioners, having regard to their pecuniary circumstances as well as to their moral and intellectual qualifications.

Under the like conditions the yearly produce of the Rectory of Cherry Marham in the county of Norfolk (about £550), is given away to the most deserving Students, to be called Hare's Exhibitioners.

There are also several Exhibitions of different value attached by way of preference to certain Schools: viz.

Two, £32 17*s.* 6*d.* per annum each, for scholars from Shrewsbury School.

One, value £17 10*s.* per annum, for a Scholar from Shrewsbury School.

Four, £50 per annum each, for seven years, for scholars from Shrewsbury School. Electors, the Trustees of that School.

Four, of £50 per annum each, tenable for three years, and Eight, of £40 per annum each, tenable for four years, of the Duchess of Somerset's Foundation, for scholars from Hereford School.

Four, of £50 per annum each, tenable for three years, of the same Foundation, for scholars from Manchester School.

Four, of £50 per annum each, tenable for three years, of the same Foundation, for scholars from Marlborough School.

---

[1] The value of two out of the four Minor Scholarships, which are filled up annually, is usually raised by the College from 50*l.* to 70*l.*

Six, value £33 6*s*. 8*d*. per annum each, tenable for three years, of the Lupton and Hebblethwaite Foundation, for scholars from Sedbergh School.

Four, value £40 per annum each, tenable for three years, of Dr Dowman's Foundation for scholars from Pocklington School.

One, by the nomination of the Marquess of Exeter, value £20 per annum, tenable until M.A. standing, for a scholar from Stamford School.

One, by the nomination of the Marquess of Salisbury, value £10 per annum, tenable until M.A. standing, for a scholar from Westminster or Hoddesden School.

Two, value £30 per annum each, tenable for four years, of Mr Munsteven's Foundation, for scholars from Peterborough or, in default, from Oundle School.

One, £18 per annum, tenable for three years, for a scholar from Bury St Edmund's School.

One, £20 per annum, tenable for four years, founded by Mr Robins, with preference to a scholar from Sutton Valence School.

One, £40 per annum, tenable for three years, founded by Dr Newcome, for a scholar from Grantham School, Lincolnshire.

Two, about £35 per annum each, left by Mr Cardinall, for Scholars from Dedham School. Electors, the Trustees of that School.

Four, about £32 per annum each, tenable for four years, by Archdeacon Johnson, for scholars educated at Oakham, or Uppingham Schools.

Three, £30 per annum each, tenable for four years, left by Mr Baker, with preference to scholars from Durham School.

Two, £25 per annum each, tenable for four years, by Mr Vidal, for scholars from Exeter School.

N.B. In the case of a vacancy of an Exhibition limited by way of preference to Candidates from any School, for which no Candidate from such School of sufficient merit shall offer himself, it is competent for the Master and Seniors to throw the same open to competition as they may think advisable.

The Sizars at this College are chosen by an Examination, which takes place on an early day of the Michaelmas Term in each year. The Candidates are examined in the Elements of Geometry, Arithmetic and Algebra, certain selected Greek and Latin subjects, and Latin Prose composition.

There are nine Sizars, called Proper Sizars, on Dr Dowman's Foundation, who have their Commons free, and usually hold Exhibitions. They are chosen from the other Sizars, (after a residence of, at least, three terms,) by the Master and Seniors, preference being usually given to those who have ranked high in the classes at the general examinations, and by their conduct have obtained the approbation of the College.

About £6700 per annum is set apart from the revenues of the College for the maintenance of Scholarships, Exhibitions and other emoluments, which are tenable by persons in statu pupillari.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

Five pounds to the best proficient in Moral Philosophy, among the commencing Bachelors of Arts, whose names have appeared in the list of honours. There is also a prize of books for Undergraduates. The examination and decision of the prizes take place usually at the beginning of the Easter Term.

Those who are in the first class of the two general College examinations, one about the 16th of December, the other about the 1st of June, are entitled to a prize of books.

A Prize of Books in each of the three years is awarded to the writer of the best English Essay on a fixed subject.

There is also a Voluntary Classical Examination of those who are in their second and third years, at the beginning of the Easter Term; and such as distinguish themselves in this, and the two general Examinations of the same year, receive additional prizes of books.

Prizes of Books are also given to the three Students in the third year who pass the best examination in the Greek Testament and Ecclesiastical History; and to such Students as in the judgment of the Hebrew Lecturer shew proficiency in the Hebrew language.

About £180 is allotted annually for the above purposes.

The Rev. W. Wilson, B.D. formerly Fellow, has given prizes of books to the best readers of the Lessons in Chapel, whose general good conduct entitles them to the approbation of the College.

MAGDALENE COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1519.)

A Copy of the Statutes in the British Museum.

MSS. SLOANE, No. 3644—10.

IN this College, founded by THOMAS, Baron AUDLEY of Walden, whereas there have hitherto been four Fellowships on the Foundation of the College and fourteen Bye Fellowships, it is declared by the new Statutes, that "from the date of their confirmation by Her Majesty in Council: (1) No person shall hereafter be elected to any Bye Fellowship now existing in the College; (2) There shall hereafter be eight open Fellowships on the Foundation of the College," the conditions of tenure being specified in the new Statutes; (3) "The additional Fellows and their successors shall be denominated respectively the Spendluffe, Wray, Drury, and Millington Fellows, in commemoration of the benefactions made to the College by Mr Spendluffe, Sir Christopher Wray, the Rev. Drue Drury, and Dr Millington."

It is also declared by the new Statutes that "(excepting those Scholarships and Exhibitions, the right of preference to which is preserved by Act 19 & 20 Vict. c. 88, to particular Schools) all restrictions shall be entirely removed, and the total amount of such Scholarships and Exhibitions shall form a General Fund for open Scholarships. This Fund shall be so far augmented from the revenue accruing to the College by the abolition of Bye Fellowships, that there shall be hereafter three open Scholarships of at least £60, three of at least £40, and six of at least £20 a year each. Two of the three Scholarships of £60 a year each shall be denominated the Peckard Scholarships, and the third shall be denominated the Warwick Scholarship, in commemoration of the benefactions made to the College by Dr Peckard and the Countess of Warwick. Two of the three Scholarships of £40 a year each shall be denominated the Smith Scholarships, and the third shall be denominated the Wray Scholarship, in commemoration of the Benefactions made to the College by Mr Smith and Lady Anne Wray.

"The six Scholarships of £20 a year each shall be denominated respectively the Dennis, Hughes, Roberts, Duport, Groom, and Dongworth Scholarships, in commemoration of the Benefactions made to the College by Mr Dennis, Mr Hughes, Mr Roberts, Dr Duport, Mr Groom, and Mrs Margaret Dongworth. Where the right of preference to a Scholarship or Exhibition is preserved to a particular School or to particular Schools by Act 19 & 20 Vict., such right of preference shall be limited to persons who have been educated at least two years at such School or Schools; and in case of a vacancy in such Scholarship or Exhibition, for which no candidate of sufficient merit coming from such School or Schools shall offer himself, it shall be competent for the Master and Fellows to throw the same open to general or extended competition as they think advisable."

[1] The Master has the sole patronage of this Living, but he must present it to one of the three Senior Foundation Fellows, "preference being always given to Seniority."

TRINITY COLLEGE.

(Founded 1546.)

This noble and magnificent College, the Mastership of which is in the appointment of the Crown, was originally endowed by King Henry VIII. and afterwards augmented by his daughter Queen Mary, for the maintenance of a Master, sixty Fellows, and sixty Scholars, since increased to seventy-two.

The government of the College is vested in the Master and the eight senior Fellows; and to such of these as are absent the resident Fellows next in seniority succeed as deputies, without any express appointment.

The Fellows of this Society are elected from all members of the College who have attained the degree of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Laws, or Bachelor of Medicine, and whose standing after such degree does not exceed three years: there is no appropriation whatsoever: all are required to take Holy Orders within seven years after attaining the standing of Masters of Arts, with certain exceptions defined in Statute XVIII. A, B, C, and D of the new Body of Statutes made by the Commissioners appointed under the Act of Parliament, 19 and 20 Vict. c. 88.

The Scholarships are open to all Students of the College, without any appropriation.

Besides the Foundation Scholars six minor Scholars are chosen every year. These Scholarships are open to all persons under twenty years of age, whether Students in the University or not, who have not commenced residence in the University, or are in the first term of their residence. They are tenable for three years from the day of election, or until the Scholar be elected to one of the Foundation Scholarships, but no longer. The value of a minor Scholarship is fifty pounds per annum; but the Scholar is not entitled to any emoluments from his Scholarship until he has commenced residence in the University. The present minor Scholars are: F. C. Turner, C. Greene, F. C. Dickson, A. J. Butler, F. H. B. Daniell, F. Pollock, W. K. Clifford, C. Niven, W. H. M. Christie, R. Gaskell, A. Stewart, R. P. A. Swettenham, W. D. Rawlins, and L. Williams.

Of the value and number of the Exhibitions, the following is a statement:

Two or three annually from Westminster School, £40 per annum each.

Five, founded by Mr Perry, £13 per annum each, to Scholars from St Paul's School, London.—South, W. C. Upton, F. G. Howard, and E. W. Kempe.

One, by Rev. R. B. Podmore, value about £28, for the name and kindred of the founder. In default of such to a native of the county of Salop, educated for four years at least at the Grammar School of Shrewsbury.—Vacant.

In the year 1858 the representatives of the Rev. Richard Sheepshanks, late Fellow of the College, established an Astronomical Exhibition in the College, of the value of fifty pounds per annum, tenable for three years, and open to the public competition of all Undergraduates of the University; but the person elected, if not a student of Trinity College, shall thereupon become a student of that College. Hon. J. W. Strutt, of Trinity College, was elected the Exhibitioner in October 1864.

Three, by Mr Jeston, £6. 13*s.* 4*d.* each for poor Scholars.—J. H. Bishop, W. S. Beaufoy, and F. G. Howard.

One, by Mr Hopes, £3. 8*s.* 8*d.* for Scholars from Lynn School.

†Two, by Lady Verney, (estate at S. Littleton,) for Scholars from Combrook, or Warwick School.

†Lady Campden founded exhibitions from St Paul's School to Trinity College, one of £100 per annum, and one of £80 per annum: besides other Exhibitions to any College at Oxford or Cambridge, one of £120, and one or more of £50 per annum.

There are sixteen Sizars upon the foundation, who are entitled to commons and allowances of the value of about £60 per annum each.

The Sub-Sizars succeed to the Sizars in order of merit, as vacancies occur. And to such of them, whether Sizars or Sub-Sizars, as pass with credit the annual College Examination, at the close of the Academic year, pecuniary rewards are assigned; namely, to each of those who are placed in the first Class, £25; in the second Class, £15; in the third Class, £10. And when any of them are elected Scholars, and are subsequently placed in the three specified Classes, the same rewards are given to them as if they were still Sizars or Sub-Sizars.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

Dr Paris left a prize of £4 for the best Latin Declamation. The successful student delivers, on a day appointed in the month of December, a panegyric upon some illustrious character. This Prize has been augmented by the College to £15, with the addition of a second Prize of £10.—These prizes were last year adjudged to R. Whitelaw and J. M. Image.

Dr Hooper left three silver goblets as prizes, one of £20 the other two of £10 value each, for the three best English Declamations, upon subjects relating to the History of England. The person who gains the first prize delivers on the Commemoration-day another Declamation on a general subject. Last year adjudged to R. G. Arbuthnot, R. Whitelaw, and H. W. Moore.

Any Junior Bachelor of Arts who writes the best Essay on The Conduct and Character of King William III. is entitled to a prize of £10 left by Mr Greaves of Fulbourn‡. Last year adjudged to Ds J. A. Cruikshank.

† Exhibitions marked † are paid by the representatives of their respective founders.

‡ The Essays have to be sent to the Master on or before October 1st in each year.

Three Prizes are given by the College, for the best compositions in Latin Verse, in Lyrical, Heroic, and Elegiac metres: a subject is proposed at the beginning of each term, and a prize is awarded to the author of the best Exercise in each subject. An additional prize is awarded if there be a second Exercise of especial merit on any of the subjects.—Last year none adjudged.

Dr Walker left a rent-charge of £10 for one or more poor Scholars, who shall appear to the Master, Vice-Master, and Senior Dean, most deserving at the time of taking the Bachelor's degree. —This year adjudged to Ds Taylor.

Similar Prizes of £10 each were adjudged last year to Ds Purkiss, Cockshott, C. B. Davies, Vardy, and Moule, from a Fund contributed by Mr Mathison, Senior Fellow of the College.

The best Reader in Chapel receives a prize of £4, the second ditto a prize of £2, at the discretion of the Senior Dean.—Last year adjudged to J. J. Pulleine and J. M. Image.

A prize has been instituted by the College for the best English Essay, by a Senior Soph, on some Literary, Moral, or Antiquarian subject.—Last year adjudged to H. D. Greene.

Archdeacon Wrangham in the year 1842 founded a Prize to be given to one of the commencing Bachelors of Arts, who should have been in the first Class at each of the three annual College Examinations, and also in the first Class of the Mathematical and Classical Triposes.

The Rev. Peter Leigh, in the year 1849, gave £515, 3 per cent. Consols, as an augmentation of the Wrangham prize, the Interest of which is payâble to the best commencing B.A. qualified as above. Last year adjudged to Ds C. B. Davies.

The Rev. E. Yeats founded two Prizes of ten pounds each, to be given in Books; one to the Scholar on the Foundation who shall stand highest on the Mathematical Tripos; the other to the Scholar who in the opinion of the Master, Vice-Master, Deans, and Head Lecturer, shall have most distinguished himself for general regularity of conduct.—First prize this year adjudged to Ds Taylor; the second to Ds Cumming.

The friends of the late Archdeacon Dealtry in the year 1850 founded two prizes of about fifteen guineas each, to be called the Dealtry Prizes, and given to the Senior and Junior Soph who shall pass the best examination in the Greek Testament, and also be placed in the First Class.—Adjudged this year to W. R. Browne, Senior Soph; and G. F. Saxby, Junior Soph.

There is an Examination of the Senior Sophs, Junior Sophs, and Freshmen in the College hall soon after the division of the Easter Term. The Junior Sophs are also examined at the end of the Michaelmas Term. The persons examined are arranged in classes according to their respective merits; and those who are in the first class of each year (of the Junior Sophs, those who are in the first class in both their examinations) receive a prize of books, which are distributed on the Commemoration-day. Thirty-five pounds is likewise given in Books to a number of the Senior Sophs, not exceeding five; and twenty-five pounds to a number of Junior Sophs, not exceeding five, who shall pass the best Examination in the Greek Testament. The examiners are, the Head-Lecturer, the Greek, Latin, Greek Grammar, and Mathematical Lecturers, and the four Sub-Lecturers. The following are the respective first classes, as settled at the last Examination. The names are arranged alphabetically :—

EMMANUEL COLLEGE.

(Founded 1584.)

Copies of the original Statutes in the British Museum.
Mss. Sloane, No. 1739.

This College was founded by Sir Walter Mildmay, Chancellor of the Exchequer and Privy Counsellor in the reign of Queen Elizabeth. The number of Foundation Fellowships is twelve (to be increased to thirteen as soon as there are funds sufficient). These twelve Fellowships are open to all her Majesty's subjects being members of the Church of England, and a person becomes eligible to them on proceeding to the degree of B.A. or any equivalent degree. All the Fellows are obliged to proceed to the degree of M.A. (or the equivalent degree in their respective faculties) as soon as they are of sufficient standing. There must always be four Fellows in Priest's Orders, and with the exception of Fellows holding one of the Offices of Assistant Tutor or Bursar, all are required to be in Priest's Orders within seven years from the day of their election, or to vacate their Fellowships at the end of ten years from the same date.

Dixie Foundation.

There are also two Fellowships on Sir Wolstan Dixie's foundation, but they have no vote in any college affairs, nor any claim to the offices or dividends of the college. Candidates for these Fellowships must have taken the degree of B.A. and must be related to the Founder, or have been educated at Market-Bosworth School in Leicestershire. The heirs of the Founder nominate, and the College admits the nomination. There are likewise four Scholarships of Sir W. Dixie's foundation of £10 per annum, subject to the same restrictions.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

(1) Open Scholarships.

There are now 12 Scholarships of £60 a-year paid out of the general revenues of the College.

Five of £30 a-year arising from the consolidation of the Scholarships founded by the Rev. J. Browne, Mr Chamberlin, Mr Richards, and Dr Whichcote.

And Five of £30 a-year founded by Dr Thorpe.

Any two of these Scholarships may be held together.

(2) Scholarships for which Candidates from certain Schools have a preference.

No.	By whom founded.	Value.	Preference.
4.	Archdeacon Johnson	£32 per annum	Oakham and Uppingham.
2.	Mr Ash	£50	Derby and Ashby de la Zouch.
1.	Dr Smith	£16	Durham and Newcastle.

Also one founded by Sir Busick Harwood, of £10 per annum, with preference to a medical Student.

And one by Mr Hubbard, of £12 per annum, appropriated to the best of Dr Thorpe's Scholars.

The above Scholarships are tenable till B.A., or with special permission of the Master and Fellows till M.A., and are given away after the general Examination in the Easter Term.

EXHIBITIONS.

In addition to the above Scholarships, the Master and Fellows have at their disposal a sum of money arising from the consolidation of the Exhibitions founded by the Rev. J. Aspinall, Rev. W. Branthwaite, Mr Hobbs, Mrs A. Hunt, Lady G. Mildmay, and Mr J. Wells.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

At the division of the Easter Term there is a general Examination of the Undergraduates, when a prize of Books is given to the best proficients in each year.

PRIZEMEN, 1864.

First Year.	Second Year.	Third Year.
Clarke.	Davies.	Pitts.
Gaskin.

Books to the amount of five guineas are given to the best Dissertation upon some Theological or Historical subject, and to the amount of three guineas for the second.

Latin Essay Prize, 1864.

Wood, J. G.

In addition to the above Prizes books of the value of £5. 5*s*. are given to the Freshman and Junior Soph who respectively pass the best Examination in the Greek Testament, at the general Examination at the division of the Easter Term. Prizemen 1864, 1st year, Lathbury, 2nd year, Shuckburgh.

To the best proficient in Mathematics among the commencing Bachelors of Arts, a piece of plate to the amount of £6 was given by the Rev. John Sudbury, D.D., Dean of Durham. This prize was increased to £12 by the Rev. Henry Hubbard, B.D., formerly Fellow of the College, and Registrary of the University; and still further increased in 1850 to £18 by the Rev. John Cooke, M.A. of the College. This year adjudged to Ds Pitts.

The Rev. W. Hardyman, B.D. late Fellow, instituted a prize to be given in plate or books, to the best proficient in Classics: to the amount of £12 if in the first class of the Classical Tripos, of £6 if in the second. Last year adjudged to Ds Wallace.

[1] To these livings a Dixie Fellow is to be presented alternately with one on the foundation.

[2] Emmanuel College nominates, and the Heirs of Carew Mildmay, Esq. present.

[3] The Master has the right of nomination and presentation to this living, provided he appoint one of the Society.

[4] To this living the Master nominates, but the Society presents.

SIDNEY SUSSEX COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1598.)

THIS Society consists of the Master and at least nine Fellows. The Fellowships are all perfectly open to natives of any part of Her Majesty's dominions.

A Mathematical Lectureship, present value about £300 per annum, was founded by Mr Taylor. The Lectureship is not tenable with a Fellowship, and is not vacated by marriage.

There has been established on this foundation a Mathematical Library, and also a laboratory for the use of Students in Natural Science. An annual examination will be held in Chemistry, Electricity, and General Physics, and a prize of £20 awarded if any candidate in the opinion of the examiners be considered of sufficient merit.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

The number of Foundation Scholarships are double the number of the Fellowships, and of the value of £40 per annum.

There are three Blundell Scholarships of £60 per annum for Tiverton School.

There is one Scholarship founded by Dr Micklethwaite, £10 per annum, and one Scholarship founded by Mr Edward Montagu, £12 per annum.

There are six senior Taylor Scholarships, each of the value of £50 a year, with rooms rent free.

The Election to these Scholarships usually takes place after the College Examination in the Easter Term, and they are given for proficiency in Mathematics or Natural Science. In case of two or more candidates being of equal merit, or of there being no candidates deemed worthy of having the scholarship assigned to them, the election is deferred to the following year, and the amount of the vacant scholarships is divided amongst the most deserving candidates. These six scholarships continue till the scholar, if he be a wrangler, is of sufficient standing to take the degree of M.A.

There are ten junior Taylor Scholarships, each of the value of £40 a year.

Three or four of these scholarships are annually offered to the competition of students about to commence residence in the University.

EXHIBITIONS.

ARCHDEACON JOHNSON left four Exhibitions, now £32 per annum each, with preference to those educated at the Schools of Oakham or Uppingham, in Rutland. An election by examination to one or more of these will take place on the 10th of October, 1865, open to students who intend to commence residence.

Mr Lovett founded two Exhibitions for Clergymen's sons, now about £45 per annum each. Preference is given to Candidates who have been three years at Grantham or Oakham School.

Mr Barcroft left two Exhibitions for Clergymen's sons, value £12 each per annum.

The College has also two Exhibitions, value £12 each per annum, from the Company of Haberdashers.

OPEN SCHOLARSHIPS.

There will be an Examination at this College, on Tuesday, Oct. 10, 1865, of Students who intend to commence residence: when (provided fit Candidates present themselves) the following Scholarships will be filled up.

	Value per annum each.
[1] One for Classics and Mathematics combined	£80
[1] One for Classics only	£40
Two for Mathematics only	£40
Two for Natural Science or Mathematics	£40
[2] One or more Johnson Exhibitions	£32

Sizars will also be appointed at this examination. Two Scholarships may be held by the same person, and each will be tenable for three years at least, or until promotion to another of greater value.

SUBJECTS.

CLASSICS:—Cæsar de Bello Gallico, Books III, IV. Xenophon, Cyropædia, Books II, III, IV. Passages will also be set from other authors, as also Prose and Verse Composition.

MATHEMATICS:—Arithmetic, Algebra, Euclid, Plane Trigonometry, Conic Sections (Geometrical and Analytical).

NATURAL SCIENCE:—Electricity, Chemistry, Geology, Anatomy.

N.B. All Candidates will be expected to pass in both Classics and Mathematics.

Books recommended by the Examiners for the Natural Science Scholarships:

ELECTRICITY—Lardner and De la Rive.

CHEMISTRY—Fownes.
Bowman's Practical Chemistry.

GEOLOGY—Lyell's Principles and Jukes' Manual.

ANATOMY—(Human Osteology and General Anatomy.)
Gray's Anatomy.
Holden and Ward on the Bones.

---

[1] Limited to Candidates under 20 years of age.
[2] Preference to Candidates from Oakham or Uppingham Schools.

Every Candidate must send in to the Tutor (the Rev. J. C. Williams Ellis) on or before Oct. 9, his name, the date and place of his birth, the names and residence of his parents, the place of education, and a certificate of good conduct from a graduate member of the University or a Beneficed Clergyman.

Candidates must present themselves in the College Hall, on Tuesday morning, Oct. 10, 1865, at Nine o'clock.

The following Scholars were elected in October, 1864,

Tiverton Scholar, Haslam.
Foundation Scholar, Irvine.
Junior Taylor Scholars, Smith, Morgan.
Natural Science, Cooke.
Sizar, Karran.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

A Prize of £10 for the best proficient in Classics at the time of taking the degree of B.A., provided his name appear in the first Class.

A prize of £10 for the best proficient in Mathematics at the time of taking the degree of B.A., provided his name appear among the first six Wranglers. This year adjudged to Ashton.

There are two examinations in each academical year; the first takes place at the end of the Michaelmas Term, and the second in the Easter Term.

At these examinations prizes are adjudged to those who distinguish themselves in Divinity, Classics, Mathematics, and General Physics.

There are likewise prizes for the best Latin and English Declamations, the best Latin Theme, and for the best Readers in Chapel.

DOWNING COLLEGE.

(Founded Sept. 22, 1800.)

The Charter and Statutes are printed.

This College will consist of a Master, two Professors (one of the Laws of England, and one of Medicine), of at least eight Fellows, (two of whom only are required to reside) and of at least ten Scholars. The objects of the foundation are stated in the Charter to be students in Law, Physic, and other useful arts and learning. On the foundation of the College, only the Master, Professors, and three Fellows, were appointed, for the purpose of taking possession of the estates, administering the revenues, superintending the building of the College, and for the other necessary purposes.

It is ordered by the Statutes that the five remaining Fellowships be filled up as follows; one not later than the year 1865, and one at least in every subsequent alternate year until the full number of eight is completed.

The annual value of a foundation Scholarship is £50, with the addition, generally, of rooms rent free and an allowance for commons. Foundation Scholarships are tenable at least until the holder be of standing to take a degree in Arts, Law, or Medicine, with a power of further extension vested in the Society.

There will be an Examination for Foundation Scholarships in the Easter Term. All Students of the College of whatever standing will be admitted to this Examination.

In the Easter Term four Minor Scholarships will be offered for competition among persons who are not members of the University, or who have not resided one whole term in any College in the University.

The Minor Scholarships will be worth £40 per annum, and will be tenable for two years or until the holder is elected to a Foundation Scholarship.

The Examination both for Foundation and Minor Scholarships will be chiefly in Classics and Mathematics, but some weight will be given to proficiency in French and German. Two additional papers will be set, one on Moral Philosophy in connection with the principles of Jurisprudence, the other on the Elements of the Natural Sciences in connection with Medicine. It is the intention of the Society, in accordance with the objects of its foundation, to encourage, both by its teaching and its rewards, the usual studies of the University, and in an especial degree the studies of Law and Medicine; therefore in awarding some of the Foundation Scholarships and two of the Minor Scholarships considerable importance will be attached to any special proficiency in the Legal or in the Medical subject.

Prizes of books will be given to those Students of the College who most distinguish themselves at the annual Examination in the Easter Term.

The Master, who will be hereafter elected by the Professors and Fellows, must be a member of the Church of England, a Master of Arts, Master of Laws, Doctor of Medicine, or of some superior degree in the University and of not less than thirty years of age.

The Professors are elected by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, and the Masters of St John's, Clare and Downing Colleges. The Law Professor must be, at the time of his election, a Graduate in Law or Arts of one of the English Universities of ten years' standing from his matriculation, and also a Barrister-at-Law. The Medical Professor must be, at the time of his election, a Graduate in Medicine of one of the Universities of the United Kingdom, and of not less than twenty-five years of age. The Professors are bound to read a course of lectures in their respective faculties, on the usual terms upon which public lectures are given in the University. The Professorships are not vacated by marriage, or by the possession of any property, and the Professors are capable of holding any of the lay offices in the College.

The electors to the Fellowships are, the Master, Professors, and Fellows of the degree of M.A. Of the eight Fellows, two are bound to residence and are called Resident Fellows, and of these one must be a Clerk in Holy Orders. All persons are eligible who have taken a degree in Arts, Law, or Physic in one of the Universities of Cambridge or Oxford, and who are not above thirty years of age. The remaining six, called non-resident Fellowships, are intended for persons in the active pursuit of the studies of Law and Medicine. The non-resident Fellowships are tenable for twelve years from election, and are vacated by entering into Holy Orders within the first six years from election, but are not vacated by marriage. The resident Fellowships are tenable for life, but are vacated by marriage, excepting that a resident Fellow who has held the office of Tutor for eight years may retain his Fellowship for eighteen years from election, provided he continue to perform the duties of Tutor. Only one resident Fellow, however, may at any one time be married. The College has the power of transferring a person from one class of Fellows to the other.

Provision is made for one or two Chaplains according to the circumstances of the College, the right of appointment being vested in the Master.

The sole founder of this College was Sir George Downing, Bart.,[1] of Gamlingay Park, in this county; who, by a Will, dated 20th December, 1717, devised his estates in the counties of Cambridge, Bedford, and Suffolk, first to Sir Jacob Gerrard Downing, and afterwards to other relations in succession, and in failure thereof, to build and found a College in this University, upon a plan to be approved by the two Archbishops and the Masters of St John's and Clare College. This direction was the reason for giving them the power which they possess in elections and other matters, by the Charter and Statutes.

Sir George died in 1749, and Sir Jacob in 1764, and (the other devisees having previously died without issue) upon this event the foundation ought immediately to have been carried into execution. But the estates were in the possession of Lady Downing, and afterwards of her devisees, without any real title; and when the University sued in Chancery for the establishment of the College, the party in possession resisted the suit in that court. In 1769, a decree was obtained in favour of the foundation.

The persons named as trustees in the Founder's Will having died in his lifetime, the execution of the trusts devolved upon the heirs at law; who after combating a long series of opposition and litigation, and overcoming obstacles of various descriptions, preferred a petition to the Crown for a Charter; and at length, in 1800, the Privy Council decided to recommend the foundation to his Majesty.

On the 22nd of September, 1800, the Great Seal was affixed to the Charter by Lord Loughborough. By this Charter the College is incorporated, with all the privileges belonging to any College in the University, and endowed with the estate devised by the founder, with power to hold landed property (in addition thereto) to the value of £1500 per annum.

The Charter directs Statutes to be framed for the government of the College, which was done in July 1805, and shortly afterwards the stipends of the members began to be paid.

The members appointed in the Charter were, Francis Annesley, LL.D. Master: Edward Christian, M.A. and Barrister, Law Professor; Busick Harwood, M.D. Professor of Medicine; John Lens, Sergeant at Law, and M.A., William Mecke, Barrister, and M.A., and William Frere, B.A., Fellows.

The late Mr John Bowtell, of this town, who gave by his Will a considerable property to charitable uses, bequeathed to Downing College a collection of books, manuscripts, fossils and antiquities, with a request that the book-cases containing them might be placed in the college library. Among the manuscripts is a History of the Topography and Antiquities of this town, prepared for publication by Mr Bowtell.

LIST OF MEMBERS OF THE UNIVERSITY NOT ON THE BOARDS OF ANY COLLEGE.

The privilege of being a member of the University without being on the boards of any College was formerly granted only to residents in Cambridge, Commorantes in villa; but it has been extended by the new University Statutes to all persons qualified to be Members of the Senate, that is, to all Masters of Arts and Law, and Doctors in Divinity, Law, and Medicine, who have, on their admission to the degree, declared themselves Members of the Church of England.

Every such person has a vote in the Senate and the use of the University Libraries, Museums, &c. The University dues are as follows:

1. For the support of the Library, one shilling and sixpence a quarter from all members of the University except Sizars, from the date of admission.

2. For the University Chest, one shilling and sixpence a quarter from all Masters and Doctors in any faculty. The first payment was due at Midsummer, 1860.

These payments are made through the College, as long as a person's name is retained on his College boards; but those persons who form the present list pay direct to the Registrary, usually in one annual sum of twelve shillings every October.

In case any person wishes to have his name placed on the University Register, whose name has for any period since his first degree been removed from the boards of his College, he must furnish to the Registrary a certificate, signed by the Master of his College, that his name has been removed from the boards, with the date of the removal, and that up to the time of such removal all the University dues have been paid. As soon as he has paid all arrears (but not until then), his name can be placed on the Register; and if this is done immediately on the completion of his Master's degree, he acquires the right of voting at once; if at any subsequent time, 180 days must elapse after his admission to the Register before he acquires the right of voting.

In the following list, the names are arranged strictly according to seniority, under the highest qualifying degree. Where any person has graduated in more than one faculty, it is so stated; and the name of the College is added to which every one formerly belonged.

THE SENATE-HOUSE EXAMINATION.

MODERATORS:

ISAAC TODHUNTER, M.A. St John's College.
GEORGE RICHARDSON, M.A. St John's College.

EXAMINERS:

WILLIAM WALTON, M.A. Trinity College.
MICHAEL MARLOW UMFREVILLE WILKINSON, M.A. Trinity College.

TUESDAY, January 3, 1865. 9 to 12.

In the answers to the first six questions, the symbol – must not be used, and the only abbreviation admitted for the square described on AB is "sq. on AB," and for the rectangle contained by AB and CD, "the rect. AB, CD."

1. ANY two sides of a triangle are together greater than the third side.

Give a geometrical construction for finding a point in a given straight line, the difference of the distances of which from two given points on the same side of the line shall be the greatest possible.

2. In obtuse-angled triangles, if a perpendicular be drawn from either of the acute angles to the opposite side produced, the square on the side subtending the obtuse angle is greater than the squares on the sides containing the obtuse angle, by twice the rectangle contained by the side on which, when produced, the perpendicular falls, and the straight line intercepted without the triangle, between the perpendicular and the obtuse angle.

The base BC of an isosceles triangle ABC is produced to a point D; AD is joined and in AD a point E is taken such that the rectangle AD, AE, is equal to the square on either of the equal sides AB, AC, of the triangle: prove that the rectangle BD, CD, is equal to the rectangle AD, ED.

3. If a straight line touch a circle, the straight line drawn from the centre to the point of contact shall be perpendicular to the line touching the circle.

A given straight line is drawn at right angles to the straight line joining the centres of two given circles: prove that the difference between the squares on two tangents drawn, one to each circle, from any point on the given straight line, is constant.

4. Describe a circle about a given triangle.

Having given one side of a triangle, and the centre of the circumscribed circle, determine the locus of the centre of the inscribed circle.

5. Similar triangles are to one another in the duplicate ratio of their homologous sides.

The opposite sides BA, CD, of a quadrilateral $ABCD$, which can be inscribed in a circle, meet, when produced, at E; F is the point of intersection of the diagonals, and EF meets AD at G: prove that the rectangle EA, AB, is to the rectangle ED, DC, as AG is to GD.

6. If two parallel planes be cut by another plane, their common sections with it are parallel.

In the triangular pyramid $ABCD$, AB is at right angles to CD, and AC to BD: prove that AD is at right angles to BC.

7. Prove that the ordinate of any point on a parabola is a mean proportional between the abscissa of the point and the latus rectum of the parabola.

G is the foot of the normal at a point P of the parabola, Q is the middle point of SG, and X is the foot of the directrix: prove that

$$QX^2 - QP^2 = 4AS^2.$$

8. If from an external point O a pair of tangents OQ, OQ', be drawn to an ellipse, and CO be joined meeting the chord QQ' at V, and the ellipse at P, prove that CP will be a mean proportional between CV and CO.

OR is a diagonal of the parallelogram of which OQ, OQ' are adjacent sides: prove that if R be on the ellipse, O will lie on a similar and similarly situated concentric ellipse.

9. The normal at any point P of a conic meets the transverse axis in G: prove that the ratio of SG to SP is constant.

The normals at the extremities of a focal chord PSQ of a conic intersect in K, and KL is drawn perpendicular to PQ; KF is a diagonal of the parallelogram of which SK, KL, are adjacent sides: prove that KF is parallel to the transverse axis of the conic.

10. From any point R in the prolongation of that diagonal of the rectangle on the semi-axes of an hyperbola, which terminates at the centre, perpendiculars RPN, RDM, are drawn to the transverse and conjugate axes respectively, intersecting the hyperbola and its conjugate at P, D: prove that

$$RM^2 - DM^2 = AC^2, \text{ and } RN^2 - PN^2 = BC^2.$$

Prove also that

$$MD : PN :: AC : BC :: CN : CM.$$

11. If tangents be drawn at the vertices of an hyperbola and of the conjugate hyperbola, prove that the diagonals of the rectangle so formed will be asymptotes to the hyperbola.

A circle is described about the focus as centre, with a radius equal to one-fourth of the latus rectum: prove that the focal distances of the points at which it intersects the hyperbola are parallel to the asymptotes.

12. If two spheres be inscribed in a right circular cone, so as to touch a plane section of the cone on opposite sides, prove that the two points of contact of the section shall be its foci.

The vertex of a cone and the centre of a sphere inscribed within it are given in position: a plane section of the cone, at right angles to any generating line of the cone, touches the sphere: prove that the locus of the point of contact is a surface generated by the revolution of a circle, which touches the axis of the cone at the centre of the sphere.

TUESDAY, January 3, 1865. $1\frac{1}{2}$ to 4.

1. ASSUMING that 2, 3, 4, ..., 10, 11, 12, ..., 23, ..., are defined by the equations, $2=1+1$, $3=2+1$, $4=3+1$, ..., $10=9+1$, $11=10+1$, $12=10+2$, ..., $23=2\times 10+3$, ..., prove that, whatever 1 may be,

Enunciate all the axioms you employ.

2. Assuming that the value of 2 Tuscan Scudi is greater than that of $10\frac{1}{2}d.$, and less than that of $11d.$, and the value of 1 Austrian Swanziger is greater than that of $8d.$, and less than that of $8\frac{1}{2}d.$, prove that the value of 544 Tuscan Scudi differs from that of 355 Austrian Swanzigers by less than that of 19 Austrian Swanzigers.

3. Prove that $a^{\frac{m}{n}}=\sqrt[n]{a^m}$, when both n and $\frac{m}{n}$ are positive integers.

State principles by the aid of which a meaning can be assigned to a^r, when r is a vulgar fraction in its lowest terms, and when it is incommensurable.

4. Solve the equations:

$$(1)\quad (x-2)(x-3)=\frac{155\times 78}{77^2}.$$

$$(2)\quad \frac{x}{y+z+1}=\frac{y}{z+x}=\frac{z}{x+y-1}=x+y+z.$$

5. Investigate the order of magnitude of the Arithmetical, Geometrical, and Harmonical mean between two given numbers.

Four numbers are taken, the first three in Geometrical Progression, and the last three in Harmonical; again, four numbers are taken, the first three in Harmonical Progression, and the last three in Geometrical: prove that if the first two numbers are the same in each set, the last of the first set will be less than the last of the second.

6. Prove that the number of combinations of n things taken r together is equal to the number taken $n-r$ together.

Prove that, if the number of combinations of n things taken r together be equal to the number taken s together, either

$$r = s, \text{ or } r + s = n.$$

7. Define a logarithm. Shew that, if x be less than unity,

$$\frac{1}{x} + \frac{1}{\log_e (1-x)}$$

will also be less than unity.

Find the value of $10^{\sqrt[3]{10}}$, having given

$$\begin{aligned} \log_{10} 21544 &= 4{\cdot}3332263 \\ \log_{10} 21545 &= 4{\cdot}3333465 \\ \log_{10} 14270 &= 4{\cdot}1544240 \\ \log_{10} 14271 &= 4{\cdot}1544544. \end{aligned}$$

8. Demonstrate the formulæ

$$\cos(A - B) = \cos A \cos B + \sin A \sin B$$
$$\cos(A + B) = \cos A \cos B - \sin A \sin B;$$

supposing A and B each less than a right angle, and their sum greater than a right angle.

If $s = \frac{a+b+c}{2}$, shew that

$$\cos\frac{s}{2} \cos\frac{s-a}{2} \cos\frac{s-b}{2} \cos\frac{s-c}{2} + \sin\frac{s}{2} . \sin\frac{s-a}{2} . \sin\frac{s-b}{2} . \sin\frac{s-c}{2}$$
$$= \cos\frac{a}{2} \cos\frac{b}{2} \cos\frac{c}{2}.$$

9. Shew that the sines of the angles of a triangle are in the proportion of the opposite sides; and deduce the expression for the cosine of an angle of a triangle in terms of the sides.

P, Q, R are points in the sides BC, CA, AB, of a triangle, such that shew that $AP^2 + BQ^2 + CR^2$ is least when P, Q, R, bisect their respective sides.

$$\frac{BP}{PC} = \frac{CQ}{QA} = \frac{AR}{RB}:$$

10. Shew how to solve a triangle when two sides and the included angle are given.

Example. Suppose the sides to be 10 and 20 and the included angle 60°.

11. Find an expression for the radius of the circle which touches one side of a triangle and the other two sides produced.

O is the centre of the inscribed circle of a triangle ABC; O_1, O_2, O_3, are the centres of the escribed circles; r is the radius of the inscribed circle: shew that

$$r^3 . OO_1 . OO_2 . OO_3 = OA^2 . OB^2 . OC^2.$$

12. Shew how to find by the aid of observation and measurement the height and distance of a visible but inaccessible object.

The angular elevations of the top of a tower are observed to be α, β, γ, at the stations A, B, C, respectively; the stations are in a horizontal straight line the direction of which does not pass through the tower; the distance from A to B is p, and from B to C is q, and B is between A and C: shew that $p \cot^2\gamma + q \cot^2\alpha$ is greater than $(p+q)\cot^2\beta$.

WEDNESDAY, January 4, 1865. 9 to 12.

1. ENUNCIATE the proposition called the parallelogram of forces. Assuming that it is true for equal forces shew that it is universally true.

Forces P, Q, R act at a point; the direction of Q is opposite to that of the resultant of R and P, and the direction of R is opposite to that of the resultant of P and Q: shew that P, Q, R are in equilibrium.

2. Two forces acting on a lever will produce equilibrium, if their moments about the fulcrum are equal and they tend to turn the lever in opposite directions.

The arms of a straight lever without weight are unequal; the ends of a string are fastened to the ends of the arms, and a heavy cylinder rests on the string which partly passes round it: obtain equations for determining the inclinations to the horizon of the lever and of the parts of the string.

3. Define the centre of gravity, and shew that such a point must exist for every heavy body.

A heavy triangle ABC is hung up by the angle A, and the opposite side is inclined at an angle α to the horizon: shew that

$$2 \tan \alpha = \cot B \sim \cot C.$$

4. Forces act at given points of a rigid body in parallel directions: shew that their resultant always passes through a point fixed in regard to the body.

$ABCD$ is a triangular pyramid, O is a fixed point within it; forces act at A, B, C, D, in parallel directions; the magnitudes of the forces at A, B, C, D, are proportional to the volumes of the triangular pyramids $OBCD$, $OCDA$, $ODAB$, $OABC$: determine the fixed point through which the resultant always passes.

5. State the principal laws of statical friction.

Three equal heavy rough cylinders are placed in contact along generating lines, lying on a horizontal plane; and two other such cylinders are similarly placed upon them: find the frictions and reactions at the instant when the system is bordering on motion.

6. State the general principle of Virtual Velocities, and explain the use of the principle in the solution of statical problems.

Two uniform beams of the same material and thickness, but of unequal lengths, are connected by a hinge; the system is placed with the hinge on a smooth horizontal plane and the free ends in contact with parallel smooth vertical planes, the distance between the planes being less than the length of either beam: determine the positions of equilibrium and the nature of the equilibrium.

7. Explain how velocity and acceleration are measured, both when they are uniform, and when they are variable.

Explain how Atwood's machine could be applied to prove that the force of gravity is greater at one point of the Earth's surface than at another.

8. If a particle move from rest under the action of a uniform accelerating force, prove that the space moved over varies as the square of the time of motion.

9. The velocity of a heavy particle at any point of its parabolic path is the same as the velocity of any other heavy particle when at the same distance from the directrix of its path.

If tangents be drawn to two parabolic paths, having the same foci, from any point in the common axis, the velocities at the points of contact are equal.

10. Two imperfectly elastic uniform spheres, moving with given velocities in given directions, the same plane always containing both their centres, impinge upon each other: determine their velocities and directions after impact.

Determine the conditions, requisite and sufficient, that the velocity and direction of one ball after impact shall be the same as the velocity and direction of the other ball before.

11. Prove that the time of descent from rest down all chords drawn through the highest or lowest point of a vertical circle is the same.

The time of descent from rest down chords of an ellipse through the lowest point is a maximum and a minimum for those chords which are parallel to the transverse and conjugate axes respectively.

12. Define a cycloid, and find the time of fall from rest down an arc when the cycloid is inverted.

Prove that, when the particle falls from the highest to the lowest point, it describes half the path in two-thirds of the time.

WEDNESDAY, January 4, 1865. $1\frac{1}{2}$ to 4.

1. PROVE the formulæ, $p=g\rho z$, $p=\sigma z$, explaining the meaning of the symbols.

Water being the standard substance, find the units of time and space that these formulæ may both give the pressure in ounces.

2. Prove that the surface of a liquid at rest is a horizontal plane.

A fine parabolic tube, whose weight may be neglected, has its plane vertical, so that it is free to roll on a horizontal table: if the tube contain some liquid, prove that there is only one position of equilibrium, and that unstable.

3. Determine the conditions of equilibrium of a floating body.

A sphere of ice floats in water, and gradually melts: determine whether its centre sinks or rises.

4. Describe the mercurial barometer, and shew how it is graduated.

Explain clearly to what extent a given alteration in the thermometer affects the reading of the barometer, the atmospheric pressure being supposed to remain unaltered.

5. Explain the action of the force-pump, and the use of the air vessel.

The air vessel of a force-pump is a cylinder of height c whose section A is the same as that of the piston; the water has to be lifted to the height h of the water barometer above the bottom of the air vessel, by means of a pipe of section a and length h: if, when the pump commences working, the water be just below the valve in the air chamber, find after how many strokes, each of length l, of the piston, the water will be at the top of the pipe.

6. What is a hydrostatic balance? Shew by means of it how to compare the specific gravities of a solid and liquid.

Two bodies of equal volume are put one in each of the scale-pans, and are then immersed in two liquids which are such that the bodies just balance each other: the liquids are then interchanged, and it is found that the bodies balance when one of them is just half immersed: find how much of the heavier body must be immersed in a liquid, composed of equal volumes of the two liquids, so that it may just balance the lighter not immersed.

7. Prove the formula

$$\frac{1}{u}+\frac{1}{v}=\frac{2}{r}$$

for the determination of the geometrical focus of a pencil of rays after direct reflection at a spherical mirror.

A luminous point is placed on the axis of a concave mirror, of given focal length f, at a distance from the mirror equal to $4f$: investigate the spherical diameter of the mirror in order that the part of its axis which is intersected by reflected rays may be equal to $\frac{1}{3}f$.

8. A pencil of rays is incident directly on a plane refractor: find the geometrical focus of refracted rays.

An indefinitely thin conical shell of rays, emanating from a given point in vacuum, falls on a plane refractor to which the axis of the cone is normal: prove that the distance of the focus of the refracted rays from the refractor is always greater when the angle of the cone is finite than when it is indefinitely small. If the tangent of the semi-angle of the incident cone be equal to the index of refraction, prove that the distance of the focus of the refracted rays is to that of the focus of the incident as the square of the index of refraction is to unity.

9. Prove that, when a ray of light is refracted out of one medium into another, the deviation increases as the angle of incidence increases.

A ray of light, traversing a homogeneous medium, is incident upon a globular cavity within it: supposing the limit of the magnitude of the deviation of the ray, produced by its passage through the cavity, to be θ, prove that the index of refraction of the medium is equal to $\sec\frac{\theta}{2}$.

10. Describe the human eye, regarded as an optical instrument, and explain the nature of the defects of long sight and short sight.

What kind of spectacles would an eye require after couching? With what design is the crystalline lens of an ox very full and convex, and that of a fish perfectly spherical?

11. A short object is placed on the axis of a thin lens of given focal length and at a given distance from it: determine the ratio of the length of the image to that of the object. Supposing the lens to be convex, discuss the variation of the magnitude and position of the image as the object is gradually moved from the lens along the axis.

A short object is placed between the principal focus and centre of a thin convex lens, the focal length of which is equal to the least distance of distinct vision: an eye, retiring from the opposite side of the lens along its axis, first sees a distinct image when it has moved through half the focal length: compare the linear magnitude of this image with that of the object.

12. Describe the Astronomical Telescope and trace an oblique pencil of rays through it.

What kind of indistinctness in the observation of a star would arise from a tremor in the telescope? Prove that the indistinctness would be the more sensible the more powerful the eye-glass.

THURSDAY, January 5, 1865. 9 to 12.

1. AB is the chord of a circular arc; any point C is taken in AB, and a point D is taken on the arc such that the chord $AD = AC$; CB is bisected at E, and a straight line is drawn through E at right angles to AB meeting the arc at F: shew that $DF = BF$.

2. Two circles cut each other at P and Q: draw a circle which shall touch these two circles, and which is such that the line joining the points of contact shall pass through P or Q.

3. Find the values of $x_1, x_2, \ldots x_n$ from the following equations:

$$x_1 = x_2 + a_1, \quad x_2 = x_3 + a_2, \ldots\ldots x_{n-1} = x_n + a_{n-1},$$
$$x_1 + x_2 + \ldots + x_n = 0.$$

4. Prove that the number

$$p_0 + 10p_1 + 10^2p_2 + 10^3p_3 + \ldots\ldots + 10^np_n$$

is divisible by 13, if

$$(p_0 - p_3 + p_6 - \ldots) - 3(p_1 - p_4 + p_7 - \ldots) - 4(p_2 - p_5 + p_8 - \ldots)$$

be divisible by 13.

5. A, B, C, D, E,... are the angular points of a polygon inscribed in a circle; from the centre of the circle perpendiculars are drawn on the sides, and a second polygon is formed by joining the feet of the perpendiculars: shew that if the area of the first polygon is double that of the second

$$\sin 2A + \sin 2B + \sin 2C + \sin 2D + \sin 2E + \ldots = 0.$$

6. On the sides, BC, CA, AB, of a triangle, are described segments of circles, external to the triangle, containing angles α, β, γ, respectively, where $\alpha + \beta + \gamma = \pi$, and a triangle is formed by joining the centres of these circles: shew that the angles of this triangle are α, β, γ.

7. O is the point of intersection of the perpendiculars from the angles on the opposite sides of a triangle ABC, and E is the centre of the circumscribed circle: if OP, OQ be drawn parallel respectively to BE, CE, meeting the sides AC, AB, at P and Q, prove that AE will bisect the angle PEQ.

8. A circle passes through a focus of an ellipse, has its centre on the major axis of the ellipse, and touches the ellipse: shew that the straight line from the focus to the point of contact is equal to the latus rectum.

9. From any point within a regular polygon perpendiculars are drawn on all the sides of the polygon: shew that the direction of the resultant of all the forces represented by these perpendiculars passes through the centre of the circle circumscribing the polygon, and find the magnitude of the resultant.

10. The altitude of a right cone is h, and the radius of its base is r; a string is fastened to the vertex and to a point on the circumference of the circular base, and is then put over a smooth peg: shew that if the cone rests with its axis horizontal the length of the string is $\sqrt{h^2 + 4r^2}$.

11. The sides of a triangle ABC subtend equal angles at a point O within it: prove that if from O, three perfectly elastic balls be projected simultaneously with equal velocities in directions AO, BO, CO, produced respectively, they will after rebounding from the sides, all meet together simultaneously.

12. In a game of croquet a ball which is to be croqueted is at a certain distance on one side of a hoop; the striker wishes to place his ball so that after the croquet it may be in front of the hoop, and the other ball be at the same distance behind it: shew that the player must give his stroke in the direction of the hoop, and that the line joining the centres of the two balls must be inclined at an angle $\tan^{-1}\sqrt{e}$ to this direction; e being the coefficient of elasticity between the balls.

13. A parabola is placed in a vertical plane, and its axis is inclined to the vertical; S is the focus, A the vertex, and Q the point in the curve which is vertically below S: if SP be the straight line of quickest descent from the focus to the curve, shew that the angle ASP is equal to twice the angle PSQ.

14. A stone is thrown in such a manner that it would just hit a bird at the top of a tree, and afterwards reach a height double that of the tree: if, at the moment of throwing the stone, the bird flies away horizontally, prove that the stone will notwithstanding hit the bird, if its horizontal velocity be to that of the bird as $\sqrt{2} + 1 : 2$.

15. An ellipse and hyperbola, which have the same foci and latera recta, are described by two particles under the action of the same force towards one focus: prove that the ratio of the velocities of the particles when they have the same true anomalies is constant.

16. An extensible spherical shell whose radius, when unstretched, is a, is made of such material that when air is forced into it so that its radius becomes $2a$, the density of the air inside is to that of the atmosphere as $1639 : 459$, the superficial extension being proportional to the tension; a hole is made in the shell and a straight metal tube, whose volume is the same as that of the shell in an unstretched state, is just inserted, and held in a vertical position: a liquid is gently poured into the tube so as to prevent any air escaping, and it is found that when all the air has been driven into the sphere, the liquid just fills the tube; prove that the radius of the sphere is now $\frac{9}{8}a$.

17. A vessel is in the shape of a frustum of a right cone; the diameter of the smaller end is $2c$, and of the larger end $2b$, and the semi-vertical angle of the cone is α. The bottom of the vessel is formed by the smaller end: the upper end is open. The vessel is filled with fluid and revolves with uniform angular velocity ω round a vertical axis coinciding with the axis of figure. Find the greatest quantity of fluid which can remain in relative equilibrium in the vessel for any assigned value of ω. Shew that if ω^2 lies between $\frac{g\cot\alpha}{2c}$ and $\frac{g\cot\alpha}{c}$, and $2c$ is less than b, the quantity is

18. A reflecting polygon of an even number of sides can be inscribed in a circle: prove that, if a ray of light proceeding from a point in any side returns to the same point after having been reflected at the sides in order, it will retrace its path.

THURSDAY, January 5, 1865. 1 to 4.

1. ENUNCIATE and prove Lemma IV.

The line joining the foci, S, S', of two parabolas is perpendicular to their common directrix, and the parabolas intersect at P and Q; prove that the curvilinear area they enclose is two-thirds of the quadrilateral $PSQS'$.

2. Enunciate and prove Lemma X.

Investigate the nature of the curve in the figure, when the force increases uniformly with the time, and draw the curve.

3. Enunciate and prove the first proposition of Newton's Second Section.

If a particle, acted on only by a central force, not necessarily continuous, move with constant velocity, prove that its path will be a straight line, a circle, or straight lines alternating with an arc of a circle.

4. A particle moves on the circumference of a circle: determine the law of force tending to an infinitely distant point.

The area contained by the tangents to an ellipse at the extremities of two given conjugate diameters is equal to the square of the smaller of these diameters; a particle describes this ellipse under the action of a force parallel to the smaller diameter: determine the law of force.

5. A particle describes an hyperbola round a centre of force at the nearer focus: find the law of force.

Find, when possible, the point in the orbit at which the angular velocities about the foci are in a given ratio, and state the limits between which the given ratio may vary.

6. If several particles revolve round a common centre of force, the centripetal force varying as the inverse square of the distance; shew that the latera recta of their orbits are in the duplicate ratio of the areas which the particles describe about the centre of force in the same time.

Shew roughly that, if a tower were built near the equator so high that a body at the top should appear weightless, the height of the tower would be less than one-ninth, and greater than one-tenth of the Moon's distance from the Earth.

7. Assign reasons for concluding that the Earth's form is approximately globular.

8. Explain fully the nature of aberration, and prove that its effect is to make the apparent place of a star describe a small curve about its real place in the course of a year.

Supposing the mass of the Sun to have been greater than it now is, and the Earth to have described the same orbit which it now describes, in what respect would the aberratic curve of any given star have been different from what it now is?

9. Explain the nature of the Moon's librations in latitude and in longitude.

Explain why, if the Moon had no librations, to all inhabitants on one exact hemisphere on the Moon's surface night would be always without earth-light, and why to all those on the other hemisphere the Earth would appear to be immoveably fixed in their sky.

10. Explain how the attractions of the Sun and of the Moon maintain the Tides.

Define the terms Spring Tides and Neap Tides. What is meant by the Establishment of a Port? What relation does the epoch of slack water bear to that of high or low water in the midst of an ocean?

11. To what causes is due the inequality of the intervals of time between the Sun's arrival at the meridian?

Discuss fully the nature of the inequality on the hypothesis of the Earth's orbit being circular.

12. Define a sidereal, an anomalistic, a tropical, and a civil, year. Explain fully the Julian and Gregorian corrections.

Assuming the actual value of the tropical year to be 365·24224 days, prove that the error of the Gregorian correction, had it been adopted at the commencement of the Christian era, would amount to 13 days in the year 50000.

MONDAY, January 16, 1865. 9 to 12.

1. ASSUMING the principles of the parallelogram of forces and of couples, prove that, generally, any system of forces may be reduced to a resultant force, passing through a given point, and to a resultant couple.

If every element of a uniform wire, in the form of a closed plane curve, be acted on tangentially, in the same rotatory direction, by a force varying inversely as the square of the distance of the element from a given point in the area enclosed by the wire, prove that, the given point being chosen as the origin of moments, the resultant couple is independent of the length and form of the wire.

2. A heavy uniform flexible string rests on a given curve in a vertical plane: obtain formulæ for the determination of the tension of the string and of the pressure at any point of the curve.

A heavy uniform flexible string rests on a complete cycloid, the axis of which is vertical and vertex upwards, the whole length of the string exactly coinciding with the whole arc of the cycloid: prove that the pressure at any point of the cycloid varies inversely as the curvature.

3. Prove the general principle of Virtual Velocities.

A little ring, moveable along an elliptic wire, is attracted towards a given centre of force, which varies directly as the distance: prove that the positions of equilibrium of the ring lie in an hyperbola, the asymptotes of which are parallel to the axes of the ellipse.

4. A particle is projected vertically upwards with the velocity u, and the resistance varies as k times the square of the velocity: find the time of ascent and the time of descent.

If T be the whole time of motion, shew that $k^{\frac{1}{2}}\left(\frac{2u}{g} - T\right)$ is positive and continually increases as k increases.

5. A particle is acted on by a central force: investigate the differential equation for determining the polar equation to its path.

A particle is projected at a distance a from a centre of force, at right angles to the distance; the force is repulsive and of constant intensity; the initial velocity is that which would be acquired in moving from the centre of force to the point of projection under the influence of the force: determine the orbit.

6. A rigid curve, plane or of double curvature, revolves with uniform angular velocity ω round a fixed axis, and an indefinitely small ring of mass m acted on by given forces slides upon the curve. Shew that the motion of the ring with respect to the curve is the same as would take place if the curve were reduced to rest and an additional force $m\omega^2 r$ applied to the ring in the direction of the radius vector r drawn perpendicular to the axis from the ring, the force acting outwards.

A helix revolves with uniform angular velocity round its axis of figure which is vertical: find the velocity of a small rough ring which moves on the helix with uniform velocity relative to the helix.

7. Investigate the position of the metacentre of a homogeneous solid of revolution, floating, with its axis vertical, on a homogeneous inelastic fluid.

Supposing the body to consist of two equal right cones on opposite sides of the same base, and the common base of the cones to coincide with the surface of the fluid, ascertain the form of either cone in order that the equilibrium may be neutral.

8. Investigate the general differential equation for the determination of the pressure at any point of a fluid at rest.

A thin bent tube, open at both ends and of uniform bore, the two parts of which include a right angle, is full of fluid, which, attracted towards the angle by a force varying as the distance, is at rest relatively to the tube while, one part of the tube remaining stationary, the other revolves with a uniform angular velocity: prove that the whole fluid pressures on the two parts of the tube are to each other as their respective lengths.

9. A ray passes through a medium, the value of μ at any point of which is a function of r, the distance from a fixed point: find the equation to the path of the ray.

For example, suppose that μ varies inversely as c^2+r^2, where c is constant.

10. Explain the importance of an achromatic combination of two lenses in the construction of a telescope; point out the difference between the case of two lenses used for an object-glass and the case of two lenses used for an eye-piece with respect to the condition of achromatism.

A pencil passes excentrically through two thin lenses separated by a given interval, its axis before incidence intersecting the common axis of the lenses at a given point: find the condition of achromatism.

11. Find the aberration in Declination of a given star in terms of the Right Ascension and Declination of the star.

Point out the difference in the effect of aberration on the moon, on a fixed star, and on a planet.

12. The difference between the longitudes of two places on the Earth's surface in the same given latitude being assigned, find the length of the parallel of latitude by which they are connected.

Two ships sail from one port to another, both of which are in the same latitude, the difference of longitudes of the two places being given; one ship sails along the parallel of latitude, the other along a great circle: prove that, if the difference between the lengths of the courses of the two ships be the greatest possible, then, 2ω being the given difference between the longitudes, and λ being the latitude,

$$\cos^2\lambda = \frac{1}{\sin^2\omega} - \frac{1}{\omega^2}.$$

MONDAY, January 16, 1865. $1\frac{1}{2}$ to 4.

1. IF both the series, $A_0+A_1x+A_2x^2+\dots$, $B_0+B_1x+B_2x^2+\dots$, be convergent and equal for every value of x intermediate to a and $a+b$, then shall $A_0=B_0$, $A_1=B_1$, $A_2=B_2$, ...

2. Investigate the law of dependence between the successive convergents to the continued fraction

$$a_0+\frac{1}{a_1+}\,\frac{1}{a_2+\dots}\,\frac{1}{a_{n-1}+}\,\frac{1}{a_n}.$$

Prove that $$\frac{2}{1+}\,\frac{1}{\frac{2}{2}+}\,\frac{1}{\frac{2}{3}+\dots}\,\frac{1}{\frac{2}{n-1}+}\,\frac{1}{\frac{2}{n}}=\frac{2S}{1-S},$$ where

$$S=\frac{1}{1.2}-\frac{1}{2.3}+\dots+(-1)^{n+1}\frac{1}{n(n+1)}.$$

Hence find the value of the continued fraction when n is infinite.

3. Expand $\cos\theta$ in ascending powers of θ, and prove that

$$2\cos\theta=e^{\theta\sqrt{-1}}+e^{-\theta\sqrt{-1}}.$$

Sum the infinite series

$$\cos\theta-\frac{1}{3}\cos 3\theta+\frac{1}{5}\cos 5\theta-\frac{1}{7}\cos 7\theta+\dots$$

4. Prove that impossible roots enter equations, whose coefficients are real, by pairs; and that, if a root of an equation, whose coefficients are rational, contain an irreducible surd, whose index is $\frac{1}{n}$, $n-1$ other roots can be found.

Solve the equation, $x^5=15x^2+36$, one of whose roots is $1+\sqrt[3]{5}$.

5. Express the sum of the mth powers of the roots of an algebraic equation of the nth degree in terms of the coefficients and of the sums of the lower powers of the roots.

Express the sum of the $(-m)$th powers of the roots in terms of the coefficients and of the sums of those powers of the roots which differ from zero by less than m, zero not being a root of the equation.

6. What are meant by the trilinear co-ordinates of a point? Shew how to transform Cartesian to trilinear co-ordinates.

Prove that the trilinear equation of the curve

$$(x^2+y^2)^2-2ax(x^2+9y^2)+27a^2y^2=0,$$

$$\beta^2\gamma^2+\gamma^2\alpha^2+\alpha^2\beta^2-2\alpha\beta\gamma(\alpha+\beta+\gamma)=0,$$

the angular points of the triangle of reference being the origin, and the two points on the curve for which $x=\frac{9a}{4}$.

7. Define the eccentric angle of any point on an ellipse, and express the co-ordinates of the point in terms of it.

PQ is the common chord of an ellipse and its circle of curvature at P: prove that, if θ, ϕ, be the eccentric angles of P, Q, respectively,

$$3\theta + \phi = 2\pi.$$

Find the position of P that PQ may be a normal at Q, and prove that such a point always exists.

8. Prove that all chords of a conic, which subtend a right angle at a given point of the curve, intersect in the normal at that point.

If I be this point on the normal at the point P of a centric conic, prove that PI varies as the diameter conjugate to CP.

9. In a spherical triangle, prove the formula

$$\cos a = \cos b \cos c + \sin b \sin c \cos A.$$

If from a fixed point P any great circle be drawn cutting a given small circle in A and B, prove that $\tan \frac{PA}{2} . \tan \frac{PB}{2}$ is constant.

10. Find the equation to a plane, having given the length of the perpendicular on it from the origin, and the angles which the perpendicular makes with three oblique axes.

From the origin are drawn three equal straight lines of length p, such that the inclinations of the first to the axes of x, y, z, are the same as those of the second to y, z, x, and of the third to z, x, y, respectively: three planes are drawn perpendicular to them through their extremities; find the co-ordinates of their common point.

11. Investigate an equation to the surface generated by a straight line which always meets three straight lines, which do not pass through the same point and are not all parallel to the same plane.

Two surfaces are so generated, the three fixed straight lines for one surface being parallel to the three fixed straight lines for the other; prove that, if the two surfaces intersect on two planes, one plane will be parallel to four of the fixed straight lines, and the other plane will be parallel to the other two.

12. Investigate the equation to the tangent plane at any point of the surface $f(x, y, z) = 0$.

If normals be drawn to the ellipsoid $\frac{x^2}{a^2} + \frac{y^2}{b^2} + \frac{z^2}{c^2} = 1$ at the points where it is cut by the cone $\frac{l}{x} + \frac{m}{y} + \frac{n}{z} = 0$, prove that all these normals will pass through a diameter of the ellipsoid.

TUESDAY, January 17, 1865. 9 to 12.

1. IF n be an odd positive integer, and $\alpha = \frac{\pi}{n}$, shew that

$$\tan n\phi = (-1)^{\frac{n-1}{2}} \tan\phi \tan(\phi+\alpha) \tan(\phi+2\alpha) \ldots\ldots \tan(\phi+n\alpha-\alpha),$$ and that

$$n \tan n\phi = \tan\phi + \tan(\phi+\alpha) + \tan(\phi+2\alpha) + \ldots\ldots + \tan(\phi+n\alpha-\alpha).$$

2. From the angular points of a triangle ABC, straight lines are drawn through any point O within the triangle to meet the opposite sides at A', B', C', respectively; from AA', BB', CC', lengths AP, BQ, CR, are cut off, respectively equal to OA', OB', OC': prove that the triangle PQR is equal to the triangle $A'B'C'$.

3. Two parabolas touch one another, and have their axes in the same or opposite directions: prove that any tangent to one of the parabolas meets the other in points whose ordinates referred to the common diameter are in a constant ratio.

4. $ABCD$ is a quadrilateral which can be inscribed in a circle; if the polar reciprocal of the triangle ABC taken with regard to D be abc, prove that $abcD$ can be inscribed in a circle.

5. A chord is drawn through the pole of the curves $\frac{r}{a}=f(\theta)$, $\frac{c}{r}=f(\theta)$, meeting the former at P and Q, and the latter at P' and Q'; from the points of intersections of the tangents and normals at P and Q, perpendiculars are drawn on PQ meeting it at T and N respectively; and T' and N' are points similarly determined for the other curve: prove that

$$PT : QT :: QN : PN :: P'T' : Q'T' :: Q'N' : P'N'.$$

Also shew that, if T coincides with the pole, then N' also does so, and find equations to curves which possess this property.

6. A polyhedron is circumscribed about a sphere; at the points of contact masses are placed which are proportional to the areas of the corresponding faces of the polyhedron: shew that the centre of gravity of these masses coincides with the centre of the sphere.

7. A point moves on an ellipsoid so that its direction of motion always passes through the perpendicular from the centre on the tangent plane to the ellipsoid at the point: shew that the curve traced out by the point is given by the intersection of the ellipsoid with the surface

l, m, n, being inversely proportional to the squares on the semi-axes of the ellipsoid.

8. Shew that a straight line parallel to the least axis of an ellipsoid will be the directrix of two plane sections of the ellipsoid, provided the straight line be situated between two definite cylindrical surfaces.

9. A and B are two balls on a smooth horizontal plane; A impinges directly with a given velocity u on B at rest; B then goes on, impinges directly on a vertical plane and rebounds, and has another impact with A; and so on. The index of elasticity is e; and the mass of A is to the mass of B as $4e$ is to $(1-e)^2$. Shew that immediately after the x^{th} impact between A and B the velocity of B is $\frac{4xe^x u}{1+e}$; and find the velocity of A.

10. A particle moves under the action of a central force which is such that the normal acceleration on the particle is constant: find a differential equation of the first order to the path of the particle, and shew that $r^3 \sin 3\theta = a$ is a particular integral.

11. The radius of the base of a thin heavy hollow cone of given weight, is the same as that of a cylinder which is full of water: the cone is placed base downwards on the cylinder and slides down inside it, so that no water escapes: find an equation for determining the position of the surface of the water, when the cone has arrived at a position of equilibrium.

12. A small portion of a conic reflects: prove that the image of the conic made at the primary foci is another conic, and that the two conics can only be similar when each of them is a circle.

13. ABC and $A'B'C'$ are spherical triangles; arcs drawn from A', B', C', respectively perpendicular to BC, CA, AB, meet at a point: shew that arcs drawn from A, B, C, respectively perpendicular to $B'C'$, $C'A'$, $A'B'$, will also meet at a point.

14. Two spherical segments are to be constructed, each on a given circular base, so that the sum of the volumes may be a maximum, while the sum of the surfaces is given: compare the radii of the spheres. Shew clearly that the result is a maximum.

15. Every element of the arc of a polar curve attracts with a force which varies inversely as the n^{th} power of the distance: determine the form of the curve when the resultant attraction of any arc on a particle at the pole bisects the angle between the radii vectores of the extremities of the arc.

16. Two points are taken at random within a given area: shew how to determine the chance that the product of the distances of the points from a given straight line outside the area will exceed a given quantity.

For example, suppose the area bounded by the axis of x, the curve $xy = c^2$, and the ordinates at the points $x = a$, and $x = b$; and let the given straight line be the axis of y.

TUESDAY, January, 17, 1865. $1\frac{1}{2}$ to 4.

1. A SMALL pencil of homogeneous light is incident obliquely and centrically on a thin lens: find the distances of the primary and secondary foci of the emergent pencil from the centre of the lens.

Supposing the incident pencil to be cylindrical and to be composed of three colours, the refractive indices of which are μ_1, μ_2, μ_3, prove that, whatever be the form of the lens, or whatever the obliquity of the incident pencil, the distances r_1, r_2, r_3, of the secondary foci of the three emergent pencils from the centre of the lens will be connected together by the equation

$$\frac{(\mu_1 r_1)^2}{(r_1 - r_2)(r_1 - r_3)} + \frac{(\mu_2 r_2)^2}{(r_2 - r_3)(r_2 - r_1)} + \frac{(\mu_3 r_3)^2}{(r_3 - r_1)(r_3 - r_2)} = 1.$$

2. When a small plane area is illuminated by a pencil of rays emanating from a point, prove that the illumination at any point of the area varies directly as the cosine of the angle of incidence and inversely as the square of the distance from the origin of light.

The flame of a candle, regarded as a short luminous line from which light is emitted in every direction with an intensity varying as the sine of the angle of emanation, is moved gently up and down in a given vertical line above a table: prove that the illumination of a small patch of paper lying on the table will be a maximum when its distance from the flame is inclined to the table at an angle of thirty degrees.

3. Describe methods for mechanically remedying the principal errors of adjustment to which a Transit Instrument is liable.

The axis of a Transit Instrument being slightly out of its proper position, the transit of a star, whose declination is δ, is observed; investigate the correction which must be applied to the observed time to obtain the true time of transit, and shew that it is of the form $p+q \tan \delta$, where p and q are independent of δ.

4. Shew how to determine the Moon's parallax by observations made out of the plane of the meridian.

5. A particle is constrained to move along a given plane curve, under the action of given forces; shew how the motion is to be determined, and the pressure on the curve to be found.

The equation to the curve is $(u-a)\{(u-a)^2 - b^2(\theta+\alpha)^{\frac{14}{3}}\}=0$; a particle, acted on by a central force, $h^2u^3 + \frac{28}{9}h^2b^{\frac{6}{7}}u^2(u-a)^{\frac{1}{7}}$, to the pole, is projected so that its velocity, when it arrives at a distance $\frac{1}{a}$ from the pole, shall be ha; shew that its pressure on the curve will always be zero.

6. Enunciate and prove the principles of the conservation of the motions of translation and of rotation.

A uniform revolving rod, the centre of gravity of which is initially at rest, moves in a plane under the action of a constant force in the direction of its length: prove that the square of the radius of curvature of the path of the rod's centre of gravity varies as the versed sine of the angle through which the rod has revolved at the end of any time from the beginning of the motion.

7. Shew how to compare the density of the mixture of given quantities of air and vapour, not chemically acting upon each other, with the density of dry air at the same temperature and under the same pressure.

Explain the action of a draft in drying wet materials exposed to its action.

8. Obtain equations for the determination of the motion of a rigid body, acted on by any forces, about a fixed rigid axis, and for finding the pressure on the axis.

A thin uniform rod, one end of which is attached to a smooth hinge, is allowed to fall from a horizontal position: prove that, when the horizontal strain on the hinge is the greatest possible, the vertical strain on the hinge is to the weight of the rod as 11 : 8.

9. Prove that two particles attracting each other describe similar figures about their centre of gravity and about each other, and that an orbit similar and equal to the apparent orbit of one particle about the other in motion may be described about it fixed by the action of the same central force.

The co-ordinates (x, y), (x_1, y_1), of the simultaneous positions of two equal particles are given by the equations prove that, if they move under their mutual attractions, the law of force will be that of the inverse fifth power of the distance.

$$x = a\theta - 2a\sin\theta, \qquad x_1 = a\theta,$$
$$y = a - a\cos\theta, \qquad y_1 = -a + a\cos\theta;$$

10. Assuming that

ascertain, to the usual order of approximation, those terms in the value of u, regarded as a function of the longitude, which are due to the radial disturbing force only.

Shew that the value of that part of the evection in longitude, which arises from radial disturbance alone, is equal to

$$\frac{9}{8}me\sin\{(2-2m-c)pt - 2\beta + \alpha\}.$$

Wednesday, January 18, 1865. 9 to 12.

1. Shew that

is never greater than $a_1^{a_1} a_2^{a_2} a_3^{a_3} \dots a_n^{a_n}$; the symbols all denoting positive quantities.

2. A and B are fixed points on a given conic; P, Q, R are variable points; p is the intersection of the perpendiculars drawn from the angular points of the triangle APB on the opposite sides; q and r are similar points in the triangles AQB and ARB: shew that the area of the triangle pqr varies as that of the triangle PQR.

3. Forces act at the angular points of a tetrahedron in directions respectively perpendicular to the opposite faces, and proportional to the areas of the faces in magnitude: shew that the forces will keep the tetrahedron at rest.

4. An ellipse is placed with its minor axis vertical; a perfectly elastic particle starts from a point in the upper half of the perimeter, falls down the double ordinate, impinges on the lower half of the perimeter, rebounds and then strikes the perimeter again: determine the point from which the particle must start, so that it may move perpetually backwards and forwards through two equal vertical straight lines and an arc of a parabola.

5. OL, OM, ON are conjugate semi-diameters in an ellipsoid; a perpendicular is drawn from O on the plane LMN meeting it at Q; and a diametral plane is drawn parallel to the plane LMN. Shew that the cone which has its vertex at Q, and for its base the section of the ellipsoid by the diametral plane, is of constant volume.

6. A cone whose vertex is any point of the hyperbola $x=0$, $\frac{z^2}{k^2}-\frac{y^2}{h^2}=1$, envelopes the ellipsoid $\frac{x^2}{a^2}+\frac{y^2}{b^2}+\frac{z^2}{c^2}=1$, whose least semi-axis is c; and h and k satisfy the relation shew that the directrices of all the sections of the ellipsoid made by the planes of contact lie in one or other of two fixed planes.

$$b^2-c^2=\frac{b^2(a^2-b^2)}{h^2}+\frac{c^2(a^2-c^2)}{k^2}:$$

7. Shew that the centre of gravity of any arc of the curve $r^3=a^3\sec 3\theta$ is situated on the straight line which joins the pole with the intersection of the tangents at the extremities of the arc.

8. A particle of mass M is placed near the centre of a smooth circular horizontal table of radius a; strings are attached to the particle and pass over n smooth pullies which are placed at equal intervals round the circumference of the circle; to the other end of each of these strings a particle of mass M is attached: shew that the time of a small oscillation of the system is

9. A rectangle is formed of four uniform rods of lengths $2a$ and $2b$ respectively, which are connected by hinges at their ends. The rectangle is revolving about its centre on a smooth horizontal plane with an angular velocity ω, when a point in one of the sides of length $2a$ suddenly becomes fixed. Shew that the angular velocity of the sides of length $2b$ immediately becomes $\frac{3a+b}{6a+4b}\omega$. Find also the change in the angular velocity of the other sides, and the impulsive action at the point which becomes fixed.

10. O is any point within an acute-angled triangle ABC, from which perpendiculars OP, OQ, OR are drawn to the sides of the triangle: shew that the perimeter of the triangle PQR is least when O is the intersection of the perpendiculars from A, B, C on the opposite sides of the triangle ABC.

If the triangle ABC be not acute angled determine when the perimeter of PQR is least, the point O being constrained to remain within the triangle ABC.

11. A series of equal beams AB, BC, CD, DE, ... is connected by hinges; the beams are placed on a smooth horizontal plane, each at right angles to the two adjacent, so as to form a figure resembling a set of steps. An impulse is given at the end A along AB: determine the impulsive action at any hinge.

12. An area is to be bounded by a perimeter of given length; the perimeter is to be constrained to pass through a given number of fixed points: determine the form of the figure so that the area may be a maximum.

13. O is the centre of a regular polyhedron, S any point within it; from S perpendiculars are drawn on the faces of the polyhedron, and equal particles are placed at the feet of these perpendiculars: shew that the centre of gravity of the system of particles is on the line OS, at the distance $\frac{2}{3}OS$ from O.

14. An indefinitely large plane area is ruled with parallel equidistant straight lines; a is the distance between two consecutive lines. A second set of parallel equidistant straight lines crosses the former set at right angles; b is the distance between two consecutive lines of the second set. A regular polygon is then thrown down on the area; the polygon has $4m$ sides, and the diameter of the circle circumscribing the polygon is less than a and also less than b. Determine the chance that the polygon will fall across a line.

WEDNESDAY, January 18, 1865. $1\frac{1}{2}$ to 4.

1. IF u be a given function of y and z, and y, z, given functions of x, establish the equation

$$\frac{du}{dx}=\frac{du}{dy}\cdot\frac{dy}{dx}+\frac{du}{dz}\cdot\frac{dz}{dx}.$$

Differentiate $\sin(x\sin x)$ and $\tan^{-1}(\tan x)^3$.

2. Assuming the equation

$$f(x+h)=f(x)+hf'(x+\theta h),$$

establish the equation

$$\phi(x+h)=\phi(x)+h\phi'(x)+\frac{h^2}{\underline{|2}}\phi''(x)+\dots+\frac{h^n}{\underline{|n}}\phi^n(x)+\frac{h^{n+1}}{\underline{|n+1}}\phi^{n+1}(x+\theta_1 h).$$

State the limitations under which these equations subsist.

Investigate the values of x for which any of the roots of the equation

$$(y-1)(y-2)(y-3)(y-4)=x+h$$

fail to be expansible in a series of ascending powers of h like the above, and ascertain how many of the roots fail in each case, and what would then be the proper expansion.

3. Prove that, if $\phi(x)$ and $f(x)$ both vanish when $x=a$, $\frac{\phi(a)}{f(a)}=\frac{\phi'(a)}{f'(a)}$.

Prove that, when $x=0$,

4. Define a "point of inflection" in a plane curve. If at a point of a curve $f(x, y)=0$, where $x=a$, there be an inflection, prove that $\frac{d^2y}{dx^2}$ changes sign when x passes through the value a.

Prove that, if the equation to the curve be $\left(\frac{y}{x}\right)^x = e$, $\frac{d^2y}{dx^2}$ has different signs according as x, when indefinitely small, is positive or negative. Is there a corresponding point of inflection? Trace the curve.

5. Prove that the differential of the radius of curvature of a plane curve is equal to the differential of the corresponding arc of the evolute.

If $A_1, A_2, A_3, \dots A_r$ be plane curves so related to each other that each one is the evolute of the preceding, and if A_r be a circle, investigate the form of the intrinsic equation to A_1.

6. Integrate the following differentials

$$\frac{dx}{(x-a)^{\frac{1}{n}}}, \quad \frac{dx}{(\cos x)^3}, \qquad \frac{dx}{(x^4+a^4)^{\frac{1}{4}}};$$

7. A plane area, bounded by a curve, the polar equation to which is given, revolves about a straight line in its own plane; obtain a formula for the determination of the volume generated by the area in a complete revolution.

The lemniscate $r^2=c^2\cos 2\theta$ revolves about a tangent at the pole; prove that the volume of revolution is equal to $\frac{1}{4}\pi^2c^3$.

8. Shew how to determine the orthogonal trajectory of a system of curves represented by the equation

$$\phi(r, \theta, c)=0.$$

Find the orthogonal trajectory of the system of lemniscates $r^2=c^2\cos 2\theta$.

9. Find the functional and the differential equations to cylindrical surfaces.

Given that

where x_1, y_1, z_1 are quantities connected with the co-ordinates x, y, z, of any point of a surface $F=0$, by the relations

$$x_1{}^2=\frac{a^2yz}{x},\ y_1{}^2=\frac{b^2zx}{y},\ z_1{}^2=\frac{c^2xy}{z},$$ investigate the differential equation to the family when x, y, z are the independent variables, and ascertain what family it represents.

10. In a curve of double curvature find an expression for the differential coefficient of the arc with respect to the radius vector in terms of the radius vector and of the perpendicular from the pole on the tangent.

A helix joins two points, the distance between which is b, the angle between the tangent lines and the axis of the generating cylinder being α; prove that, if the length of the helix is a maximum, the helix has a constant length, and that the radius of the generating circle is $\frac{b \tan \alpha}{2n\pi}$, where n is a positive integer.

11. Investigate the condition that must be satisfied that $Pdx + Qdy + Rdz$ may admit of an integrating factor.

Find, when possible, an integrating factor of $Pdx + Qdy + Rdz$, when P, Q, R are homogeneous functions of x, y, z, and $Px + Qy + Rz$ is not identically equal to zero.

THURSDAY, January 19, 1865. 9 to 12.

1. PROVE that

$$\begin{vmatrix} \frac{b+c}{a}, & \frac{a}{b+c}, & \frac{a}{b+c} \\ \frac{b}{c+a}, & \frac{c+a}{b}, & \frac{b}{c+a} \\ \frac{c}{a+b}, & \frac{c}{a+b}, & \frac{a+b}{c} \end{vmatrix} = \frac{2(a+b+c)^3}{(b+c)(c+a)(a+b)}.$$

2. From any point on an ellipse two straight lines are drawn through any two fixed points on the axis equidistant from the centre: if tangents be drawn to the curve at the points where these two straight lines meet the curve again, prove that they intersect on another ellipse which has one axis coincident and equal to the axis of the original ellipse.

3. Five straight lines are drawn in a plane thus forming five quadrilaterals: shew that the straight lines which join the middle points of the diagonals of each of these quadrilaterals meet at a point.

4. A rectangular hyperbola passes through the angular points, and a parabola touches the sides, of a given triangle: shew that the tangents drawn to the parabola, from one of the points where the hyperbola cuts the directrix of the parabola, are parallel to the asymptotes of the hyperbola. Which of the two points on the directrix is to be taken? When the two points coincide, shew that one curve is the polar reciprocal of the other with regard to the coincident points.

5. Tangents at right angles are drawn to a hypocycloid of three branches: shew that they intersect on a fixed circle, and that the line joining the points of contact is another tangent to the hypocycloid.

6. Any plane is drawn cutting the three principal planes of a cone of the second order: prove that the triangle thus formed is self-conjugate with respect to the section of the cone.

7. Prove that the foci of all centric sections of the quadric

$$ax^2 + by^2 + cz^2 = 1$$

lie on the surface

$$(x^2+y^2+z^2)(1-ax^2-by^2-cz^2)\{a(c-b)^2y^2z^2+b(a-c)^2z^2x^2+c(b-a)^2x^2y^2\}$$
$$=(ax^2+by^2+cz^2)\{(c-b)^2y^2z^2+(a-c)^2x^2z^2+(b-a)^2x^2y^2\}.$$

8. Through any point on the surface of the ellipsoid of minimum volume which can be described about a given tetrahedron $ABCD$, straight lines are drawn from the angular points of the tetrahedron to meet the opposite faces at A', B', C', D', respectively: prove that a paraboloid can be described touching the faces of the tetrahedron at A', B', C', D'.

9. AOB, COD are two arcs of great circles which bisect each other at right angles, and are so related that $\sin OC = \tan^2 OA$: prove that the locus of the vertex of the right-angled spherical triangle described on AB as hypotenuse is such a curve that the sum of the distances of any point on it measured along great circles from C and D is constant.

10. An ellipsoid, whose semiaxes in descending order of magnitude are a, b, c, moves in contact with three fixed planes at right angles to each other: determine the limits of the surface on which the centre of the ellipsoid moves, and prove that the area of this surface is

$$3\sqrt{a^2+b^2+c^2}\left\{a\tan^{-1}\frac{b^2-c^2}{2bc} - c\tan^{-1}\frac{a^2-b^2}{2ab}\right\}$$
$$+(a^2+b^2+c^2)\left\{6\tan^{-1}\frac{ac}{b\sqrt{a^2+b^2+c^2}} - \pi\right\}.$$

If the ellipsoid be heavy and smooth, shew how to find its positions of equilibrium, and prove that if the three fixed planes are equally inclined to the horizon, there are six positions of stable equilibrium.

11. A particle is describing an ellipse freely under the action of two equal and similar centres of force situated in the foci: prove that the law of force is given by $\dfrac{\int r^2 f(r)\,dr}{r^2}$, where $f(r)$ is any function of r which remains unaltered when $(2a-r)$ is written for r, $2a$ being the major axis of the ellipse.

12. A smooth bead is strung on to an elastic string of natural length l, which is stretched over a fixed cardioid, $r = a(1+\cos\theta)$; the bead is constrained to move on a circle which touches the cardioid at its apse, and whose diameter is $3a$: if the bead be placed at the point on the circle which is nearest to the cusp and slightly displaced, find the velocity with which it arrives at the other end of the diameter. Hooke's law is supposed to hold throughout, and the points where the string leaves the cardioid to be always on opposite sides of the axis.

13. Every particle of two equal uniform rods, each of length $2a$, and mass m, attracts every other particle according to the law of gravitation; the rods are initially at right angles, and are free to move in a plane about their centres of gravity which are coincident: if angular velocities ω, ω' be communicated to the rods respectively, shew that at the time t, the angle θ between them is given by the equation

14. A perfectly rough plane, inclined at a fixed angle to the vertical, rotates about the vertical with uniform angular velocity: shew that the path of a sphere which is placed upon it is given by two linear differential equations of the form the origin being the point where the vertical line, about which the plane revolves, meets the plane; and the axis of y being the straight line in the plane which is always horizontal.

$$\frac{d^2y}{dt^2} + A\frac{dx}{dt} + By = 0,$$

$$\frac{d^2x}{dt^2} - A\frac{dy}{dt} + B'x = C,$$

THURSDAY, January 19, 1865. $1\frac{1}{2}$ to 4.

1. COMPARE the radii of the inscribed and circumscribed spheres of a given regular polyhedron, and shew that, if F be the number of faces, m the number of sides in each face, r the radius of the inscribed sphere, and a the length of an edge, the volume of the polyhedron is

$$\frac{mFra^2}{12} \cot\frac{\pi}{m}.$$

A regular tetrahedron and a cube have the same volume; the middle points of the faces of each are joined, thus forming another tetrahedron and an octahedron; and the centres of the faces of the octahedron are joined, thus forming a cube: prove that the volume of this cube is equal to that of the smaller tetrahedron.

2. Integrate the equation $x\frac{dy}{dx} - my + by^2 = cx^n$, when $n = 2m$; and prove that it can always be integrated if $\frac{n \pm 2m}{2n}$ is a positive integer.

Integrate $\frac{dy}{dx} + 1 = \frac{a^2y^2}{x^4}$.

3. Find the differential equation to the projection on one of the co-ordinate planes of the lines of curvature which pass through a given point of a surface.

Shew that the singular solution of this differential equation will give the umbilici of the surface.

4. If $U = \int_{x_0}^{x_1} \int_{y_0}^{y_1} V\,dx\,dy$, where V is a function of $x, y, z, \frac{dz}{dx}, \frac{dz}{dy}$, it is required to find the variation of U, when z and the limits of integration receive indefinitely small variations.

Shew that the area of a convex surface is smaller than the area of any other convex surface which has the same boundary and which encloses the first.

5. Enunciate and demonstrate Ivory's Theorem.

Shew that there is only one auxiliary ellipsoid which will satisfy the conditions prescribed in the theorem.

6. Enunciate and demonstrate the principle of Vis Viva.

A uniform heavy beam of length $2c$ is supported in a horizontal position by means of two strings, without weight, each of length b, which are fastened to its ends, the other ends of the strings being fixed; in equilibrium each of the strings makes an angle α with the horizon: find the time of a small oscillation when the system is slightly displaced in the vertical plane in which it is situated, the strings not being slackened.

7. Explain the meaning of the disturbing function R, in the Planetary Theory, and shew that it is independent of the particular co-ordinates that may be used.

Investigate the following equation for the perturbation in radius vector,

$$\frac{d^2(r\delta r)}{dt^2} + \frac{\mu}{r^3}(r\delta r) = a\frac{dR}{da} + 2n\int \frac{dR}{d\epsilon}\,dt.$$

8. Describe and explain the phenomena of conical refraction.

Shew that when a line of light is placed before a plate of biaxal crystal, parallel to the plane containing the optic axes, and the emergent pencil observed through a small hole, the luminous line seen will be in the form of a conchoid.

Friday, January 20, 1865. 9 to 12.

1. INVESTIGATE the general form of the equation to a conic, referred to trilinear co-ordinates, which passes through the angular points of the triangle of reference.

If the constants in the equation to the conic be all equal, prove that the curvatures of the conic at the angular points of the triangle of reference are in the same proportion as the cubes of the cosines of the respective semi-angles of the triangle.

2. Integrate the following differential equations:

$$(1)\quad \frac{d^3y}{dx^3} - a^3y = \sin ax + \cos bx + e^{cx}.$$

$$(2)\quad (x+y)\frac{dz}{dx} + (x-y)\frac{dz}{dy} = z.$$

$$(3)\quad \frac{d^2z}{dx^2} - a^2\frac{d^2z}{dy^2} = \phi(x) + \psi(y) + \chi(x+by).$$

3. Enunciate Gauss's definition of the measure of the curvature at any point of a surface, and thence investigate the expression for the measure in terms of the principal radii of curvature at the point.

Prove that the curvature at any point of a prolate spheroid varies inversely as the product of the squares of the distances of the point from the foci of a meridian.

4. Demonstrate the formula

$$\phi(x) = \frac{2}{l}\Sigma_1{}^{\infty} \sin\frac{n\pi x}{l}\int_0^l \sin\frac{n\pi v}{l}\,\phi(v)\,dv.$$

Find a function of x which shall be equal to hx from $x=0$ to $x=\frac{kl}{h+k}$, and equal to $k(l-x)$ from $x=\frac{kl}{h+k}$, to $x=l$.

5. Let
$$u = \int_b^{b+k}\int_a^{a+h} \cos\frac{xx'+yy'}{\mu}\,dy\,dx,$$
$$v = \int_b^{b+k}\int_a^{a+h} \sin\frac{xx'+yy'}{\mu}\,dy\,dx;$$

then shew that
$$\int_{-\infty}^{\infty}\int_{-\infty}^{\infty}(u^2+v^2)\,dy'\,dx' = 4\pi^2\mu^2hk.$$

And in like manner, if the integrals represented by u and v extend over any area A, shew that
$$\int_{-\infty}^{\infty}\int_{-\infty}^{\infty}(u^2+v^2)\,dy'\,dx' = 4\pi^2\mu^2A.$$

A small luminous body is placed before a convex lens. A screen pierced with orifices of any form stands between the luminous body and the lens. Shew that the intensity of the image on a screen, placed at right angles to the axis of the lens at the position where the image is formed, will be proportional to the sum of the areas of the orifices.

6. Give a demonstration of the equations

$$A\frac{d\omega_1}{dt} = L + (B-C)\omega_2\omega_3,\quad B\frac{d\omega_2}{dt} = M + (C-A)\omega_3\omega_1,\quad C\frac{d\omega_3}{dt} = N + (A-B)\omega_1\omega_2,$$ for the determination of the motion of a body, acted on by any forces, about a fixed point.

If, throughout the motion, the angular acceleration of the body about the instantaneous axis bear to the moment of inertia about this axis and to the forces the same relation as if the axis were fixed, prove that, if the three principal moments of inertia at the fixed point be not all equal, the locus of the axis relatively to the body is a cone of the second order.

7. A hollow cylinder of indefinite length is filled with homogeneous air, a portion of which is disturbed in such a manner that all the particles in any section perpendicular to the axis are under the same initial circumstances of displacement: neglecting change of temperature, obtain the usual approximate equation for the motion of the air, and explain how the arbitrary functions which occur in the solution are to be determined.

Shew also that the exact equation is of the form

$$\left(\frac{dy}{dx}\right)^2 \frac{d^2y}{dt^2} = \mu \frac{d^2y}{dx^2},$$ and that the integral is to be found by eliminating α between the equations

$$y = \alpha x + (C \pm \mu^{\frac{1}{2}} \log \alpha)\, t + \phi(\alpha),$$ $$0 = \alpha x \pm \mu^{\frac{1}{2}} t + \alpha\phi'(\alpha).$$

8. A ray, polarized at right angles to the plane of incidence, falls on a refracting surface: give the reasoning by which Fresnel determines the intensities of the reflected and refracted rays.

If the intensities of the two rays be equal, and the tangent of the polarizing angle be greater than 1 and less than 3, prove that the corresponding angle of incidence is least when the refracting medium is such that its polarizing angle is equal to $\frac{\pi}{3}$.

Friday, January 20, 1865. $1\frac{1}{2}$ to 4.

1. Prove that the two series

$$a_0 + a_1 + a_2 + a_3 + \ldots + a_n + \ldots,$$
$$\frac{a_1}{a_0} + \frac{a_2}{a_0 + a_1} + \ldots + \frac{a_n}{a_0 + a_1 + \ldots + a_{n-1}} + \ldots,$$ are either both convergent, or both divergent, all the symbols denoting positive quantities.

Prove that, for positive values of x less than unity, the series

$$\frac{\log(1+x^2)}{\log(1-x^2)-\log(1-x)} + \frac{\log(1+x^4)}{\log(1-x^4)-\log(1-x)} + \ldots + \frac{(\log 1+x^{2^n})}{\log(1-x^{2^n})-\log(1-x)} + \ldots$$ is a convergent series.

2. $A_1, A_2, A_3, \ldots$ are any system of points disposed in any manner on a straight line; $a_1, a_2, a_3, \ldots$ are given quantities whose sum is zero: prove that, for any point O on the line,

$$a_1 . OA_1 + a_2 . OA_2 + a_3 . OA_3 + \ldots$$ has a constant value, regard being had to the signs as well as the magnitudes of $OA_1, OA_2, OA_3, \ldots$

A system of given forces P_1, P_2, P_3,... acting in a plane at a point is in equilibrium; A_1, A_2, A_3,... are any fixed points in the same plane: prove that the sum of the moments of the forces, P_1 about A_1, P_2 about A_2, P_3 about A_3,... is independent of the position of the point at which the forces act.

3. Give a direct proof of the proposition that the polar reciprocal of one conic with regard to another is a conic.

Shew that in general two conics can be found which pass through four given points, and are the polar reciprocals of each other with regard to a certain circle. Also give a geometrical construction for finding the centre of this circle.

4. Discuss the integration of the Equation of Finite Differences,

$$u_{x+1} - A_x u_x = B_x.$$

Integrate the equation

$$u_{x+1} - \cos ax \cdot u_x = \cos a \cos 2a \cos 3a \ldots \cos (x-2)a.$$

5. Prove that, if the accelerating forces, X, Y, Z, which act on a fluid, are such that $Xdx + Ydy + Zdz$ is an exact differential, and if at any time $udx + vdy + wdz$ is an exact differential, then $udx + vdy + wdz$ will always be so.

A homogeneous incompressible fluid, enclosed in a boundary which can change both in shape and area, but not in volume enclosed, is acted on by a force whose components are

$$y + z + \frac{k}{x+y+z}, \quad z + x + \frac{k}{x+y+z}, \quad x + y + \frac{k}{x+y+z},$$ respectively; when the time $t = 0$, the fluid is at rest, and the pressure $= k\rho \log \frac{x+y+z}{h}$; afterwards the pressure at the boundary is always

$$k\rho \log \frac{x+y+z}{h} - \rho t^2 (x^2 + y^2 + z^2 + xy + yz + zx) - \rho F(t):$$ prove that the components of the velocity will always be

$$t(y+z), \quad t(z+x), \quad t(x+y),$$

and that the curve described by the particle, whose co-ordinates, when $t = 0$, were (x_0, y_0, z_0), has for its equations

$$\left(\frac{x-y}{x_0-y_0}\right)^2 = \left(\frac{y-z}{y_0-z_0}\right)^2 = \frac{x_0+y_0+z_0}{x+y+z}.$$

6. Having given that for a planet m, disturbed by a second planet m',

$$\frac{di}{dt} = \frac{m'na^2a'}{4\mu} D_{,} \tan i' \sin (\Omega - \Omega'),$$

$$\tan i \frac{d\Omega}{dt} = -\frac{m'na^2a'}{4\mu} D_{,} \{\tan i - \tan i' \cos (\Omega - \Omega')\};$$ determine the condition that the node of the planet m may oscillate, and prove that the nodes of the two planets arrive at their mean positions simultaneously.

7. Assuming that, during a sidereal revolution of the Moon, the motion, produced by the Moon's action, of the pole of the Earth parallel to the Moon's orbit, is where T is the time of the Moon's sidereal revolution, and i the inclination of the Earth's axis to the axis of the Moon's orbit, investigate the effect produced by the Moon's action on the obliquity of the ecliptic.

$$\frac{6\pi^2 B \sin i \cos i}{(n+1)\,T\omega},$$

What is meant by Lunar Nutation?

8. Homogeneous light diverging from a given point is allowed to pass through a small aperture in the form of a rectangle, and is received on a given screen placed opposite to the aperture: explain the method of finding the illumination at different points of the screen.

EXAMINATION PAPERS

FOR

SMITH'S PRIZES.

January 30, 1865.

By the Rev. James Challis, M.A., Plumian Professor.

1. Three quantities are in geometrical progression, their first differences are Δ_1, Δ'_1, and their second difference Δ_2; shew that the middle term is equal to $\frac{\Delta_1 \cdot \Delta'_1}{\Delta_2}$.

2. A heated thermometer indicating the temperature α is suddenly transferred to air of less temperature; after an interval its reading is β, and after another equal interval the reading is γ; assuming the changes of the indications of the thermometer in equal intervals to be in geometrical progression, find the temperature of the air.

Take, for example, $\alpha = 17^\circ{,}1$, $\beta = 13^\circ{,}2$, $\gamma = 10^\circ{,}5$.

3. Prove that if the real roots of the equations $f(x) = 0$, and $f'(x) = 0$ be arranged in order of magnitude, there is an odd number of the roots of the latter equation between every two consecutive roots of the former.

Shew that $\frac{1}{m}\cos^{-1}\frac{n}{m}$ lies between zero and the least positive root of the equation $\sin mx - nx = 0$, n being less than m.

4. Make the solution of the equation $a^x + b^x = c^x$ depend on that of

$$\frac{\log \sin \phi}{\log \cos \phi} = \frac{\log c - \log b}{\log c - \log a},$$ and shew how to solve the latter equation by means of the common tables of logarithms of numbers and circular functions.

Is the generality of the equation affected by assuming a, b and c to be positive quantities?

5. Taking x and y for the rectangular coordinates of any point on a plane chart of the earth's surface corresponding to the point of the surface whose latitude and longitude are λ and l, shew generally that m, n, p and q being functions of λ and l, the particular forms of which determine the character of the chart.

$$dx = md\lambda + ndl, \qquad dy = pd\lambda + qdl,$$

If the element of the surface whose sides are $d\lambda$ and $\cos\lambda dl$ and the corresponding element of the chart be similar, prove that

$$(m^2+p^2)\cos^2\lambda = n^2+q^2, \qquad mn+pq=0,$$

$$dx = md\lambda - p\cos\lambda dl, \qquad dy = pd\lambda + m\cos\lambda dl.$$

6. The equation of the generating curve of the surface of a solid of revolution being $y = f(x)$, shew that the size of a moderately thick frustum included between sections transverse to the axis at the distances $x-h$ and $x+h$ from the origin of x is very nearly equal to

7. The transit of a star across a wire parallel to the horizon was observed at a known place with an alt-azimuth instrument, and its altitude and azimuth were approximately noted: shew that the acceleration (α) of the transit by refraction may be calculated by the formula,

$$\alpha = \frac{1}{15} \times \text{vertical refraction} \times \text{cosec of azimuth} \times \text{sec of latitude},$$

the azimuth being reckoned from North through East and South.

8. The local times of transit of the Moon's Limb and a known star at the vertical wires of an alt-azimuth instrument fixed in azimuth being observed at a place whose latitude is known, and the difference of the N.P.D. of the Limb and star being small, shew how from these data to calculate the longitude of the place, assuming the correctness of the Lunar Theory.

On the same suppositions, calculate the longitude from the times of transit at the horizontal wires, the telescope being fixed in altitude. How in this case may the noted times be freed from the effects of refraction?

9. A pencil of rays passes excentrically through a double convex lens of given radii, and the angles of incidence on the surfaces, and the length of the path within the lens, satisfy given values: it is required to find the points of incidence and emergence, and the inclinations of the incident and emergent rays to the axis of the lens.

Supposing the incident pencil to consist of parallel rays, shew how to find the exact position of the primary focus of the emergent rays.

10. An object is viewed through a perfectly transparent substance, the boundaries of which are any surfaces of revolution having a common axis, and the eye is situated on the prolongation of the axis: shew that the apparent brightness of the object is not changed by the interposition of the substance.

11. Given the apparent diameters of the Sun and Moon during a solar eclipse, and the path and rate of motion of the Moon's centre relative to the Sun's centre, determine the motions of the cusps.

Prove that if a line drawn from the Moon's centre through a cusp intersect at T a line drawn at right angles to the Moon's path through S the Sun's centre, the velocity of the cusp is to the relative velocity of the Moon as the Sun's radius to ST.

12. Obtain formulæ for calculating exactly the Moon's Parallax in Right Ascension and North Polar Distance at a given place and time, the Geocentric Right Ascension and North Polar Distance, and the Equatorial Horizontal Parallax, being calculated from the Lunar Tables.

13. Investigate (1) a formula for reducing the times of transit of Polaris at part of the wires of a Transit Circle to the time of transit across the mean of the wires: (2) a formula for calculating the level error of the instrument from a transit of Polaris taken at part of the wires directly, and at the remainder by reflection at the surface of mercury, the North Polar Distance of the star and the Latitude of the Observatory being given.

14. Two equal cylindrical solids fitting a cylindrical tube so that the space between them, containing compressed air of given density, is air-tight, are connected by a fine inextensible thread of given length, and a given velocity is impressed on one of the solids towards the other: required the motions of both, the pressure of the external air being taken into account, and the retarding force of friction being supposed to be proportional to the velocity.

15. An area is bounded by a rectilinear base, by ordinates perpendicular to the base, and a curve joining the extremities of the ordinates: it is required to draw the curve when the area is a maximum, in each of the following cases:

(1) The base, each ordinate, and the length of the curve, are given.

(2) The base, the sum of the ordinates, and the length of the curve, are given.

(3) The base, and the sum of the ordinates plus the length of the curve, are given.

Shew that in cases (2) and (3) the ordinates are equal, and that in case (3) the curve is a semicircle.

16. Prove that $\frac{1}{a^2}\cdot\frac{d^2z}{dx^2} - \frac{d^2z}{dy^2} + \frac{bz}{y^2} = 0$, and $\frac{d^2z}{dudv} - \frac{bz}{(u+v)^2} = 0$, are equivalent equations, if $u = y + ax$ and $v = y - ax$.

17. Integrate either of the equations in the foregoing question for the cases in which $b = 2$ and $b = 6$; and shew that a finite integral is obtainable whenever $b = n(n+1)$, n being a positive integer.

18. Assuming that $\phi = \psi \sin\theta \cos\theta$, and that ψ is a function of r and t, obtain a particular integral of the equation

$$\frac{d^2.\phi}{a^2dt^2} = \frac{d^2.\phi}{dr^2} + \frac{1}{r^2}\left(\frac{d^2\phi}{d\theta^2} + \frac{d.\phi\cot\theta}{d\theta}\right).$$

19. The motion of a mass of elastic fluid is symmetrical with respect to an axis, and the polar coordinates of any point, referred to the axis and to a fixed origin in the same, are r and θ: shew that if ρ be the density, and U and W be the resolved parts of the velocity along and perpendicular to the radius-vector, the equation of constancy of mass is

$$\frac{d\rho}{dt}+\frac{d\,.\,\rho U}{dr}+\frac{d\,.\,\rho W}{rd\theta}+\frac{2\rho U}{r}+\frac{\rho W}{r}\,.\cot\theta=0.$$

20. A body describes an orbit by the action of the central force μu^2 in a medium the resistance of which is $k\,.\,\frac{dV}{dt}$, V being the velocity in the orbit: shew that θ and the reciprocal of u being the polar coordinates.

$$(1+k)V^2=2\mu u+C,\ \frac{d\theta}{dt}=\frac{hu^2}{V^k},\quad \frac{d^2u}{d\theta^2}+u-\frac{\mu(2\mu u+C)^k}{h^2(1+k)^k}=0,$$

21. From the foregoing results prove, on the supposition that k is small, (1) that the orbit has two apsidal distances of constant values; (2) that the velocity and the angular velocity suffer no permanent change, fluctuating between constant values at the apses; (3) that the relation between u and θ is the same as that in an orbit described by the action of the central force $\mu u^2 V^{2k}$, if h be twice the area in the unit of time; (4) supposing the orbit to be nearly circular the angle from apse to apse is $\sqrt{\frac{1+k}{1-k}}$.

22. Required the equation of a surface the radius-vectors of which in any given direction are equal to the semi-axes of the section of a given ellipsoid made by a plane passing through its centre at right angles to the given direction.

Of what physical law is the surface an exponent, and what are the significations of the constants of its equation?

January 31, 1865.

BY GEORGE GABRIEL STOKES, ESQ. M.A.

Lucasian Professor.

1. IF a fraction in its lowest terms with a prime denominator p which is neither 2 nor 5 be reduced to a decimal, the number of digits in the circulating period will be either $p-1$ or a submultiple of $p-1$. Prove this, and the proposition in the theory of numbers from which it immediately follows.

2. Determine n numbers such that the consecutive integers 1, 2, 3, 4..., as many as possible, may be formed from them by addition, subtraction, or omission.

3. A substance A, in small quantity, when acted on by a mixture of two solvents X, Y which separate after agitation dissolves in the proportion, for equal volumes, of x to y, and a substance B similarly treated in the proportion of x' to y'; supposing that the substances dissolve independently, and that a mixture of the quantities a of A and b of B is dissolved in the volume U of X, and the solution washed n times with fresh volumes V of Y, find the quantities remaining in solution in X; and supposing V and n disposable, find to what extent the substance which is relatively less soluble in X may be got rid of without entailing more than a given loss of the other substance.

4. If $V=C$, C being an arbitrary parameter, be the equation of a system of surfaces such that the distance between any two consecutive surfaces is the same at all points, prove that ϕ denoting an arbitrary function.

5. Shew that the system of straight lines meeting two given straight lines cannot be cut orthogonally by a system of surfaces; and find the equations of the system of curves lying in planes parallel to both the given lines by which the system of straight lines is so cut.

6. A mass of liquid not acted on by gravity revolves uniformly round a fixed axis, and contains, revolving with it, two small solids connected by a string, one of the solids being denser and the other rarer than the liquid; find the condition of equilibrium, and discuss the cases which may arise.

7. Shew that the least surface which can be drawn on a given closed curve of double curvature has its principal curvatures at any point equal in magnitude and opposite in direction.

8. A double convex lens having radii r, s, and a small finite thickness t, is placed with its posterior surface in contact with a fixed ideal plane; shew that when the lens is reversed the position of the focus for parallel rays will be altered by the quantity $\dfrac{r-s}{r+s}\,\dfrac{t}{\mu}$.

9. White light is refracted through a compound prism formed of n prisms placed in contact; if $i_1, i_2, \ldots i_n$ are the angles, $\mu_1, \mu_2, \ldots \mu_n$ the refractive indices of the prisms, $\phi_1, \phi_2, \ldots \phi_{n+1}$ the successive angles of incidence, $\rho_1, \rho_2, \ldots \rho_{n+1}$ the corresponding angles of refraction, shew that the angular length of the spectrum, regarded as small, is given by the expression

10. A spherical shell of homogeneous gravitating liquid initially at rest is left to itself; find the pressure at any point during the collapse.

1. In a compound pendulum consisting of two heavy particles attached to light strings, and performing small vibrations in one plane, if the upper mass be much the greater of the two it is evident that for one of the two simple motions which coexist the periodic time must be nearly the same as if the under mass were removed, and for the other nearly the same as if the upper mass were fixed. The latter periodic time changes continuously from greater to less than the former as the under string changes from longer to shorter than the upper; and therefore for some intermediate length the periodic times must be equal.

Expose the fallacy of this reasoning; and prove that whatever be the lengths and masses the two periodic times are necessarily unequal.

12. Prove that the expansion of $f(x)$ by Maclaurin's theorem is convergent or divergent according as the modulus of x is less or greater than that of the least value of x which renders $f(x)$ or its derivative infinite or discontinuous.

Apply this theorem to the examples $\tan^{-1}x$, $\log_e (1+x)$, e^x, $e^{-\frac{1}{x^2}}$.

13. Assuming that the capillary forces at the surface of a liquid are equivalent to a superficial tension, find the work of those forces when the surface is altered in form; and from the principle that when a system is in stable equilibrium the work of all the forces is a maximum, deduce the differential equation of the curve which by its revolution generates the surface of the liquid within a vertical cylindrical tube.

14. Describe the appearance of the boundary of the shadow of an opaque screen with a straight edge exposed to a stream of light coming from a luminous point; and indicate the whole of the measurements, and (when not obvious) the mode of taking them, which are required to compare theory and experiment.

15. A pencil passing through a feebly doubly refracting plate is defined by two small holes through which it has to pass, the holes being situated in a line perpendicular to the plate and on opposite sides of it; shew that, whatever be the law of double refraction, when the thickness of the plate and the distances of the holes vary, the angle in air between the two pencils which can pass varies as $\frac{h}{h+\mu(k+k')}$ where h is the thickness of the plate, and k, k' the distances of the holes from the surfaces respectively next them.

16. A spherical shell vibrates as a bell, communicating vibrations to the surrounding air; supposing that the excursion of any point of the surface is represented by $c\left(\cos^2\theta - \frac{1}{3}\right)\sin nt$, determine the vibration at any distance in the air; and compare the intensity at a great distance with what it would have been if the air had been divided into an infinite number of infinitely slender filaments, by conical surfaces having the centre for vertex.

Apply the result to illustrate the use of sounding-boards.

Write short dissertations on the following subjects:—

(1) On a geometrical interpretation of imaginary quantities, and its completeness or incompleteness.

(2) On the nature and use of series which are at first convergent, though ultimately divergent.

(3) On the foundations of Hydrodynamics.

(4) On the consequences of the mean motions of two planets being nearly in the ratio of two low integers.

By John Couch Adams, M.A.

Lowndean Professor.

1. Find the value of x for which the development of $\frac{1}{1-2ax+bx^2}$ in a series of ascending powers of x ceases to be convergent; a and b being any given quantities.

If a be given, find what value must be given to b in order that the rate of convergence of the above series, corresponding to any value of x, may be the greatest possible.

2. If a triangle be inscribed in an ellipse, prove that the radius of the circle circumscribed about the triangle is equal to the continued product of the semidiameters of the ellipse drawn parallel to the sides of the triangle, divided by the product of the semiaxes.

3. In a circle two chords are drawn inclined to each other at a given angle. Find the probability that they will intersect, on the supposition that chords are equally likely to be drawn at all possible distances from the centre.

On the same supposition, find the probability that any two chords drawn at random will intersect each other.

4. In a conic section described about a force in the focus, if any arc be taken which subtends at the focus an angle less than two right angles, shew that it is always possible to draw a radius vector which will divide the arc and its chord respectively into such parts that the times of describing the two portions of the arc shall be to each other in the same ratio as the corresponding segments of the chord.

Also shew that if the whole arc be small, the ratio of the times of describing these portions of it approaches to a ratio of equality.

5. The surface of a vertical cliff is gradually worn away by atmospheric action, and the disintegrated materials are left to accumulate at the base of the cliff, forming a slope of given inclination to the horizon. Having given the original height of the cliff, and the thickness which is worn away yearly from the exposed face of it, find the time required to form a mass of débris of given depth, supposing the ground at the base of the cliff to be horizontal.

Also find the form of the surface of the cliff which would be laid bare, if the mass of débris were removed.

6. Prove that either of the two first integrals of a differential equation of the second order leads to the same singular integral of that equation.

7. Prove that in an astronomical circle, any errors of reading which arise from eccentricity will be eliminated by placing the reading microscopes or verniers at points which divide the whole circumference into two or any greater number of equal parts.

8. Explain how to determine the position of a comet or other celestial object by comparing it with a known star by means of a ring-micrometer.

If the comet have a rapid motion, the rate of which is approximately known, shew how to take this into account in reducing the observation.

9. If a body move in a plane about a fixed point under the action of the accelerating forces P and T, the former acting along the radius vector and the latter in a direction perpendicular to it, and if H denote twice the areal velocity at any point, $\frac{1}{u}$ the radius vector and ψ the angle between the radius vector and the normal, shew in Newton's manner that the semichord of curvature passing through the pole is expressed by

$$\frac{H^2 u^2 \sec^2 \psi}{P + T \tan \psi}.$$

10. Exhibit under an analytical form the process by which Newton finds the ratio of the axes of the orbit which the moon would describe under the disturbing action of the Sun, supposing the orbit to have no independent eccentricity.

Point out the analogy between this process and the ordinary analytical method of solving the same problem.

11. A mass (M) of homogeneous fluid revolves, in relative equilibrium, about a fixed axis with a uniform angular velocity such that the ellipticity (ϵ) of its surface is small. If the part μM of the mass were collected into an infinitely dense material point at the centre, and the density of the remaining part $(1-\mu)M$ were diminished in the ratio of $(1-\mu)$ to 1, find what would be the ellipticity of the new surface of equilibrium supposing the time of rotation to be the same as before.

12. Between two given points draw a curve which, within its own arc, the radii of curvature at its extremities and the corresponding arc of the evolute, contains the least area.

If the evolute meets the curve at one of the given points and the tangent to the curve at this point makes an angle α less than $\frac{\pi}{2}$ with the line joining the two given points, shew that if $\tan \alpha - \alpha = n\pi$, where n is an integer, there will be $2n$ solutions of the problem, but if $\tan \alpha - \alpha$ lie between $(n-1)\pi$ and $n\pi$ there will be $2n-1$ solutions.

13. If y be a continuous function of x which vanishes when $x=0$, and if $\frac{dy}{dx}$ be positive and continually increasing as x assumes larger positive values, prove that $\frac{y}{x}$ will also continually increase with x.

Also, if y be subject to these conditions, and if we put prove that m_2 will always be greater than $\frac{4}{3} m_1^2$, and that m_3 will always be greater than $2m_1^3$.

$$\int_0^1 y\,dx = m_1, \quad \int_0^1 y^2 dx = m_2, \quad \int_0^1 y^3 dx = m_3,$$

14. Observations of the meridian zenith distances of m stars are made at two stations A and B, and the mean result deduced for the difference of latitude of those stations is λ_1, similarly observations of n stars made at the stations B and C give λ_2 for the difference of the latitudes of B and C, and observations of p stars made at the stations A and C give λ_3 for the difference of their latitudes.

Find the most probable values of the differences of latitude between the several stations, and compare the probable error of each determination with the probable error of a difference of latitude deduced from the observation of a single star at each of two stations.

1. WHAT regular polygons can be inscribed in a circle by geometrical methods?

2. The geometrical problems of the trisection of an angle and the duplicature of the cube may be reduced to one another.

3. Every integral function of x of even dimensions may be resolved into quadratic factors with rational coefficients.

Find approximately the coefficients of the factors of $$x^8 + x - 1.$$

4. Three forces act along three edges of a cube so that no two meet and no two are parallel: what is the resulting force?

5. The polar equation to a curve is $r = a$ versin θ: trace the curve; find its area and its length.

6. If this curve roll upon its axis, find the curve traced by its pole.

7. If a body revolve about a central force in a medium of small resistance, in an orbit nearly circular, it will describe a spiral. Prove this, and find the diminution of the radius, and of the periodic time, in successive revolutions.

8. If a projectile move in a resisting medium, its path will have a vertical asymptote, (1) if the resistance be as the velocity, (2) if the resistance be the square of the velocity.

9. Prove Fagnani's theorem concerning the rectification of elliptical arcs.

10. What is the form of the surface $xy+xz+yz=a^2$? Is it a surface of revolution? Has it an asymptotic cone?

11. Explain the production of the primary and secondary rainbow, and calculate their radii.

What spaces of the sky, as bounded by the rainbows, are dark and bright respectively?

Explain the supernumerary bows.

12. Explain the principle of the skew-bridge. What is the advantage of it?

13. If the earth consist of a solid spherical nucleus, covered with an ocean, what is the relation between the time of its rotation and the excess of polar over equatorial gravity?

14. A uniform flexible cord hangs from a given point: determine the time of its possible small oscillations in a vertical plane.

15. What is the hypothesis on which Laplace has solved the problem of capillary attraction? According to this hypothesis, how does the height of a fluid in a capillary tube vary with the diameter of the tube?

16. If a straight rod in a cold atmosphere be heated by a constant source of heat at one end, what will be the law of the decrease of temperature at different points of its length?

17. A number of shooting stars are observed on a given night in different quarters of the sky: what are the conditions of their apparent paths, if they are all revolving in circles round the sun?

18. What is the effect of a galvanic current upon a linear magnet in its neighbourhood?

What hypothesis respecting the constitution of a magnet has this effect suggested?

19. A conical pendulum describes a circle nearly: what is the angle between the apsides of the path described?

20. If the resistance to a single pendulum vary as the square of the velocity, in what proportion to the arc of oscillation is (1) the decrement of the arc, and (2) the decrement of the time of oscillation?

EVEN if it should be his fate to be surrendered to his keepers—to be torn from his family—to be carried to a foreign land, and to a strange tribunal, where no witness can attest his innocence, where no voice that he ever heard can be raised in his defence, where he must stand mute, not of his own malice, but the malice of his enemies—yet, even so, I see nothing for him to fear—that all-gracious Being, that shields the feeble from the oppressor, will fill his heart with hope, and confidence, and courage; his sufferings will be his armour, and his weakness will be his strength; he will find himself in the hands of a brave, a just, and a generous nation—he will find that the bright examples of her Russells and her Sidneys have not been lost to her children; they will behold him with sympathy and respect, and his persecutors with shame and abhorrence; they will feel, too, that what is then his situation, may to-morrow be their own—but their first tear will be shed for him, and the second only for themselves—their hearts will melt in his acquittal; they will convey him kindly and fondly to their shore; and he will return in triumph to his country, to the threshold of his sacred home, and to the weeping welcome of his delighted family; he will find that the darkness of a dreary and lingering night hath at length passed away, and that joy cometh in the morning.

CURRAN.

The king of Scots, hearing of this disaster, was astonished; and being naturally of a melancholic disposition, as well as endowed with a high spirit, he lost all command of his temper on this dismal occasion. Rage against his nobility, who he believed had betrayed him; shame for a defeat by such unequal numbers; regret for the past, fear of the future; all these passions so wrought upon him, that he would admit of no consolation, but abandoned himself wholly to despair. His body was wasted by sympathy with his anxious mind; and even his life began to be thought in danger. He had no issue living; and hearing that his queen was safely delivered, he asked, whether she had brought him a male or a female child? Being told the latter; he turned himself in his bed: "The crown came with a woman," said he, "and it will go with one: many miseries await this poor kingdom: Henry will make it his own either by force of arms or by marriage."

For GREEK PROSE:

EVEN the weake and miserable Irish, have shaken off their shackles, and glutted and enriched themselves with our blood and spoyles. With these wee are now enforced to fight, not for glory, but for leave but to live, in so much as we are pittied by our friends, flouted by our enemies and hated of ourselves. And no marvaille, since all our discreet and diligent Commanders, (the sinewes and nerves of an Army) are either beheaded, banished, or buried in disgrace and obscuritie, and the managing of martial affaires is committed (without respect of abilities or desert) to the conduct and counsel of such as can best comply with the Kings variable disposition. Amongst whom antient Nobilitie is esteemed but as a vaine bubble; vertue and sufficiencie are but a trappe to ensnare their possessours; it is a griefe to mee to speake it, but it helpeth not to hide that which every man seeth, our Ancestours lived in the highest pitch of perfecte libertie, and wee of dejected servilitie, being used not like subjects but abjects, yea, flat slaves, not to one only unrespective Prince, but to many his proud and presumptuous favourites, not alwayes the same, but every day fresh ones: and no sooner have we contented one, but new greedy stomacks are provided, whose extortion and exactions have devoured more by bribes, then the enemy with the sword. What unwonted, nay what unheard of projects are now invented and daily practised without either measure or end, yea oftentimes without need, but if any bee, it proceedeth rather from riotous expence than necessary charges; great summes of money are every minute pilled and pulled from the honest-minded subject, to bee unprofitably wasted upon prodigall spendthrifts: and if any man impugne these most insupportable taxations, or but speake in the defence of the libertie of a subject; Then either by surmised imputation of capital crime, or by aggravation of small causes, by far-fetcht circumstances, and strayned constructions, or else by open crueltie and force, his life, or libertie, or both, is called in question;—it were too tedious, too odious, too frivolous, to produce particular examples.

AN ALPHABETICAL LIST OF
Members of the University.

The Colleges are affixed to the names of all persons whose names are on the Boards of their respective Colleges. In all cases where no College is mentioned, the person is a Member of the University, but has removed his name from the College Boards. See p. 432.

The figures after the name denote the date of the B.A. or B.L. degree, except where any other degree is mentioned. This date is from the day of Inauguration in each case.

N.B. Every person admitted after the day of Inauguration in any year, is a Bachelor of Arts or Law of the following year.

LAWS AND BYE LAWS

OF THE

CAMBRIDGE PHILOSOPHICAL SOCIETY.

The Cambridge Philosophical Society was established November the 15th, 1819, for the purpose of promoting scientific inquiry, and of facilitating the communication of facts connected with the advancement of Philosophy and Natural History; and became a Body Corporate by virtue of a Charter granted by His late Majesty King William the Fourth. This Charter, bearing date the 3d day of August, 1832, was formally accepted by the Society at a general Meeting held after due notice for that express purpose, Nov. 6th, 1832.

ABSTRACT OF THE LAWS

PRESCRIBED BY THE CHARTER.

IT is expressly provided by the Charter—

1. That the Society shall consist of such Graduates of the University as were then Fellows thereof, or shall at any time become Fellows thereof, agreeably to the Bye Laws of the Society.

2. That there shall always be a Council to manage the concerns of the Body Corporate, and that the said Council consist of a President, three Vice-Presidents, one Treasurer, not more than three Secretaries, and not more than twelve nor less than seven other Fellows, to be elected out of the Fellows of the said Body Corporate.

3. That General Meetings of the Body Corporate shall be held once in the year, or oftener; for the purpose of electing the Officers and Council of the Society, and determining the period of their continuance in office; and also of enacting such Bye Laws as may seem useful and necessary for the regulation of the said Body Corporate—for fixing the days on which the ordinary Meetings of the Society shall be held—for determining the mode in which Fellows and Honorary Members shall be elected, admitted, or expelled—and for managing the affairs of the said Body Corporate.

4. That the Fellow who has filled the office of President for two successive years shall not be again eligible to the same situation until the expiration of one year from the termination of his office.

5. That it shall be lawful at the General Meetings of the Body Corporate to alter or revoke former Bye Laws, and to make such new Bye Laws as they shall think good and expedient.

6. That no such General Meeting shall (without the consent of the Council) have the power of altering or repealing any Bye Law or making any new one, unless the Fellow or Fellows of the Society desirous of altering or repealing any Bye Law or of making any new one shall have given to the Council one month's previous notice of such his or their intention.

7. That no Bye Law shall on any pretence whatsoever be made in opposition to the true intent of the Charter, the Laws of the Realm, or the Statutes of the University of Cambridge.

8. That the Council shall (in conformity with the Charter and Bye Laws of the Society) have the sole management of the Funds and affairs of the Society, and do all such acts as shall appear to them necessary to carry into effect the objects and views of the Body Corporate.

9. That the whole property of the Body Corporate shall be vested in the Fellows thereof: but that no disposition of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments belonging to the said Body Corporate shall be made except with the approbation and concurrence of a General Meeting.

BYE LAWS

OF THE

CAMBRIDGE PHILOSOPHICAL SOCIETY.

I. Of the Election of the Members of the Council.

1. The President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, Secretaries, and at least three ordinary Members of the Council, shall be annually elected by ballot from amongst the Fellows of the Society.

2. The same Fellow shall not be eligible to fill the office of Vice-President, for more than two years successively.

3. The three senior ordinary Members of the Council shall retire annually.

4. No Fellow under the degree of M.A., M.B., or LL.M., shall be a Member of the Council.

II. Of the Election, Admission, Withdrawal, and Expulsion of Fellows.

1. Any Graduate of the University of Cambridge desirous of becoming a Fellow of the Society, shall be proposed and recommended by a certificate in writing, signed by three or more Fellows. The certificate shall specify the Christian and surname of the Candidate, his Degree, the name of his College and his usual place of residence; all of which must be certified from the personal knowledge of at least one of the subscribing Fellows.

The following shall be the Form of the Certificate.

Name. Degree. College and place of residence.

being desirous of becoming a Fellow of the Cambridge Philosophical Society, we, whose Names are underwritten, do recommend him as a proper person to be a Fellow of the said Society.

(Signed) —————— from personal knowledge.

This certificate shall be read by one of the Secretaries at the Meeting at which the Candidate is proposed, be suspended in the Library of the Society, and remain there till he be balloted for.

2. The Ballot shall take place on the second Meeting (Ordinary or Extraordinary) after that at which the Candidate is proposed: but all Heads of Colleges, Doctors, and Professors of the University, and all persons who have been admitted to Honorary Degrees, shall be balloted for at the Meeting at which they are proposed.

3. No person shall be declared elected, unless he have in his favour at least two-thirds of the Fellows voting by ballot, and if it appear upon the ballot, that the person proposed is not elected, no notice thereof shall be taken in the minutes.

4. The Vice-Chancellor for the time being, when regularly proposed, shall be admitted a Fellow without a ballot.

5. No person who has been elected a Fellow shall be entitled to any of the privileges of the Society, till he has paid his admission fee, and also his subscription for the current year, or the sum specified in lieu of his annual contributions.

6. If the annual subscription of any Fellow be twelve months in arrear, the Treasurer shall make application for it, and if it be not paid within one month, a notice of the same shall be suspended in the Library, and the Secretary shall inform the Fellow thereof; and if the said subscription be still due at the expiration of the succeeding twelve months, the name of such person shall be announced at the next Annual General Meeting as having been struck off the list of the Society.

7. Any person whose name has been removed from the list of the Society on account of the non-payment of his subscription, may, on payment of the arrears due from him at the time when his name was removed from the list of the Society, be re-admitted by ballot without a fresh admission fee.

8. The death or withdrawal of any Fellow having been signified to one of the Secretaries, he shall preserve a record of it, and cause it to be announced at, and entered upon the minutes of the next Annual General Meeting.

9. No Fellow shall be understood to have withdrawn himself from the Society until he shall have signified such his intention by letter, under his hand, addressed to one of the Secretaries, or to the Treasurer, and shall have paid all such sums of money as may be due from him to the Society.

10. If any Fellow of the Society shall, contemptuously or contumeliously, disobey the Laws, Bye Laws or other regulations of the Society; or shall by speaking, writing or printing, publicly defame the Society; or advisedly, maliciously or dishonestly, do anything to the damage, detriment or dishonour thereof, he shall be liable to expulsion from the Society.

11. Whenever there shall be cause for the expulsion of any Fellow from the Society, the President shall, at some ordinary or extraordinary meeting, propose the expulsion of such Fellow; and at the next General Meeting, either Annual or special, the question shall be put to the ballot, and if two-thirds of the Fellows present vote for it, the President shall pronounce such person to be expelled from the Society; the Secretary shall record the expulsion of such person in the Minute Book of the Society, and his name, as expelled, shall be read at the next Annual General Meeting.

12. All persons expelled from the Society shall be thereby rendered incapable of belonging to it in future.

III. Of Honorary Members.

1. No Graduate or Member of the University of Cambridge shall be an Honorary Member.

2. The number of Honorary Members shall not exceed sixty; not more than thirty of whom shall be British subjects or usually resident in the British Dominions.

3. Honorary Members shall be proposed, after a sanction of the Council, by at least six Fellows of the Society. The Certificate of recommendation shall specify the grounds on which each Honorary Member is proposed; and the mode of his election shall be subject to the same regulations as that of the Fellows.

IV. Of the Funds of the Society.

1. The annual subscription of each Fellow shall be one guinea, and shall be due, in advance, on the first of January in every year.

2. Every Fellow, upon his election, shall pay an admission fee of one guinea, and also the subscription for the current year: but a Fellow elected in the latter half of the October Term in any year shall not be required to pay the subscription which became due on the preceding first of January.

3. Any Fellow, or Fellow elect, may compound for all annual subscriptions by the payment of ten guineas.

4. Fellows of ten years'standing, if non-resident, may compound for all future annual subscriptions to the Society by the payment of five guineas; it being understood, that their subscription is to be renewed, or a second sum of five guineas paid, in case of their returning into residence.

5. The Society shall not make any dividend, gift, division, or bonus in money unto or amongst any of its members.

V. Of the Council.

1. The Council shall meet at the house of the Society, at least once in every fortnight during full term, and not less than five shall constitute a quorum. Due notice of each Meeting shall be sent to every member of the Council.

2. All questions shall be determined in the Council by open vote, unless a ballot be demanded. The determination of the Council shall, at the desire of any two members present, be deferred to the next succeeding Meeting. If the number of votes be equal, the Chairman shall have the casting vote.

3. Nothing shall be published by the Society, which has not been previously approved by the Council; and the Council shall be at liberty to call in the aid of any Fellow of the Society, well skilled in the particular branch of science, which may happen to be the subject of any paper under consideration.

VI. Of the Ordinary Meetings.

1. The Meetings of the Society shall be held on Mondays, once in every fortnight, during full Term.

2. The President shall take the Chair at half-past Seven P.M. and shall quit it before half-past Nine.

3. The business of each Meeting shall be conducted in the following order:

(1) The Minutes of the preceding Meeting read and approved.
(2) Notices of new Motions presented.
(3) Members proposed.
(4) Members balloted for.
(5) Presents acknowledged.
(6) Miscellaneous business.
(7) Communications read.

4. Each Fellow shall be at liberty to introduce a visitor on delivering his name to the President or Chairman at the time.

5. The Treasurer's Accounts for the past year, having been examined and approved by two Fellows of the Society appointed by the Council for that purpose, shall be laid before the first Ordinary Meeting in the Lent Term.

VII. OF THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING.

1. THE Annual General Meeting of the Society shall take place on the last Monday in October. At this Meeting the Officers and new Members of Council shall be elected for the succeeding year.

2. The election of the Officers and new Members of the Council shall be made by means of Balloting Lists. Each List shall consist of the names of those Fellows who are suggested by the Council for election as Officers and as New Members of Council, and shall have a blank column opposite to the names for such alterations in them as any Fellow may wish to make.

3. The Balloting Lists shall be prepared by the Council, and printed and sent under the direction of the Secretaries to the Fellows of the Society resident in Cambridge, at least three days previous to the Annual General Meeting.

4. If any Fellow shall not approve of the Fellows named on the Balloting List, but be desirous of altering the List, he must strike his pen across the printed name or names to which he objects, and write on the adjoining blank column the name or names of the Fellow or Fellows for whom he may desire to give his vote.

5. Two Scrutators shall be nominated by the Chairman, at the Meeting, with the approbation of the Society as there assembled, who shall receive and examine the Balloting Lists and report to the meeting the names of those Fellows having the majority of votes for composing the Officers and New Members of Council; the names of which Fellows shall be announced from the chair as elected.

6. Any Balloting List which contains more than the proper number of names of Fellows recommended for election into either of the offices or as New Members of Council shall be set aside by the Scrutators, and not taken into account by them in adding up the number of votes.

7. In case of an equality of votes for the election of two or more Fellows whose number together exceeds the total number to be elected, exclusive of those having a majority of votes, the election of one or more of them shall be determined by the casting vote of the Chairman.

VIII. Of Special General Meetings.

1. The Council may at any time call a Special General Meeting of the Society.

2. At least three days' notice of such Meeting shall be given by one of the Secretaries to the Members of the Society resident in Cambridge.

3. The Council, on receiving a requisition to that effect, signed by not less than six Fellows of the Society, shall call a general Meeting, to take place within a week after the expiration of the month's previous notice prescribed by the Charter.

IX. Of the Duties of the President and Vice-Presidents.

1. The duty of the President shall be, to take the Chair at the Meetings of the Society and Council; to regulate and keep order in all their proceedings; to state questions and propositions to the Meeting; to report the result of ballots; and to carry into effect the regulations of the Society.

2. In the absence of the President, the Chair shall be taken by one of the Members of the Council in the following order; viz. the Senior Vice-President, Treasurer, or Senior Ordinary Member of the Council then present.

X. Of the Duties of the Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall receive all sums of Money due to the Society, transact all its pecuniary affairs, and keep a regular account of receipts and payments, in the mode which may seem most proper to the Council.

XI. Of the Duties of the Secretaries.

1. The Secretaries shall have the management of the correspondence of the Society and Council.

2. They shall attend all Meetings of the Society and Council; take minutes of their proceedings, and enter them in books provided for that purpose; transact the business of the Ordinary Meetings according to the mode specified in Section vi. Rule 3; have the care of the Library and Museum of the Society; examine and sign all tradesmen's bills due from the Society, and send them to the Treasurer for payment.

3. The Secretaries shall have the charge, under the direction of the Council, of printing the Transactions of the Society, and of correcting the press.

XII. Of the Society's Property.

The Common Seal, Charter, and Deeds of the Society, shall be kept in an Iron Chest with two locks and two different keys, the one to be kept by the President, and the other by the Treasurer.

XIII. Of the Society's Library.

1. No Book newly acquired shall be taken out of the House, until it has remained there one entire calendar month; or if it be part of a periodical publication until the succeeding number of the same has been received.

2. A Fellow, upon taking any volume of a Work from the House, shall enter in a book, provided for that purpose, the title of the volume, signed and dated by himself.

3. Every Book taken out of the House shall be returned on or before the first Tuesday in each month, under a penalty of one shilling for each folio or quarto, and of sixpence for each Book of less size; the penalty to be repeated every week until the Book be returned or another of the same edition, and of equal value, placed in its room.

4. To allow time for inspection, the Books shall remain in the House on the Wednesday succeeding the Tuesday aforesaid. A notice of the approach of the period for returning Books shall be placed in the Library during the last seven days of the period.

5. Any Fellow having damaged a Book shall replace it by a fresh copy of the same.

6. The Library shall be closed during the whole of every Sunday.

XIV. Of Benefactors.

The names of Benefactors to the Society shall be read at the annual General Meeting, and shall be inserted in the Society's Memoirs.

XV. Miscellaneous Regulations.

1. All communications, presents, &c. shall be sent to one of the Secretaries, if not personally presented by a Fellow at a Meeting of the Society.

2. The Author of any communication, if a Fellow, shall have the liberty of reading his own paper.

LAWS.

I.—That the Society be for the encouragement of the study of History, Architecture, and Antiquities; and that such Society be called "The Cambridge Antiquarian Society."

II.—That the object of the Society be to collect and to print information relative to the above-mentioned subjects.

III.—That the Subscription of each Member of the Society be One Guinea annually; such Subscription to be due on the first day of January in each year; on the payment of which he shall become entitled to all the Publications of the Society, during the current year.

IV.—That any person who is desirous of becoming a Member of the Society, be proposed by two Members, at any of the ordinary Meetings of the Society, and balloted for at the next Meeting: but all Noblemen, Bishops, and Heads of Colleges, shall be balloted for at the Meeting at which they are proposed.

V.—That the management of the affairs of the Society be vested in a Council, consisting of a President, (who shall not be eligible for that office for more than two successive years,) a Treasurer, a Secretary, and not more than twelve nor less than seven other Members, to be elected from amongst the Members of the Society who are graduates of the University. Each Member of the Council shall have due notice of the Meetings of that body, at which not less than five shall constitute a quorum.

VI.—That the President, Treasurer, and Secretary, and at least three ordinary Members of the Council, shall be elected annually by ballot, at a General Meeting to be held in the month of May; the three senior ordinary Members of the Council to retire annually.

VII.—That no Member be entitled to vote at any General Meeting whose subscription is in arrear.

VIII.—That, in the absence of the President, the Council at their Meetings shall elect a Chairman, such Chairman having a casting-vote in case of equality of numbers, and retaining also his right to vote upon all questions submitted to the Council.

IX.—That the accounts of the receipts and expenditure of the Society be audited annually by two auditors, to be elected at the Annual General Meeting; and that an abstract of such accounts be printed for the use of the Members.

X.—That the object of the usual Meetings of the Society be, to read communications, acknowledge presents, and transact miscellaneous business.

XI.—That the Meetings of the Society take place once at least during each term: and that the place of Meeting and all other arrangements, not specified in the Laws, be left to the discretion of the Council.

XII.—That any Member be allowed to compound for his future subscriptions by one payment of Ten Guineas.

XIII.—That Members of the Society be allowed to propose Honorary Members, provided that no person so proposed be either resident within the County of Cambridge, or a Member of the University.

XIV.—That Honorary Members be proposed by at least two Members of the Society, at any of the usual Meetings of the Society, and balloted for at the next Meeting.

XV.—That nothing shall be published by the Society, which has not been previously approved by the Council, nor without the author's name being appended to it.

XVI.—That no alteration be made in these Laws, except at the Annual General Meeting or at a Special General Meeting called for that purpose, of which at least one week's notice shall be given to all the Members; and that one month's notice of any proposed alteration be communicated, in writing, to the Secretary, in order that he may make the same known to all the Members of the Society.

It is requested that all Communications intended for the Society and the names of Candidates for admission, be forwarded to the Secretary, or the Treasurer, St John's College.

Subscriptions received by the Treasurer, or by his Bankers, Messrs. Mortlock and Co., Cambridge; or at the Bank of Messrs. Smith, Payne and Smith, London, "To the Cambridge Antiquarian Society's account with Messrs. Mortlock and Co., Cambridge."

CAMBRIDGE ARCHITECTURAL SOCIETY.

LAWS.

I. THAT the object of this Society shall be, to promote the study of Ecclesiastical Architecture, Arrangement, and Decoration.

II. That this Society shall consist of Ordinary and Honorary Members, being in communion with the Church of England.

III. That each of their Lordships the Bishops, together with the Chancellor and High Steward of the University, and every Head of a College or Hall, shall be considered a Member of the Society on his signifying his desire to become so, and shall forthwith be added to the list of Patrons.

IV. That every other person desirous of joining the Society shall be proposed and seconded in writing at a Meeting of the Society, and be balloted for at the next Meeting; one black ball in five to exclude.

V. That every Member, resident in the University, shall pay a Terminal Subscription of Five Shillings; and every other Member an Annual Subscription of Half-a-Guinea. Terminal Subscriptions due on the first day of Term, and Annual Subscriptions on the 1st of January. And that every resident Member who has paid Subscriptions to the amount of £5. 5*s.* and every other Member to the amount of £2. 12*s.* 6*d.* shall be considered a Member for life without further Payment.

VI. That if any resident Member's subscription be in arrear for one Term, or any other Member's for one year, he may, after due notice, be removed from the Society at the discretion of the Committee.

VII. That any Member desirous of retiring from the Society shall deliver his resignation in writing to the Treasurer, and shall at the same time pay whatever sum he may owe to the Society, and any Member so resigning may, on signifying such a desire, again become a Member of the Society without being balloted for.

VIII. That all Honorary Members shall be proposed through the Committee, and be elected in the same manner as the Ordinary Members. That such Honorary Members shall neither be eligible as Officers of the Society, nor vote in any matter affecting its constitution or finances; but that in all other respects they shall enjoy the same privileges as the Ordinary Members.

IX. That at the first Meeting in every Academical year, the Society shall elect a President, Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, two Secretaries, and a Curator; and shall also elect not more than eight other Members, who (together with the above Officers) shall form the Committee, and have the management of the Society's affairs. That the Society shall also elect annually, at the same time with the Committee, two Members, not being Committee-men, to audit the Society's accounts. All vacancies during the year to be filled up as occasion shall require, in accordance with the provisions of this rule.

X. That the Committee on resigning office shall present to the Society a Report of their proceedings during the past year, and at the first Meeting in every Term the Treasurer's account for the preceding Term shall be produced and read; and that at every Meeting the minutes of the last preceding Meeting shall be produced and read.

XI. That at the commencement of every Academical year it shall be the duty of the Secretaries, or one of them, to draw up a list of the days of Meeting for the year, which after it has been approved of by the Committee shall be circulated among the Members, and that the Secretaries shall also give due notice of every Meeting a reasonable time before it occurs.

XII. That all extraordinary expenditure of the Society's funds shall be first approved of by the Committee and then submitted to a General Meeting: and that no such expenditure take place without having received the approbation of the majority of such Meeting.

XIII. That any Member taking out a Volume from the Library of the Society shall enter his name, the title of the book, and the date of his taking it out, and returning it, in a book kept at the Rooms for that purpose, under a penalty of the value of the volume taken; and that he shall not keep any such Volume out of the Library longer than one month, under a penalty of sixpence a week.

XIV. That no new law shall be passed, and no alteration made in any existing law, unless notice of the proposed new law or alteration, shall have been given at the preceding Meeting, such notice having first received the sanction of the Committee.

XV. That the Officer in the Chair shall be the sole interpreter of the Rules, and have unlimited authority on every question of order.

XVI. That each Member shall have the right of introducing a friend at any Meeting of the Society, which is not summoned for transaction of private business, by giving the name of such friend, in writing, to any member of the Committee then present.

XVII. That the Society shall from time to time admit other Societies of the like nature to the same privileges with respect to its Meetings and the use of its Rooms, as are granted to its own Members; the right of introducing a friend, and of voting, being excepted.

The Society invites its Members to examine every Ecclesiastical Building in their power, and to read Notes and exhibit Drawings thereof at the Meetings; to read before the Society Original Papers on any of the subjects connected with its design; and to contribute Books and Drawings to the Library and Portfolio.

[The Societies admitted into Union under Law XVII, are the Ecclesiological late Cambridge Camden Society, the Oxford Architectural Society, the Exeter Diocesan Architectural Society, the British and West of England Architectural Society, the Architectural Society for the Archdeaconry of Northampton, the Buckinghamshire Architectural Society, the New York Ecclesiological Society, and the Architectural Museum South Kensington.]
